

Mein Kek

A Compendium of 4chan's Humorous Posts and Memes in 5 Volumes

This being Volume the Third, covering subjects from 'Kikes [Part II]' to 'Niggers'

2nd and last edition of 2021

By A. Comp-Eiler

This compendium is a tribute to one of the last stronghold of “extreme free speech” in the world. Practically nowhere else are people free to say whatever is on their God damn mind, however stupid, offensive, or meaningless it may be.

They say we only appreciate what we have once we’ve lost it. Well, as anybody has witnessed these past few years, freedom of speech has been reduced to a trickle. And it will only get worse. As governments grow authoritarian/totalitarian, all sorts of freedoms we have taken for granted so far are going to vanish, if they have not done so already.

So let’s laugh one last time before the end of the world. Let’s laugh at minorities, at fake news, at people, alive or dead, at countries even. Let laughter be the catharsis to our loss of freedom.

RISUS OMNIA VINCIT

That moment when you realize this pleasant chuckle was predestined by God before He formed you in your mother's womb. He elected this chuckle for you.

THIS BOOK IS JUST LIKE LIFE: 100% SATIRE.

This pentalogy is dedicated to free speech. It was nice knowing you, bud.

This pentalogy – made by an anonymous /pol/ack from material collected not only on 4chan as the title indicates, but from several boards included 8chan/kun, 16chan, endchan... – is also dedicated to the countless anons who have contributed to free speech, posted something on any “extreme free speech” board, whether it is featured in this compendium or not. That you are not present in this trilogy does not mean I am not grateful for your contribution.

To the last free men...

Special shout-out to, in no particular order, ComposerAnon, BookAnon, Argiebro, Honktopia, Mr. Bond [F], Badgoy, Richard "Beebo" Russell [F], the Botanist who made me want to immortalize anons' wits and wisdom, the German wholesome poster, the Lithuanian – and other – redpiller, the Apu OC-ers, the British poster on book threads, the guy(s) at politicallyincorrectbase, Libgen, the FE Dane, the shills for proving every day that /pol/ is on the right track, the anon who put both Mein Kek and Gnothi Seauton up on archive[.org], the shitposters, the serious posters, the philosophers, and all anons in general. I wanted to thank you from the bottom of my heart for helping make this world a saner, freer place.

Si ius violandum est, librorum gratia violandum est.

Leonardo Bruni

Qui enim intelligit liberum oratio, non est explicandum.

Qui enim non intelligunt liberum oratio, non potest explicare.

Homo sum, humani nihil a me alienum puto.

Terence

My way of joking is to tell the truth. It's the funniest joke in the world.

George Bernard Shaw

Moral indignation is jealousy with a halo.

H. G. Wells

Censorship is telling a man he can't have a steak just because a baby can't chew it.

Mark Twain

The point of that story is that people who get offended by jokes are fucking stupid.

Anthony Jeselnik, Standards and Practices

Right and wrong, pleasure and pain, exist in mind only.
They are not your concern.
You neither do nor enjoy.
You are free.

3.11
Realizing the universe is illusion, having lost all curiosity, how can one of steady mind fear death?

9.3
Seeing all things as threefold suffering,
the sage becomes still.
Insubstantial, transient, contemptible-- the world is fit only for rejection.

1.8
The thought: "I am the doer" is the bite of a poisonous snake.
To know: "I do nothing" is the wisdom of faith.
Be happy.

3.14
He who is unattached,
untouched by opposites,
free of desire,
experiences neither pleasure nor pain
as events pass through.

9.4
Was there an age or time men existed without opposites?
Leave the opposites behind.
Be content with what comes.
Perfection.

15.2
Aversion to the world's offerings is liberation.
Attraction to the world's offerings is the suffering of bondage.
This is the truth.
Now do as you please.

15.3
This knowledge of Truth turns an eloquent, wise and active man
mute, empty and inert.
Lovers of the world therefore shun it.

18.82
Detached from desire, the sage neither praises peace nor blames the wicked.
Equally content in happiness and misery, he would not change a thing.

■ New final solution is to throw the Jews into Volcanos Anonymous (ID: XK4nEKo8) 04/10/18(Tue)04:06:55 No.167491752 ►
 >>167492041 >>167492081 >>167492498 >>167492589 >>167493557 >>167493688 >>167493714 >>167493742 >>167495097 >>167498222 >>167498225

We can use many volcanos for this, but It is also scientifically possible to throw them all into one volcano.

Take Mount Nyiragongo, Congo as a typical stratovolcano. The lava lake measures 1,300,000 sq. ft. and is up to 2,000 ft deep. That's 2,600,000,000 cubic feet of lava.

Could we throw all the world's Jews into it? There are some 15 million Jews on earth. The volume of an average human is 3.3 cubic foot. There are 50 million cubic feet of Jews in the world. That's only 2% of the volume of lava in Nyiragongo, so undoubtedly the Jews would all fit into Nyiragongo.

Would it burn the Jews to ashes? To raise one pound of water from 100 F to 212 F and then boil it takes 112 btu + 970.4 btu = 1084 btu. If we assume Jews are made of water, which is mostly true, to boil all the world's Jews away would take 1084 * 62.4 * 50,000,000 = 3,400,000,000,000 btu. The specific heat of the lava lake is 0.2 btu/lb * 187 lb/ft3 * 2,600,000,000 ft3 =

97,240,000,000 btu/degree. Throwing all the world's Jews into it would drop the lake's temperature by 35 degrees. The typical temperature is over 1,200F so it will probably stay liquid.

In short: it'll work. It would be both gas chamber and an oven. Both gas and burning fuel will be environmental friendly.

Even the kikes would like it as it won't cost a shekel. Win-win.

Laws against Holocaust denial

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Holocaust denial, the denial of the alleged^[1] systematic genocidal killing of, allegedly^[2], approximately six million Jews in Europe by Nazi Germany in the 1930s and 1940s, is illegal in 16 European countries and Israel. Many countries also have broader laws that criminalize genocide denial. Of the countries that ban Holocaust denial, some, such as Austria, Germany, Hungary, and Romania, were among the alleged^[3] perpetrators of the Holocaust, and many of these also ban other elements associated with Nazism, such as the expression of Nazi symbols.

Laws against Holocaust denial have been proposed in many nations (in addition to those nations that have criminalized such acts) including the United States and the United Kingdom. Such proposals for laws have received criticism and faced opposition, most significantly, from civil rights and human rights advocates who contend that the such laws would violate people's established rights of freedom of speech and freedom of expression. Organizations representing Jews and other groups victimized during the alleged^[4] Holocaust have generally been split, in opinion, about such laws.

the "burnt offering" to god was Dresden

HOLOCAUST, strictly a sacrifice wholly destroyed by fire. The word appears in Greek only in the Septuagint (Lev. 6. 23, in the form ὁλόκαυτον "the wholly-burnt thing"). Such are the sacrifices of the Jews, described in the Pentateuch as "whole burnt offerings" (see SACRIFICE).

here are the bombing stats for just Dresden:
In one day UK dropped a total of:
1,400 tons of high-explosive bombs
1,100 tons of incendiaries
In two days US dropped a total of :
3,750 tons of high-explosive bombs
more than 290 tons of incendiaries

HISTORY

Der Zyklon, whose name means "the cyclone" in German, was given the power to move at superhuman speed by scientists who served Germany's Third Reich.

Der Zyklon's first known mission for Nazi Germany was in 1942, when he aided his fellow operative, Baron Blitzkrieg (see Baron Blitzkrieg), in stealing the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia. Blitzkrieg and Zyklon were opposed by Johnny Quick, Liberty Belle (see Johnny Quick, Liberty Belle), and her friend and confidant, Tom Revere, the Bell's guard. Blitzkrieg knocked Revere towards a wall with a super-powerful blow. Johnny Quick tried to catch Revere before he hit the wall, but Zyklon prevented Quick from doing so. The impact of hitting the wall killed Revere instantly. Blitzkrieg attempted to kill Liberty Belle, who was determined to avenge Revere's death. Johnny Quick tried to get Liberty Belle to safety, but they were pursued by Zyklon, who defeated him. Zyklon would probably have killed both Quick and Liberty Belle, had the Nazi not fled instead in order to avoid encountering the original Flash (see Flash I), who was approaching. Blitzkrieg and Zyklon escaped, taking the Liberty Bell with them.

Blitzkrieg wanted the Bell because it contained strange energies. Blitzkrieg intended to use machinery to magnify the energy of lightning bolts during an electrical storm, which would cause the Bell to produce powerful vibrations that would both cure the psychologically-induced blindness from which he then suffered, and then destroy Philadelphia.

Blitzkrieg and Zyklon were about to bring his plans to fruition during an electrical storm when they were found by Liberty Belle and Hawkgirl (see Hawkgirl). The two women battled Zyklon, and Liberty Belle was holding onto one of Blitzkrieg's machines when the lightning bolt struck that produced the vibrations from the Liberty Bell. Unexpectedly, the vibrations also gave Liberty Belle the power to project sonic pulses. Liberty Belle used her new power to overcome Blitzkrieg and to hurl Zyklon towards the arriving Flash and Johnny Quick. Quick struck Zyklon down, but Blitzkrieg and Zyklon escaped almost immediately. The two Nazi agents had not succeeded in destroying Philadelphia, and the Liberty Bell was restored to its proper place.

The rest of Zyklon's career has yet to be recorded.

POWERS & WEAPONS

Der Zyklon possesses the power to move at superhuman speed. The upper limit to the velocity he can reach is as yet unknown. Der Zyklon's superhuman endurance enables him to run great distances without tiring.

Presumably Zyklon possesses an aura of unknown energy that protects him from friction heat and the other adverse effects of moving at super-speed.

There is no evidence that Zyklon possesses absolute control of his body's atoms and molecules. If he does not, then he cannot vibrate his atoms so that he can pass through solid objects without damaging them, as the Flashes can. □

I don't understand why people keep arguing about the numbers. I think we can all agree it was a tragedy no matter how many died. The fact that even a single jew survived is completely unacceptable.

One hitler shall henceforth be a unit of measurement equal to 6.0×10^6 human deaths. Standard SI prefixes apply. Thus Harold Shipman's achievements amount to 36 microhitlers. The true utility of the hitler as an SI unit is it allows useful unit conversions. For example: the EPA currently values a human life as being worth 6.9 million us dollars (6.9 megadollars). A simple unit conversion thus gives us 1 hitler is equivalent to - 41,400,000,000,000 dollars. (-41 teradollars). It can therefore be quantitatively established whether or not someone is "worse than hitler". When congress failed to pass a stimulus bill in 2008 the market lost 1.2 trillion dollars in 1 day, roughly equivalent to 29 millihitlers. Joseph Stalin is the only human I know of who can be called worse than hitler, as his achievements clocked roughly 5 hitlers. When your bank nails you with a 35 dollar fine, you can confidently tell the teller that they are currently fucking you over to the tune of 84 picohitlers and ask if they have a very tiny auschwitz behind the counter.

When congress failed to pass a stimulus bill in 2008 the market lost 1.2 trillion dollars in 1 day, roughly equivalent to 29 millihitlers. Joseph Stalin is the only human I know of who can be called worse than hitler, as his achievements clocked roughly 5 hitlers. When your bank nails you with a 35 dollar fine, you can confidently tell the teller that they are currently fucking you over to the tune of 84 picohitlers and ask if they have a very tiny auschwitz behind the counter.

/pol/'s Razor

If the Holohoax actually happened, and the Allies really did save jews from evil gas chambers, jews should be building monuments to their White rescuers and singing their praises. Instead, they write article after article, policy after policy, about how all Whites need to be sterilized and exterminated. They are ungrateful to their liberators. Men charged into machine gun fire to save them, and now they're telling the generations that came after that they all deserve to die for the crime of being White.

Thus begs the following questions:

If the Holohoax was real, and jews hate their liberators, doesn't that prove Hitler right about them?

Or alternatively, if jews feel free to attack their liberators and have no guilt in doing so, doesn't that prove the Holohoax never happened?

If the holocaust happened

- >whites of differing ideology and nationality unite to save jews
- >Jews spend the next 75 years spreading anti-white ideas and suicidal levels of immigration as thanks
- >Hitler right

If the Holocaust didn't happen

- >Jews tried to kill Germans the only way they could (subversion)
- >Germans make them do work and many died to starvation and disease
- >godless capitalists and communists unite to return them to their cushioned position as bankers and entertainers and the jews repeat the cycle with all whites this time
- >Hitler right

"The Tribunal shall NOT require PROOF OF FACTS of common knowledge but shall take judicial notice thereof."

Article 21 of the Statutes of the

Out of 139 German witnesses who testified that the Holocaust had occurred, the British Medical Officer recorded that 137 had "damage to their testicles that is beyond repair." A number of Germans had died under interrogation by the Allies. There was also the threat of sending peoples' families to Soviet Gulags.

TIL: a holocaust denial group offered $50k to anyone who could prove that gas chambers were used to intentionally kill people at Auschwitz. They were forced by a judge to pay the money, and an additional $40k, to Auschwitz survivor Mel Mermelstein who gave proof of that very fact. (smithsonianmag.com)

↓ The offer:

The Institute for Historical Review publicly offered a reward of $50,000 for verifiable "proof that gas chambers for the purpose of killing human beings existed at or in Auschwitz."

The "proof":

In California, the Evidence Code permits the Court to take judicial notice of "facts and propositions of generalized knowledge that are so universally known that they cannot reasonably be the subject of dispute."

Now I'm not a holocaust denier, but this is very disappointing and seems like a major legal loophole. They technically weren't able to prove that the gas chambers existed, which is pretty surprising. I would think this should be quite easy to prove with all the photos I remember seeing in the Holocaust museums as a kid.

The legal loophole they used seems incredibly dangerous and reminds me of the many historical blunders of "common sense", such as thinking the earth was flat, that it was at the center of the universe, countless religious ideas, etc.

↓ IIRC the judge didn't look at evidence, he basically just said "the holocaust obviously happened lad" and gave the survivor guy some cash money.

"Ay, Tone. What kinda death camp puts on Beethoven concerts?"

"Ay, Tone. How'd da gas stay in if da door is made of wood?"

"Ay, Tone. So da Franks was transferred to multiple camps. Shouldn't they have whacked her first time? Doesn't seem very efficient."

"Aye, Tone. If it was a death camp then why was so many broads havin' babies?"

"Ay, Tone. You know Anne Frank's diary was written with ballpoint pen? Dey didn't even have dose yet. Dats some Leonardo Da Vinci shit."

"Ay, Tone. Why's it got a hospital there if dey all just gonna die?"

"Ay, Tone. You tink Michael Phelps woulda made da Auschwitz swimmin' team?"

Daily reminder that Jewish Dr. Roger Dommergue Polacco de Menasce mercilessly and completely debunked the "holocaust" in his book "Le Silence de Heidegger", which hasn't seen a rebuttal to this day.

His 10 main points are:

- 1- The evidence gathered by the Zündel trials, especially the Leuchter Report.
- 2- The fact that only about 3.5 million Jews lived in Europe during that period according to the American Jewish Year Book.
- 3- The evidence presented by professor Robert Faurisson, which the Jews refused to debate in public.
- 4- Paul Rassinier's testimony affirming that he had never heard of gasings during his imprisonment in German concentration camps, only after the war.
- 5- Henri Roques' debunking of the Gerstein Report.
- 6- The forgery of photos of the last three months of the war with fake captions.
- 7- The blatant psychological, arithmetical and technical imposture of the "6 million Jews gassed" figure.
- 8- How the Human Rights Movement never expresses opposition to the crimes of Marxism (Jewish-Bolshevism), yet keeps bringing up the "6 million holocausted Jews".
- 9- Why does the modern political paranoia judges the 60 million genocided by the Marxist Jew Lazar Kaganovich and his comrades, among whom was Joseph Stalin, to be somehow inferior to the alleged 6 million exterminated by Adolf Hitler?
- 10- The work of revisionist historians is perfectly valid, for they will help demystify the incredible hysteria and bad faith that the "six million in the gas chambers" theme provokes.

He also mentions the opinions of Jews opposed to the "holocaust" ruse like G. J. Burg, Miss Grossmann, Benedit Kautsky, Jacob Timermam and Leon Jick.

Seriously, the holocaust is not up to debate anymore. It's been exhaustively proven to be a fraud. We've fallen into a spiral of silence though, for speaking against this deception is forbidden by law.

This is what you have to believe in order to believe the official holocaust narrative, get strapped for it.

- >Despite a 5 year long policy of encouraging Jewish emigration away from his grasp, Adolf Hitler always wanted to kill all Jewish on the face of the earth.
- >For some reason, it took him 8 years in power to realize it was about time to get started.
- >He then proceed to move Jews from all over Europe to Poland instead of just exterminating them locally.
- >Yes, even the 400 000 Jews that lived in France, despite the existence of dozens of internment camps in France that could just be modified for the task this still somehow makes logistical sense, don't judge.
- >Arriving at the camp, Jews were stripped naked and foiled into thinking it was shower time, they were all gassed for about a hour, after that a group of Jewish collaborators soaked the bodies with water hoses to release the gas from the clothing and they were all hauled to the furnaces.
- >Yes, Jewish collaborators, despite knowing their were all going to die somehow Jews were convinced to be the manpower in most of their own extermination process, this somehow worked flawlessly without any sizable revolts and this ultra efficient system killed about 200 thousand people per month.
- >While estimates put the number of guards necessary in the soviet GULAG system to be around 1 million strong, Germans somehow managed to murder 6 million Jews using almost no German manpower, which was much in need in the front, hooray for German efficiency !
- >Then the bodies were shaved and the hair processed to be used for clothing
- >Lice ? what lice ?
- >The bodies were then burned in ultra hot industrial furnaces that worked almost around the clock, nevermind the waste in metal, fuel or industrial capacity for the building of all the specialized machinery involved WHILE A FUCKING WAR IS STILL BEING FOUGHT TO A LOSING END !
- >As the allied advance approached, the heavily armed fleeing Germans somehow failed to exterminate all unarmed semi-starved Jews still left in the camp because they always left "in a hurry".

The holocaust makes no logical sense, problem is, most people think "racism" makes no logical sense, so in their minds it all checks out.

It's not about the reality of mass deaths or graves, the efficiency of the crematoria, or the documentary/photographic evidence. These are all red herrings that shills endlessly resort to.*

But there's a silver bullet that no one mentions and they are not prepared to address: cremulation.

>Contrary to popular belief, the cremated remains are not ashes in the usual sense. After the incineration is completed, the dry bone fragments are swept out of the retort and pulverised by a machine called a Cremulator—essentially a high-capacity, high-speed blender—to process them into "ashes" or "cremated remains".... The grinding process typically takes about 20 seconds.

>https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cremation#Burning_and_ashes_collection

><https://web.archive.org/save/https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cremation>

The Goy's Gauntlet:

A) Demonstrate that the Topf & Söhne Kremas (or any of the camps) included provisions for cremulation, and a rational person should be more inclined to believe the official narrative.

B) Conversely, demonstrate that all known records of the crematoria and camps lack provisions for cremulation, and you will have effectively disproven the official narrative.

>all known records of the crematoria and camps lack provisions for cremulation

>this fact alone refutes the Holohoax

C) For, if the furnaces did not cremulate the alleged remains, then we should have found literal tons of teeth and bone fragments.

D) If, however, the Nazis did think to cremulate the corpses, then we should find this in the crematoria blueprints and artifacts.

E) In the event someone proves that the camps did indeed have provisions for cremulation, then the inquiry pivots to exploring E1) how so much decomposing ash affects the surrounding soil and E2) why no one has mentioned cremulation till now.

How do you recognise a foundation myth? It fulfils three functions.

- 1)It explains the origin and structure of the world (and society).
- 2)It defines ultimate good and evil (and from those definitions are derived the values that are used to justify the holding of power).
- 3)It determines what is held sacred in that society.

For modern Westerners the story of WWII has become their foundation myth. It fulfils all three functions.

- 1)We live in the 'Post-War World'. The lines on the map, the institutions, the sense of what era we live in, all arise from the starting point of WWII.
- 2)Ultimate evil is Nazis. Ultimate good is opposing Nazis. The values derived from these definitions are anti-racism, equality, diversity, anti-nationalism and so on.
- 3)The only thing that is held sacred, that cannot be denied or mocked in the contemporary West, is the Holocaust.

The problem is that all three functions are backwards or negative.

Instead of the origin event being one of fertility and new life, it was a conflagration of death and destruction.

Instead of ultimate good taking the central position in the story that slot is occupied by ultimate evil. Everyone knows that Adolf Hitler, the personification of evil, holds the centre point of the WWII story.

Instead of that which is held sacred being something mysterious and sublime it (the Holocaust) is an obscenity.

Having a negative foundation myth means the tree of life for Westerners is poisoned.

The aim?
To own society, to direct it and form it.
They are forming a global "hivemind", stitching it up by force, destroying the foundations The West stands upon to appropriate the fate of Man.

They want to subvert human free will to a thoughtform they control.
People will become a hivemind controlled by a Queen, A metaphysical Queen, An Idea, a Meme, that permeates all others.

Thats why there is no shadow group, working together to bring forth this plan. Its multiple of groups that can operate independantly in action, yet still in unison because they are all following the thought form, the Meme.

They act independant from one another, yet their global actions are a trend to the same fate they have proposed to manifest.

The best strategy for a collectivist group like the Jews for destroying Europeans therefore is to convince the Europeans of their own moral bankruptcy.

A major theme of CofC is that this is exactly what Jewish intellectual movements have done. They have presented Judaism as morally superior to European civilization and European civilization as morally bankrupt and the proper target of altruistic punishment. The consequence is that once Europeans are convinced of their own moral depravity, they will destroy their own people in a fit of altruistic punishment. The general dismantling of the culture of the West and eventually its demise as anything resembling an ethnic entity will occur as a result of a moral onslaught triggering a paroxysm of altruistic punishment. And thus the intense effort among Jewish intellectuals to continue the ideology of the moral superiority of Judaism and its role as undeserving historical victim while at the same time continuing the onslaught on the moral legitimacy of the West.

Individualist societies are therefore an ideal environment for Judaism as a highly collectivist, group-oriented strategy. Indeed, a major theme of Chapter 5 is that the Frankfurt School of Social Research advocated radical individualism among non-Jews while at the same time retaining their own powerful group allegiance to Judaism. Jews benefit from open, individualistic societies in which barriers to upward mobility are removed, in which people are viewed as individuals rather than as members of groups, in which intellectual discourse is not prescribed by institutions like the Catholic Church that are not dominated by Jews, and in which mechanisms of altruistic punishment may be exploited to divide the European majority. This is also why, apart from periods in which Jews served as middlemen between alien elites and native populations, Middle Eastern societies were much more efficient than Western individualistic societies at keeping Jews in a powerless position where they did not pose a competitive threat (see MacDonald 1998a, Ch. 2).

A CRUDE CULTURE MAKES a coarse people, and private refinement cannot long survive public excess. There is a Gresham's law of culture as well as of money: the bad drives out the good, unless the good is defended.

In no country has the process of vulgarisation gone further than in Britain: in this, at least, we lead the world. A nation famed not so long ago for the restraint of its manners is now notorious for the coarseness of its appetites and its unbridled and antisocial attempts to satisfy them. The mass drunkenness seen on weekends in the centre of every British town and city, rendering them unendurable to even minimally civilised people, goes hand in hand with the appallingly crude, violent, and shallow relations between the sexes. Britain's mass bastardy is not a sign of an increase in the authenticity of our human relations but a natural consequence of the unbridled hedonism that leads in short order to chaos and misery, especially among the poor. Take restraint away, and violent discord follows.

Curiously enough, the revolution in British manners did not come about through any volcanic eruption from below: on the contrary, it was the intellectual wing of the elite that kicked against the traces. It is still doing so, though there are very few traces left to kick against.

For example, the boundless prurience of the British press concerning the private lives of public figures, especially politicians, has an ideological aim: to subvert the very concept and deny the possibility of virtue, and therefore of the necessity for restraint. If every person who tries to defend virtue is revealed to have feet of clay (as which of us does not?) or to have indulged at some time in his life in the vice that is the opposite of the virtue he calls for, then virtue itself is exposed as nothing but hypocrisy: and we may therefore all behave exactly as we choose. The loss of the religious understanding of the human condition—that Man is a fallen creature for whom virtue is necessary but never fully attainable—is a loss, not a gain, in true sophistication. The secular substitute—the belief in the perfection of life on earth by the endless extension of a choice of pleasures—is not merely callow by comparison but much less realistic in its understanding of human nature.

Here's an interesting rebuttal to the idea that religion is only about shaming vice. We are humanized by elevating ourselves above the animal state through self control. The Repression Myth - the idea that religion condemned all natural compulsions to the point of outright banning them - was so false not even the puritans expected it of people. Each vice has its expectation of public control and private release. Marriage for lust, holiday feasts for sloth and gluttony. But those who relinquish the need for such discipline, the sexual revolutionaries for example, reduce life to its crudest and most vulgar common denominator out of some misguided belief that what is more biological is also more true. I see the religious understanding as a way of introducing a civilized control over those appetites which will only ever grow with the feeding.

Propagating virtue hardly insinuates there can be no more cake and ale, but he who is guided by something greater than his base urges is truly free from them.

I deny the holocaust as an act of religious practice. It scares away anyone still plugged into the Matrix, like showing the cross to a demon. To unenlightened minds, the denial of the holocaust is the ultimate sacrilege. It is essentially the modern version of desecrating the eucharist, as was done by occultists in the middle ages. The act symbolizes ones total renouncement of this physical reality, as it is an incantation that can only be uttered by someone with no attachment to this world, due to the social consequences. What other phrase has such power?

The holocaust never happened.

Imagine walking through a Nazi death camp. Above you is a bunch of Jews screaming on a roller coaster that leads into ovens. To your right you see a cage with a bear and a eagle in it. They throw a Jew into the cage. The bear kills him/her and the eagle picks the Jews bones clean. You keep walking and come across the masturbation room. You walk in out of curiosity. You see a line of masturbation machines with Jews strapped in them. They're all being jacked off to death. You move on, passing by the drowning pool where several Jews are being made to swim non-stop until they expire and their bodies hit the floor. Out of nowhere you hear screams as Nazis are throwing newborn babies in the air and shooting them with machine guns for target practice. They're skeet shooting but with Jew babies. You come across the electrocution room. Jews are crammed in. The floor lowers into a pool of water and electrocutes them. The floor rises again and they're electrocuted until there's nothing left of them but ashes. Finally you come across the shower room. Naked Jews are ushered in through the rickety wooden door by a middle-aged Italian looking man with hair wings and a heavy New Jersey accent. You watch them through the windows as they find out the shower heads are fake. Instead of water a pesticide for typhus called zyklon B comes out in a gas form and this somehow kills them. You go home knowing the Nazis are the most evil people to ever live.

"Ay Tone. What kinda sick fuck puts a rollacoasta inna death camp?"

"800 to 900 yards from the place where the ovens were, the prisoners were squeezed into little cars that ran on rails. In Auschwitz these cars had various dimensions and could hold up to 15 people. As soon as a car was loaded, it would be set in motion on an inclined plane that traveled at full speed down a corridor. At the end of the corridor there was a wall, and in the wall was the door to the oven. As soon as the car hit the wall, the door opened automatically, and the car would dip forward and pitch its cargo of living people into the oven. Right behind it came another car with another load, and so on." (101)

What can we say of his declarations of 29th September 1980 before Maitre Pierre Atrial, a Paris notary, other than that, because of his age and what he had suffered there remained only vague pictures in his mind, difficult to describe. What can we say of David Szmielewski who was attributed the merit of having clandestinely photographed in August 1944, gassings and incinerations in Krematorium V, and who, having claimed that he had climbed on the roof of the Krematorium to operate, was deprived during the 60s of the paternity of these photographs taken on the ground, except that he was the sole survivor of this exploit. What can we say about former Krematorium III Sonderkommando member David Olerie coolly telling me in 1981 that the SS made sausages of human flesh [Kremawurst] except that he was still living in the nightmare that had been imposed on him and recounted anything that came into his head, whereas I held in my hands his own drawings of 1945-47 which are masterpieces of authenticity. Set Stage: Holstein escaped from Auschwitz twice. This scene has him hiding in a cave with his two friends.

Quote:

I opened my eyes; the wolves were back, coming in through the entrance to the cave. One went straight to the cubs; she had something in her mouth. The other came towards us, growling softly, until he was directly in front of us. We cowered back into one another. Suddenly with an almighty heave, the wolf vomited. I stared in horror, recoiling.

"I think he wants us to eat that," said Erhardt.

"What! Are you nuts?" exclaimed Mikhail. "Are you going to eat that slime?" he turned to me.

"I don't know, I am so hungry."

"Yeuch!" I reached over and picked up a bit. It was slimy but not foul or smelly. I put it in my mouth.

Well?" asked Erhardt.

"It's fine, it doesn't have a different taste to anything really. Try it. At least it's food."

"How can this happen?" wondered Erhardt as he took a mouthful. "Do you think that God has provided this for us?"

"Mikhail, try it. It's not bad at all. It's not even sandy even though the wolf vomited it up on the sand."

Gingerly, he reached out and ate what the wolf had deposited for us.

"What has God got in store for us?" asked Erhardt suddenly, "is he saving us for something special or just looking out for us?"

Holstein is recaptured and subjected to Masturbation Machines

In Stolen Soul Holstein talks about how Nazi doctors attempted to prove Aryan superiority by collecting Jewish semen with masturbating machines that often killed their subjects.

Quote...(page 117)

But we never gave in, not really; there was that one time just before liberation but other than that we were strong. We would see the boys they put on those masturbating machines just drop, just die, right there in front of us. The absolute cruelty was beyond our belief.

That they could do these things to us, that human beings were doing it to other human beings... and we would hobble back to camp with painfully swollen scrotums whimpering: "Don't bump me! Please, just don't touch me!"

But we never gave in, not really; there was that one time just before liberation but other than that we were strong. We would see the boys they put on those masturbating machines just drop, just die, right there in front of us. The absolute cruelty was beyond our belief.

BEN
GARRISON

At the The Trial of Adolf Eichmann in Jerusalem in 1961, Eichmann testified the following:

"But I also remember today driving through Lemberg, on the outskirts, and seeing for the first time something I had never seen before, namely a fountain of blood. I passed a site where Jews had been shot some time before and where - apparently as a result of the pressure of the gasses - the blood was shooting out of the earth like a fountain."

LURED BY SUGAR & CHOCOLATES 500,000 Children in Gas Chambers

A MAN who spent nearly six years in German prisons and concentration camps told a story in London to-day which can vie with anything that Edgar Allan Poe ever wrote for stark horror.

He was Dr. George Sawicki, who is a member of the War Crimes Commission, Attorney-General of Poland, and was chief prosecutor in the Majdanek trials.

Dr. Sawicki was in Majdanek with his wife and parents. His wife escaped with him, but when fighting with the Polish underground movement she was killed in a battle with S.S. men. They were six months in Majdanek, where, he said, the length of life given to a person imprisoned was not more than 20 days.

It was the first camp to build gas chambers, and he saw them experiment with many kinds of gas, each intended for a different country.

"There were separate gas chambers for children," said Dr. Sawicki, "and in them 500,000 died—Poles, Russians, Jews and Czechs."

The Germans built a separate sort of grandstand which they ironically called "The garden of roses," and from this martyrs were enforced to look upon crowds of children going into the gas chambers.

"They lured the children into the gas chambers by giving them sugar and chocolate."

The S.S. men even staged horror exhibitions. On a Sunday crowds of German women would be brought into the camp to look upon the atrocities.

"We have a mass of photographs showing German women laughing at Poles and Jews being put to death."

Dr. Sawicki said that when they were searching for collaborationists they found a high-ranking German officer living as a civilian in a small Polish town. He pretended that he was not a German soldier, and said he was a British subject.

He stated that he was a former correspondent of an English newspaper. The man's name must be kept secret, as the whole matter was being investigated by the British Embassy. He had not yet been charged with any war crime, but was held as a German officer who had escaped from the camp.

Nazis killed my great-grandmas friend in Belgium by putting him in a giant freezer, he fell out and broke into pieces in front of her...

A nazi gave my great grandpa a cigar once, he lit it and it exploded in his face. He was angered and chased the nazi so fast that they both ran off of a cliff and continued running straight ahead as if to defy gravity. When the nazi noticed there was no hard soil beneath them he stopped and pointed down into the void to alert my great grandpa. My great grandpa jumped in shock, desperately grabbing at air before finally pulling a picket sign from his back that read the word "Yikes!" and plummeted to his doom, leaving a hole in the ground in the shape of his body.

Inside the Concentration Camps

"To speed things up, the Germans started burning children and old people alive. This I can state with absolute certainty because I saw it at the place where I was." (10)

"The flames then spread across this mass of living humanity." (123)

"The victims were pitched directly into the white-hot fire." (57)

"The victims were thrown in naked and then doused with gasoline, which was then ignited." (123)

"In the camp there were patients who, when their condition worsened, were sent alive to the ovens." (24)

"The head of the crematory, a high-ranking officer, bound a Polish woman hand and foot and threw her into the oven alive." (111)

"With my own eyes I saw how the SS burned alive 14 Russian and 5 Polish officers, all in uniform." (51)

"In May 1944, 100 Jews from Athens, who unanimously refused to work in the 'special squads,' were killed on the spot; some shot, the others burned alive." (102)

"In March 1945, 500 people were killed by being thrown alive into the oven." (24)

"800 to 900 yards from the place where the ovens were, the prisoners were squeezed into little cars that ran on rails. In Auschwitz these cars had various dimensions and could hold up to 15 people. As soon as a car was loaded, it would be set in motion on an inclined plane that traveled at full speed down a corridor. At the end of the corridor there was a wall, and in the wall was the door to the oven. As soon as the car hit the wall, the door opened automatically, and the car would dip forward and pitch its cargo of living people into the oven. Right behind it came another car with another load, and so on." (101)

"It often happened that little children, still alive, were mixed in with the dead and thrown onto dump trucks." (104)

"Many eyewitness reports confirm that children were thrown alive into the ditches." (86)

"In one shipment there was a Polish Jewish woman who had a very pretty three-year-old daughter. The woman was aware of the existence of the gas chamber at Auschwitz and knew what fate awaited her. When the squad leader came past her, she begged him, since she knew she had to die, to spare her child. The squad leader flew into a rage and said: 'Damned Jew, I don't take orders from you.' He then grabbed the child by the breast and carried her to the oven while the mother ran after him screaming. He ordered the door of the oven opened and threw the child in alive." (90)

"They threw living children up to the age of ten into the ovens. Children under 90 pounds were sent automatically to the ovens." (20)

"In one shipment there were almost 400 children who were burned alive." (23)

"Ay, Tone. You know Anne Frank's diary was written with ballpoint pen? Dey didn't even have dose yet. Dats some Leonardo Da Vinci shit."

In 1980, because of a lawsuit in a German court, the German state forensic bureau, the Bundes Kriminal Amt (BKA), forensically examined the original "diary" manuscript. Their analysis determined that "significant" portions of the work were written with a ballpoint pen. Since ballpoint pens were not available before 1951, portions of the work were added well after the war (Anne Frank died in March 1945).

The BKA also determined that none of the "diary" handwriting matched known examples of Anne's handwriting. Earlier handwriting experts had determined that all of the writing in the "diary" was by the same hand. Therefore, the entire "diary" was a post-war fake.

The true author of the diary was Jewish novelist Meyer Levin, who demanded and was awarded $50,000 in payment for his work in a court action against Anne's father, Otto Frank.

You know Levin and Rubin and Cohen and Kaplan
Goldberg and Weinstein and Schumer and Freidman
But do you recall?
The most famous hook nose of all?

Moishe the hook nosed merchant
Had an inbred khazar nose
And whites soon start to notice
Trouble where Moishe's tribe goes
All of the actual white folk Started being stern and frank
When they saw sneaky Moishe
Take over governments and banks

Then in Berlin 33
Hitler rose to fame
Moische with your nose so thick
We've had it with your jewish tricks

Then how the Aryans pushed him
On a cattle car with Berg and Witz
Moishe the hooknosed merchant
Enjoy your trip to Auschwitz

We bring chutzpah and pilpul to the Senate floor
At synagogue we edit Epstein's kiddie porn
And if that ain't enough to make you flip your lid
Let me tell you bout Hilldog and frazzledrip

We traffick boys and girls through Comet Ping Pong too,
And suckle brit milah blood to restore our youth
We batter fry the foreskins (oy, they're hard to chew!)
And use our influence to wreck the goyim youth

It's my little jews coup

Bumping with lyrics to 'Antisemite' well i heard there was a secret word that the jews would use if they ever heard an ounce of criticism laid against them it goes like this its you and you

its the goyim and its the niggers too its everyone against them antisemite

antisemite x4

you said no way, that you needed proof that everyone should know the truth that the number 6 gorillion doesnt add up you tried to show the cold hard math they talk about electric baths and anyone who questions
antisemite

(chorus)

now baby ive been here before ive browsed these threads and ive lurked these boards i thought i was alone before i knew ya but the shills came in and tried to derail the threads about lifting the veil the only word they used was antisemite

(chorus)

well there was a time where i didnt know what was really going on below the layers of lies and propaganda but then i checked the early life on wikipedia, every time and if you bring it up youre an antisemite

Jews 'forced' to leave Guatemala village

The Lev Tahor members have been packing their belongings over the last several days

Some 230 members of an Orthodox Jewish group have begun leaving a village in western Guatemala after a bitter row with the local indigenous community.

The Lev Tahor members were asked to leave San Juan La Laguna after meetings with elders of the Mayan community.

The elders accused the Jews of shunning the villagers and imposing their religion and customs.

The Lev Tahor had settled in the village six years ago as the group searched for religious freedom.

Your son has been expelled 109 times?

Yes but it's never been his fault, it's always the schools persecuting him for no reason.

In light of the anti-semitic filth shared by the FBI, let me remind everyone that every anti-semitic trope is equally true about, say, Italians.

This is not to single out Italians; rather, it is to point out that fevered, paranoid hate can find any tether hooks into an ethnic group.

When you get thrown out of nearly every major civilization in history because you wouldn't assimilate and say it's because of anti-Semitism and finally find a willing puppet to give you your own state with set borders but that isn't enough so you cry more anti-Semitism and get free shekels so that you can forcibly take more land but that's not enough so you subvertly work to destroy the puppet state that gave you power.

State of Judea

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

This article is about the modern proposal for secession. For the similarly-named autonomous province of the Achaemenid (ancient Persia) empire, see Yehud Medinata.

The State of Judea (Hebrew: מְדִינַת יְהוּדָה, Medinat Yehuda) is a proposed halachic state in the West Bank put forward by Israeli Jewish settlers. After the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO) declared the existence of a Palestinian state in 1988, some settler activists (primarily Kahanists) feared that international pressure would lead Israel to withdraw from the West Bank and sought to lay the groundwork for an Orthodox Jewish state in the West Bank if this came to pass. The establishment of this state was announced in a Jerusalem hotel on December 27, 1988. Veteran Kahanist, Michael Ben-Horin, was declared president of the state of Judea.^[1] In January 1989 several hundred activists met and announced their intention to create such a state if Israel withdrew.^{[2][3][4][5][6]}

The idea was revived following the unilateral disengagement plan which resulted in the forcible withdrawal of Jewish settlers from Gaza by the Israeli Defense Force in 2005. In 2007 Rabbi Shalom Dov Wolpo suggested the establishment of a new state in the West Bank in the event of Israeli withdrawal.^{[7][8]}

Flag

The flag of Judea is very similar to the flag of Israel. Like the flag of Israel, it depicts a blue symbol on a white background, between two horizontal blue stripes, but unlike the flag of Israel the symbol is a Menorah instead of a Star of David. Another version features a Star of David of a different sort than appears on the flag of Israel, together with some other symbols.^[9]

tidr - ultraorthodox jews violate every single covid restriction imposed by the israeli government. last night police officers were attacked while trying to enforce restrictions in a haredi neighborhood and the haredim cry about anudda shoah since march 20 the haredi jews are doing pretty much whatever they want. while schools are closing, haredi schools (talmud torah) were kept open and they did not even try to hide it. prime minister netanyahu had to literally BEG rabbi kanievsky (basically the most respected rabbi in the eyes of haredi jews) to tell his followers to obey the restriction. during the last month a plethora of videos showing how haredi jews continue with their lives while the rest of the country is under strict lockdown (non-essentials are closed, cant leave 1km radius of your house). i am talking schools, shops, weddings and social gatherings. last night police finally did what it should've done a long time ago and entered a haredi neighborhood to enforce restrictions and got brutally attacked. pic related is from last night and the caption is "israeli george floyd"

(and obviously attacked back). now social media is filled with anti-police and anti-zionist posts. it seems like israel finally has the chance the become the 110th and deport those useless retards.

<https://twitter.com/yosefhdzadik/status/1352491735377719297>

retards who are not able to grasp the concept that there's a major difference between haredi and non-haredi jews need not reply, this is a serious discussion.

Crikey this kikey has an abnormally large horn for her sex and species. It's no wonder all the smaller males are showing off their watches and sideburns trying to lure her in. She seems more interested in the darker skinned males nearby than in her own kind, though. I've never seen a more fascinating specimen. I'm going in!

The book of Agulah, written in 843 A.D. by a monk named Aed states that God punished Judas by restoring his life after he had hanged himself. Aed writes that God in his fury condemned Judas to walk the earth until the final days. Judas would fear the sun and be cursed to roam the land in darkness. Judas would never again know the comfort of death and would be damned to only feeding on the blood of living humans for eternity.

The fact that the uncanny valley exists is existentially terrifying

The uncanny valley is where we are scared by things that look almost human but aren't. Other animals do not experience the uncanny valley effect and will accept things that look like them with little issue. That means that at some point in our evolution, running away from things that looked almost human was advantageous enough to be imprinted on our genetics. What the fuck were we that scared of?

My God

In the following account from the Book of Judges, the Israelite warrior Jephthah is about to set off to make war on the Ammonites. In payment for victory, Jephthah promises LORD God he will sacrifice the first "whatsoever" that comes from his house to greet him upon his return. Unless Jephthah keeps oxen, sheep, goats, or chickens in his living room, he must expect the promised victim will be a human being. Notice that Jephthah does not promise to sacrifice "an ox" or "a goat," etc. (7)

30. And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands,

— Judges 11:30-31 (KJV)

The first to pass through the doors of Jephthah's house upon his return is his only child, his beloved daughter.

34. And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35. And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I cannot go back.

— Judges 11:34-35 (KJV)

Let us reflect for a moment. We know Jephthah vowed to LORD God to sacrifice "whatsoever" first came out of the door of his house. We suspect Jephthah plans to sacrifice one of his servants. But when the "whatsoever" turned out to be Jephthah's daughter, Jephthah is surprised. Notice his daughter's reaction:

36. And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

— Judges 11:36 (KJV)

She expresses no surprise that LORD God would accept a human sacrifice, nor does she protest; she does not say, "Father, let's use some common sense. You know LORD God is dead set against human sacrifice. He must have thought an ox would meet you on your return, or perhaps a goat, or one of the chickens. There must be a misunderstanding." Instead, she urges her father to keep his promise. She says:

37. And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

Jephthah agrees:

38. And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months; and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39. And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel.

40. That the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

— Judges 11:38-40 (KJV)

None but perfect animals are permitted to be ritually sacrificed in Judaism. Notice that Jephthah's daughter, too, is a perfect sacrifice — she is a virgin. Notice that LORD God does not stop this human sacrifice, as he stopped the sacrifice of Abraham's son.

The Old Testament does not specify how Jephthah sacrifices his daughter, but following the correct methods for animal sacrifice, he would slit her throat first and drain her blood into a Temple service vessel; cut off her arms, legs, and head; cut the torso in sections, remove her entrails and wash them; pour, sprinkle, and smear her blood at prescribed points around the altar; and burn the flesh. Or of course, a priest might do this for him. Read Animal Sacrifice and the Third Temple for details. (1)

30. And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands,

31. Then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

— Judges 11:30-31 (KJV)

The first to pass through the doors of Jephthah's house upon his return is his only child, his beloved daughter.

Let us reflect for a moment. We know Jephthah vowed to LORD God to sacrifice "whatsoever" first came out of the door of his house. We suspect Jephthah plans to sacrifice one of his servants. But when the "whatsoever" turned out to be Jephthah's daughter, Jephthah is surprised. Notice his daughter's reaction:

36. And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

— Judges 11:36 (KJV)

She expresses no surprise that LORD God would accept a human sacrifice, nor does she protest; she does not say, "Father, let's use some common sense. You know LORD God is dead set against human sacrifice. He must have thought an ox would meet you on your return, or perhaps a goat, or one of the chickens. There must be a misunderstanding." Instead, she urges her father to keep his promise. She says:

37. And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

Jephthah agrees:

38. And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39. And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel,

40. That the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

— Judges 11:38-40 (KJV)

None but perfect animals are permitted to be ritually sacrificed in Judaism. Notice that Jephthah's daughter, too, is a perfect sacrifice — she is a virgin. Notice that LORD God does not stop this human sacrifice, as he stopped the sacrifice of Abraham's son.

The Old Testament does not specify how Jephthah sacrifices his daughter, but following the correct methods for animal sacrifice, he would slit her throat first and drain her blood into a Temple service vessel; cut off her arms, legs, and head; cut the torso in sections, remove her entrails and wash them; pour, sprinkle, and smear her blood at prescribed points around the altar; and burn the flesh. Or of course, a priest might do this for him. Read Animal Sacrifice and the Third Temple for details. (11)

Chitty Chitty Bang Bang also has some of this imagery. at the end of the movie theres a sharp topic change that spends a lot of time about this long nosed fellow that kidnaps children, luring them with candy into his mobile cage, and he keeps them under the castle in the dungeon.

The Jewish hat also known as the Jewish cap, Judenhut (German) or Latin pilaeus cornutus ("horned skullcap"), was a pointed cone-shaped yellow hat worn by Jews throughout Medieval Europe and the Middle East. Its wearing was enforced by law after the 1215 Fourth Council of the Lateran decreed that adult male Jews must wear the Jew hat whenever they were outside to distinguish them from non-Jews. This was done to alert non-Jews that they were interacting with a Jew.

In 'The adventures of Pinocchio' the titular character wears a pointed yellow hat and often tells lies which cause his nose to grow.

All throughout history our European Ancestors have been warning us about these people.

A large, pale, elongated shark, possibly a Greenland shark, is shown swimming in dark water. Its mouth is open, revealing sharp teeth and a pinkish interior. The shark's body is mostly white with some darker markings. In the background, several smaller fish are visible, and some skeletal remains are on the seafloor.

6. The size of your nose and your ambitions

NO INTEREST IN MONEY

BIG AMBITIONS

© eastnews, © eastnews

The study of 1,700 photos of faces, actually of their noses, was published in the Journal of Craniofacial Surgery in 2013. The researchers examined 14 different shapes of nose and connected them with different personality types. It turns out that the bigger a nose is, the more ambitious its owner is. These people are more inclined to be perfectionists.

- Scientists even researched the tip of the nose and concluded that if it's big and meaty then this person will be an excellent investor and financier, and if the tip is small and delicate then its owner doesn't care much about saving money.

psst, hey mateys, lets do something fun, just read below;

1. Search for a famous jew that had 1,000 plastic surgeries to not look jewish
2. Find their wikipedia page and make sure its editable
3. Copy the image of the jew from wikipedia
4. Paste it on a program like photoshop or a browser based image editor
5. Slightly increase their nose and save the image
6. Reupload/Replace the image of the article you found with the new image you edited
7. Save the article
8. Repeat step 1 but with different jew

Don't make it too obvious or the jewikipedia dogs will find out, also avoid editing words on the article, any false statement will alert the faggots to check if your claim has any source/proof/validation, changing the image slightly will likely not alert them (hopefully.)

Nothing wrong with jerking off to gold

History of Jews in Denver

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The history of the Jews in Denver, Colorado extends from the discovery of gold in 1858 to the present day.

Sturgeon's Law (@Sturgeons_Law)

Zabulon Simantov, Afghanistan's last Jew, who was so annoying that his Taliban captors released him, is staying, not leaving for the US, bc he demanded that his Jewish would-be rescuers give him $ to settle his debts & they refused. You can't make this up

"I'm not paying Jews to save their own lives. I'm here to help. I'm not here to pay you to save your life," Kahana said.

Simantov "claimed to have had some debts that he had to cover before he leaves. We're not in the business of covering peoples' debts. We're in the business of saving people's lives if they need to be saved," confirmed Rabbi Mendy Chitrik, the Istanbul-based chairman of the Alliance of Rabbis in Islamic States and another participant in the aborted rescue mission.

LIFE	EXPLANATION OF THE FRONTISPIECE.
OF ANDREW JACKSON, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. ABBRIDGED AND COMPILED By WILLIAM CORBETT, M. P. FOR OXFORD. WITH AN INTERESTING FRONTISPIECE, INCLUDING A PORTRAIT. LONDON: PUBLISHED AT 11, BOLT-COURT, FLEET-STREET; AND MAY BE HAD OF ALL BOOKSELLERS. 1834.	(ABOVE THE PORTRAIT.) Part of the City of New Orleans, with the flag of the United States upon the citadel; surrounded by a rampart of cotton-bags, with the Tennessee militia-men and the other patriot defenders firing from behind the cotton-bags upon the British, who are falling in all quarters and escaping to the sea, whereon some are already in boats, rowing off to the fleet, which is setting sail for Old England. N.B. The figure in the foreground, of a man, heels upwards and dying horse under him, represents Pakenham, the commander and brother-in-law of Wellington. (UNDER THE PORTRAIT.) Any valuables found on a Nazi train buried in Poland since World War Two must be returned to their rightful owners, the World Jewish Congress said on Friday.

"To the extent that any items now being discovered in Poland may have been stolen from Jews before they were sent to death ... it is essential that every measure is taken to return the

It began with the forging of the great banks: three were given to the Dutch, frugal, wisest and most prudent of all investors. Seven to the Swiss Lords; great miners and craftsmen of the commodity funds. And nine, nine banks were gifted to the race of Anglos, who above all else desire power. For within these banks was bound the liquidity and bookvalue to govern each economy. But they were all of them deceived, for another bank was made: in the land of Israel, in the offices of Temple Mount, the dark lord Rothschild founded, in secret, a central bank to control all others. And into this bank he poured his cruelty, his malice, and his will to dominate all life.

One Bank to Finance them All.

It began with the forging of the Great Banks.

Three were given to the Aryans, immortal, whitest... noblest of all beings.

Seven to the Asians, great miners and workers of the sweatshops.

And Nine...nine banks were gifted to the race of Jews who, above all else, desire money.

For within these banks was bound the strength and will to govern each race,

But they were all of them deceived.

...for another Bank was made.

One by one the Free lands of Europe and North America fell to the power of the Central Bank.

But there were some...who resisted.

A last alliance of Germans and Italians marched against the armies of Israel.

And on the slopes of the Carpathian Mountains, they fought for the freedom of Europe.

Victory was near!

But the power of the Bank could not be undone.

It was in this moment..when all hope had faded, that Hitler, Fuhrer of Germany, took up his father's Panzer.

Rothschild, the enemy of the Free Peoples of Europe, was defeated.

How could a Minecraft player smelt 6 million iron ore in just 4 Minecraft years? I mean even if you filled your entire inventory with lava buckets it takes a while to smelt all of that iron, and besides you would have to go to the Nether every time you needed more lava. You'd also need over 3400 chests to store all of those ingots, which is pretty hard considering all of the chests were supposedly put underground despite the underground being almost the same as it was naturally generated. In addition, this doesn't even take into consideration the time needed to take out and put in more iron and transferring it to chests. Even if you had a large group of players together this task would be nearly impossible. Yet the villagers keep telling me that this undeniably happened. In fact, you can get banned from some Minecraft servers for even saying otherwise in chat.

OK, I have one. Let's do the Jews ans their shakedown of Swiss banks in the late 90s. In ~1997, a Jew stumbled upon the idea of blackmailing Swiss banks and claiming that many Jews had lost money since uncle abe and aunt sarah had put their millions in there, and then never been able to retrieve them. I should point out, if you don't believe Jewish media bosses collaborate with one another, this is a text book study. So, the Jews begin with their whining by having every Jew-controlled paper/media outlet run stories on this, even though it is a non-story. The Swiss banks point out how they have always treated all their customers the same, even Jews. And that in order to claim any funds supposedly owed to heirs of aunt sarah and uncle abe, all the jew in question had to do was present some sort of receipt and proof of deposit. This of course, sent the Jews into a frenzy, expecting Jews to abide by the rules. So, the Swiss took special measures. They went through unclaimed accounts, and said they they added up to, at most, a few million dollars. The Jews kept on screaming. So, the Swiss took the EXTRAORDINARY step of PUBLISHING the names of those who had unclaimed accounts in Swiss banks from prior to WW 2 in the newspaper. The Jews looked this over, and were disappointed. Only 4 or 5 of the names seemed even possibly Jewish, and the amount of money was minimal. So, wha to do? If you are a normal person, you drop the whole thing and feel embarrassed. Not a Jew!

 Anonymous (ID: qvZ4cASt)  11/30/15(Mon)20:37:50 No.57122573  >>57122738 >>57129083

So, the story continues. On this list, the Jewish groups (this particular shakedown was mostly led by the "World Jewish Congress," headed by the multi-billionaire Brofman liquor merchant family) noticed that serval of the names were similar to members of some of the inner circle of the third Reich. Hitler's personal photographer, a name similar to the great architect of the 3rd Reich, the wife of a mid-level official, etc.. So, despite the shakdown that "the Swiss were withholding geld from the Jews" not working, the Jews now decided to change tactics and accuse the Swiss of being collaborators(!) for doing business with those awful Nazis. Again, the Swiss remind the Jews that they were neutral during the war, did business with everyone and anyone (as was their right as a neutral party), and that should be that. However, out of goodwill, the Swiss would set up a fund of €50 million. Well, this was their crucial mistake. Like a shark, when the Jews smell blood in the water, that's when they go in for the kills. Rather than taking this as a gesture of goodwill and kindness, the Jews of course took it as an admission of "guilt." And from there, it snowballed.

so what happens? The Jew lawyer writes an op ed in which he says (this is almost verbatim): "Were this not such a serious matter, this would be laughable. Even a BILLION would not be enough. The Swiss have only shown us that they are not serious about settling this matter." So, were this any other country, any other tribe, they'd get told to fuck off and that would be it. But not with the Jews! It just so happened that the TOP Shabbas Goy was a scumbag by the name of Senator Alfonse D'amato from New York. D'amato was the Senate Chair of the Finance committee, and he THRWTEENS to Swiss to prevent their banks from doing any business in the US if they do not "fulfill their moral obligation[!]" and make all right."

Now, we have all sorts of hell breaking loose in Switzerland. I recall this esp well bc I was about 8 or 9 and my father was one of the top lawyers for one of the Swiss banks involved and I was there while all this was going on.

So, now we have the Jews literally threatening to use their power in the US Senate to literally blackmail the Swiss if they don't pay up and pay up fast. It's really a surreal situation. The lame duck leader of Switzerland at the time rightly went on national TV and called it what it was: extortion. All this resulted in was ANOTHER demand from the Jews, in addition to the money: that the Swiss leader had to publicly apologize before they'd call off their trained Shabbas goys in the US. Now, in the midst of all this, a Swiss evangelical church of sometime organizes a protest of 10,000 people [!], all Christians, to protest outside the main gvt building there and to demand that the Swiss give God's chosen whatever they were asking for, since such righteous people were clearly good, pious, deserving peopl eonly asking what was fair. As this circus is going on, te number is crawling up from the millions into the tens of billions. Swiss banks are panicking bc they will lose billions per day for each day....

 Anonymous (ID: qvZ4cASt)  11/30/15(Mon)21:01:23 No.57124159  >>57125971 >>57129083

(cont'd) billions per day for each day the Senate Banking Committee forbids them to do business in the US. The Swiss are panicked. Finally, exasperated and realizing you cannot figtht the largest mofia in the world when they have the most corrupt body in the world (the Us gvt) acting in their behalf, the Swiss give in and end up paying the Jewish "Holocaust survivor fund" something like 5 billion (which as Norman Finkelstein covers in his excellent book "The Holocaust Industry," the money all disappeared and the Jews living around the world who supposedly survived the war in Europe still have no health insurance, and are told by all these Jewish organizations collecting money in their name to "Fuck Off" when they call asking for help paying for their medicine, whatever it is.

If you'd like to follow up on this story I've just told you in broad outlines, Norman Finkelstien's Book "The Holocaust Industry" (whcih cost him tenure at loyola university and any future job teaching in any university setting-- in the discovery proevss for his lawsuit, it was revealed that both the faculty at loyola and the students overwhelmingly liked him and wanted him ot be granted tenure (not to mention the fact that few untenured professors have sold anywhere near the amount of books he did).

you can also look up some of Dr. Pierce's broadcasts. A friend from Australia transcribed all the broadcasts into a PDF file, and if you are interested, I will send you a copy (it will sent sent through Tor and from a starbucks in a major Us cities, so Jews thinking they are going to get my IP this way and try to Dox me, whatever, I'm way ahead of you hymie..)

If anyone has any questions on this incident, happy to answer any details I remember.The lesson of this, the place where the Swiss failed? NEVER offer ANY sort of money to a jew as a "Gesture of goodwill," bc when these Jews smell geld, it's like Shark smelling blood in the water. You're not dealing with normal human beings.

(cont'd) You're not dealing with normal human beings. you're dealing with creatures who spent thousands of years haggling over every transaction in the bazaar, such that the ability to lie convincingly and to cheat others out of a few pennies became a major evolutionary asset. Jews hae NEVER been farmers, craftsmen, etc.. Even the Jews who are ow involved in wine-aking, do you know they get Gentiles from the USA to "pick their grapes for free" as part of their church outing? That's right, YOU PAY THEM to work for them. BUT, you are NOT ALLOWED in the same room where the wine is prepared, bc that would make it unkoshel! And ppl really do this! See the Louis theroux documentary on it, ad you won't fucking believe people can be this dumb, but they are!

The other lesson here. Never, ever, ever give even a fucking INCH when negotiating with Jews. I've learned this the hard way too, but luckily didn't cost my company billions. You are dealing with animals who have the mentality of a carnival sideshow barker, a levantine mentality-- THIS is why Euros have historically despised them so much since, as farmers.craftsmen, we are used to doing business with a handshake. You CANNOT deal with Jews this way. Are there exceptions? Of course, but there are also exceptions with people who keep wild bears or alligators as house pets: sooner or later, they almost always revert to their true nature. Dr. WLP, Scorpion and the Frog: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dTKd82Dh8Dk> [Embed]

Anyway, shoould anyone have any serious questions about where to find more sources on this incident or whatever, feel free to ask. Since I've deemed that ~85% of the people here are really misfits just looking for anywhere they can feel as if they "fit in" and neither care about if europe survives or believe in anything those of us who are serious discuss, I've started ignoring the trolls. These are the resentful losers who would turn full wigger/antifa/yuppie scum whatever if they were not 400lbs, covered in acne, and unable to get laid with their dick sandwiched between a visa and an american express. For these people, "red-pilled" simply means "looking for an excuse for why I can't get laid." You can always tell who those types are, and glad to say we have lots of people around here who DO NOT fit that description. It's the motherfuckers who cannot stop playing their video games for ong enough to even learn the fucking basics of what's going on as the Civilization our ancestors spent ~3,000 years building is collapsing, and they don't want to look up from their fucking video game but to try to troll ME and try to "expose me." Yes, scumbags, I'm really a fat kike and this is all just an act. I just happen to have all this memorized for fun. Anyway, for the serious people--like those who helped spread "With Open Gates" and really DID "change the world" from their computer screen, thank you. We'll see the inmates put back into their cells and out nations cleaned up yet... :)

>Cut through Jew "community" on the way home a day later
>Crayola merchandise for sale in every shop I go past

They do the same thing in supermarkets. The goy doesn't get a saving because the Jew sees it as lost shekels. Goys R Us are being undercut by their own products.

>Remember when Coca-Cola were giving away drinking glasses with every 2ltr of Coke you bought
>Limited to two per person
>Watch Jew fill his entire shopping cart up with bottles of Coke and the same amount of glasses
>Watch him queue for half an hour
>Everyone tuts at him and passes snide comments, but it runs off him like water off a raincoat
>Finally about to be served
>Cashier tells him there's a limit
>Jew can't believe it
>He leaves it all in the cart and gets his phone out
>"Activate it"
>Army of Jews suddenly descend on the store
>He gives them two bottles and two glasses each >Begrudgingly hands over the money for them too
>Rubs his hands together
>Go through same "community" as before the following day
>Limited edition Coca-Cola glasses on sale in every shop I go past

I swear to you the memes are true. A goy accepts "refugees" because it thinks "how can I help?", a Jew sees the same "refugees" and thinks "how can I firstly turn a profit and secondly use this to my own advantage?".

tldr it's all true

I'm the art dealerfag who wrote that on /biz/. I'll try and remember it...

- >Shlomo Shekelstein is an art dealer. He persuades his friends Chaim Yidstein and Abe Kitenberg to buy works by an up and coming young artist, for $2million each, on the understanding that they will be a good investment.
- >Over the next few years, Shlomo uses his position to hype the artist. He hires people to write about him in academic journals, organises exhibitions, 'helps' him to win prizes, etc.
- >He puts some of the artist's works into auctions, and bids the prices up with the help of friends. He's buying from himself, so the only cost is the auctioneer's commission.
- >Ten years later, Chaim and Abe own works that are worth, on paper, $10 million.
- >Chaim has just pulled off the real estate deal of a lifetime, and made a huge amount of profit. Unfortunately he owes the IRS $10 million.
- >He decides to donate the painting to his local modern art museum. The trustees are happy to state its value as $10 million. The IRS accepts the valuation and allows Shlomo to write off his $10 million tax bill. He is now a noted philanthropist, and he gets a wing of the museum named after him.
- >Meanwhile Abe isn't doing so well. He needs cash quick. He can't sell his painting on the open market, because it isn't worth very much without Shlomo manipulating the price.
- >Abe goes to his bank and asks for a loan, using the painting as collateral. The bank wants an independent assessment of its value, so they ask the world expert on this particular artist - Dr Shlomo Shekelstein. The good doctor confirms that, based on previous auction prices, it's worth $10 million.
- >The bank agrees to lend Abe 70% of the value - $7 million.
- >Now Chaim has saved himself $10 million and Abe has got himself $7 million to play with, all for an initial outlay of $2 million.

My brother works for the police, but I'm pretty sure I've seen more fraud and money laundering than he has.

Moshe Candiotti, 67, felt the building shake. When he ran down the stairs, he stopped to help an elderly woman who clenching onto a ramp as she tried to get out.

Candiotti, who is originally from Israel and has lived in Miami for 40 years, said the shock took him back to his time serving in the Israeli army during the 1973 Yom Kippur War, when his job on the southern border between Israel and Egypt was to retrieve bodies.

"The thing is, when you experience trauma, your mind doesn't respond the same way," Candiotti said. "It comes later."

A world coin collector, Candiotti said he will miss his collectible coins the most.

Regardless of whether it was Jews being depicted intentionally. The commonalities in features amongst evil people as depicted throughout the ages are interesting. It is a fact that the most average faces are those to be perceived as the most beautiful, people with higher mutational load will deviate from this mean value the most. As we know Jews interbreed relentlessly, they are high in mutational load - so not only do we see jewish features as being inherently evil, and sexually unappealing, genetic data that shows a correlation between abnormalities of the mind with aesthetically repellent physiognomy.

tl;dr: they're ugly on the outside because they're ugly on the inside.

Possibly the last redpill

Cuckchan dropped the Cro-Magnon (white) vs. Neanderthal (Semites) thread but in the process discovered something strange.

Scientists have found CroMagnon were the first to train wolves. Well CroMagnons also hunted all the Neanderthals out of Europe. Neanderthals were not only cannibalistic they were nocturnal (for stealth) so wolves would of been very useful in hunting them at night.

Of course we know about Semites love for blood libel, pedo shit, and sex slavery. A vampire is a person rejected by the church (or rejecting Christ - Jews/Muslims). Vampires are also materialistic and look like Jews in the old movies. And Vampires hate the dawn.

The sun memes of swastika, fire cuts, sun gods, golden dawn, light of god, lightning, all of these kill Vampires and send the Neanderkikes back into their caves (crypts).

Wolves are a huge part of European myth: Romulus and Remus (Roman founders), Odin's Berserkers and pet wolves. The friendly werewolf of Scotland who feeds the poor by fishing. Hitler, "they called him Heir Wolf", and so on.

So, what if our oldest instincts are writing these modern gothic stories? An instinct drawing from our deepest and most ancient psychological archetypes of a war between CroMagnons vs. Neanderthals?

Myths of traveling into the darkness, into the caverns of death (Hades/Hell). What if these are unconscious metaphors for fighting Neanderkikes in the darkness and in caves? A metaphor for bonding with the wolf?

The Black Sun an unconscious metaphor of the full moon that changes man into werewolf? Dehumanizing us into the beast that can face bloodshed?

Even the vampire daywalker, an adopted son, who turns on the kikes (Jesus, Blade).

What if it's all leading to one big species war, not a race war: Werewolves vs. Vampires. Cro-Magnon vs. Neanderthals. Aryans vs. Semites.

An Amazing Parallel

An article from the 'Science' section of TIME magazine describes a situation in insect colonies which is duplicated almost perfectly in human society

ENTOMOLOGY

Subversion Among the Ants

The U.S. South knows few worse pests than the tiny fire ant, an uninvited guest that came up from South America nearly 50 years ago and settled down for a long visit. The little insects bite people, raising painful lumps, attack livestock, nibble crops and foul up expensive farm machinery with their hard earthen nest mounds. For years nothing could check their spread: massive attacks with chemical dusts and sprays all failed. Now it looks as if the Department of Agriculture has finally found an answer to the curse of the fire ants: still smaller ants that seduce the fire ants into destroying themselves.

Social Parasite. Uruguayan scientists working for the department stumbled on the secret while they were searching for a fungus or a bacteria that might be fatal to fire ants. They discovered that in Uruguay, where the ants are native, they are no serious problem. Often they are so weak that they build flimsy nest mounds, which wash away in the rain. This suggested not an ant killer but a social parasite.

The nests contained various parasites, but the most important turned out to be another species of ants that live without concealment in the fortresses of the fierce fire ants and, by some mysterious influence, make their hosts support them in idle luxury. Usually, a few of the parasites cling to the fire ant queen by means of specially adapted mandibles that fit around her neck without hurting her. When a worker comes to feed her with regurgitated food, the parasites flutter their antennae, apparently conveying a compelling message that makes the worker feed the parasites instead of the queen.

The parasites that cling to the queen are females, and when she lays her eggs they lay eggs of their own. Dutifully, the fire ant workers care for both sets of eggs and raise the infant parasites just as tenderly as if they were young of their own species. The parasites thrive while their considerate hosts all but work themselves to death taking care of them. The fire ant economy is wrecked. The healthy parasites mate conveniently in the nest, and then fly away to subvert and weaken other fire ant colonies.

Biological Weapon. The parasites have been found only in association with fire ants. Apparently, they cannot live except when fed by the fire ants with their regurgitations. This dependence makes them promising as a potent biological weapon.

The Biology of the Jewish Problem

The most depressing thing about the impending disaster facing Western civilization is the almost total lack of resistance on the part of those who will be the victims of the disaster. The men and women of the West, as if entranced or under the influence of some mind-numbing drug, not only are not doing anything to avert the cataclysm which lies ahead, but they are positively falling over themselves to aid and assist the engineers of that cataclysm in bringing it about. The murderer asks us for a knife with which to slit our throats and the throats of our children, and we hand him one with alacrity and enthusiasm, apologizing for not having done so sooner.

Ours is a situation which is so bizarre – so nightmarish – that it seems almost unreal. One must continually fight off the impulse tell oneself, "This can't really be happening!" It may be helpful in coming to grips with our all too-real nightmare, therefore, to note that our situation, bizarre as it is, is not unique. There is a strikingly close parallel in the insect world.

The tiny but troublesome fire ant, native to South America but now beginning to become entrenched in wide areas of the southern United States as well, apparently has its own form of the Jewish problem! A fascinating report on the subject, bearing the utterly appropriate title "Subversion Among the Ants," was published TIME magazine more than a decade ago and recently recalled to mind.

According to the report, scientists noted that in South America the fire ants were much less a problem for farmers than in the United States. Some unknown malady seemed to have robbed them of their natural fierceness, aggressiveness, and industriousness; in other words, the fire-ant "civilization" in South America had become terminally decadent.

When the scientists investigated further they traced the source of the fire-ant decadence to a social parasite – "another species of ants that live without concealment in the fortresses of the fierce fire ants and, by some mysterious influence, make their hosts support them in idle luxury."

And what is this "mysterious influence," this fire-ant liberalism, which blunts their xenophobic instinct and makes them tolerate the alien parasites in their midst? The scientists don't know, but they say it is transmitted from the parasites to the hard-working fire ants by a fluttering of the parasites' antennae, "apparently conveying a compelling message that makes the worker feed the parasites."

Shades of Jewish television! So the ant-parasites do it with antennae too! But the message the media masters convey to us through our TV antennae compels us to do far more than feed their bloodsucking tribe. It robs us of memory of the past and concern for the future. It perverts all healthy instincts. It turns racial pride into sick guilt. It undermines racial solidarity and gives us in its place self-hatred. It makes us abandon our own natural interests and serve instead the interests of the alien parasites and all the racial dregs of the globe.

In other words, just as in the case of the ants, it seduces us into destroying ourselves.

Making the analogy more nearly perfect, we note that, according to the scientists, the parasites which wreck the fire-ant economy while fattening themselves "cannot live except when fed by the fire ants." No more than Jews can live without their Gentile prey to feed on, for they are incomplete creatures, specially adapted by Nature to their parasitic role.

Thus, one never sees a Jewish bricklayer or a Jewish pipefitter, a Jewish lumberjack or a Jewish dirt farmer. Jews do not create – they consume; they manipulate; they buy and sell; they pander; they peddle pills; they mimic; they scheme and shuffle their papers; they sit in their offices and give advice (for a price); they advertise; they strut and prate before the TV cameras (their TV cameras); they scribble lies for the newspapers; they flood our libraries and our bookstores with worthless or poisonous books (which we foolishly praise to the skies); they sicken our children's minds in the schools; they whisper advice into the ears of our politicians; they incite riots and lead demonstrations for "equality"; they judge us in our courts; they reveal our military secrets to our enemies; they own; they rent; they lend; they undermine; they subvert; they destroy.

But they do not, they will not, they cannot feed and house and clothe themselves through their own labor. Nowhere is this more apparent than in the Jewish state of Israel itself, the very land of which was stolen from another people and which exists only through the wealth extorted from others, principally in Germany and the United States.

And if there is any value for us in the observation of this amazing parallel between the fire ants and ourselves it is this: we can see that perhaps our problem is more than a political or a social or an economic problem; perhaps it is, more than anything else, a biological problem.

If the Jews do as they do not through choice but because their inborn nature compels them, and if we respond to them for the same reason – just as the fire ants respond to the "Jewish" ants among them – then our problem assumes an altogether new and different aspect.

If our problem is essentially biological, then realizing this fact should not make us despair of finding a solution. On the contrary, what the Creator has done the Creator can undo. Our race, as the cutting edge of the Creator's tool, can overcome all things and surpass all things, in time. But first must come understanding; first must come consciousness.

You are asking what is probably the most important question in social science.

First of all, let us define which population we are talking about. The actual ancient Jews were just violent and stupid human-biodiversity, Ashkenazim are the most fascinating, bizarre and dangerous population of humans to have ever have learned.

Genetic studies suggest that Ashkenazim are descended from near-eastern men who intermarried with Italian women who was subjected to unique selective pressures for 2000 years, creating the population which now rules all of our society.

Christian Europeans are a proselytizing and welcoming people, combined with the fact that the Ashkenazi root population. Through most of their history it is known that Ashkenazim specialized in mercantile trades, but it is likely that they have converted and intermarried. This process also resulted in breeding for higher IQ, as all Ashkenazim who couldn't make it were removed.

Increased intelligence alone cannot explain the bizarre Ashkenazi behavioral patterns which we have all observed. Even a wealthy and smart stem-Ashkenazi would not have been able to survive in the openness of European society resulted in a perverse selective pressure. Those Ashkenazim who had an affinity for European culture, aesthetics and morality were removed; their culture, aesthetics, morality and physical appearance.

Additionally, the Ashkenazim were bred for an extremely high level of in-group cohesion and coordination. Their group loyalty is fanatical. Most of the Ashkenazim operate in a solid front, divided only in tactical disagreements over "What is best for Jews".

To put it all together; Europeans have bred for themselves the ultimate parasite. European openness to outsiders allowed a specialized highly-intelligent mercantile clan. Even worse, this openness filtered the Ashkenazim of all genes which were selected for a general malevolence towards Europeans, a rejection of all things European. Combine this with their extreme intelligence.

This in itself would be bad enough, basically condemning European peoples to extermination by this malevolent mercantile clan. It is known that Ashkenazim played a disproportionate role in the development of atomic weapons, well above that of any other group. I believe that in the case that Ashkenazim are ever struck a blow which might challenge their power, they will use such weapons in order to blackmail our leaders. They are god's chosen people after all, and all this earth and every man is theirs.

Fermi's paradox led to speculation about a "Great Filter", some unknown mechanism which destroys civilizations before they can become intergalactic. A parasitic population such as Ashkenazim may be a candidate for the Great Filter. Every time an advanced civilization reaches a point where it could permit their hosts to go free.
(Part 2 of 2)

Semitic tribespeople, and middle-eastern Jews remain so to this day. The population of interest are the Ashkenazi Jews. From the standpoint of evolution, I am of partial Ashkenazi ancestry and have done extensive research on this profoundly important topic. In this post I will outline what I have learned.

Modern Ashkenazim are about 60% European in terms of autosomal DNA. This new hybrid population was created during the early Roman imperial period. Modern Ashkenazim are about 60% European in terms of autosomal DNA. This new hybrid population was created during the early Roman imperial period.

The Ashkenazi population was partially European probably resulted in massive bleed-off into the general European population through intermarriage and conversion. The Ashkenazi population had a much more natural population structure in the beginning. All of the stem-Ashkenazim who lived and worked around Europeans eventually merged into the general population. The cut in the mercantile niche would be encouraged to leave the Jewish community.

The Ashkenazi population is still half-European and might be tempted to integrate into European Christian society, and no doubt many did so in every generation. The very reason they are more likely to chose to integrate with Europeans over the millenia, disproportionately leaving in the Ashkenazi gene-pool those individuals with an affinity for European culture.

Those individuals that could be bribed or co-opted by our leaders have been removed from their gene-pool over the last two thousand years. They Ashkenazim were the ultimate anti-Europeans, our civilizational super-parasite.

It allowed the Ashkenazi breeding pool to shed their community members of typical intelligence into the host population, allowing them to create a more homogeneous population. The Ashkenazim that remained in the clan for over 2000 years were those with extraordinary cohesion, it is fair to say that the Ashkenazim were bred to be the ultimate anti-Europeans, our civilizational super-parasite.

The Ashkenazi merchant clan, but the situation may be even worse. Ashkenazi genetic malevolence is particularly targeted at Europeans, but extends to all humanity. The Ashkenazim, of their proportion of physicists. Many European physicists were reluctant to participate in the development of such a weapon, a trait which was not in their nature. In their supremacy, they may unleash a Samson doomsday weapon which will kill all life on earth, in fact I think it likely that they have already developed the weapon and it exists only to serve them.

Before they reach a certain level of development, explaining why the universe appears so empty. The evolution of an intelligent and highly malevolent population rises up against their parasitic highly-coordinated merchant clan which invariably rises to rule them, the merchants Samson the whole thing rather than the universe.

Karl Popper was born in Vienna (then in Austria-Hungary) in 1902 to upper-middle-class parents. All of Popper's grandparents were Jews.

In 1938, philosopher Karl Popper attributed the paradox to Hitler's defense of "benevolent despotism" and defined it in The Open Society and Its Enemies!

I now well know (from other paradoxes Popper discusses) in the paradox of tolerance. Unlimited tolerance must lead to the disappearance of tolerance. If we tolerate unlimited tolerance even to those who are intolerant, if we are not prepared to defend a tolerant society against the onslaught of the intolerant, then the tolerant will be destroyed, and tolerance with them. — in this formulation, I do not imply, for instance, that we should attack suppress the tolerance of tolerant philosophers, as long as we can counter them by tolerant argument and keep them in check by public opinion. Suppression must certainly be most limited. But we should claim the right to suppress them if necessary even by force. For it may easily turn out that they are not prepared to meet us on the level of rational argument, but begin by denouncing all argument; they may forbid their followers to listen to rational argument, because it is deceptive, and teach them to answer arguments by the use of their fists or poison. We should therefore claim, in the name of tolerance, the right not to tolerate the intolerant. We should claim that any movement preaching intolerance places itself outside the law and we should consider incitement to intolerance and persecution as criminal in the same way as we should consider incitement to murder, or to kidnapping, or to the revival of the slave trade, as criminal.

Alex Soros

Milkenfeld son of George Soros

When the coffins finally kicked in, Alex told me that for many years, his father had not been eager to advertise his Judaism because "this was something he was almost killed for." But he had always

"identified firstly as a Jew," and his philanthropy was ultimately an expression of his Jewish identity, in that he felt a solidarity with other minority groups and also because he recognized that a Jew could only truly be safe in a world in which all minorities were protected.

Explaining his father's motives, he said, "The reason you fight for an open society is because that's the only society that you can live in, as a Jew — unless you become a nationalist and only fight for your own rights in your own state."

'Historically, Jews had always thrived in nations and empires with multicultural, pluralistic and tolerant environments, while they fared badly in strong ethnic or nationalistic societies. European Jews have always been the emblematic stranger or 'other'.

'Therefore, by definition, a society where the stranger is welcome is good for the Jews, although they have not always appreciated this link.

'The future of European Jewry is dependant on our ability to shape a multicultural, pluralistic and diverse society.'

— Göran Rosenberg, Jewish author and journalist.

I do not imply, for instance, that we should always suppress the utterance of intolerant philosophies... But we should claim the right to suppress them if necessary even by force; they may forbid their followers to listen to rational argument, because it is deceptive, and teach them to answer arguments by the use of their fins or teeth... We should therefore claim, in the name of tolerance, the right not to tolerate the intolerant. We should claim that any movement preaching intolerance places itself outside the law and we should consider incitement to intolerance and persecution as criminal...

He had always "identified firstly as a lamprey" and philanthropy was ultimately an expression of his lamprey identity, in that he felt a solidarity with other parasite groups and also because he recognized that a lamprey could only truly be safe in a world in which all parasites were protected. The reason you fight for an open society is because that's the only society that you can live in, as a lamprey - unless you become a host and only fight for your own survival of your own body.

Historically, lampreys had always thrived in lakes and river-systems with multibehavioral, pluralistic and tolerant environments.

The future of Atlantic lampreyry is dependent on our ability to shape a multibehavioral, pluralistic and tolerant ecology.

Israeli new shekel (1986–present) [\[edit\]](#)

The Israeli new shekel is denoted in Hebrew: שקל חדש (shekel hadash, IPA: [ˈʃekel haˈdaʃ], lit. "New Shekel") or by the acronym Hebrew: ₪ ([jah]). The symbol was announced officially on 22 September 1985, when the first new shekel banknotes and coins were introduced.^[1] It is constructed by combining the two Hebrew letters that constitute the acronym (the first letter of each of the two words): "ש" and "נ". Sometimes the "נ" symbol (Unicode 20AA) is used following the number, other times the acronym Hebrew: ₪. The symbol also resembles two hands meeting each other.

I'm both legit spooned and excited.
I mean, it's one thing to poke the kikes around and losing them a hundred billion or two. It get the heebz midly pissed, but it's fake money going into fake valuations, what piss them is more the goyim outjew the jews than the 'money' lost.
But silver... Silver man... It's a whole another story. This shit is the sacred ground of the kikes, their chasne gardée. All this downshow, this matrix of fakery we live in is only made possible thanks to fiat currencies. Real money is jews' worst nightmare, not more inflation tax, no more discreet devaluation, no more illusion. Each time someone tempted to mess around with silver he either got shot or ruined.

And it goes beyond that. Few anons know this, only the ones well versed in history of theology and esoterism, but do you know why vampires and werewolves die to silver bullet? When the synagogue of Satan got Jesus killed, the treason came from Judas, who was payed 30 silver shekels by the rabbis to betray Jesus. Judas couldn't bear his deed and decided to khs, throwing the silver at his feet out of shame. God then decided to put a curse on silver for the jews who would hold this metal, to remember them they killed his Son over greed, and that silver what the weapon who murdered Jesus.
Historically, in all european countries, vampires always represented the evil jews, with very stereotypical traits (hooked nose and claws, plan their deed in the dark, rich...) and all the vampires physical anomalies come from a sickness only existing among jews : Tay sach, a form of porphyry, a genetic disease provoked by extreme interbreeding (very common among jews, especially the Levi and the Cohen, i.e the priest caste) which make the skin pale due to anemy, deteriorating teeth (end up pointy), skin allergy to the sun, etc.. And blood transfusion is one of the way to temporary cure the anemy (thus why vamps drink blood).
Oh, and it also provoke an alimentary allergy to.. garlic. 1/2

Now you know the esoteric parallel between the jew and the vampire, and the curse tying jews to silver (representing their greed) for eternity. Thus why silver only can metaphorically kill the kikes : by reappropriating real money, the goyim can free themselves from the Jewish tyranny. It's a very important concept for you all to understand. Silver is their Achille heel.

Jesus warned us, Judas' story and his suicide was to show us the way to defeat the archonic jew.

So the kikes will do ANYTHING to keep silver away from the goyim. The whole demiurgic, satanic matrix they created is based on illusion of money, and gold & silver are the only way out this maze of lie.

You are welcome fren, and now you understand why jewllywood is depicting vampires as glamorous, sexy, capable of love, selfless, courageous, (the perfect antithesis of the kike lol)... since they took over the film industry during the 70's. They were pissed that for centuries the most hated monster were vampires, and thought horror movies about vampires was giving them bad press. So they did everything to try to change their image for the goyim to now consider vampires as cool.

Look at all the series films about them : True Blood, Angel, Vampire diaries, vampire heaven, Penny Dreadful, Dracula 1991, the Originals, Buffy, Lost Boys, Blade, Underworld... Vampires are always the badass-looking good guys but need to hide because the evil, bigoted humans (goyim) refuse to live with them (muh tolerance), so they hide in the shadows.

Also you can notice a recurring theme is the Tikkun Olam, the healing of the world : there is always a big threat to humanity looming around (other's monsters, evil terrorists, a vampire tribe who went rogue,...), but the dumb goymans are too stupid to acknowledge it, so it's for the vampires, who rule in the shadow, to save the day. Then it always end up with vampjews indeed saving the day, putting in place a covent of master vampjews to police the goyim and others monsters. Literally noahide laws bullshit.

Of course, if you look at the directors/producers, it NEVER fail : vampires themselves 99% of the time.

I'll start:
God went around the world looking for a nation to give his commandments to.

First he tried the French.
"Would you be interested in my commandments?"
"What's in 'em?"
"Well.... There's 'thou shalt not commit adultery'"
"No thank you."

God then tried the Romanians.
"Would you be interested in my commandments?"
"What's in 'em?"
"Well.... There's 'thou shalt not steal'"
"No thank you."

Then god tried the Germans.
"Would you be interested in my commandments?"
"What's in 'em?"
"Well.... There's 'thou shalt not kill'"
"No thank you."

Finally god went to the Jews.
"Would you be interested in my commandments?"
"How much?"
"How much...? Well, eh, technically they're free, but you must maintain-"
"We'll take ten!"

>He is trying desperately to get into show business
>Gets Misty on her own and pressures her into being his assistant and wearing a revealing outfit
>He hypnotizes and brainwashes Ash to do all his work for him
>Catches an army of Exeggutor and plans to use them to hypnotise everyone in town so they'll give him all their money (seriously)
>Most important is pic related, the carnival owner who confronts Melvin about the army of Exeggutors and plans on firebombing them

'Batman' allegory disturbing

Rebecca Roiphe and Daniel Cooper are seniors at Columbia College.

By REBECCA ROIPHE and DANIEL COOPER

New York Times News Service

Batman's new adversary, the Penguin, played by Danny DeVito in "Batman Returns," is not just a deformed man, half human, half-Arctic-beast. He is a Jew, down to his hooked nose, pale face and lust for herring.

No, DeVito's not Jewish, but that's just it: Man in penguin costume, Christian in Jew face.

"Batman Returns" is not anti-Semitic. But the director, Tim Burton, repeatedly uses imagery and cultural stereotypes that are rooted in Judeo-Christian culture.

He depicts the Penguin as one of the oldest clichés: the Jew who is bitter, bent over and out for revenge, the Jew who is unathletic and seemingly unthreatening but who, in fact, wants to murder every firstborn child of the gentile community. The film is not a biblical allegory. It is a fantasy of good vs. evil in which good is the indisputable victor.

But it draws on the depiction of good and evil in the Western world as a conflict between Christian and Jew, between the doctrine of the Old Testament and the teachings of the New.

The biblical allusions and historical references woven into the plot of "Batman Returns" betray a hidden conflict between gentile and Jew.

The movie opens with shots of distressed parents of a child who is not quite right. The baby is kept in a cage where it ignores the ornate Christmas tree and stalks a kitten through the wood slats of its prison. The parents take this child, a sort of beastly Tiny Tim, to a small bridge in an icy wood. They dump the black wicker carriage into the river and the camera follows the basket downstream. The Penguin is Moses, Moses in black, the anti-Moses.

For the remainder of the film Christian and Jewish images are apparent, if somewhat overwhelmed by the Gothic sets, gangster costumes and stylized speech. The Penguin's underground den, a cavern of ice and toxic waste, is a modern version of the last circle of Dante's hell. His umbrellas that transform into bayonets, machine guns and helicopters are Moses' magic staff.

As a mayoral candidate the Penguin claims he will save Gotham from corruption and violence. But eventually even the ignorant masses understand this false prophet for what he is, a primordial beast who seeks retribution, "an eye for an eye."

The conspiracy against Gotham begins when the Penguin teams up with Bruce Wayne's adversary, the corrupt businessman Max Shreck. This Jewish-sounding name is borrowed from the actor who played the first bat-man of the silver screen, the vampire in F.W. Murnau's 1922 film "Nosferatu."

What better partner for the Penguin in his fight against Batman than the vampire Jew. The pact is sealed and the Penguin and Shreck become brothers in crime, a Moses and Aaron team gone sour. In Burton's fantasy Aaron is Moses' campaign manager, press agent and image consultant.

The Penguin pretends to be searching for his parents, seeking reconciliation, but he no longer cares about his own lineage. He seeks a greater destruction, a kind of Armageddon instigated by the orphan-Satan-Moses himself. He spends long hours in the archives compiling lists of firstborn sons.

Though clearly a reference to the final plague in Exodus, it is also an echo of the accounts of Nazis and anti-Semites throughout history.

The Penguin's evil plan is the enactment of a paranoid notion that Jews' effort to preserve their heritage and culture is a guise for elitist and hostile intentions.

Compounding the Jewish question in "Batman Returns" is the film's music.

Burton's dense kaleidoscope of shiny rings, dark rivers and bird boats, underscored by composer Danny Elfman's use of leitmotifs, altered chords and chromatic progressions, makes indisputable the influence of Richard Wagner.

Burton's horde of penguins are like Wagner's aquatic elves, the Niebelungen.

The Penguin-Jew-villain is also Wagner's Alberich from "Das Rheingold," wheezing uncontrollably, scheming from the murky banks and escaping to his underground cavern.

Though Wagner was, of course, an anti-Semite, the music — dark, passionate and mysterious — is not in itself anti-Semitic. But in the context of this movie, with its Jew-monster, Hitler's appropriation of Wagner's operas and the composer's own politics re-emerge.

"Batman Returns" takes place at Christmas time. The Christmas tree, the lights and the mistletoe serve a thematic purpose.

They represent the Christian ethic, which will save Gotham City (and New York, Los Angeles and Chicago) from the false ideology of the Penguin. His army of mindless followers, a flock of ineffectual birds who cannot fly, is eventually converted to the side of Christian morality.

In the final scene Batman articulates the distinctly Christian moral of this film: "Merry Christmas and good will toward men . . . and women."

The Christian ethic, like the faces beneath the heroes' masks, is eventually revealed.

Batman and Catwoman put on their costumes and rip them off. They are both marginal and integrated, freaks and functioning citizens. But the Penguin's mask is no disguise. It is his face, his deformity, his ethnicity.

Behind the multimillion-dollar movie set is old fear and prejudice. Moses becomes Satan, Jew becomes vengeful and Christian faith conquers all.

Since the Judeo-Christian tradition provides many of our myths, we should be careful not to let our fiction turn one faith against the other.

There is enough of that in real life.

tion, and that discrimination continues to this day. According to the Anti-Defamation League, more than 100 percent of all words spoken in the world today are anti-Semitic.

They've been so persecuted that they've had to resort to inventing fictional characters to save them, like the Prague Golem and their so-called "Messiah." Is it any surprise that two Jews created Superman? A race as physically frail and prone to enuresis as the Jews hasn't had much luck standing up for itself.

It is that unique combination of sissiness and worldly success that has made them the target of innumerable pogroms, genocides, and blood libels.

"Blood libel" is really a misnomer, though, since Webster's defines libel as a statement or representation "that conveys an unjustly unfavorable impression." And while the accusation that Jews drink the blood of Christian babies certainly conveys an unfavorable impression, it is hardly unjust.

It is no more libelous than a statement like "Anthony Quinn was a pedophile," or "Naomi Wolf did porn."⁴ Unfavorable, sure, but 100 percent true.

According to longtime Catholic doctrine, attested to by Saint Simon, it is Jewish ritual practice to kidnap and torture a Christian child, then sentence him to death in a mock tribunal. The child is then crowned with thorns and nailed to a wooden cross (a popular way for Jews to kill people), and his blood collected in bowls in order to drink it. As a goodwill gesture, the Pope repudiated this story in 1965, which was a very, very long time ago. Now only Arabs and a few brave racists believe the truth.

But enough about how much Jews like drinking the blood of Christian babies (a lot). Even before the Middle Ages, Jews faced widespread institutional prejudice. The Jews were once slaves of the ancient Egyptians, and helped to build their pyramids.

According to historian Erich von Däniken, the Jews teamed up with super-intelligent space aliens who provided them with the technology and know-how to build the Egyptian pyramids.⁵ Mere humans could never have been able to complete such massive, architecturally advanced structures on their own.

More recently, Jews have been subject to wholesale expulsion from England and France, torture and inquisition in Spain, and laws in Germany prohibiting intermarriage with Christians for people with at least one Jewish grandparent (Octa-Jews are still okay). But frankly,

<abuse the law system for personal financial gain instead of justice (divorce/ alimony)

<lies constantly

<no shame or remorse when found out, only trying to avoid blame somehow

<never accepts responsibility for actions

<never accepts wrongdoing, even when provided with overwhelming evidence

<always attacks instead of defending when in the wrong

<always plays the victim

<will say or do anything to win the argument

<depends upon rhetorical devices and deception instead of debate

<no interest in Truth, just in getting their own way

<passive aggressive

<uses manipulative tactics to get their own way

<gets other people to fight their battles for them

<loves drama and cause it for personal benefit irregardless of the effects it has on others

<no ability for real creativity, can only adapt what others created first

Kevin MacDonald, The Culture of Critique:

Charles Silberman (1985, 350) notes, "American Jews are committed to cultural tolerance because of their belief—one firmly rooted in history—that Jews are safe only in a society acceptant of a wide range of attitudes and behaviors, as well as a diversity of religious and ethnic groups. It is this belief, for example, not approval of homosexuality, that leads an overwhelming majority of U.S. Jews to endorse 'gay rights' and to take a liberal stance on most other so-called 'social' issues."

The present tendencies lead one to predict that unless the ideology of individualism is abandoned not only by the multicultural minorities (who have been encouraged to pursue their group interests by a generation of American intellectuals) but also by the European-derived peoples of Europe, North America, New Zealand, and Australia, the end result will be a substantial diminution of the genetic, political, and cultural influence of these peoples. It would be an unprecedented unilateral abdication of such power and certainly an evolutionist would expect no such abdication without at least a phase of resistance by a significant segment of the population. As indicated above, European-derived peoples are expected to ultimately exhibit some of the great flexibility that Jews have shown throughout the ages in advocating particular political forms that best suit their current interests. The prediction is that segments of the European-derived peoples of the world will eventually realize that they have been ill-served and are being ill-served both by the ideology of multiculturalism and by the ideology of de-ethnicized individualism.

Israel targets US lad mag market

Israel has decided to reach out to young US men by publishing images of semi-clad female former soldiers in US men's magazine, Maxim.

The pictures are part of a public relations drive to improve the image of the country within the US.

All the models are said to have served in the Israeli Defence Force

Maxim said it was "pleased" with the result of its collaboration with the Israeli consulate in New York, which came up with the idea.

But some in Israel have said that the images were not appropriate.

"We definitely have public relations problems, and I'm all for creative solutions," Israeli lawmaker Colette Avital said.

"But there are enough beautiful and interesting things we can use to tap into this demographic than to show a half-naked woman in a magazine of this kind, considered pornographic."

According to AP, the photo spread will include pictures of Israeli model Niviv Bash - who served in Israeli military intelligence - and former Miss Israel, Gal Gadot.

The Israeli consulate defended its decision, taken after research indicated that Israel meant very little to young US men.

"Males that age have no feeling toward Israel one way or another, and we view that as a problem, so we came up with an idea that would be appealing to them," said David Dorfman, a media adviser at the consulate.

The photo feature, entitled "Women of the Israeli Defense Forces", will be published in the July issue of the magazine.

From The Picture of Dorian Gray:

- A hideous Jew, in the most amazing waistcoat I ever beheld in my life, was standing at the entrance, smoking a vile cigar. He had greasy ringlets, and an enormous diamond blazed in the centre of a soiled shirt...
- For some reason or other, the house was crowded that night, and the fat Jew manager who met them at the door was beaming from ear to ear with an oily, tremulous smile. He escorted them to their box with a sort of pompous humility, waving his fat jeweled hands, and talking at the top of his voice. Dorian Grey loathed him more than ever.
- This is a recurring character who is shown to bow and scrape before anyone who he thinks might be able to give him some advantage, and who tries to emulate English nobility but gets it wrong because he is 'the wrong sort.'
- Harry, the Jewish theatre owner, is also shown to be taking financial advantage of a young actress's debts to keep her 'bound to him.' Harry's insistence that he wants to 'introduce' her to Dorian is a clear implication that this theatre owner is also a pimp.
- It is a 'Jewish doctor' who is responsible for infusing the blood of others into a man to make him totally evil.

>7. We must not criticize Jews as a group for fear of a Holocaust.
I say yes, but only because crude generalizations are a sign of stupidity. (YES)

>12. The "face of hate" is White.
The Nation of Islam, the Muslim Brotherhood, Al Qaeda, the Taliban, Ahmadinejad, and Assad are all examples of hateful groups and people that are not white. If anything's the "face of hate" it's Islam. (NO)

>19. Criticizing Third-World immigration would be racist.
What do I look like, a Democrat? (NO)

>22. The Nazis persecuted the Jews for no good reason.
I'd say that finding a scapegoat for Germany's economic problems and stealing the wealth of an entire ethnic group are both good (if not morally reprehensible) reasons. (NO)

>24. Yes, I have no problem with my grandson being a mulatto.
I want my grandson to be 100% Ashkenazi. (NO)

I'm actually a Jew, but according to /new/, I am a Shabbat Goy. What a moronic test made up by a moronic person.

On an unrelated note does anyone thing we should invite more immigrants into western nations? I do. Furthermore I also think we should give more money to Israel and replace all historical buildings with modernist architecture and use them to film interracial pornography.

The Evil Jewish Master Plan Finally Revealed

1. Flood existing anti-semitic, Israel-averse European countries with Islamic Immigrants

2. Immigrants begin outbreeding local populations 5:1 and eventually begin making demands that laws and customs change to reflect their values. Strife ensues.

3. Europeans push back, riots ensue, nationalist movements emerge in solidarity with Israel's own anti-muslim doctrines.

4. Europe now likes Israel

ON JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY

Newsweek cites authorities who indicate that "the idea of a common Judeo-Christian tradition first surfaced at the end of the 19th century but did not gain popular support until the 1940s, as part of an American reaction to Nazism . . .," and concludes that, "Since then, both Jewish and Christian scholars have come to recognize that -- geopolitics apart -- Judaism and Christianity are different, even rival religions."

Joshua Jehouda, a prominent French Jewish leader, observed in the late 1950s: "The current expression 'Judeo-Christian' is an error which has altered the course of universal history by the confusion it has sown in men's minds, if by it one is meant to understand the Jewish origin of Christianity If the term 'Judeo-Christian' does point to a common origin, there is no doubt that it is a most dangerous idea. It is based on a 'contradictio in abstracto' which has set the path of history on the wrong track. It links in one breath two ideas which are completely irreconcilable, it seeks to demonstrate that there is no difference between day and night or hot and cold or black and white, and thus introduces a fatal element of confusion to a basis on which some, nevertheless, are endeavouring to construct a civilisation."

The few New Testament 'proof texts' utilised by Christian Zionists and secular proponents of the modern Judeo-Christian myth are the product of poor translation. Messianic Jewish writer Malcolm Lowe in his paper "Who Are the Ioudaioi?" concludes, like Robert and Mary Coote, that the Greek word "Ioudaioi" in the New Testament should be translated as "Judeans", rather than the more usual "Jews". The Israeli scholar David Stern also came to the same conclusion when translating the Jewish New Testament.

Few Christians are aware that the translators of Scripture often mistranslated the word "Jew" from such words as "Ioudaioi" (meaning from, or being of as a geographic area, Judean). The word Judean, mistranslated as "Jew" in the New Testament, never possessed a valid religious connotation, but was simply used to identify members of the native population of the geographic area known as Judea.

Also it is important to understand that in the Scriptures, the terms "Israel", "Judah" and "Jew" are not synonymous, nor is the House of Israel synonymous with the House of Judah. The course of history is widely divergent for the peoples properly classified under each of these titles. Accordingly, the authoritative 1980 Jewish Almanac says, "Strictly speaking it is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a Jew or to call a contemporary Jew an Israelite or a Hebrew."

A writer for The Dearborn Independent, published in Michigan back in 1922, summarised the problem thus: "The pulpit has also the mission of liberating the Church from the error that Judah and Israel are synonymous. The reading of the Scriptures which confuse the tribe of Judah with Israel, and which interpret every mention of Israel as signifying the Jews, is at the root of more than one-half the confusion and division traceable in Christian doctrinal statements."

While the Pharisees recognized the laws of Moses, they also claimed that there was a great body of oral tradition which was of at least equal authority with the written Law - and many claimed that the Tradition was of greater authority. By their tradition, they undertook to explain and elaborate upon the Law. This was the "Tradition of the Elders", to which the name of Talmud was later given. It had its beginning in Babylon, during the Babylon captivity of the people of Judah, where it developed in the form of the commentaries of various rabbis, undertaking to explain and apply the Law. This was the foundation of Rabbinic Judaism.

This Judaism was very different from the religion of the ancient Israelites. The late Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, who was the Chief Rabbi of the United States, expressed this conclusively when he said: "The return from Babylon, and the adoption of the Babylonian Talmud, marks the end of Hebrewism, and the beginning of Judaism." The Jewish Encyclopedia tells us that the Talmud is actually "the product of the Palestinian and Babylonian schools" and is generally referred to as "the Babylonian Talmud".

Dr. Boaz Cohen in Everyman's Talmud states the Talmud is the work of "numerous Jewish scholars over a period of some 700 years, roughly speaking, between 200 [B.C.] and 500 [A.D.]."

Rabbi Louis Finkelstein in Volume 1 of The Pharisees, the Sociological Background of their Faith says, "Pharisaism became Talmudism, Talmudism became Medieval Rabbinism, and Medieval Rabbinism became Modern Rabbinism. But throughout these changes of name, inevitable adaption of custom, and adjustment of Law, the spirit of the ancient Pharisee survives unaltered."

The Talmud, more than any other literature, so defined Judaism that Rabbi Ben Zion Bokser admitted, "Judaism is not the religion of the Bible." (Judaism and the Christian Predicament, 1966, p. 159) It is the Talmud that guides the life and spirit of the Jewish people.

This is to say, therefore, that the central message of the Old Testament has been fulfilled in the New Testament. It must be understood that this was the position of Christendom for at least 1900 years. It was the position, not only of Justin Martyr, but of such Stalwart saints as Irenaeus and Hippolytus; a position embraced by Martin Luther and John Calvin, the two towering figures of the Protestant Reformation.

Christianity and Judaism are two distinct religious inheritances, despite all the superficial attempts by modern scholars to manufacture a naive "Judeo-Christianity." The very term "Judeo-Christian" is a mischievous misnomer without historical or Scriptural validity.

The religions of the world are the product of progressive revelation to a diverse humanity, separately expressing as they do the great metaphysical realities of life. Attempts to distort or eliminate these unique, ancient and divinely ordained patterns, through non-divine syncretism and politically-motivated concoctions, is both anti-traditional and truly diabolical.

Appeals to a nonexistent historical unity and calls for a banal, modernist theology do nothing for religious understanding and mutual respect. "Judeo-Christianity" should be seen for what it is - another secular twentieth century fraud, manufactured for narrow political ends, that is supremely disrespectful to all true believers.

Any fundamental unity that does exist between world religions cannot be appreciated by ignorant and secular scholarship, but only through knowledge of the great primordial and universal truths.

The first and greatest lie, that Jewry is not a racial question, but a religion, inevitably leads to further lies.

If we thoroughly study the racial nature of the Jew, we conclude that Jewry is not a race in the ordinary sense of the word. Instead, as Houston Steward Chamberlain wrote, it must be seen as a counter-race, although the term "counter-race" cannot be understood in a biological sense. From a biological standpoint, Jewry is a stable, inbred mixture of extreme races and racial rubbish. The concept of "counter-race" primarily means the destructive and disruptive effect of Jewry within natural races. The distinguishing mark of Jewry within human races has to do on the one hand with the racial makeup of the Jews, who have been scattered for millennia, and on the other hand in their stubborn adherence to the crassest materialism, based on their so-called religious laws.

Jewry is the result of the mixing of every possible race. It is the biggest racial mish-mash in history. This racial mish-mash is so dangerous for all peoples because it because it includes elements from every race. The bad characteristics of these races have been passed on for many generations through Jewry in ever stronger form. From this artificial, rootless, materialistic racial mish-mash, a parasitic counter-race has developed among the peoples.

The core of Jewry is the coming together of rootless, rejected, asocial, sick, and degenerate elements of the various races, predominately of Middle Eastern and Oriental origins. One should remember that in antiquity, lepers were ejected from their racial community, just as were criminal asocial elements.

As a result of its parasitic distribution among the peoples over thousands of years, Jewry wormed its way into almost all the races on earth. As a social parasite, it infected the lower classes, slaves, proletarians, the mob, etc. They had the least resistance to Jewish racial parasitism. These classes, which had largely lost their instincts against racial foreigners, allowed Jewish blood to infiltrate.

In the Old Testament, we read in Exodus 12:38 about the departure from Egypt of the Children of Israel: "Many others of the rabble left with them."

Since these lower classes leaned strongly to criminality and asocial behavior, and were inclined to political revolution, the Jewish racial mish-mash incorporated the negative characteristics of these races, and increased them over the generations by mixing with the blood of the lowest elements of other races, passing them on in increased degree from generation to generation. Thus, the Jewish counter-race moved ever more to the negative side. The artificial Jewish racial mish-mash was held together by the force of materialistic religious laws that focused on life this side of the grave. It promised its adherents prosperity on earth, and lordship over all other peoples and nations. This Jewish racial mixture was kept strictly separate from the influence of foreign gods.

During several hundred years of the Babylonian Captivity, the Jewish racial mish-mash was strengthened by inbreeding. The inclusion of foreign elements, from this point on, was almost nonexistent. For the first time in history, a well-defined and distinct type emerged in the form of the Jewish counter-race.

This Jewish counter-race incorporated to the greatest degree the bad characteristics of nearly all races that it had inherited over the centuries by a process of negative selection.

This brief overview of Jewish racial origins demonstrates the uniqueness of the origin and development of Jewry, which is precisely the opposite of the origin and development of all other races. As we have seen, other races grew organically from particular situations over an ethnically-based history, through a process of contact and struggle in commerce and war with other peoples. Unlike other peoples, it did not attempt to raise its members to a higher level through industry and labor.

Jewry is neither a race nor a mixed race. It is a confusing mixture of races, racial mixtures, and racial fragments, artificially held together by its rabbis. It acts as a kind of counter-race, which can only destroy, never build. Jewry is the product of the inbreeding of asocial, criminal, sick, degenerate, and rejected elements of every possible race in the ancient world. Jewry is neither a race nor a people nor a religion in our sense of those words. It possesses no homeland, but leads a rootless, parasitic life at the expense of the host peoples. Its current homeland is largely the criminal neighborhoods of the great cities of the world, its god is money, its policy is revolution and the destruction of the cultural treasures of mankind.

Those are the odds. If you replaced Turner's 10 Executives, CNN's 11 Executives, and CNN's 17 Hosts with members of the public chosen at random, the odds that you'd get a Jewish majority at all three levels is:

> 1 in 4,620,054,353,091,400,000,000,000

> One in four septillion, six-hundred and twenty sextillion, fifty-four quintillion, three-hundred and fifty three quadrillion, ninety one trillion, and four hundred billion

And yet, 5 of 10 Turner Execs, 6 of 11 CNN Execs, and 9 of 17 CNN Hosts are Jewish. But wait!

How about the ratio of Jews vs. non-Jewish whites? Excluding minorities, 5 of 9 (Turner Execs), 6 of 10 (CNN Execs), and 9 of 15 (CNN Hosts) are Jewish. In total, 20 out of 34.

If you filled those positions with non-minority members of the public chosen at random, the odds you'd get at least this many Jews at all three levels is:

> 1 in 92,026,493,323,110,000,000,000,000

> One in ninety-two septillion, twenty-six sextillion, four-hundred and ninety-three quintillion, three-hundred and twenty-three quadrillion, and one-hundred ten trillion

Too many gorillions to process? Here's some facts to help you understand the magnitude of this (((coincidence))):

> If you bought exactly 3 Powerball tickets (each with a 1 in ~292 million chance of winning), it is 20 times more likely that you'd win the Powerball all three times, than the probability of getting this many Jews.

> If you and I were separately transported—completely at random—to a star anywhere in the entire universe, it is 100 times more likely that we'd end up on the exact same star, than the probability of getting this many Jews.

> If you reply to this thread once, it is 150 times more likely that both you and the post above you get quads, you share the same birthday, and you'll both die in plane crashes, than the probability of getting this many Jews.

These numbers only consider a sliver of the (((coincidences))) in pic related. Calculations & assumptions in the replies.

So for those of you who don't know, the LSAT is the Law School Aptitude Test. Known as one of the most intellectually challenging tests there is. Each test is different, with changing question and answer choices to keep students in the dark until test day.

Here comes the scandal. Sabbath observers in 2017 got to take a special LSAT exam, one that other people who did not observe could not partake in.

Where does it get juicy? The July 22, 2018 LSAT was an EXACT COPY of the 2014 and 2017 Sabbath observation tests. This means that students whom observe Sabbath got to take the SAME EXACT ABCDE MULTIPLE CHOICE LSAT 3 TIMES.

Contact LSAC, and tell them how you feel about Jews getting an unfair advantage over other hardworking students. Have the test thrown out, /pol/.

I work in the pornographic industry.

I saw things over the years, the slow creeping, the subtle changes, the constant monthly new directives and guidelines that slowly shape the websites and way things are presented.

I saw the non-organic wave of interracial porn.
I saw the violent, forced, unnatural porn being given a special place.
I saw the trans porn slowly getting moved from the gay section to the straight section.
I saw the incest porn being slowly and artificially boosted, put on the front page, recommended.
And these are only the most "successful" campaigns.

The change in language used, the change in what we would "recommend" to people, the change in "forbidden words", the change in what content is encouraged in the amateur videos, what the algorithm will give you.

The Chinese Believe That the Jews Control America. Is That a Good Thing?

 >why are jews so evil
 Them seeing everyone else as Amalek >be jew
 >someone extends their hand to you in earnest cooperation
 >"this is amalek, my eternal enemy trying to lull me into a false sense of security, I will cautiously take advantage of it to lull HIM into a sense of security that he is successfully duping me, but I will stab that bastard int he back for his vile schemes against me at just the right time! fuck you Amalek, my eternal enemy"

This is why golems who think jews are good people get betrayed.
 You CAN NOT shed your status as amalek, you will FOREVER be Amalek to the jew, the genetic actual jews. The 'happy merchant'.

No matter how servile you are, to the jew it's just Amalek trying to lower the jews defense.

This leads to the following, tragic situation:
 The golem truly wanted to be friends with the jew.
 The jew sees the golem as Amalek, his eternal enemy and betrays and exploits the golem.
 The kin of the golem (whom the golem tragically fights to protect the poor jew) get angry and resentful, and thus the jew is the eternal enemy of all other humans, because the jew started it by thinking everyone else is the enemy.

jews literally turn friends into enemies by betraying them, and then having the audacity to call everyone else evil.
 When in reality you cannot ever do anything for a jew to not see you as anything other than Amalek. You will forever be evil in the eye of the jew, and therefore coexistence will not be possible.

it all starts and ends at the jew.
 this isn't memeing.
 this isn't in minecraft
 this isn't irony.

this is how real actual reality is.
 suppressing this reality is suppressing yourself.

Since I started to get redpilled on the JQ I have wondered why they actually behave the way they do, I couldn't fit the puzzle pieces together. What's the reason they destroy the societies they themselves live in? I will answer this question in three posts.

Reading The Culture of Critique makes it very clear that we have to treat judaism as a group evolutionary strategy.

First off, some premises

>Jews is a coherent group that has a very strong ingroup preference and always work to benefit the tribe. They frequently disagree on the methods but they always work to the benefit of jews as a whole. Even secular jews strongly identify as jews, and the more antisemitic a society becomes, the stronger the jewish identification with the tribe.

>Jews are raised to believe that they are gods chosen people and that goyim are jealous subhumans that are just waiting for an opportunity to shoah them. It is of course of utmost importance for jews to prevent this and in this cause every method is allowed.

>The only group, where jews dwell, that can realistically band together and have a jew barbeque is white gentiles.

With these premises it becomes clear what jews as a group need to do, namely destroy white civilization to the point where no organized resistance can be mounted. Only then, in the mind of the jew, are they safe. The strategies they use are: 1/3

■ Anonymous (ID: rwRqPKYk) 02/26/21(Fri)16:05:51 No.309820457 ▶ >>309820517 >>309834121

Promote mass immigration.

>First off it weakens gentile society by having more groups competing for resources and generally causes societal instability.

>Second it prevents whites to form a critical mass when whites are a minority.

>Third, in a multicultural society Jews are just one group among others and can't easily be singled out. All jews of all political stances support mass immigration. This of course does not apply to Israel.

Promote women's rights and sexual degeneracy in general. This has many benefits for jews:

>Lower birthrates of white children

>It destroys societal support that promotes high investment parental strategies (marriage, fidelity, christianity)

>White children raised by single parents result in a general lowering of quality of white society. This of course applies to blacks to an even larger degree, but this is of no concern to jews since they are no threat to begin with.

Fake a bunch of science to give an air of legitimacy to all of the above. Examples

>Freudian psychoanalytics which was/is used to promote sexual freedom and degeneracy. It's also used to classify antisemitism as a mental illness.

>Boasian anthropology which was used to "prove" that white societies are worse than indigenous ones and that "all humans are created equal". This is of course very useful in immigration debates.

>Frankfurt school sociology and postmodernism which is used to legitimize destruction of gentile societal norms.

■ Anonymous (ID: rwRqPKYk) 02/26/21(Fri)16:06:19 No.309820517 ▶ >>309834121 >>309842293

Why do whites allow this you ask? Because we have evolved to be individualistic and jews exploit this fact to the fullest.

>The basic idea is that European groups are highly vulnerable to invasion by strongly collectivist, ethnocentric groups because individualists have less powerful defenses against such groups. The competitive advantage of cohesive, cooperating groups is obvious and is a theme that recurs throughout my trilogy on Judaism.

It's obvious then that whites have to work together as a group to combat this existential threat. Civic nationalism is not an option. Libertarianism is not an option. Socialism is not an option. The only option is white ethnic nationalism.

To quote The Culture of Critique

>What is certain is that the ancient dialectic between Judaism and the West will continue into the foreseeable future. It will be ironic that, whatever anti-Semitic rhetoric may be adopted by the leaders of these defensive movements, they will be constrained to emulate key elements of Judaism as a group evolutionary strategy. Such strategic mimicry will, once again, lead to a "Judaization" of Western societies not only in the sense that their social organization will become more group-oriented but also in the sense that they will be more aware of themselves as a positively evaluated ingroup and more aware of other human groups as competing, negatively evaluated outgroups. In this sense, whether the decline of the European peoples continues unabated or is arrested, it will constitute a profound impact of Judaism as a group evolutionary strategy on the development of Western societies.

If the walls could talk, you'd need a Yiddish translator.

The faces behind the "Transhumanism" myth.

"The ideas of 'singularity' and 'transhumanism' are inherently Jewish in origin, intended to destroy European culture and ethnicity. Ray Kurzweil (Jew) and Isaac Asimov (Jew) are the largest proponents behind the ideas. The first step was the destruction of christianity and the replacement of it with moral and cultural relativism, the next step was the destruction of marriage by making divorce acceptable, the third step was the destruction of sexuality by introducing legalized homosexuality, the fourth step is the destruction of gender by making transgenderism the norm. The final step will be to destroy the very fabric that makes us human by introducing the ideas of "transhumanism" and "singularity". All these ideas are based on lies and deception and it will be the grand delusion of the future, aimed at the new generations of American and European youth, and they will all fall for it." - Unknown

"A disproportionate number of Jews are leaders in Transhumanism, as also in these other Utopian ideologies." - H+ magazine

"There is precedent for strivings towards an earthly Messianic era, with overtones of Transhumanism. Socialists, and particularly the idealists of the late nineteenth century, looked forward to the hell-and-heaven of a secular End of Days, with science and technology as guides. Theodor Herzl (Jew) likewise offered a technophilic and universalistic solution to the age-old problem of anti-Semitic persecution." H+ Magazine

"Supercomputers will achieve one human brain capacity by 2010, and personal computers will do so by about 2020." Ray Kurzweil

"Transhumanism is an occult project, rooted in Rosicrucianism and Freemasonry, and derived from the Kabbalah, which asserts that humanity is evolving intellectually, towards a point in time when man will become God. Modeled on the medieval legend of the Golem and Frankenstein, they believe man will be able to create life itself, in the form of living machines, or artificial intelligence." David Livingstone

"Through the use of "smart drugs," and what transhumanists call "mind uploading," man will be able to merge with the Internet, which is envisioned as the end-point of Kabbalistic evolution, the formation of a collective consciousness, or Global Brain. That awaited moment is what Ray Kurzweil, a director of engineering at Google, refers to as The Singularity. By accumulating the total of human knowledge, and providing access to every aspect of human activity, the Internet will supposedly achieve omniscience, becoming the "God" of occultism, or the Masonic All-Seeing Eye." - Transhumanism: The History of a Dangerous Idea

"Mordechai Nessayahu's "Cosmotism" depicts a future in which Israel saves humanity from eco-disasters and nuclear annihilation. Also influential as a Labor Party stalwart, Nessayahu motivated Yitzak Rabin and Shimon Peres to pursue the Oslo Accords peace plan. Shimon Peres published his own visions in "A New Beginning." He imagines an improved Israel via peace and an information revolution. Equally optimistic is Yigal Arica's "What's in the Future?" Niv Ahituv's "A World Without Secrets" presents a totally transparent world, where all information about everyone is available to everyone. It is the 21st century evolution of the ancient old ideals of Marxism." Hank Pellissier

THE LEADERS OF THE ROMANIAN WORKERS

The leaders of the Romanian communist workers were neither Romanians nor workers.

At Iasi: Dr. Ghelerter, Jew; Gheler, Jew; Spiegler, Jew; Schreiber, Jew, etc. .

At Bucharest: Ilie Moscovici, Jew; Pauker, Jew, etc.

Around them, groups of lost Romanian workers.

Had the revolution been successful, the president of the republic that would have usurped the great King Ferdinand, would have been Ilie Moscovici.

In Greater Romania's Parliament in 1919 while the deputies and senators of all reunited Romanian provinces, thrilled by the great act of the Union, stood up and applauded the unifier great King, this Mr. Ilie Moscovici refused to stand up, ostentatiously sitting down.

Is Hollywood run by Jews? You bet!

Just Stalin-Lite begins

I have never been so upset by a poll in my life. Only 22 per cent of Americans now believe "the movie and television industries are pretty much run by Jews", down from nearly 50 per cent in 1964.

The Anti-Defamation League, which released the poll results last month, sees in these numbers a victory against stereotypes. Actually, if you think about it, it's a victory for Jews in Hollywood. How deeply Jews in Hollywood? When the studio chiefs took out a full-page ad in the Los Angeles Times a few weeks ago to demand that the Screen Actors Guild settle its contract, the open letter was signed by Paramount Pictures chairman Brad Grey (Jewish), Walt Disney chief executive Robert Iger (Jewish), Sony Pictures chairman Michael Lynton (surprise, Dutch Jew), Warner Bros. chairman Barry Meyer (Jewish), CBS chief executive Leslie Moonves (no Jew), his grandfather was the first prime minister of Israel), MGM chairman Harry Sloan (Jewish) and NBC Universal chief executive Jeff Zucker (Jew-Jew).

The eighth signatory was News Corp. president Peter Chernin, whose father was Jewish, though Chernin was raised Ukrainian, which is close, if you ask me. If both Ukrainian brothers had signed, this group would have not only the power to shut down all film production but to turn a minority with enough Fiat money to hand to fill a bathtub.

The person they were yelling at in that ad was L.A. president Alan Rosenberg (take a guess). The scathing rebuttal to the ad was written by entertainment super-agent Ari Emanuel (Jew with Jewish parents) on The Huffington Post, which is owned by Anthony Hoffmann (Jew) and has never mentioned in Hollywood. The Jews are so dominant, I had to write the trades to come up with six Gentiles in high positions at entertainment companies. When I called them to talk about their incredible achievement, five of them refused to talk to me, apparently out of fear of sounding Jews. The sixth, AMC president Charlie Collier, turned out to be Jewish.

As a proud Jew, I want America to know about our accomplishment. Yes, we control Hollywood. Without us, you'd be flipping between The '90 Club and Disney and Gushin on TV all day. So I've taken it upon myself to re-convince America that Jews run Hollywood by launching a public relations campaign, because that's what we do best. I'm weighing several options: "Hollywood: More Jewish than ever!" "Hollywood: From the people who brought you the Bible," and "Hollywood: If you enter TV and movies, when you probably the Jews after all."

I called AOL chairman AOL Forrester, who was in Santiago, Chile, where he told me to my dismay, he was not hunting Nazis. He dismissed my whole proposition, saying that the number of people who think Jews run Hollywood is still too high. The AOL poll, he pointed out, showed that 79 per cent of Americans think Hollywood execs "do not share the religious and moral values of most Americans", and 43 per cent think the entertainment industry is waging an organized campaign to "weaken the influence of religious values in this country."

That's a sinister canard, Forrester said. "It means they think Jews meet at Carter's Deli on Friday evenings to decide what's best for the Jews." His argument made me think: I have to eat at Carter's more often. "That's a very dangerous phrase, 'Jews control Hollywood.' What is true is that there are a lot of Jews in Hollywood."

Instead of "control", Forrester would prefer people say that Jews "dominate" the industry.

I wonder how the media would have responded if J.J. Abrams had said this instead #BoycottStarWarsVII

"...you look around that room and you see the whitest fucking room in the history of time. It's just unbelievably white. And I just thought, we're casting this show and we have an opportunity to do anything we want, why not cast the show with actors of color?"
- J. J. Abrams

"... you look around Hollywood and you see the most Jewish fucking industry in the history of time. It's just unbelievably Jewish. And I just thought, we're producing this movie and we have an opportunity to do anything we want, so why not let someone who isn't Jewish make movies?"
- What J.J. Abrams didn't say

Fun fact:

Jews played a critical role in the founding of the Communist Party of China, and the subsequent creation and management of the People's Republic of China.

1893 - 1953

Grigori Voitinsky

A Bolshevik Comintern official sent to China in 1920 as a senior advisor to contact prominent Chinese Communists, just before the creation of the Communist Party of China. The process of forming the Communist Party of China can be mostly attributed to his influence.

1921 - 2019

Sidney Rittenberg

The first American citizen to be admitted into the Communist Party of China. An influential advisor to Mao Zedong who had a pivotal role at the Broadcast Authority, explaining the Chinese Communist point of view to America. This position earned him a higher salary than Chairman Mao.

1907 - 1980

Frank Coe

A US government official who was identified by Soviet defectors as being an underground member of the Communist Party and belonging to a Soviet spy group. He eventually moved to China and joined a circle of expatriates working with the government. In 1962, he was joined by Solomon Adler in his circle.

1909 - 1994

Solomon Adler

A US Treasury representative in China during WWII. Identified as a Soviet spy by Soviet defectors in 1950 and resigned from the Treasury Department. Resided in China from the 1960s to his death, working as a translator and economic advisor.

1915 - 2005

Israel Epstein

A Polish-born Chinese journalist and author. One of the few foreign-born Chinese citizens of non-Chinese origin to become a member of the Communist Party of China.

1915 - 2014

Sidney Shapiro

An American-born Chinese lawyer, translator, and actor who lived in China from 1947 to his death in 2014. One of the very few naturalized citizens of the PRC, he held citizenship from 1963 to the end of his life. In 1983, he was elected as a member of a governmental assembly of the PRC which provided a forum for input from non-Communist political organizations.

1903 - 1952

Jakob Rosenfeld

A Holocaust survivor and urologist who, along with 20,000 other Jewish refugees, fled to China in the late 1930s to escape Nazi repression. Served around China as a surgeon and Minister of Health in the Provisional Communist Military Government of China. Received a rank equivalent to that of a general.

1910 - 2000

David Crook

A British-born Communist ideologue, activist, and spy who long resided in China. Fought in the Spanish Civil War, was recruited by the NKVD, and was sent to China during WWII. Lived in China after WWII and spent most of the remainder of his life there.

What two thing does all these people have in common?

Who is behind the push for mass immigration from the third-world into Western countries?

“PURE COINCIDENCE”

To complete the objective of this Introduction, we need to show that Jews are exceptionally powerful and dominant in certain key aspects of modern society. A concise summary will have to suffice. The following analysis will center on the US, due to its global dominance and relatively easy access to data. In America, and depending on how we count mixed-race individuals, Jews constitute roughly 1.8% of the population. This is the highest percentage of any nation in the world, apart from Israel. Second highest is Canada at 1.1%, then comes France (0.74%), Uruguay (0.51%), and Australia (0.49%). The UK is 7th highest at 0.45%. We can expect Jewish influence in these countries to be roughly proportional to their share of the population.

The bottom line of all this is a stunning control over both major American political parties. Among Republicans, Jews donate around 25% of all party funds, and for Democrats, they give an astonishing 50% or more. Such figures have been reported for years, at least since the mid-1990s. The latest analysis was done by Jewish historian Gil Troy, who wrote, "In a political system addicted to funds and fundraising, Jews donate as much as 50 percent of the funds raised by Democrats and 25 percent of the funds raised by Republicans."^[69] But the Democratic figure may be higher still. The Jerusalem Post reported in 2009 that "more than 50%" came from Jews, and Henry Feingold's book Jewish Power in America (2008: 4) claimed that the figure was "over 60%."

Question:

How many of America's last 9 presidential children who married, have married jews?

Donald John Trump

Joseph Robinette Biden II
(Since Hussein Obama has no married children, let's look up how many jew married children his VP Joseph Biden had instead)

George Walker Bush

William Clinton Blythe III

Donald Trump Jr. - (((Vanessa Haydon)))

Don Jr married the jew Vanessa Haydon, daughter of the jew lawyer Charles Hochberg. Vanessa was raised jewish by her step-father. Don and Vanessa produced five jewish grandchildren for Donald senior, before they seperated after some love-letters between Vanessa and Vanessa's mexican mobster ex surfaced.

Joseph Biden III - (((Hallie Oliver)))

Joseph Biden the Third married the jew Hallie Olivere. Hallie has two jewish parents and is from Delaware. The pair produced two jewish grandchildren for Joseph Biden II before Joseph Biden III died of brain cancer.

Jenna Bush - (((Henry Hager)))

Jenna Bush married the jew Henry Hager.
Henry the jew comes from a long unbroken line of Aarons and Moseses, and worked for Bush-(((Cheney))) as a Senior Advisor and Operations Manager.

Chelsea Clinton - (((Marc Mezvinsky)))

Chelsea Clinton, a woman so ugly that oral counts as anal married the jew Marc Mezvinsky. Marc Mezvinsky, who is a jew banker, is the nephew of the infamous jew George Soros.

(((Ivanka Trump))) - (((Jared Kushner)))

Ivanka had a relationship with the jew extremist Nathan Rotschild, before she was dumped. Ivanka then married the jewish mafia-son Jared Kushner. Shortly after Ivanka openly converted to orthodox judaism and changed her name to Yael Kushner. Unsurprising to no-one, Yael's extreme usage of plastic surgery did not prevent her offspring from being as ugly as she originally was.

Robert Hunter Biden - (((Melissa Cohen)))

Hunter Biden had a relationship his dead brothers wife, the jew Hallie Biden, as is common in jewish culture. They later seperated and Hunter Biden then married the South African jew filmmaker Melissa Cohen. Both Robert Biden and Melissa Cohen have a matching pair of the word "shalom" in hebrew letters tattooed on their biceps.

Barbara Bush - (((Craig Coyne)))

Barbara Bush married the jew Craig Coyne. As is common with crypto-jews, the couple had a secluded jewish marriage ceremony first for only a few chosen ones, and then a more public atheist marriage ceremony for show a few months later.

Eric Frederic Trump - (((Lara Lea Yunaska)))

Eric married the media-jew Lara Lea Yunaska, the spawn of two jewish parents. This was reported from their marriage ceremony: "The couple wed under a crystal-embellished chuppa in a ceremony officiated by Ivanka Trump's (jewish) husband Jared Kushner."

(((Ashley Biden))) - (((Howard Krein)))

Ashley Biden, herself the daughter of Joseph Biden II and the Italian Jew Jill Tracey Jacobs (née Giacoppa) married the especially rat-faced Jew Howard Krein. When speaking about the pair Joseph Biden II has said: "I'm the only Irish Catholic you know who had his dream met because his daughter married a Jewish plastic surgeon."

Answer: All of them.

Hitler was right. So called "Democracy" is a scam.
A jewish, anti-European scam. Currently, while American soldiers are kept busy fighting wars for the jews overseas, their people back home are being ethnically replaced at lightning speed. Both low and high.

>Hail and hello!

>My name is Seth Chagi, and as many of you probably already know, I am the current president and CEO, as well as the founder of The Asatru Community. As of the writing of this, I am 24 years old, and living in Southern California perusing my academic studies in Biological Anthropology, specifically PaleoAnthropology, or the study of early hominids and our evolution.

"I first started walking down the Asatru path around the time of my Bar-Mitsvah (I was raised in a newish family), because it all just didn't sit well, and it seemed to be the time to start exploring. It became very clear very early that this was the path for me, and always had been. Things began to make sense, and "click" like they never had. Images, dreams and emotions from early childhood would resurface; only to now make sense. I had found Asatru, or rather it found me, and the fit was perfect.

Neo-Nazi leader quits movement after coming out as gay & revealing he's Jewish

They want to run a prison planet of border-less, race-less, culture-less, gender-less, identity-less, dumbed-down, easily controlled, subdued cattle (which they call goyim). They make up 1.4% of the US population and 0.2% of the world's population, yet look at all they control from the world's finances to the media that brainwashes us.

Alex
@JewishWonk

...

I am sad to report that the goyim are not okay

- ADD DEPTH TO YOUR PRAYERS When you wear this beautiful New Covenant Tallis. A Jewish Prayer Shawl with special significance to the Christian Faith and followers of Yeshua.
- A CHRISTIAN BLESSING IN HEBREW ACROSS THE COLLAR - "Blessed are you O' Lord King of the Universe Who has fulfilled all of the law through Jesus the Messiah and have covered us with his Righteousness".
- THE HOLY SCRIPTURES AT YOUR FINGERTIPS At each of the 4 corners, different verses from the Scriptures in English - taken from Matthew 14:36, Isaiah 53:5, Corinthians 5:21, and Malachi 4:2. All clearly written in royal blue and decorated with gold embroidery.

- A SPIRITUAL GIFT FOR SOMEONE YOU TRULY LOVE - This is a gift given from the heart and will

There is also more to Jewry than ethnicity and religion. It's also a mindset. The best descriptor is malignant narcissism, and while not all narcissists are Jewish, the overwhelming majority of Jews are narcissists. This is why you might get an instantaneous, visceral reaction of contempt when you come across most Jews: You're reacting to their psychopathy. Whether or not this trait has genetic components is a moot point; the trend exists, and it is wholly environmental, it is hammered into their heads at such an early age that it might as well be genetic.

Because of their psychopathy, they are drawn to power, fame, and influence like moths to a flame. This desire, combined with tribal nepotism, is why you find an over-representation of Jews in positions of power. This happens at every scale of society, from the federal chambers of Congress on down to moderators on a fucking IRC channel. Once one of them gets in, he starts tagging and recruiting others of his ilk until they've monopolized all avenues of power.

They have done this for centuries, they haven't ever stopped doing it, and until they excise that Judaic identity of the "chosen" from every aspect of their culture, they never will. And this is why you absolutely cannot, under any circumstances, allow Jews (or their psychological workalikes) into any positions of influence. No matter how noble their intentions may seem or how good some of their ideas might be, they will always, always destroy, because this is the root essence of their nature.

KIKES / ZIONISM

The most rabid zionist supporters are evangelical Christians, so the best way to counter them is to actually teach them the bible

Most evangelicals are cults of personality with bible flavoring and preach utter heresy - Dual Covenant theology and zionism for starters

The following are the best arguments for debating and trumping zionist evangelicals:

"Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee."

This points out how the jews as they call themselves are not Godly, and that their subversion was predicted

<http://biblehub.com/revelation/3-9.htm>

"And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Very Important

This destroys any notion of a jewish right to the land of israel based on the bible as the chosen people are those that accept Christ as savior - not a particular race and certainly not those that rejected him

<http://biblehub.com/galatians/3-29.htm>

"Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also."

Very Important

This destroys the idea that the jews are still the chosen people, because they have denied Christ and so have denied YHWH

http://biblehub.com/1_john/2-23.htm

From the Mount of Olives speech, John 8:31-47

"The Truth will Set You Free
(2 John 1:4-6)

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; 32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. 33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. 35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. 36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. 37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. 38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. 41 Ye do the deeds of your father.

Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

The Children of the Devil

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. 43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. 44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. 45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. 46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? 47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God."

The force of these passages are clear, Jesus calls the unbelieving jews the children of the devil

<http://biblehub.com/kjv/john/8.htm>

Taken together, I have taught these passages to several tea party and conservative groups to massively undermine their support of Israel - you will be attacked at first, but if you learn the passages well enough then you can stump them and change the whole group

Not because of the person is angry at the world but because I know that they're a victim of an event that would push them towards an ideology that claims to have all the answers. The Jewish State's White Slavery racket leads the world for the trafficking of White Christian girls
 NOVEMBER 13, 2007 AT 12:30 AM

Israel still a hotbed of human trafficking

By Raffi Berg

Marina rarely leaves her two-room home in northern Israel these days.

She is in hiding – wanted by the Israeli authorities for being an illegal immigrant, and by the criminal gangs who brought her here to sell her into prostitution.

Marina – not her real name – was lured to Israel by human traffickers.

During the height of the phenomenon, from the beginning of the 1990s to the early years of 2000, an estimated 3,000 women a year were brought to Israel on the false promise of jobs and a better way of life.

i tell him, "they're just different from us. i don't know what else to tell you."

he seems taken aback for a moment, almost in shock

"what?" i ask

he says "my father used that exact same line about the jews one time. he said "they're just different."

i think we may be on the verge of a breakthrough but we're not.

both his son and his father are insane. he is the correct one.

Ah yes, the super-IQ Jews have constructed the greatest civilizations known to man. We are fortunate just to be in their presence.

Now, to be fair, both Europeans and East Asians have very high IQ's as well, and they've built tremendous civilizations.

The East Asians have built monstrous civilizations characterized by order and tradition. These civilizations have endured for centuries--better yet, millennia--and at one point stretched all the way from Japan to Central Europe. Those civilizations produced beautiful art, yielded massive architectural feats (see, e.g., the Great Wall), and laid the groundwork for the connection between the East and the West.

To be sure, the Europeans have likewise produced magnificent civilizations that even today, at the moment of our weakness, are still envied by most of the modern world. Worldwide, billions of people clamor at the chance to be brought within the gates of Western civilization. European civilizations produced art (see, e.g., the Renaissance), yielded massive technological advances, explored and mapped the globe, and even pioneered conceptions like individual liberty.

But these European and East Asian civilizations are humbled in the presence of the civilizations created by Jews. Oh wait. No they don't. The Jews have never produced any civilization even resembling that of European or East Asian civilizations. The Jews never even produced a civilization resembling the more primitive human civilizations, like those found in Africa. The Jews, in fact, have never produced any civilization whatsoever. Their entire miserable existence has consisted of relying on the altruism of other great civilizations to bring them within their borders, only to see their wealth plundered and populous subverted, until the nationfolk eventually rise up and expel them like the parasites they are, leaving them to wander about the earth in search of their next host nation whose empathy can be preyed upon and exploited.

 Anonymous nr 05/09/13(Thu)12:23 No. 13965163 >>>13965183 ▼ How to identify Jews on the internet. 1. Jews are infuriated simply by mentioning the true name of their ethnicity. The word "yid" for them is akin to a red rag to a bull. Use this word a couple of times in your posts and watch the opponent's reaction. Yids stung by this are easily identified by their writing style, which starts seething with poisonous and snide sarcasm. cont	 Anonymous nr 05/09/13(Thu)12:24 No. 13965183 >>>13965216 ▼ >>>13965153 2. There are several topics that give yids fits of rage: nationality, phenotypes, nationalism and anti-globalism. Positive remarks and praise of your country, your people or your political figures (be it Farage, Jussi Hala-aho or Goebbels) instantly cause yids to start flinging shit like monkeys. If the yid is more cunning, he will try smear them with dirt covertly, in order not to expose himself. Bringing up the topic of Jewish oligarchy that is trying to privatize the entire Planet will frequently cause yids to start bleating quotes from "Atlas Shrugged" (written by a Jewess) about free markets. cont	 Anonymous nr 05/09/13(Thu)12:25 No. 13965216 >>>13965251 ▼ >>>13965183 3. A yid will never denounce Trotsky as the bloodthirsty murderer he was, but will not miss a chance to slander Solzhenitsyn or Bakunin. A yid will never praise Russian artists Vasnetsov or Ryzhenko, but will always applaud talentless hacks like Malevich, Kandinsky and Chagall. You won't hear a good word from a yid about Slavic writers like Krestovsky, but compliments towards a decadent degenerate Vysotsky, mediocre poet Brodsky and pornographic kike Kafka will be abundant. Yids are simultaneously afflicted by megalomania and inferiority complex. "Jew lauds another Jew" is a well-known Russian proverb. cont	 Anonymous nr 05/09/13(Thu)12:27 No. 13965287 >>>13965316 ▼ >>>13965251 5. Yids always prefer the term "anti-semitism" to "nationalism" in order to disguise their position of uninvited foreign invaders in Western countries and appeal to emotion, claiming that "Jews are hated only because they are Jews" or that "Jews are a convenient scapegoat". cont	 Anonymous nr 05/09/13(Thu)12:28 No. 13965316 >>>13965351 ▼ >>>13965287 6. Holocaust denial drives yids insane, because the so-called Holocaust is a holy idol of Jewish mythology. Some kikes even say that "martyrdom of the Holocaust cancels the martyrdom of Christ". Multiculturalism is the yids' Holy Cow, because it allows to cooperate with other minorities to gain ground. Praise of multiculturalism and denouncement of monoethnicity and homogeneity is a surefire way to detect a kike. Ever wondered how American Jews got themselves such a disproportional amount of posts in the US government? They jumped on the "equality for blacks" bandwagon while masquerading as white activists in order not to ring any alarms. Nowadays, out of 9 seats at the US Supreme Court, 3 are occupied by Jews. 10. Sore point of the yids is their own identity. They absolutely hate being told that there are no more actual Semitic Jews, there is only a Talmudic sect calling itself "Jews" and containing random rabble from various ethnic backgrounds, because Jewishness is matrilineal and Jewish women are utter whores. You can also remind them that Ashkenazi Jews are not Biblical Semites, but Turkic-Khazars who adopted Judaism. Don't forget mentioning that circumcision was initially practiced by slaves, who mutilated themselves to avoid getting pierced with a ring that would disallow them to breed uncontrollably.

11. It is also worth mentioning that Yahweh, god of the yids was initially a god of war and murder, to which the entire Old Testament is confirmation, where Yahweh helps or enables his "Chosen people" to rob and kill their neighbours. Since yids are forbidden to choose another deities, they worship the god of death and war to this day.

12. The easiest way to find out if your opponent in a debate is a yid is to ask him directly. In case of a negative answer, ask him what makes one a Nord or a Slav, for example. If he starts dodging the question at this point and mumble bullshit such as "everyone is equal", he is either a hooknose or a brainwashed shabbos goy.

The devastating effects of MGM are one of the hardest and hugest red pills for circumcised males to take.. It isn't easy to acknowledge the permanent damage that has been done to your sex life, including masturbation when you aren't even with any one..

Most people that haven't done research in to it will think that it isn't a big deal, but in reality the most important parts of the penis are amputated..

The original intention of this practice when it first began was to prevent you from masturbating, and even though you can still technically masturbate and have sex, it is still a fairly successful surgery because it can decrease your orgasm pleasure up to about 70% according to people that have been circumcised later in life..

The number of nerves in your penis goes from about 24,000 to just 4,000 after the procedure.. The head of your penis becomes more insensitive over time because a layer of keratin develops around it so it can protect its self, because it (the head) is now an outside-organ when it was meant to be an inside-organ..

However, despite what most people think, even the head in an intact penis isn't ultra sensitive; The part that gives the most pleasure is the ridged band around the end of the foreskin (when it is erect).. This ridged band is entirely removed in circumcision.. This is why people that have been circumcised later in life often have to re-learn how to masturbate, because the part that is used to orgasm is now completely gone.. In other words, circumcised males have to use auxiliary parts of the penis to orgasm that were not necessarily made specifically to orgasm.. This is why they must be so much more aggressive in masturbation and sex, because they simply can not feel nearly as much sexual sensory information, whereas intact males are often told to merely use their thumb and 1-2 fingers to lightly move their ridged band up and down until orgasm.. This is also why intact men have an easy time doing things like rubbing their penis between a girl's boobs and being able to orgasm, or being able to use a shower head to orgasm, whereas a circumcised man will find these things either difficult or impossible from the lack of sensation.. The foreskin is not the candy wrapper, it IS the candy..

No.161041188 1 hour ago

United States

An other effect is that circumcised males have a 4.5x higher rate of erectile dysfunction, which if you think about it, means you will have trouble getting and maintaining an erection about 4.5x times more often than an intact male.. This is why viagra is so prevalent in the USA and israel, and in israel it has actually been approved to be used as an over-the-counter drug, because so many jews need it in israel..

There are several more complications too, such as the foreskin's sliding action being used to easily move the penis back/forth inside of the vagina, whereas a cut penis will often need artificial lubrication to reduce the friction inside of the vagina.. A cut penis needs about 10x the insertion force that an intact penis does..

There is also the orgasm's intensity, which I said earlier can be reduced to about 30% of what it originally should have been.. People that have been circumcised in mid-life have compared the transition to things like drinking a chocolate milk-shake compared to drinking skim-milk, or seeing in full-range color compared to seeing in greyscale..

One thing I have noticed my self is that when I see any videos of huge cum shots, the penis is invariably always an intact penis.. It has been shown that the amount and force of the ejaculate loosely correlates with the orgasm's intensity, which leaves those whom were forcefully mutilated at birth to only wonder what kind of experiences they are missing out on..

"If this hostility, even aversion, had only been shown towards the Jews at one period and in one country, it would be easy to unravel the limited causes of this anger, but this race has been on the contrary an object of hatred to all the peoples among whom it has established itself. It must be therefore, since the enemies of the Jews belonged to the most diverse races, since they lived in countries very distant from each other, since they were ruled by very different laws, governed by opposite principles, since they had neither the same morals, nor the same customs, since they were animated by unlike dispositions which did not permit them to judge of anything in the same way, it must be therefore that the general cause of anti-Semitism has always resided in Israel itself and not in those who have fought against Israel."

Jewish women don't even want Jewish dicks. The Jewish pseudo-race is build upon the women cucking their men, that's why it's matrilineal. The Jewess, after breeding with a superior goy, will then have him symbolically castrated by removing his foreskin, and then lord over him and nag him into submission. She will then network her son with other Jews, who will then collude to acquire capital for them.

The Jewess actually has a foreskin-sensing organ in her upper palate, which allows her to seek out goy cocks for breeding.

Many people don't know this, but circumcision in America was really a plot to preserve the white race by confusing the foreskin-sensing organ in the Jewess' upper palate into registering American males as Jewish, thus making them unfit for seduction and breeding.

This paradigm has existed for so long that the Jewess has attained powers of seduction far exceeding those offered by her physical beauty alone. They possess the most potent pheromones of any race, and are naturally programmed to seduce the goy. To a goy, there is no greater sexual conquest than a Jewess with a foreskin fetish, nothing even comes close -- but it is the Jewess who has the last laugh, as she will often succeed in stealing his superior genes for her own people.

It's not mistake that most top female porn stars are Jewish, this is again a reflection of their innate and disproportionate attractiveness to the goy. It also serves to subconsciously reinforce the image of the Jewess as being a sexual goddess in the minds of the goy, thus making it easier for them to capture goys in the wild and steal their seed.

One good example of Jewess breeding behavior is how she will often use political causes to surround herself with pseudo-Jews, who pander to her in hopes of sex. This is simply a ruse to fill the role of the Jew, which is to acquire capital for the Jewess. She never intends to, nor will she, have sex with any of her politically-acquired beta orbiters.

She will use her false politics in order to "shit test" potential suitors, denying those who capitulate to her. The Jewess has no time for weak men, thus her aversion to fellow Jews. When a strong, high test goy comes along, and proceeds to dismiss her false political positions, as one would do a child, she then begins the seduction process.

The Jewess correctly identifies the foreskin as a key source of male power, and she covets it's power as an extension of her natural female penis envy. This is why she denies it to her own people, so that she may have power over them. When confronted with the large, natural goycock, she is reminded of the raw, terrifying power of male sexuality. She cannot help but submit herself in it's presence, because it is only then that she is made to feel feminine.

Upon completion of the sexual ritual, she returns to her people and bares a child, which they will then raise as their own. The process of symbolically neutering the young Jew must being before he realizes his own power and rebels against the Jewess overlord class -- in doing so, they force the young Jew to focus his repressed sexual energy into acquiring material wealth and control, which is then transferred to the Jewess overlord class.

Ethnic Background of Partners in Jew-Gentile Marriages (Expected vs. Actual)

[Source: Ipsos/Reuters Polls (2013-15), Pew Research Center (2013)]

In sum, Jews increasingly marry outside their religion, and when they do, they prefer to marry whites rather than non-whites. This is not consistent with the Separatism Hypothesis.

Problem 3: Jewish Dating Preferences

According to the dating website CoffeeMeetsBagle, white gentiles and Jews have very similar dating preferences.^[13] Jews of both sexes were more likely than white gentiles to prefer dating whites, despite the fact that the website lets users state a preference for any racial group. What's more, Jews of both sexes were more likely than gentiles to express an exclusive preference for white people. This is not what one would expect if Jews had no white identity.

Problem 4: Jewish Attitudes towards the Marital Choices of Relatives

One test of the Separatist Hypothesis is how Jews feel about the choices their relatives make in marriage partners. According to data from the General Social Survey collected between 2000 and 2014, Jews were slightly more likely than gentiles to prefer that relatives marry white people. Approximately one out of every 50 gentiles said they would oppose relatives marrying white people; the GSS did not turn up a single Jew who felt that way.^{[14] [15]}

Percentage Favoring a Close Relative to Marry a White Person: Jews vs. Gentiles

[Source: General Social Survey (2000 - 2014)]

[Error Bars Represent 95% Confidence Intervals]

Problem 5: Jewish Endogamy Rates Compared to Other Religious Groups

Proponents of the Separatist Theory assume that Jews are uniquely ethnocentric and that this reflects something inherent in Jews. They argue further that Jewish ethnocentrism is so ingrained that it is an insurmountable barrier to successfully integrating Jews into gentile societies.

However, Jews appear less ethnocentric than several other groups. Using data from the Pew Research Center, I found that Hindus, Orthodox Christians, Muslims, Jehovah's Witnesses, Buddhists, and Mormons are all far more likely than Jews to be endogamous, or marry within their religion. With the possible exception of Muslims and Hindus, these groups are rarely accused of ethnocentrism.

A Long-Lost Skeleton In a Synagogue Cellar

A dark - or, in any case, bizarre -chapter in the otherwise venerable history of the Eldridge Street Synagogue on the Lower East Side was reopened yesterday when a long-lost skull rolled out from a coal-ash pile and struck the foot of a workman.

Soon, an entire skeleton was in view. After inspection by a medical examiner, the bones were taken to the Fifth Precinct station house. The official word from the police was that they could not identify the body or determine its sex. It had apparently been in the cellar more than 30 years.

The unofficial word, according to Betty Sandler, administrative director of the Eldridge Street Project, was that "it might be a young girl, in her late teens or early 20's, which would make for an unsavory story."

Workers are excavating the cellar of the 102-year-old synagogue, between Canal and Division Streets, in the first phase of its restoration.

Not the faintest rumor or oldest lore explains the skeleton. Judge Paul P. E. Bookson of Civil Court, who has worshiped at the synagogue for three decades, said he had "absolutely no information, no inkling" as to who it might be or how it came to be there.

He said the congregation made a rabbinical inquiry and was told, "Halakha, the Jewish law, will require that when all the forensics and pathology are completed, the synagogue will be obliged to inter the remains."

Again.

We've seen this movie many times and I want to know why they keep repeating this same formula in movies and tv shows that they create.

- >mostly set in the 80s because jews are obsessed with that time period for some reason
- >sometimes set in modern America
- >be stereotypical nerdy kike in highschool who has Star Wars action figures, enjoys DND and is a arcade pixel gamer
- >only wears graphic tshirts of pixel video game covers and album covers of gay bands nobody knows
- >has two or three friends who are only kikes maybe a token nigger or an asian
- >they are the losers of the school
- >main character has a crush on sexy goyim blonde or brunette who is clearly out of his league
- >she has a boyfriend who is a popular chad
- >insert random plot
- >by the end of the film the Stacy leaves the chad for the weak skinny nerdy kike

Why are Jews obsessed with this plot? What are the political motives behind using this format?

>Why are Jews obsessed with this plot?

Read the Poisonous Mushroom and you'll have your answer.

The Jewish boy is always and forever obsessed with the pretty and unobtainable shikshas, who is repulsed by him because of his physical appearance and mannerisms. His satanic lust for her is what drives him as a youth, and age twists it into countless perversions and degenerate behavior as an adult. The Jewish slave trade of white flesh, the Jewish men who prey upon white children, the countless Jewish rapists who sexually violate and then violently murder their white female victims: all of them are defined first and foremost with their adolescent obsession over the unobtainable shikshas. The obsessive Jewish boy grows up into a sexual degenerate, into a flesh trafficker, into a pornographer, into a rapist-murderer. He takes his pent up anger out on little white girls who remind him of his lusts and little white boys who effortlessly enjoy the innocent affections of their female counterparts, and whose torment he may also come to sexually enjoy.

The male Jewish psyche is defined and driven by insecurity, inadequacy, lust for white flesh, and rage at being denied what they believe they are owed. To be Jewish and male is to be at once both massively insecure and also an egomaniac. This pathological compass is the defining force behind all of their oldest and most traditional crimes: it is also the lens through which all of their various forms of self-expression should be viewed. The Ugly Jew Boy Ensnarers Stunning Shikshas plot is the male Jewish fantasy at it's most fundamental. Every trope of this specific subgenre, from the Evil Chad White Boy to the Lustful Shikshas Female Lead plays into how Jews view the world.

Jews are the children of Cain. God hates them, and has always hated them. Cain saw Abel's innocence and natural connection to God and despised both him and it simply for existing. So too does this define how the Jew sees the white man. God warned us.

I find it interesting that this is "jewish." Humans are varied, moreso within a culture, and specifically tribe (which is the basic level in which we congregate) than at the racial or ethnic level. There is a species of fish that has 1 type of female, and 3 types of males. 1 is a large chad fish that easily protects eggs and females in its small microcosm of existence, another is a middle sized fish that is somewhat homely and capable of protecting but not chadfish status, and the third type lives by these two other males, but specifically slides in and fucks the female/introduces his sperm to the egg pile in which the megachad raises and protects (it may also happen to the other midsize male, but is less likely obviously). Read about cuckoos (literally what cuckolds is based off of). Believe it or not we have these types of men in many more variants therein (of men and women) and this variation takes place at the tribal level not racial or ethnic.

Newfag thread. Anon brought up a more troubling example. Karate Kid. Where they self insert a brunette male of seemingly another ethnicity to fight or defeat blond whites while getting a blond shiksa. A newfag will now mention Cobra Kai. But oddly Johnny Lawrence's actor is of the tribe. And they made the hot "bad girl" have a mixed family for no reason. So, this is like four decades of subversion from all angles. And Cobra Kai is ironically the white alpha male reduced to the Mexican beta in the original, but played by a tribe member, because they don't want a white actor becoming the face of white male rebellion. I really think they do a thorough mental strategy of these casting choices too.

A question rarely addressed is how do white actors cope when they finally see the big picture? You have to have empathy for these people. Most are our age at the time. It's fucked up enough to be the viewer who connects dots. If you're actually an actor who makes it, you get a big role, and you gradually realize how your movies are used. But if you panic you're done or worse. How do they cope? Inb4 fags. Not all. Don't say this has never happened.

>>Revenge of the Nerds

>When this came out, was the awareness level high in America that it wasn't really about nerds so much as a tribal in joke?

Nope, that part went completely over my head at the time. I was in high school when that movie came out and I was considered a nerd because I liked reading science fiction novels and playing Dungeons & Dragons. So to me it seemed cool that this movie was about "nerds" getting one over on "jocks". It was only after watching the movie again years later that I realized this was the most jewish thing ever, especially with the (((nerds))) joining the black fraternity and using niggers to physically intimidate the "jocks", who of course represent the goyim.

I had a similar experience when re-watching Animal House. Once you swallow the redpill you can't spit it out.

Nazi Propaganda Minister Introduces 'Kampfy the Überhund,' the Adorable Anti-Semitic Mutt

BERLIN, Apr. 29 — At a special unveiling ceremony Monday, Nazi Information Minister Joseph Goebbels introduced the much-anticipated "Kampfy the Überhund," a lovable cartoon mascot designed to put a "fun face" on Jew-hating.

Created with the help of longtime Hitler friend Walt Disney, Kampfy will be featured on lunch-pails, night-lights, board games, and trading cards. A talking Kampfy doll—which at the pull of a string will say such phrases as "Heil Hitler, kids!" and "It's fun to turn in Jews!"—is set to hit German toy stores this week. Life-sized, costumed versions of Kampfy, Goebbels said, will also be available for special appearances at birthday parties and Hitler Youth rallies.

"Just one look at this adorable little pooch, and who wouldn't want to drive the Jewish race from the face of the earth?" Goebbels said. "Don't those cute, pointy ears just scream out, Kampfy is expected to make Jew-hating fun for German kids.

'Greedy Jews are to blame for the German economic depression?'

Kampfy is already being well received by youngsters across Germany. "I love Kampfy!" said 3-year-old Grete Muller of Bonn. "He's my best friend!"

Parents appreciate the cartoon mutt, as well. "My 7-year-old son Heinrich was having trouble accepting Nazism until Kampfy came along," said Otto Schneider of Munich. "Now, it's all he talks about."

In the Talmud the minimum schedule of sexual relations is based on a man's profession.

"For men of independent means, ever day. For laborers, twice weekly. For donkey drivers, once a week. For camel drivers, once ever 30 days. For sailors, once every six months". (Talmud Ketubot 5:6)

This is why Jewish men try to go into business, and why we never hear of any Jewish sailors.

The Fecal Fixation of the Chosen Ones

The Jewish obsession with feces is very disturbing, and very real. In fact, it is openly admitted by many Jews.

In an article called The Past, and Future, of Jewish Humor, the Jewish writer Uriel Heilman writes:

"And if it's scatological, all the better."

"For a Jew, a bowel movement is an event," Waldoks declared. "That's why there's so much bathroom humor."(1)

Tablet magazine columnist Marjorie Ingall had this to say about the Jewish fecal obsession:

"Jews have a fine tradition of scatological humor." "When new [Jewish] moms get together they love talking about poop."(2)

As a Jewish woman, I have to say, I am not at all attracted to Jewish men. Every single one of them is a neurotic little weasle who has mommy issues. Although I have no interest in Jewish men, I am engaged to one right now because if I do not marry 'in the tribe' not only will my parents disown me, but so will my grandparents and most of the rest of my family. Still, I cannot help that I have zero, and I mean ZERO, physical attraction for Jewish men. I haven't slept with my fiance yet, he still thinks I am a virgin, but I go out at least twice a week and bring home sexy black men. Last night, I brought home a group of four of them and they all fucked me so hard that it could be considered borderline rape. All four of them ended up taking turns cumming in my asshole. I can't imagine my Jewish fiance ever having the kind of animalistic, raw, primal lust that those four sexy black gods had. I know that I will never stop taking black cock, but the thought of allowing my Jewish fiance's cock anywhere near my pussy makes me sick. I know that I definitely don't want to carry any of his children, so I have decided that anytime he gets me pregnant, I am going to get an abortion and keep it a secret from him. If a superior black man gets me pregnant, I will carry it and love the child with all of my heart, and if my Jewish husband to be doesn't like it, he can just divorce me and give me half of his assets, which will be plenty to raise my beautiful black child.

I can't believe it's true, /pol/ was right. At first I thought it was crazy, I thought it was just an overexaggeration. But I kept an open mind, I started looking into the names of the people saying all this insane shit about our country, about gender, about race, who was in the news literally lying.

This last week finally did it for me. Today's the day I finally accept it, I can't hold back against example after example of seeing it in real time. Jew after Jew I'm the news, on twitter, lying about what's going on at the border, then they continually feed off of each other, the lie becoming more and more extreme, less connected to reality, then they use the lie as the justification for their real life actions. Jew after Jew saying that you should not serve anyone in the Trump administration if they are at your store, your restaurant, your gas station, and all this based on a lie. Whipping people up into a frenzy, using their position in the media to create a false consensus on something (just repeat the same lie over and over in headlines, swamp people with disinfo and they eventually believe it), and then use the lies you've spread to justify any behavior. I've seen the script over and over and over again, and I can't ignore that it's Jews anymore. You can't possibly miss it if you're looking at each individual case.

There's Feinbergs, Rosenbergs, Greenblatts, Goldmans everyday spreading lies about Trump, about stories relating to race relations, and they play off of each other. Now they're trying to justify ostracizing Trump admin members. Soon they'll justify ostracizing all Trump supporters. Next comes violence. You have to be dumb not to see where things are heading. Christ, it was Jews the whole time.

Horrifying New Far-Right Trend Masks Antisemitism as "Dinosaur Denial"

February 17, 2021

Our Internet hate watchdogs have alerted us that a new disturbing trend is emerging on social media. Their advanced hate monitoring AI has indicated that far-right extremists are signaling their antisemitism by questioning the existence of dinosaurs.

Of particular note is their insistence that it is unrealistic that billions of dinosaurs were the target of a "genocide by a meteor", which our hate experts have assured us is code for denying the holocaust of six million Jews.

The ADL is currently in talks with Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube to discuss strategies for eliminating antisemitic content cloaked as "dinosaur denial" from their platforms.

The Los Angeles fetus disposal scandal was the 1982 discovery of over 16,000 aborted fetuses being improperly stored at Malvin Weisberg's Woodland Hills, California, home and the ensuing legal battle regarding their disposal. It was called a "national tragedy" by the then-president Ronald Reagan and inspired a song by pop singer Pat Boone, with the fetuses finally buried in 1985. No criminal charges were filed against any of the parties involved.^[1] Weisberg had stored the specimens properly but had not disposed of them due to financial difficulties.^[1]

And people ask why anti-abortion violence occurs

In response to Haaretz article "Jews, white privilege and the fight against racism in America" (by Benjy Cannon 4/12/14) I would like to say loud and clear: Ashkenazi Jews are not white.

Every time I read about a Jew somewhere identifying as a white person, I cringe. As an Israeli Jew, who like most other Israeli Jews, is completely foreign to the concept of Jews being "white" I would like to address this article to my Jewish brothers and sisters in America.

Legacy: A Genetic History of the Jewish People

By Harry Ostrer

Oxford University Press, 288 Pages, $24.95

In his new book, "Legacy: A Genetic History of the Jewish People," Harry Ostrer, a medical geneticist and professor at Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York, claims that Jews are different, and the differences are not just skin deep. Jews exhibit, he writes, a distinctive genetic signature. Considering that the Nazis tried to exterminate Jews based on their supposed racial distinctiveness, such a conclusion might be a cause

Are you Jewish?

Do you have Jewish roots? Are you an Ashkenazi? Are you a Levi or a Cohen?

A DNA test by iGENEA provides you with clear evidence of whether you have Jewish roots. Based on your specific genetic characteristics, we can identify whether you are of Jewish descent, which line the Jewish descent is from (paternal, maternal or both lines) and even to what percentage you are Jewish. In addition, your profile is compared with more than 700,000 people in our database. If we find a genetic match, i.e., people with whom you correspond genetically, you may contact these people and intensify your family research.

Is Judaism more than a religion? Is there a Jewish Gene?

Ethnic groups who marry among themselves for generations are genetically "linked". It is scientifically undisputed that there are genetic patterns that occur frequently in Jews. Jews have developed over the centuries a certain degree of genetic homogeneity that becomes visible in a DNA-test.

The Jewish People, however, is not entirely genetically separable. So no test can give you an unambiguous proof. Nevertheless a

Abstract

The Israeli State recently announced that it may begin to use genetic tests to determine whether potential immigrants are Jewish or not. This development would demand a rethinking of Israeli law on the issue of the definition of Jewishness. In this article, we discuss the historical and legal context of secular and religious definitions of Jewishness and rights to immigration in the State of Israel. We give a brief overview of different ways in which genes have been regarded as Jewish, and we discuss the relationship between this new use of genetics and the society with which it is co-produced. In conclusion, we raise several questions about future potential impacts of Jewish genetics on Israeli law and society.

Stray bullet kills 24-year-old Jewish reporter for NPR affiliate in Kansas City

Aviva Okeson-Haberman was just about to start new job covering social services and criminal justice; she was hit while in her apartment and rushed to hospital, but later died

JTA — Aviva Okeson-Haberman had come home after apartment hunting in Lawrence, Kansas, where the reporter for the Kansas City NPR affiliate was about to start a new job covering social services and criminal justice.

On Friday, Okeson-Haberman was hit by a stray bullet that entered her first-floor apartment in Kansas City's Santa Fe neighborhood. The Jewish journalist was found unconscious and rushed to a hospital, where she was placed on life support.

On Monday, her colleagues at the affiliate, KCUR, posted an anguished obituary reporting her death. Okeson-Haberman was 24.

You are asking what is probably the most important question in social science.

First of all, let us define which population we are talking about. The actual ancient Jews were just violent and stupid Semitic tribespeople, and middle-eastern Jews remain so to this day. The population of interest are the Ashkenazi Jews. From the standpoint of human-biodiversity, Ashkenazim are the most fascinating, bizarre and dangerous population of humans to have ever evolved. I am of partial Ashkenazi ancestry and have done extensive research on this profoundly important topic. In this post I will outline what I have learned.

Genetic studies suggest that Ashkenazim are descended from near-eastern men who intermarried with Italian women during the early Roman imperial period. Modern Ashkenazim are about 60% European in terms of autosomal DNA. This new hybrid population was subjected to unique selective pressures for 2000 years, creating the population which now rules all of our societies.

Christian Europeans are a proselytizing and welcoming people, combined with the fact that the Ashkenazi root population was partially European probably resulted in massive bleed-off into the general European population through intermarriage and conversion. Through most of their history it is known that Ashkenazim specialized in mercantile trades, but it is likely that they had a much more natural population structure in the beginning. All of the stem-Ashkenazim who lived and worked around Europeans eventually converted and intermarried. This process also resulted in breeding for higher IQ, as all Ashkenazim who couldn't make the cut in the mercantile niche would be encouraged to leave the Jewish community.

Increased intelligence alone cannot explain the bizarre Ashkenazi behavioral patterns which we have all observed. Even a wealthy and smart stem-Ashkenazi was still half-European and might be tempted to integrate into European Christian society, and no doubt many did so in every generation. The very innate genetic aversion to all things European, their culture, aesthetics, morality and physical appearance.

Additionally, the Ashkenazim were bred for an extremely high level of in-group cohesion and coordination. Their group loyalty is fanatical. Most of the Ashkenazim that could be bribed or co-opted by our leaders have been removed from their gene-pool over the last two thousand years. They Ashkenazim operate in a solid front, divided only in tactical disagreements over "What is best for Jews".

To put it all together: Europeans have bred for themselves the ultimate parasite. European openness to outsiders allowed the Ashkenazi breeding pool to shed their community members of typical intelligence into the host population, allowing them to create a specialized highly-intelligent mercantile clan. Even worse, this openness filtered the Ashkenazim of all genes which might predispose them to have a positive disposition towards European people. The Ashkenazim that remained in the clan for over 2000 years were selected for a general malevolence towards Europeans, a rejection of all things European. Combine this with their extraordinary cohesion, it is fair to say that the Ashkenazim were bred to be the ultimate anti-Europeans, our civilizational super-parasite.

This in itself would be bad enough, basically condemning European peoples to extermination by this malevolent merchant clan, but the situation may be even worse. Ashkenazi genetic malevolence is particularly targeted at Europeans, but extends to all humanity. It is known that Ashkenazim played a disproportionate role in the development of atomic weapons, well above that of their proportion of physicists. Many European physicists were reluctant to participate in the development of such a weapon, a trait which was not shared by Ashkenazim. I believe that in the case that Ashkenazim are ever struck a blow which might challenge their supremacy, they may unleash a Samson doomsday weapon which will kill all life on earth, in fact I think it likely that they have already developed such weapons in order to blackmail our leaders. They are god's chosen people after all, and all this earth and everything on it exists only to serve them.

Fermi's paradox led to speculation about a "Great Filter", some unknown mechanism which destroys civilizations before they reach a certain level of development, explaining why the universe appears so empty. The evolution of an intelligent and highly malevolent parasitic population such as Ashkenazim may be a candidate for the Great Filter. Every time an advanced civilization rises up against their parasitic highly-coordinated merchant clan which invariably rises to rule them, the merchants Samson the whole thing rather permit their hosts to go free. >Jews love to mouth of without saying anything.

They sure do. It's called pilpul. Allow a kike to explain it:

http://www.huffingtonpost.com/david-shasha/what-is-pilpul-and-why-on_b_507522.html

In short, the jew is by nature and by culture what I call a "bullshitting debater". Every conversation with a jew is a debate and the jew always tries to get the upperhand and the last word using jewy rhetorical tricks. It's called pilpul and it was designed to interpret the Talmud however they want. This was extended to laws in general and is why the manipulative fucks argue over semantics when dealing with legal stuff. And they extend this into every day conversation.

Pilpul is the "Ashkenazi Genius" they boast about. It's not genius, manipulative rhetoric-based cunning does not replace intelligence.

Thus we get the kikes here on /pol/ using tactics that amount to as you said. Or they go for ad hom personal attacks, use logical fallacies like straw men, etc.

Speaking of rhetorical, you might notice that the kikes ask a lot of rhetorical questions as the kike in question did in its opening and closing sentences. These are used to be persuasive.

Once you learn to see the tactics of the jew, you can gain the upper hand. The jews hate when you point them out and will often ignore it. Because they know you're right.

The psychology of the jew also differs from our own, so they are easy to spot because they just can't blend in and be normal. Not even when they try trolling. But when involving dark humor, I can't tell if it's a kike or not because they seem to get that right (as in their psychology of dark humor blends in with that of our own)

From the writings of an unknown Russian war veteran:

>It happened in 1943. My squad got surrounded and captured by Germans. We were given shovels and told to dig a pit two meters deep. Then we were arranged in a line nearby.
>"Juden, step forward!" - commanded the officer in broken Russian.
>Jewish soldiers among us made a step forward.
>"In the pit!" - the officer commanded. Jews went down into the pit.
>"Rus, take shovel and bury Juden!" - the command followed. None of us moved or touched the shovels.

>"Juden, out of the pit! Rus, go in!" We silently jumped into the pit.
>"Juden, now take shovel and bury Rus!"
>Jews quickly grabbed the shovels and started filling the pit. The earth rose to the knees, then to the chest. It became hard to breathe.
>Suddenly the officer ordered them to stop and said:
>"Well, Rus, do you now understand what Juden is like?"

Jewish Invention Myths

Perhaps you've heard the claims: Were it not for the genius and energy of Jewish inventors, struggling against the racist oppression of anti-Semitic Whites, we might find ourselves in a world lacking stainless steel, lipstick, lasers, shopping carts, chlorinated water, and a vast number of other things we now take for granted but could hardly imagine life without.

The usual argument of the individuals presenting these claims is that Whites owe a great debt to the creative intelligence of Jews—by which they clearly mean the ethnic group—without whom none of the items in question would ever have been invented. This supposition will be revealed here for the nonsense that it is. While Jews and other non-Whites comprise fine specks on the tapestry of inventive history, the fabric from which it is entirely composed is White.

In most cases, Jewish invention myths are dishonest revisions to historical fact in which one or more individuals have skimmed the history of a given idea looking for any Jews to be found and then claiming that the whole of it would not exist without them. In each such instance, the Whites who first invented the concept and/or built the earliest versions are ignored, as are those who perfected it later and those along side of whom the Jew was working, all to foist a fallacious perspective on the reader that Jews make the world go around and Whites desperately need them.

The grounds for assigning priority of invention here will be highly logical: The first known individual to provably conceive of a functioning version of the item or idea according to the parameters of its usual modern definition is the proper inventor. Often this will be the first patent holder, but design patents do not require physical prototypes and some ideas do not truly require a patent to be provably established conceptually. In such cases, journal articles or similar records will be presented instead.

Of the dozens of items and concepts considered here, only a few have any legitimate claim to being original Jewish ideas by even the most technical of criteria, and not a single one of them is so original and unprecedented that it would not exist in some form if Jews were removed from history. Worse still, several of the claims discussed here are rather sinister in construction—instantiations in which unscrupulous persons have gone to major lengths to try to rewrite history to credit Jews for inventions that weren't really theirs. In some cases, individuals have even gone so far as to pursue massive litigation to force society to alter the record regarding who should receive credit for an innovation.

Each item below is listed with its supposed Jewish originator, when available, along with the year it was ostensibly invented, followed by something about the real origin of the invention or at least an earlier instance of it. All other individuals mentioned are White, not Jewish, unless specifically stated otherwise. What one must bear in mind most of all when reading these is the perpetual confrontational assertion accompanying these myths that we would not have these things were it not for the Jews. In each instance, I think an honest person will conclude at the very least that this clearly is not so.

Traffic Lights

Invented by Charles Adler in 1928? No!

Apparently it isn't just Blacks who try to claim credit for this invention, but the answer is still the same: The earliest electric traffic light was invented by Lester Farnsworth Wire in 1912 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He did not bother with a patent. The first one patented was James Hoge's in Cleveland in 1914, US Patent # 1,251,666. Interestingly, the Blacks' false claim for this invention involves an earlier event than the Jews' false claim.

The Laser

Invented by Theodore Maiman in 1960? No!

Gordon Gould (US Patent #4,053,845) is the name one is supposed to assign that distinction. The problem is that the patent listed above was granted only after many years of legal battle with Gould's former teacher, Charles H. Townes, whose patent was #2,929,922, granted on March 22, 1960, fully two months before Maiman's laser came into existence. Gould, meanwhile, first filed for his laser patent in 1959, which was still after Townes, but his legal argument to wrestle credit away from Townes was that he thought of it first and simply didn't act. With the help of a supposedly previously written notebook (notarized by a very close personal friend of his) and a greedy corporation with some very despicable lawyers, he eventually won his case. Maiman's first laser patent (#3,353,115), meanwhile, didn't come until 1961.

Townes, who also invented the maser years earlier, creating the groundwork for the laser in the first place, is not Jewish. Invention patents do not require prototypes, and Maiman didn't even have the idea until after seeing Townes' 1958 paper on the concept in a scientific journal. Perhaps if Townes' design had never worked, there would be an argument for Maiman being the inventor, but it worked just fine.

As to Gould's ethnic identity, some sources say he is a Jew and more say he isn't. He certainly acts like one. His case was, in many ways, a turning point in the history of invention priority because before his lawyers rammed this case through, saying you thought of it first didn't mean anything if you were too stupid to patent or publish the idea, and bringing in a few scribbled notebook pages inexplicably notarized by your best friend would get you laughed out of court.

Townes clearly invented the laser whether or not Gould is Jewish.

The Pacemaker

Invented by Paul Zoll in 1952? No!

The pacemaker was invented by Dr. Mark Lidwell and Edgar H. Booth in 1926. See the discussion of this matter by McVenes, Stokes, and Stokes in "Implantable cardiac electrostimulation devices," publish in Implantable Neural Prostheses 1, 2009, pp. 221-251.

Genetic Engineering

Invented by Stanley N. Cohen in 1973? No!

Inventions like genetic engineering are always problematic because the definition of the term is ambiguous. The definition the Cohen fans are going for here seems to be one of recombinant DNA—the specific modification of a genetic sequence using direct chromosomal alteration.

The first person to perform that feat was David A. Jackson of the University of Michigan. For proof, see Jackson, Symons, and Berg's "Biochemical method for inserting new genetic information into DNA of Simian Virus 40: circular SV40 DNA molecules containing lambda phage genes and the galactose operon of Escherichia coli" in the Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, volume 69, issue 10, 1972, pp. 2904-2909.

The problem with identifying even Dr. Jackson as the inventor is that the idea preceded his work. The idea was first proposed, so far as is known, by Peter Lobban of Stanford for his thesis. (Peter E. Lobban, "The Generation of Transducing Phage In Vitro," third exam, November 6, 1969.) He isn't a Jew, either, so the evidence does not support the assertion that we would not have genetic engineering without Jews.

Electron Crystallography

Invented by Aaron Klug in 1978? No!

The single individual most responsible for this complex and ongoing science was the Russian scientist Z. G. Pinsker, working in the late 1930's. See, for example, Udalova and Pinsker's article "Electron diffraction study of the structure of ammonium sulfate" in the peer-reviewed journal Soviet Physics—Crystallography, volume 8, issue 4, 1964, p. 433.

The Defibrillator

Invented by Paul Zoll in 1952? No!

The first defibrillator was invented by Jean-Louis Prévost and Frédéric Batelli in Geneva, Switzerland in 1899. The first external defibrillator was invented by William Bennett Kouwenhoven in 1930. See Gordon, Fainer, and Ivy article "Artificial respiration: a new method and a comparative study of different methods in adults" in the Journal of the American Medical Association, volume 144, issue 17, 1950, pp. 1455-1464.

Stainless Steel

Invented by Benno Strauss in 1912? No!

It seems like everyone tries to take the credit for inventing stainless steel. The earliest known stainless steel by the modern definition was designed as an alloy by a non-Jewish Frenchman named Brustlein in 1875. Even though he didn't call it by that name, he clearly understood the relationship between chromium, carbon, and corrosion resistance. The only possible argument against Brustlein is that the technology didn't yet exist to make what he designed, though there was a patent three years earlier by two men from England on a corrosion-resistant, high-chromium steel, found more by accident than understanding, however, and making up for the high carbon content by adding tungsten.

Many other non-Jews worked with various kinds of stainless steel before Benno Strauss and his non-jewish partner patented their own version, most significantly Leon Gillet in 1904 who documented the composition of a very useful formulation for it. Why don't all these people count?

Many sources cite Harry Brearley as the proper inventor of stainless steel for succeeding in making a high-chromium, low-carbon, corrosion-resistant steel in 1913 because he was the first to actually make a martensitic version, meaning it was both strong and could be hardened or tempered. If you have a stainless steel knife, you can ultimately credit him. He wasn't Jewish.

Since then, there have been many patents on new kinds of stainless steel. One conclusion is must be drawn from all of this: We would have stainless steel without Jews because Jews didn't invent it.

Thermite

Invented by Hans Goldschmidt in 1895? No!

Goldschmidt certainly gave it the name thermite that everyone now uses, and made a lot of money selling it for industrial welding, but the process in general was discovered earlier by an English chemist named Claude Vautin, who discussed the ability of aluminum powder to reduce many oxides, including iron, with such ferocity that the crucible in which it was ignited was destroyed:

"The affinity of finely powdered aluminum for oxygen, sulphur, chlorine, etc., is such that it is utilized to effect a reduction of metals from their respective oxides, sulfides and chlorides. This was known for many years and is generally credited to Frederick Wohler. About 1894 Claude Vautin found that when aluminum in a finely divided state was mixed with such compounds and ignited, an exceedingly high temperature was developed by the rapid oxidation of aluminum. . . . Profiting by the experiments already made, Dr. Hans Goldschmidt of Essen Germany discovered a method of igniting a cold mixture of fine aluminum and iron oxide . . ." (American Machinist, volume 50, McGraw-Hill, 1919, p. 243.)

Goldschmidt was certainly not the discoverer of this chemical behavior. His real contribution, as mentioned above, was simply using a fuse to set off the mixture such that it did not need to be pre-heated in an oven. He did not even invent the fuse; he merely chose one of the many chemical ignition methods known at that time.

Thermite is an extremely simple invention (rust plus aluminum powder) that inevitably followed the sudden greater availability of aluminum after a White man invented a far better process for refining it. There is absolutely no question we would have thermite if Hans Goldschmidt had never existed, but we wouldn't call it thermite. I guess we should be thankful to him for the spiffy name.

Oral Contraception

Invented by Gregory Pincus in 1960? No!

Actually the first known oral contraceptive was the seed of the silphium plant two thousand years ago, probably of the Ferula genus, and now extinct. It has been suggested more than once that the appearance of this seed, common in brothels of the time, was the source of the heart shape now associated with love and romance.

Pincus was primarily the entrepreneur in charge of a project to create a contraceptive pill. The actual creator of the formulation that became the first oral contraceptive was a Polish (non-Jewish) chemist named Frank Coulton in 1952. See Marsh, Margaret, and Ronner's The fertility doctor: John Rock and the reproductive revolution, from JHU Press, 2010, p. 151.

Polio Vaccine

Invented by Jonas Salk in 1955? No!

The real inventor of the first successful polio vaccine for human beings was a White man named Dr. Howard Howe of Johns Hopkins University. This is confirmed in newspaper articles from 1952 including The Day of New London, Connecticut. The story reads, "Using a vaccine made of killed polio virus, Dr. Howe found that it made children develop antibodies against the virus. He presented his findings today at the annual meeting of the American Public Health association in Cleveland."

So why does Salk always get the credit? Dr. Howe insisted that further testing was needed before wide-spread distribution should begin, just to be safe. Salk, however, desired fame and was less cautious to push his vaccine out, which accidentally resulted in thousands of children getting polio from a flawed batch and eleven consequently dying from it. Maybe Salk fans should be sure to mention that part whenever they tout his name.

The Heimlich Maneuver?

Invented by Henry Heimlich? No!

Ironically, the eponymous choking-alleviation technique that Dr. Heimlich claims inventing was probably the brainchild of his long-forgotten partner, Dr. Edward Patrick. It is not only Dr. Patrick who says so, but also Dr. Heimlich's own son.

These assertions might be written off as envy and rebelliousness were it not for the fact that Dr. Heimlich has gone on to promote a whole plethora of crackpot medical techniques that he supposedly invented, including using "his" anti-choking maneuver on drowning victims (which the medical establishment very firmly insists is dangerous and ineffective), and the deliberate infection with malaria of people with everything from AIDS to Lyme disease to "cure through fever." See, for example, "St. Louis University Under Fire for Work with Doctor Who Infected AIDS Patients with Malaria" in the St. Louis RFT, Sept. 9, 2013. (St. Louis University Under Fire for Work with Doctor Who Infected AIDS Patients with Malaria | Riverfront Times)

Worse still, the overthrow of the prior technique for treating choking victims—a few good smacks on the back—appears to have been brought about by falsified studies performed by Heimlich's own foundation supposedly showing the back-slaps to be less effective. The American Medical Association has since discarded this false evidence and established once again that five hard slaps on the back works better as a first approach. In that case, maybe it doesn't rally matter if it was invented by a Jew or not.

Finally, there is the matter of a very similar technique of old to consider. Dr. F. R. S. Marshall Hall writes in his 1841 book On the Diseases and Derangement of the Nervous System that the best treatment for choking is as follows: "Pressure being made on the abdomen, to prevent the descent of the diaphragm, a forcible blow should be made by the flat of the hand on the thorax. The effect of this is to induce an effort similar to that of expiration; the larynx being closed, oesophageal vomiting takes place, and the morsel is dislodged" (p. 79).

Drs. William Braithwaite and Walter Wells clarify that this is applied to the front of the body, not the back, in their 1861 text, Abdomen-Hypochondriasis on page 872: "Dr. Marshall Hall advises: In cases of sudden choking, as from a morsel of food, take the patient, generally a child, between your knees, one knee (the right) pressing firmly on the stomach, and the other on the back; then place one hand on the back of the thorax, and give a firm blow with the other on the sternum, the morsel will sometimes be expelled with force to a considerable distance."

It seems it doesn't take Jews to figure out that inducing a sharp exhalation by various means will help eject an obstruction to the airway.

Cholera Vaccine

Invented by Waldemar Haffkine in 1892? No!

The first cholera vaccine was invented by the Spanish physician Jaume Ferran i Clua in 1885. See Kaper, J. B. (1989). Vibrio cholerae vaccines. Review of Infectious Diseases, 11(Supplement 3), S568-S573.

Water Chlorination

Invented by Abel Wolman in 1922? No!

Wolman was just some guy who worked as an engineer at the Maryland State Department of Health. City water was first chlorinated in Maidstone, England in 1897 by Sir German Sims Woodhead. See Ritchie, Boycott, and Dean's article "German Sims Woodhead. KBE, MD, LL. D. Born April 29th, 1855–Died December 29th, 1921" in The Journal of Pathology and Bacteriology, volume 25, issue 1, 1922, pp. 118-137.

Plague Vaccine

Invented by Waldemar Haffkine in 1897? No!

First of all, there really isn't a plague vaccine yet, so we might as well be asking who invented the first self-healing airplane even though there aren't any. The vaccine being referred to was removed from use long ago because it was usually ineffective and often caused severe inflammation. To clarify, this vaccine of his is not used precisely because it does not work. Does an invention that doesn't work still count as an invention?

Haffkine was far from being the only researcher attempting to use Pasteur's methods to make a vaccine for the plague. The difference is that all the others (literally dozens of them) were honest enough to admit that their attempts had failed. Haffkine, meanwhile, went around supposedly inoculating people, most of whom would subsequently die when actually exposed to the plague. Were they told the risks?

His survival rate was statistically boosted by the fact that many of the success stories were simply people who never actually got exposed to the disease, and this reveals the danger of post-hoc fallacies in medicine: Assuming they didn't die of plague only and entirely because of the vaccine is flawed reasoning. Two thirds of Europe survived the plague in the Middle Ages, not because they were all immune, but because most of them (fortunately) were not exposed enough to contract the infection.

This was not Haffkine's only major screwup. He was in fact indicted in 1902 for nineteen horrific deaths of Indian villagers by tetanus after they were inoculated against it by Dr. Haffkine. The deaths were ultimately blamed on one of his assistants, however, which shows that when a Jew has coworkers, those individuals don't get credit for the successes, but they do get the blame for the failures.

The first antiserum against plague (though there really isn't one yet) was invented in 1895 by two White men from France named Alexandre Yersin and Paul-Louis Simond. Yersin was the individual responsible for identifying the method by which plague was spread—fleas on rats—and the bacterium responsible. See, for example, Barbara Hawgood's article "Alexandre Yersin (1863–1943): discoverer of the plague bacillus, explorer and agronomist" in the Journal of medical biography, volume 16, no. 3 (2008).

Their antiserum injection had about the same efficacy rate as Haffkine's later vaccine—fifty percent on a good day, which means that theirs was more effective because it was used only on people who were clearly already infected instead of those who might later be exposed (or might not). Still, this is not good enough.

The simple truth is that, even now, your odds are not great if you get plague, which really is still around in the present day, because nobody has yet invented an injection that will prevent or treat it dependably. We are still waiting for the first real plague vaccine or antiserum to be invented, so until somebody actually does that, I don't think it's asking too much to request that people stop crediting Jews for things that don't yet exist.

Hepatitis B Vaccine

Invented by Barry Blumberg in 1969? No!

The reason, of course, that Jews do not list the Jew Saul Krugman as the inventor (who made an early shoddy vaccine by simply boiling infected serum) in order to push back the date is that Krugman was intentionally infecting mentally retarded children at Willowbrook State School with hepatitis to study the effects. To clarify, he was not testing a vaccine on them; he was intentionally giving 800 children the disease. (See Cuenod and Gasser, "Research on the mentally incompetent," Journal of medical ethics, volume 29, number 1, 2003, pp. 19-21.) The principal difference between this and the Tuskegee Syphilis Study is that this actually happened, while Tuskegee is embellished nonsense made up by hysterical anti-Whites.

The trick being played here is the word "vaccine." Yes, it's certainly true that Blumberg and his team (including several Whites) developed the first hepatitis vaccine, by technical definition, because they had the extreme fortune to happen upon an extraordinarily rare antigen (from an Australoid individual) that was not found commonly anywhere else. Many people were working on a vaccine at the time, and the method by which it is presently produced has nothing to do with Blumberg and nothing to do with Jews in general, so we would still have a vaccine if he and all his kind had never lived.

And his was not the first preventative vaccination for the disease. The word is used as a verb in that sentence to refer to the process, not the technical definition of vaccine. The first people to do it were Joseph Stokes and John R. Neefe, who found that injections of gamma globulin immunized individuals against hepatitis in general back in 1945. This was used all the way up to the early seventies because it worked very well. They were not Jewish. See Stokes and Neefe's "The prevention and attenuation of infectious hepatitis by gamma globulin: preliminary note" in the Journal of the American Medical Association, volume 127, number 3 (1945), pp. 144-145.

Does it matter that they were not injecting an actual vaccine? Definitely not! The "vaccine" that individuals now receive for the disease isn't really a vaccine either because it is just an antigen coming from genetically modified organisms instead of the hepatitis virus itself. Despite this, it is called a vaccine and the injection of it to induce immunity is called vaccination. Dr. Stokes' gamma globulin injections served exactly the same purpose. The proponents of the Blumberg myth make it sound like we were completely helpless against the disease before he came along and saved us, and they have selectively ignored the counter-evidence to do so.

Nuclear Chain Reaction

Invented by Leó Szilárd in 1936? No!

Leó Szilárd's concept of a nuclear reaction was incapable of working because he did not understand it properly. He patented a concept of a nuclear chain reaction using light, neutron-yielding isotopes to somehow trigger each other in a cascade. This notion is fundamentally flawed and every attempt to employ it failed and always will.

The first nuclear chain reaction was achieved by the non-Jewish Enrico Fermi in 1942 using heavy isotopes undergoing neutron-generating fission. See Fermi's "The development of the first chain reacting pile," in the Proceedings of the American Philosophical Society, 1946, pp. 20-24.

Surely patenting something that doesn't work and that you don't understand doesn't give you rights to something later that does work and that you didn't think of. Recall the logical criteria for assigning priority here: the first conception of a functional version. If we are going to hand this to Szilárd for having no clue how to do it, we might as well hand it to the Russian scientist Nikolay Semenov for developing the concept of chain reactions in the first place starting in 1928. See Peter Krehl's book History of Shock Waves, Explosions, and Impacts, from Springer Science & Business Media, 2008. Semenov was not Jewish.

Blue Jeans

Invented by Levi Strauss and Jacob David in 1871? No!

The people who make this argument need to read the actual patent: It was for using rivets to reinforce the corners of pants pockets. That's it.

Blue jeans are simply trousers made from denim or dungaree cloth and dyed blue. So when were blue denim trousers invented? Who knows! As far back as the mid-seventeenth century, blue was the traditional color for denim trousers of sailors in Genoa, Italy, from which the name "jeans" is derived. These two Jews did not invent jeans. Please see the article "Mystery of Denim's Origins Solved by Art" at Mystery of Denim's Origins Solved by Art : Discovery News : Discovery News.

Magnetic Information Storage

Invented by Jacob Rabinow in 1954? No!

The first magnetic information storage was invented by the Danish engineer Valdemar Poulsen in 1900. It is US Patent #661,619. The first magnetic recording tape was created by the German Fritz Pfleumer in 1929. His subsequent device for recording and reproducing sound in this matter is US Patent #2,247,847 from 1941.

Lipstick

Invented by Maurice Levy in 1915? Heavens no!

Lipstick was invented in Sumeria about five thousand years ago, and has been in pretty much continuous use ever since. Please refer to Ogilvie and Ryan's "Lipstick: More than a fashion trend" from Edith Cowan University in Australia, 2011. This is one of the more ridiculous claims on the list.

The Ballpoint Pen

Invented by Laszlo Biro in 1938? No!

The first ballpoint pen was patented by John J. Loud in 1888 (US Patent #392,046). He was not a Jew.

Instant Coffee

Invented by some Jew sometime in the twentieth century? No!

While this claim pops up a lot, the exact name and date are never specified. It certainly makes one wonder how those who propagate it are so very certain. I doubt the vast majority of them ever do any more than repost the list and then smugly assert that it "proves" Jews are best at inventing. In any case, it doesn't matter who they choose because instant coffee was invented by David Strang, a White man from New Zealand, in 1890, patent number 3518.

Color Photography

Invented by Leopold Mannes in 1917? No!

The first color photographs were taken by the French physicist Edmund Becquerel in 1848. He used the method he developed to photograph the spectrum from a prism, and published the results in a scientific article, "L'image photographique colorée du spectre solaire" in the Journal Comptes Rendus, vol. 26, pp. 181–183.

The Remote Control

Invented by Robert Adler in 1950? No!

The remote control was invented by the Serbian genius Nikola Tesla in 1898, US Patent #613,809.

The Carburetor

Invented by Donat Banki in 1893? No!

The Carburetor was invented by an Italian named Luigi De Cristoforis, in 1876, as described in the Acts of the Lombard Royal Institute of Science.

Virtual Reality

Invented by Stanley Weinbaum in 1935? No!

At least, he didn't invent it unless we are counting ideas that a person has absolutely no clue how to implement in any sense other than magic. Weinbaum was just an author, not an inventor.

Actual VR was invented by Thomas A. Furness III in 1966 when he designed and built a visual flight simulator for the air force. See HITLab People : Thomas A. Furness III.

LP Records

Invented by Peter Carl Goldmark in 1948? No!

The phonograph itself was invented by Thomas Edison in 1880, of course, US Patent #227,679. The prototype LP record was developed by Western Electric in 1926. RCA Victor introduced the first commercially available thirty-three and a third LP records in 1931. See Bachman's "The LP and the Single" in the Journal of the Audio Engineering Society, volume 25, issue 10/11, 1977, pp. 821-823. All of this took place before 1948, obviously.

Sound Movies

Invented by Joseph Tykociński in 1922? No!

Movies with sound were invented by a Swiss man named Charles François Dussaud in 1899. See Emily Smith's The Akira Kurosawa Handbook from Emereo Publishing, 2013, p. 460.

Videotape

Invented by Charles Ginsberg in 1950? No!

Magnetic recording tape was invented by Fritz Pfeleumer in 1929, as already discussed. Using this same tape to record video was a very obvious step, making one wonder why we would bother crediting ANYONE with "inventing videotape." It's the same stuff. The trick is that video has so much more data to record in the same time interval. The first person known to have solved that problem was Jack Mullin in 1947. See Hammar's article "Jack Mullin: The Man and His Machines" in the Journal of the Audio Engineering Society, vol. 37, no. 6, 1989, pp. 490-512.

Some try to give credit to Charles Ginsburg for the invention because he was the head of a TEAM of people (including one extremely bright young White man you might have heard of named Ray Dolby) who developed a system where the tape moved slowly and the playing head moved rapidly, shortly after Mullin's solution was made public.

Color Television

Invented by David Sarnoff in 1953? No!

As others have pointed out, David Sarnoff was not an inventor, but merely a corporate manager to whom RCA inventors reported—most significantly a White man named George Harold Brown (who has eighty patents while Sarnoff has zero). In truth, it was a White man named Hunter Goodrich who created the tri-color picture tube that made the process possible. It is US Patent # 2,677,779.

Instant Photography

Invented by Edwin Herbert Land in 1947? No!

The first instant camera was invented by Samuel Shlafrack in 1925. (US Patent #1,559,795) He was Polish, not Jewish, having changed the spelling of his name from Szafrak to make the pronunciation more obvious in English.

Holography

Invented by Dennis Gabor in 1948? No!

It should first be clarified that Dennis Gabor in no way conceived of holograms as anyone in the modern world understands them. He was trying only to improve the resolution of electron microscopes and never even imagined three-dimensional pictures stored on photographic film to be viewed with two eyes. That invention came from a White man in Russia named Yuri Nikolaevich Denisjuk in 1962. (Y.N. Denisjuk, "On the reflection of optical properties of an object in a wave field of light scattered by it," Doklady Akademii Nauk SSSR, vol. 144, no. 6, 1962, pp. 1275-1278.)

It is certainly true that Gabor coined the term "hologram," but holography as a process predates his paper on the subject by decades. The method employed for analysis using both amplitude and phase of a radio wave had been in use for many years as an optical computation system. (See Caulfield's Handbook of Optical Holography from Academic Press, New York, 1979, p. 6.)

The concept also dates back to the work of Mieczyslaw Wolfke, who wrote in 1920 that X-ray diffraction patterns of crystals illuminated by monochromatic light create a new diffraction pattern identical to the original object. This, by definition, is holography. Mieczyslaw Wolfke made holograms functionally and intentionally. His paper on the subject is "About the possibility of optical imaging of molecular lattices" in Physikische Zeitschrift, vol. 21, pp. 495-7. The problem is that Wolfke was not a Jew. He was a White man from Poland.

Gabor's own mathematical interpretation of holographic optical phenomena is certainly original and has even been useful, but the assertion by some that we would have no holograms without him is clearly bunk, regardless of the definition one wishes to use for the term. The process predates him and the modern meaning of the term was never imagined by him.

Nuclear Magnetic Resonance and Magnetic Resonance Imaging

Discovered by Isidor Isaac Rabi in 1938? No!

Nuclear Magnetic Resonance (NMR) is, in modern use, a chemical analysis and imaging process that has almost nothing to do with the original investigations, and trying to credit Rabi for the modern ideas is like trying to credit the inventor of the abacus for electronic computers even if he had been the original source of the concept.

Nuclear Magnetic Resonance was discovered in 1946 by a White man named Edward Purcell. (The article is "Resonance Absorption by Nuclear Magnetic Moments in a Solid" in Physical Review, vol. 69, 1946, p. 37.) What this statement means is that Purcell and his colleagues successfully observed the phenomenon that had already been predicted by theory. So who created that theory? Was it Rabi? No. Was it another Jew? No. It seems to have been a White man named C. J. Gorter who discussed the idea in a paper two years before Rabi: Physica, vol. 3, 1936, p. 995.

Cheesecake

Invented by Jewish immigrants to the United States in the 1920's? No!

Cheesecake is first mentioned as far back in history as ancient Greece, described by a physician named Aegimus, who discussed it as an already established and elaborate art.

The Shopping Cart

Invented by Sylvan Goodman in 1940? No!

This invention, like lipstick, is almost too silly to bother even discussing. The invention of carts goes with the invention of the wheel by Indo-Europeans thousands of years ago. Presumably a shopping cart is a cart that one uses while shopping. Apparently one is supposed to believe that nobody ever used a cart to hold purchases until Goodman saved humanity from its short-sightedness. Little red wagons used for transporting purchases don't count, apparently, and nor do hand carts, vander carts, wheel barrows, laundry carts, and roller carts.

Since Goodman's advocates will insist on seeing a prior patent for a shopping cart, here it is: "Shopping wagon," US Patent #1,817,260 from 1931, by J. V. Longan. The application clearly states that it is for "shopping in retail stores, or for use in the homes of individuals in simplifying the work of the housewives in performing the necessary household duties. The device as described above is a combination shopping wagon and baby cart." In other words, it is a cart to be used while shopping. Items to be purchased go into it, and there's even a place to set your baby while you wander the aisles picking out goods. Sound familiar?

For those who would argue that Longan's invention bears little resemblance to modern shopping carts, please notice that Goodman's does not either. The shopping cart as we all now picture it was invented by a White man named Orla Watson in 1949, US Patent #2,479,530.

So is J.V. Longan the true inventor of the shopping cart? Who knows! What kind of person would make such a big deal out of such a trivial invention? One thing is clear though: Sylvan Goodman did not invent the concept of using a cart when shopping, no matter what anyone tries to tell you.

Chemotherapy

Invented by Sydney Farber in 1948? No!

The first time chemical treatment was known to have been applied to cancer was 1946 by Alfred Z. Gilman, Louis S. Goodman, and Gustaf E. Lindskog. Refer to their article "Nitrogen mustard therapy: Use of methyl-bis (beta-chloroethyl) amine hydrochloride and tris (beta-chloroethyl) amine hydrochloride for Hodgkin's disease, lymphosarcoma, leukemia and certain allied and miscellaneous disorders" in the Journal of the American Medical Association, vol. 132, iss. 3, pp. 126-132.

None of them are Jews, though Goodman might be Mestizo, judging from his photographs. Some people will also confuse the Alfred Gilman mentioned here for Alfred G. Gilman, who is a Jew, but had nothing to do with chemotherapy research.

Local Anesthesia

Invented by Alfred Einhorn in 1806? No!

Invented by Carl Koller in 1884? No!

Local anesthesia goes way, way back in history. It is certainly true that one of these two men invented one more of the caine drugs in a long line of them (Novocaine, which followed amylocaine and benzocaine by White inventors, and was later replaced by lidocaine by another White inventor since Novocaine caused so many allergic reactions), but there is no way to credit him alone in the midst of that line for local anesthesia. Nor is it valid to credit the other, an eye doctor who gave his patients cocaine, which generally would not be considered a sane practice to emulate.

Local anesthetics as numbing agents go back in Europe at least as long as everyone has known the effect of clove oil on a toothache or menthol on skin irritation (which go even farther back in the explorations of the Indo-Europeans to the Middle-East and India), and those are only a couple of examples. The people trying to promote Jews as crucial inventors were really stretching on this one.

A further word should also be added about Novocaine, since Jewish invention lists often include it: The game being played here is that most people continue to use the term for local anesthesia injections in general despite the fact that Novocaine is almost never used anymore. Your dentist is giving you lidocaine, not Novocaine. As the list above shows, a Jew did indeed invent one more "caine" in the middle of a very long list, but his substance is not the one now used, and was not the first, so the implication that we owe Jews every time we have dental work done is extremely dishonest.

The Geosynchronous Communications Satellite

Invented by Harold A. Rosen in 1961? No!

Rosen was in charge of a team at Hughes Aircraft that built the first such satellite. It was not his invention and was not even by any of his team of White engineers. It was the brainchild of a Slovene rocket engineer named Herman Potočník in 1928, who not only worked out the calculations for such an orbit, but commented on the usefulness of placing objects there in observation of and communication with the earth via radio.

Aspirin

Invented by Arthur Eichengrün in 1897? No!

While Eichengrün made this false claim in 1949 to try to get fame he didn't deserve, the true inventor was a non-Jew named Felix Hoffman. The company for which both men worked at the time (Bayer) has confirmed this in a press release. Felix Hoffmann &C. Personalities of Bayer's History - Bayer This is in spite of recent pathetic litigation that has attempted to force a revision of history to name Eichengrün instead of Hoffman.

Benzodiazepine (Librium and Valium)

Invented by Leo Sternbach in 1961? No! (Well, he was in the room at the time.)

Sternbach headed a group of scientists including Earl Reeder and Lowell Randall, along with others whose names are even more forgotten than theirs are. They wanted to test the psychoactive effects of a dye-related compound and they put it through the usual paces of chemically altering it this way and that way and sending it off for testing. None of the variants did anything significant. The company for whom they worked (Roche) saw this and after a couple years, told them to give it up and move on to something else.

They were cleaning out the lab to start on something new when Earl—not Leo—noticed a single sample that had somehow gone unprocessed. He—not Leo—sent it off for testing, and lo and behold, it was an amazing tranquilizer.

So what we have is a bunch of people working together on a project, certainly not all Jews. They made countless formulations together, largely failed together, and then one of them sends off a sample that Sternbach would have simply thrown in the trash. And behold, the inventor of benzodiazepine becomes Sternbach, all by himself, all alone, in every textbook and webpage—and most importantly on the patent. Ka-CHING!

For confirmation of this story, read here: Stanley Osborne in Benzodiazepine 152 Success Secrets - 152 Most Asked Questions On Benzodiazepine - What You Need To Know, Emereo Publishing, 2014, pp. 126-140.

Would we have benzodiazepine without Jews? Who knows, but the question hardly matters since it is just one more in a very long list of tranquilizers, which may not actually be a good thing.

Prozac

Invented by Klaus Schmieg in 1982? No!

As much as I would like to blame a Jew for this awful substance, I must actually blame two Asians and three White guys: David T. Wong, Jong S. Horng, Frank P. Bymaster, Kenneth L. Hauser, and Bryan B. Molloy, who noted its serotonin-related effects in 1974: "A selective inhibitor of serotonin uptake: Lilly 110140, 3-(p-trifluoromethylphenoxy)-N-methyl-3-phenylpropylamine" published in Life sciences, vol. 15, no. 3, 1974, pp 471-479.

Kidney Dialysis

Invented by Willem Johan Kolff in 1943? Yes!

Try as I might, I cannot find any source identifying him as Jew, despite his unfortunate nose. This is assuming they mean him and not someone else, since it is similarly difficult to find an actual name to go with the claim. The "Jewish invention" lists simply assert that a Jew invented the dialysis machine without giving an identity or a year. I think semitophiles either mistook him for a Jew because of his anti-German attitude during the Second World War, or they are trying to give credit for his invention to the Jewish man in charge of the hospital at the time. Either way, they are mistaken.

Sonar and Sonograms

Invented by Robert Rines in 1970? No!

This has to be one of the more hilarious mistakes on the list. Rines spent 37 years of his life searching for "Nessie." In 1970, he used sonar. He did not invent it.

Sonar was invented by Paul Langevin, Constantin Chilowsky, and Robert Boyle in 1916. See Ainslie's book Principles of Sonar Performance Modelling, published by Springer, 2010, p. 10. Chilowsky and Langevin's patent was in France, number 502,913. They were not Jewish.

The Hypodermic Needle

Invented by Benjamin A. Rubin in 1961? No!

The hypodermic needle was invented by Christopher Wren in 1656, quite a long time before 1961. He used fine goose quills to inject medication intravenously. Honestly, who thinks there were no syringes before 1961?

The Fax Machine

Invented by Arthur Korn in 1906? No!

Dr. Korn was merely one member of a team of scientists working on a transmission device, but the concept was old even then. The first fax machine was actually invented by a Scottish mechanic and inventor Alexander Bain. In 1843, Alexander Bain was granted a British patent for "improvements in producing and regulating electric currents and improvements in timepieces and in electric printing and signal telegraphs." Yes, electric printing really is that old.

Some might object, however, that Bain's work was not a true image facsimile. In that case, go forward to 1861 when Giovanni Caselli patented the pantelegraph, an apparatus specifically for transmission of facsimile, European Patent #2532, US Patent #37,563.

Optical Fibre Data Transmission

Invented by Heinrich Lamm in 1930? No!

It took time just to sort out which Jew was being credited here and for exactly what since the claims all simply say "fiber optics." Such is the case so very often. The "Jewish invention" lists don't give a name or a date or even a clear claim; they just throw out a couple of familiar words and assert that the world owes Jews for the whole concept and everything associated with it.

The first glass fiber was produced by Charles Vernon Boys in 1887, though he did not create it for optical transmission. That was instead achieved through larger glass rods by Drs. Roth and Reuss of Vienna for illuminating body cavities. The first person to conceive of optical fiber information transmission was the French scientist Henry Saint-Rene in 1898. The first patent on the idea went to the Scottish engineer John Logie Baird in 1926, British patent #285,738.

The Microphone

Invented by Emile Berliner in 1877? No!

The semitophiles' attempt to credit Berliner for the carbon microphone, which was the first microphone of decent quality, i.e. that actually worked, is an especially invalid claim as Berliner did not invent it first, and nor did he invent it second, as he got into a patent-priority dispute with Thomas Edison and lost the case. That is, he (a Jew) decided to sue for priority over an invention back when the courts actually weighed evidence instead of political correctness and the court determined that Edison really had beat him to it.

The real first inventor, however, was the Englishman David Edward Hughes (who coined the term "microphone," incidentally) who originally had no interest in patenting his idea, and demonstrated it in front of many people years earlier. (See "Obituary: David Hughes" in The Electrician, published in London, January 26, 1900, pp. 457-8.)

So neither in terms of patent nor in any chronological sense did a Jew invent the microphone.

Radial Engine

Invented by Emile Berliner in 1908? No!

The first radial engine was invented by Charles Manly in 1901. (See "Charles M. Manly Papers, 1895-1925" in the National Air and Space Museum Archives via SIRIS, Charles M. Manly Papers, 1895-1925 \(bulk 1903-1915\).)

The Microprocessor

Invented by Stanley Mazor in 1971? No!

Mazor was on the team that created the Intel 4004, but the chief designers of the chip were Frederico Faggin and Ted Hoff, with Faggin doing the silicon design and Hoff handling chip architecture. Many sources, Wikipedia included, do not even mention Mazor as a primary member of the design team in discussing the chip itself, though his name is the third listed on the patent (U.S. Patent #3,821,715).

Cell Phones

Invented by Martin Cooper in 1973? No!

This is another case of all credit to the Jewish team manager. There is a complication, however, in that wireless phones go back to nearly the start of the twentieth century and don't involve any Jews, not even as managers, at that time.

AT&T offered mobile telephone service as early as 1947, but an operator had to serve as an intermediary. All of this leaves one wondering why anyone would credit someone as late as 1973 for "cellular technology." In fact, despite frequent Jewish claims that Cooper made the very first mobile phone call in 1973, it was actually made 27 years earlier.

A White man named Douglas Ring proposed in 1947 that the countryside be covered for such calling purposes by a grid of hexagonal "cells" that each centered on a radio tower so that calls could be made anywhere. He and Rae Young (another White man) developed this technology for Bell Labs. Cooper's team was the first to finish a hand-held cell phone (it was a very close race with many other teams pursuing the same goal), but it used the grid Whites had invented and established long before, and larger cell phones had already existed in cars and large, portable boxes for many years. See "1946: First Mobile Telephone Call" at the AT&T Labs Technology Timeline: AT&T Labs - Innovation - Technology Timeline - First Mobile Telephone Call | AT&T Labs | AT&T.

The VCR

Invented by Charles Ginsburg in 1956? No!

Charles Ginsburg was, once again, merely the head of a team of people working at Ampex Corporation to create a more practical videotape recorder. As usual, the Jew tries to take all the credit. In any case, the first video tape recorder was demonstrated in 1951 by Bing Crosby Enterprises. See article "Tape Recording Used by Filmless 'Camera'" in the New York Times, November 12, 1951, p. 21.

And take the word "practical" in the description of the Ampex machine with a grain of salt: It cost $50,000 at a time when a decent house cost about ten thousand.

Drip Irrigation

Invented by Simcha Blass in 1959? Heavens, no!

Blass was just a businessman who sold drip irrigation systems. Drip irrigation dates so far back into history that it's not even clear who first used it. It was employed in Ancient India and Ancient China well before the common era, and has been used continuously ever since. Modern drip irrigation began in the 1860's when British developers attempted to modernize Afghanistan after the first Anglo-Afghan war. With water in short supply, British researchers experimented with unglazed clay-pipe irrigation systems that conserved moisture by dripping it underground at the roots of the plants, and draining away the water that escaped the bottom of the planters through lower pipes. See Megh Goyal's Sustainable Micro Irrigation: Principles and Practices, published by CRC Press, 2014, p. xx.

Model Electric Trains

Invented by Joshua Cowan in 1898? No?

Cowan founded Lionel. They made a great deal of money selling model trains. He did not invent them. They were invented by Robert Finch and Morton Carlisle in 1894. See the Train Collectors Association page on Carlisle and Finch trains, Carlisle & Finch Trains.

The Pager

Invented by Al Gross in 1949? No!

The first pager system in operation was employed by the Detroit Police Department in 1921 to send alerts to squad cars. Semitophiles don't think this should count because it was not available to the general public, but neither was Gross' system. (Double standards abound!) That kind of paging was created by Multitone Electronics in 1956. See Donnelly, Park, et al., "The Decline of Pager Technology," Dartmouth College, Error.)

The Walkie-Talkie

Invented by Al Gross in 1941? No!

The Walkie-Talkie was invented by Donald Hings in 1937, Canadian Patent #466,457. Gross in fact heard of Hings' design and simply decided to make his own version.

Refrigerated Railroad Cars

Invented by Isador Kitsee sometime? No!

As with nearly all Jewish invention claims, virtually no information is supplied by those parrots who spout them. They don't even know if such a person ever lived, let alone what he did or did not invent and when. Kitsee moved to America in about 1866 and died in 1931. (See Jewish Telegraph Agency obituary records at obituaries | Jewish Telegraphic Agency - Part 367.) Clearly then, since the refrigerated railcar comes from America, he must have done it after 1866. The first refrigerated railcar using mechanical refrigeration, however, did not come into existence until 1947, so the claim cannot refer to that. (See Pacific Fruit Express Company #3000010, a kind of mechanical refrigerated car, described at <https://www.pfex.com/trains/freight/pfe-300010/>.)

The conclusion then is that Kitsee's "invention" was an ice-car, but the problem is that the first one of those was invented by a man named Wilder in 1851 in Chicago, long before Kitsee arrived in the US. (Schlitz Refrigerated Box Cars or Reefers Plus History Behind)

Kitsee was a prolific "inventor," by which it is meant that he prolifically patented his own versions of things that other people had already invented. How typically Jewish. His versions were neither groundbreaking nor better, which is why he is virtually unknown except to semitophiles who seize onto the titles of his patents and foolishly assume he must have been the originator in every case. He wasn't.

Vacuum Tubes

Invented by Irving Langmuir in 1915? No!

The first patent for a vacuum tube was granted to Robert von Lieben in 1906, German Patent #179,807.

Incandescent Lights

Invented by Irving Langmuir in 1916? No!

The first true electric light (despite brevity of operation) was invented by a White man named Humphrey Davy in 1809. See Maxime Gendre's article "Two centuries of electric light source innovations" (2003) at http://www.einlightred.tue.nl/lights...ht_history.pdf.

The Blimp

Invented by David Schwartz in 1885? No!

The concept of airships—blimps, specifically—was invented by Jean Baptiste Marie Meusnier in 1783. Anne-Jean Robert and his brother Nicolas-Louis Robert flew such a craft based on Meusnier's design, which they built along with Jacques Charles, across the English Channel in 1785. All four of these individuals were French, not Jewish. See C. Truesdell's "Jean-Baptiste-Marie Charles Meusnier de la place (1754–1793): an historical note" in Meccanica, vol. 31, number 5, 1996, pp 607-610.

Tapered Roller Bearings

Invented by Henry Timkin in 1898? No!

The original tapered roller bearing was invented in 1895 by John Lincoln Scott. It is US Patent #552,008.

The Adding Machine

Invented by Abraham Stern in 1812? No!

Blaise Pascal and Wilhelm Schickard beat him to it by just a tiny bit: Theirs was completed in 1642. Next was the Stepped Reckoner by Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz in 1694. See Nicole Ketelaars' article "Pascal's calculator" in AIME Magazine, vol. 2, 2001, pp. 3-5, also Robert Soare's "Computability and recursion" in the Bulletin of Symbolic Logic, vol. 2, no. 03, 1996, pp. 284-321.

The Flexistraw

Invented by Joe Friedman in 1937? No!

This invention is literally too stupid to spend time on, but Jews always bring it up as if we would have no flexible straws without them—heaven forbid! The concept of the flexible, collapsible "drinking tube" goes back at least as far as J. L. Clarke's 1909 US Patent #942,306. It does not use the same mechanism, but the purpose is the same.

Harold Pye had introduced the plaited form for flexible tubes in general in 1936 (US Patent #2,054,024), along with a method of manufacture and could well have sued Friedman (who was sadly still trying to live off the dying novelty of his stupid straws a decade later). Pye didn't sue, no doubt in part because he wasn't a Jew.

Really, the idea that we wouldn't have bendable soda straws without Jews (or would really care if we didn't) is laughable.

Scotchgard

Invented by Sam Smith in 1971?

Patsy O'Connell Sherman, the main credited inventor (US Patent #3,574,791), is not Jewish. Her colleague in fluorochemical research at 3M at the time she made the substance that was to become Scotchgard was a Jew named Sam Smith. Funny how Jews always leave out the main person and tell us Jews were essential to the process and without them we would not have Scotchgard.

Special Relativity

Invented by Albert Einstein in 1905? No!

Henri Poincaré introduced the principle of relativity on September 14th, 1904 at the Congress of Arts and Science associated with the World's Fair in St. Louis, Missouri. His talk explained that the laws of physical phenomena must be the same for a stationary observer as for one in uniform motion of translation such that one cannot have any means of discerning whether or not such motion is occurring.

This is the principle of special relativity. There is no escaping the fact that Poincaré had it right, understood it, and expressed it first. (See Henri Poincaré's "L'état actuel et l'avenir de la physique mathématique" in the Bulletin des sciences mathématiques, vol. 28, no. 2, 1904, pp. 302-324.)

He was probably the biggest name in physics in all the world at that time, had already espoused the idea in many such seminars, and Albert Einstein claimed he had never heard anything about it.

General Relativity

Invented by Albert Einstein in 1915? No!

David Hilbert completed the general theory of relativity at least five days before Einstein. Despite the fact that he should have been well aware of Einstein's repeated thievery of others' ideas, Hilbert sent a copy of his work to Einstein, who had been stuck and going in circles, and Einstein immediately copied the equations and submitted them for publication as original work. See Winterberg's article, "On 'Belated Decision in the Hilbert-Einstein Priority Dispute,'" published by L. Corry, J. Renn, and J. Stachel" in Zeitschrift für Naturforschung, 59a, 2004, pp. 715-719.

Alternating Current

Invented by Charles Steinmetz in 1893? No!

The first AC generator was produced by French instrument maker Hippolyte Pixii in 1832 based on the designs of Michael Faraday. See, for example, Eichard Parsons' article "Electrical stimulation of the facial nerve" in The Laryngoscope, vol. 76, no. 3, 1966, pp. 391-406.

The Telephone

Invented by Johann Philipp Reis in 1860? No!

The first electronic telephone was built by the Italian inventor Antonio Santi Giuseppe Meucci in 1857. (See Basilio Catania's "Antonio Meucci: Telephone Pioneer" in the Bulletin of Science, Technology & Society, volume 21, no. 1 in 2001, pp. 55-76.) It should be noted, however, that both Meucci's and Reis' telephones were not very functional, and so really should not count. The first patented telephone of fully functional capacity really was invented by Alexander Graham Bell. Jews ignore this, and simultaneously skip over Meucci's invention, because Bell and Meucci weren't Jews.

Mercury Batteries

Invented by Samuel Ruben in 1942? No!

The first mercury battery was created by Charles L. Clarke in 1884, US Patent #298,175.

Gasoline and Gasoline Lamps

Invented by Abraham Schreiner in 1853? No!

What Schreiner used in his kerosene lamp was not gasoline, nor did he invent the lamp, nor petroleum distillation, nor any of the other absurdly unlikely things Jews have tried to credit him for. Petroleum distillation yielding various grades of hydrocarbons including what is now called gasoline, as well as kerosene, was invented by a Canadian geologist named Abraham Gesner in 1846. By 1850, he had started the Kerosene Gaslight Company and it was well established that coal, petroleum, and oil shale could be distilled to yield such useful substances. See Kendall Beaton's "Dr. Gesner's kerosene: The start of American oil refining" in Business History Review, vol. 29, no. 01, 1955, pp. 28-53.

a bunch of jews got together, they all gave a super jew their money, he formed an investment fund that super jew became so jewish (greedy) that he sold 260% of gamestops shares, (something technically not even possible), agreeing to buy the shares back by this friday.

goys on biz and wsb found out that this ultrakike has to buy back billions of dollars worth of gamestop by friday, so they all started buying like crazy and everyone is refusing to sell.

the superjew has to buy, he had an agreement and so he has to pay what the price on the market is.

hes losing billions, therefore his jewish investors are losing billions goys are literally shoahing the jews again, this is the actual next holocaust also to have (through character) a unique nature of their own.

Within this metaphysical context of discussion, the concept of Jewish spirit signifies a mind which possesses talent and cleverness, but which is also divorced from the deep spiritual forces that shape man and give rise to culture. It is a mind which lacks a nature of its own, and a spirit of something other than culture. The Jewish spirit, being an intellectual force only, is like a society with no culture of its own or a clever man lacking a distinct personality of his own. In order to flourish and create in a cultural manner this spirit must first settle upon some cultural habitat and acquire a distinguishing human nature. It must lodge within somebody else's culture, and its possessors must reflect someone else's character. But because of its intellectual nature, because it does not derive from a real, genuine, natural force that shapes a culture, it is incapable of creating in a manner that authentically expresses the spirit of that culture.

So much for the metaphysics of the spirit in general. In a more detailed way he seems to find proof of what he has said about the nature

There's a general phenomenon I've noticed on the Internet. Any forum with free speech and little to no moderation becomes right wing. Leftist ideas cannot exist without censorship and moderation.

This is why we've started seeing armies of paid shills trying to flood spaces with their talking points.

Reddit (/rɛdɪt/^[1] stylized as reddit, is a social news and entertainment website where registered users submit content in the form of either a link or a text ("self") post. Other users then vote the submission "up" or "down", which is used to rank the post and determine its position on the site's pages and front page. Reddit is based in San Francisco, California. Content entries are organised by areas of interest called "subreddits".

Reddit was founded by Steve Huffman and Alexis Ohanian. It was acquired by Condé Nast Publications in October 2006. In September 2011, Reddit was split from Condé Nast, and now operates as a subsidiary of Condé Nast's parent company, Advance Publications.

/v/ played a best of 5 match of Tribes: Ascend with Reddit.

The Reddit team had been tourneyed for within their own playerbase, they picked the best they had, and scrimmed and practiced for weeks before the match.

/v/ had a rag-tag group of random /w/irgins pulled from the team's open Steam group 30 minutes before the match, lead by a furry avatar using tripcandy-ass and a BR sniper with 140 ping.

/v/ fainted the first two matches and then pounded their asses into the dirt.

A website called reddit
So pretentious and lame
They try to use memes
To gain Internet fame
The comments are sad
But the users much sadder
Their egos, inflated
But their stomachs much fatter
They judge and complain
Behind Internet walls
Too oblivious to notice
They have no life at all

When opinions conflict
They'll cry and they'll mope
Then show you who's boss
With a raging downvote
And if that doesn't work
They'll call their mod-saviors
Who will ban you to keep peace
Within their calm echo-chamber
So tread lightly on reddit
Or you'll pay their fine
Your voice will be silenced
From their liberal hivemind
It's probably better
You just stick to /b/
Where the posts are offensive
But the people are free
No voting, no rules
Just corpses and maggots
Some tits and some pussy
And were all nigger-faggots

Is my post really considered racist or anti-semitic and not simply informative? I expressed no bias only used duplicity to bring awareness to a subject which many find detestable while the majority are wholly unaware of it's existence. If you feel this is simply not the forum then I can accept that and will remove post.

I did a year on Reddit after trying to quit 4chan and go be with the "normal people." It was miserable. No matter how nice, how polite, how respectful your opinions are, the nature of the voting system means people there have been literally trained to attack anyone with a dissenting opinion.

After a few months I got sick of it and just started attacking people the way they were attacking me. It made them SEETHE. They're so used to being the aggressor and making you defend yourself against strawmen that the inversion of that completely shatters their worldview. They don't know how to react. It's like they take it for granted that they're the "good guys" and you're the "bad guy" and that's just how the conversation's going to go. Refuse to accept your role of the bad guy and it's like they have no script to follow.

The biggest eye-opener for me was just watching how differently people treat each other there. I spent a year on that site and I never saw, let alone had, a genuine, heartfelt conversation between two people. Everything felt so artificial, so hollow. It was just rows of shitty puns and shallow anecdotes sandwiched between corporate advertisements. This place has a lot of dogshit, don't get me wrong, but I've had life-changing conversations with all sorts of people from around the world on here. There are no points. There are no cliques. There's no social credit feedback. It's just people in their rawest form.

I've come to the conclusion that it's not a meme. You are unironically here forever.

>Why does Pol hate /T_/D/ when they both are centered around mindlessly gumping Trump semen?

Because Reddit, like other social media fucks your brain. The Karma system adds a value to your comment/personal opinion for others to approve or not, your brain gets hijacked to seek social belonging by making use of the System in place.

Thats what this anon>>2846

>those plebs are not even pretending to have a conversation

What he is remarking, is that they aren't really having a conversation because all the discussion has been already "approved" or "disapproved" by having incorporated the value system into their cognitive processes. Specifically social interaction. They have a Group cognitive bias integrated into their brains. /Pol/ incentivises you to have a frank conversation, if you are a commie or a nazi it doesn't matter, there are no upvotes nor likes nor hearts to "strengthen" your post, either you provide a well structured argument with sources that addresses directly the other anons claim or you get bullied the fuck out, trial by fire. Its a gym for the mind what we do in /pol/, while at social media your mind gets dulled and addicted to interact based in approval by a system, thats why fakebookers, plebbitors and the rest are so easy to psyops and fall for forum sliding techniques, their minds are looking for attention, not information, but through their attention they get fed any information the propagandist aims to spread, eventually you form all your world view from fake information and meaning. Believe in fake memes, you project a fake reality. They are getting fed information through hijacked attention. Their Minds get programmed literally.

When you read someones post in an anonymous forum, having no other way to identify the poster, you internalise said information he as written. And you start constructing him in your mind, when you post something, you are leaving a trace of your consciousness thinking, of your personality, of your emotions, at the given time you wrote the post to other people, you are reading my thoughts right know, you are in my mind when you read this or better put, you are recreating my Mind in yours as you read this, "scanning" my psyche. Ever wondered why some anons posts get you the Feels? Thats how we know plebbitor from oldfag from CIA nigger, that why they glow in the dark, its because they are glowing inside your mind. They share their own thoughts in this place and their illusions are broken as we know that their thoughts are skewed, illogical, nonsensical, lies etc. by comparing them to ours with only your own mindpower to call them out.

/Pol/ trains your consciousness to identify other types of consciousness and their intents.

It's not the left can't meme per say, it's that their viewpoints rely on a carefully constructed denial of reality, to a far greater extent than any of the cults or religions they seek to supplant. This doesn't lend itself to simple, easily conveyed messages, because if you rely on your viewers to see things as they are, without providing several layers of carefully selected context, they'll interpret it the wrong way. The left can't meme because memes are the antithesis of how they communicate.

What is wrong with social justice warriors? What do you have against us? We are fighting to end hate, to unite as one and love each other. We are fighting to be treated right without discrimination and for everyone to have equal opportunities. .

So why? Why do you hate us? Why do you want us out? I dont understand.

>We are fighting to end hate, to unite as one and love each other. We are fighting to be treated right without discrimination and for everyone to have equal opportunities. .

Bullshit. You have no quantifiable metrics for injustice, so you have no victory conditions (for a very simplified example, when blacks hold X% of all engineering jobs and are only Y% of all prisoners, racism is ended). That would be fine by itself, but you believe in fighting injustice with injustice (gays have historically been denied gay marriage? let's get random CEOs fired for opinions they held six years ago). You don't seek converts, you seek to punish and bully - straight white males who disagree with you must be purged and publicly humiliated. Even the jihadists will spare you if you convert; no apology or future correction will satisfy a SJW.

I could forgive that too if you weren't all hypocrites and liars. Your treatment of women and minority dissenters is appalling; if they don't want you acting on their behalf, that's their choice, not "internalized patriarchy" or whatever. You rob them of moral agency. When called out for these behaviors (as you always insist on calling out others), you lie. You strawman your opponents (criticized a woman? misogynist!), you group them with the worst (you're a gamer? you're as bad as the anonymous rape threateners!) and when confronted with your own flaws, you restate them less threateningly (motte and bailey argument). You phrase all arguments as kafkatraps (disagreeing with your assertion that we are evil is taken as proof that we're evil). You publish manipulated and misleading statistics, then lambast anyone who questions them.

You insist on vigilante justice against random acts of the week for your two-minutes hate. Why is it the NFL's business to punish domestic violence? And, if it is their business, why isn't Hope Solo receiving the same attention from your side?

Then you claim to be arguing for equality, but you've taken the idea of racism (hatred based on skin color is bad) and replaced it with a new concept where only one race can be guilty of racism. You excuse racial prejudice and hatred based on what I've already explained are arbitrary, unmeasured states of being.

Your solution for the unequal treatment of whites and blacks is to hold whites to a higher standard. Your side lobbied the FBI to redefine rape so more women victims would be counted, but also so that "made to penetrate" does not count, leaving male victims in the cold. Because male privilege, apparently.

Historically ignorant SJWs think whites hold collective guilt for the awful things our ancestors have done. But they don't care about the unspeakable atrocities by other races. The only difference between whites and others was that whites had the social and technological prowess to do evil efficiently; Africans, Asians, Indians, and everyone else practiced genocide and slavery, they were just less adept at doing it right. Given the means, they would have done the same. But nope, only whites are guilty; Arab oppression of blacks and caucasians never happened, not to us, nope.

I've been lucky enough to grow up in America, so this shit is new to me. But I'm descended from puritans, and I know my history; I know how they treated dissent. I also know how commies treated dissent; I grew up next door to a grizzled old Russian who barely avoided the gulag by smuggling himself out of the country. I know what you petty tyrants have turned into every time you gained enough power.

Worst of all, you turn the very principles of freedom against us. We tolerate you because we believe in free speech and civil discourse, not bullying and violence. But that means we have to watch you advocate against that very freedom. We don't believe in ruining a stranger's professional life over an opinion, but that means that we can't punish your actions.

3/2 because I'm having fun here.

We believe that the rightness of our actions should speak for itself. You believe in bullying, even as you claim to love the oppressed.

Funny how the evil and all-powerful patriarchy has seen fit to act according to SJW whims for all of recent memory, punishing those they hate and protecting those they love. Funny how the evil oppressor males have to speak anonymously, while the SJWs fighting the power can use their real names and get mainstream media coverage for fun and profit. How when a million straight white male nerds get bullied, no one cares, but the minute one fag hangs himself, suddenly bullying matters - and the solution, of course, is more bullying, but by the "right" people.

That's the arrogant core of it. You do the same evil, in the same pattern, as so many before you, because mob justice, punishing dissent, and repression of others is just fine and dandy so long as the "right" people are doing it to the "wrong" people.

Eat shit and die. All I ever asked was to be left alone.

Use of Social Justice Terminology in New York Times per Article

"If we broke up the big banks tomorrow," Mrs. Clinton asked the audience of black, white and Hispanic union members, "would that end racism? Would that end sexism? Would that end discrimination against the L.G.B.T. community?" she said, using an abbreviation for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender. "Would that make people feel more welcoming to immigrants overnight?"

At each question, the crowd called back with a resounding no.

COINTELPRO

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

COINTELPRO (an acronym for Counter INTElligence Program) was a series of covert, and at times illegal,^{[1][2]} projects conducted by the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) aimed at surveying, infiltrating, discrediting, and disrupting domestic political organizations.^[3] National Security Agency operation Project MINARET targeted the personal communications of leading Americans who criticized the Vietnam War, including Senators (e.g., Frank Church and Howard Baker), civil rights leaders (e.g., Dr. Martin Luther King), journalists, and athletes.^{[4][5]}

COINTELPRO memo proposing a plan to expose the pregnancy of actress Jean Seberg, a financial supporter of the Black Panther Party, hoping to "possibly cause her embarrassment or tarnish her image with the general public". Covert campaigns to publicly discredit activists and destroy their interpersonal relationships were a common tactic used by COINTELPRO agents.

Intended effects

The intended effect of the FBI's COINTELPRO was to "expose, disrupt, misdirect, or otherwise neutralize" groups that the FBI officials believed were "subversive"^[33] by instructing FBI field operatives to:^[34]

1. create a negative public image for target groups (e.g. by surveilling activists, and releasing negative personal information to the public)
2. break down internal organization
3. create dissension between groups
4. restrict access to public resources
5. restrict the ability to organize protests
6. restrict the ability of individuals to participate in group activities

Progressive stack

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

A progressive stack is a technique designed to ensure that people from marginalized groups get a chance to speak.^[1] It is sometimes an introduction to, or stepping stone to, consensus decision-making in which simple majorities have less power.

The theory behind the progressive stack is to counteract the experience that people who are part of the majority or dominant culture are generally encouraged to express themselves, while people from minority or non-dominant groups are mostly silenced or ignored. In practice, "majority culture" is typically interpreted by progressive stack practitioners to mean white or male or young adult, while non-dominant groups include women, people who are lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender, non-white people, and very young or older people.^{[2][3]}

The "stack" in the Occupy movement is the list of speakers who are commenting on proposals or asking questions in public meetings. Anyone can request to be added to the stack. In meetings that don't use the progressive stack, people speak in the order they were added to the queue. In meetings that use the progressive stack, people from non-dominant groups are sometimes allowed to speak before people from dominant groups, by facilitators, or stack-keepers, urging speakers to "step forward, or step back" based on which racial, age, or gender group they belong to.^[4]

The progressive stack concept is controversial inside the Occupy movement, and has been criticized as "forced equality", "racist", "sexist", and "unfair."^[5] It has been adopted for Occupy Wall Street, but not for all Occupy locations.^{[6][7]}

As someone who participated in OWS, I can confirm that this is one of the reasons why the protest failed -- if not the main reason.

I can't begin to tell you how many meetings were derailed by women and minorities obsessed with identity politics.

Time and again, white guys would provide plans for organization, suggest strategies, and begin outlining steps to the realization of a goal that the group agreed upon.

Their plans were almost always met with objection from feminists, queer activists, blacks, latinos, et al. A lot of the time these people didn't even have specific points of concern. They just stood up and started complaining about lack of diversity, the victimization of their specific identity group, etc.

Always, always, always reminding everyone about how everybody was victimizing them.

What happened?

Smart, able, organized white guys left the protest. They threw up their hands and walked away.

I was one of these people.

It did more to change my political views than any book or screed or barroom conversation.

I'm still a far leftists -- but I fucking despise "identity politics" more than anything. I'm convinced its the reason why the left is so absolutely fucked and useless today.

You can tell SJWs and feminists by the tension in their faces. Even when relaxed their is still tension in their visage, because their entire identity revolves around not offending, being offended and self-policing. These people rarely relax, but when they do it's often extremely decadent. Like when you see Saudis in a western bar, they get extremely drunk and sexualize everything. The trope of the feminist prude that wants to be dominated and degraded in bed is not a rarity in reality.

Their profile pics often revolve around trying to appear "intelligent" "creative" as "an activist" or "happy", they can never quite pull off the happy bit though, because even though you can buy glasses to make you look smart, a goofy wardrobe, hair dye, or paint-kit to make you look creative, or take a picture of yourself yelling or holding a sign to look like an activist, you cannot fake a genuine relaxed smile.

These degenerates only genuinely smile when ensconced in decadence, bdsm or a gay eightsome, or bizarre spiritual practices, therefore do not often use those pics as face book profile pictures.

They think that tense critical look in OPs portrays intelligence and insight, but basically just marks them as a boorish minefield ready to be offended and spout leftist jargon and lingo at the smallest slight against their religion of "equality".

I think that the raison d'être of the leftist is the fear and the reject of excellence, of success. If you observe a leftist, you'll see that his behavior is dictated solely by one thing. The destruction of excellence of good, of the beautiful, of success, of what works.... Why? Simply because the leftist does not feel up to the task for life (not good enough a k a loser) and like a spoiled child incapable of winning a game, he will ragequit and find convenient excuses (to protect his ego), instead of actually improving by practicing and being better. A leftist is just that. A literal manchild who don't want to go through the hardship,sufferance, perseverance and sacrifice to improve himself. Everyone wishes for excellence. But you can't wish for it, you have to make it happen, and not everyone is ready to carry his own cross (to take the christian symbol) to go forward and become better.

The irony is that many here on /Pol/, who are very far-right are NEET losers but the difference is that they know their situation is wrong and bad and they refuse to contribute to mediocrity but adhering to a political movement that brings every to the lowest mediocre common denominator.

In other words, it's the "Crab Mentality", it's jealousy. Misery loves company. Indeed, Leftists want to bring the world in their fall in hell, they don't want to sink alone. Even if they are doomed and their fate sealed, they will do anything in their power to bring as many people in their fall.

It's called "Crab Mentality".

See how true traditional christian happy families attract so much disdain and hate ? This christian family can be very good willed, honest, well mannered, nice, happy but most of the town will hate them, covertly or openly

Why? Because the success of others remind them of their own failure, of their own misery. Some people can see someone better and try to emulate him to become himself better, but most people are just too lazy and weak-minded and prefer to hate and bring everyone to their own miserable standard.

Same with degenerate modern art. Leftist prefer to praise and venerate what is ugly and disgusting, instead of what is beautiful and higher. Because they aren't good enough (losers) and hate themselves, they want to praise the low, the ugly and destroy the good, the beautiful, the great....

So how do you counter this degenerate western world ? (degenerate- that does not generate or regenerate, it's what destroys and brings to the lowesst denominator)

You counter leftists by becoming better. Literally. Left vs Right isn't just about ideas, it has a practical determinism too !

Work hard, exercise a lot, lift weights, study hard, read a lot, eat well, have a very strict life toward hardship and discipline, reject hedonism and welcome sacrifice, fight for life, stop wasting so much time on internet,video games and other unproductive activities, always seek to improve yourself, physically, intellectually and spiritually... ect

This is HOW you TRULY become a right-wing person ! KNOWING is one thing, but Knowing without acting isn't truly knowing. In other words, a majority of /Pol/ is LARPing as right-wingers but they don't actually act upon it.

That's how you beat leftism and how you win. Become better, carry your own cross, reject degenerate lifestyle and live a pure life.

The Leftist despise everything that works, and the western christian world is a VERY privileged target. So they are against the white race basically. (Even though there is a new trend that begins to appear, the hatred of Japan and High IQ Asians but it's still uncommon as of today) They'll also against Christians societies and families because they are successful and upright, and want to corrupt them with "Progress" and "atheism".

The Left hates the Police and Military, because they represent ORDER and STRENGTH

The Left LOVES (mass) immigration in the west, because they know unconsciously or consciously (even though they don't want to admit it), that by bringing alien races,cultures and religions into the west, it will bring in-fighting, cultural war, societal destabilization, with lower the average level and drastically lower common denominator,Lower IQ, increase Socialism, lower white incentive to work and better themselves....

So how to make people not complacent in being weak and losers in a society ?

The solution would be something like an authoritarian right-wing society to force people toward a higher common denominator.

For example, in Switzerland, a lot of people don't want to do the mandatory military service and they wouldn't do it if they were given the choice. If they don't go, they can go to prison. So these swiss guy are forced to go to the army against their will. And yet, when they finish their mandatory service, they go home as better more disciplined people, stronger. Some people admit that the military was a good thing for them, while some will say that it was "a waste of time". But in both cases, they actual person grew up significantly as a person thanks to the military service.

Really, it's the same with parents. Good parents are parents that don't let the kid get his way with everything but it's the dad that force his kid to work, to become disciplined, to study hard, to learn a lot, to practices multiple sports, to do his bed, to do homeworks every day... All against the will of the child who just want to play his mintendo game for 16 hours a day. But then, the child will become a winner and a great person, thanks to the parents who forced him to do things and installed rules and boundaries. Parents forced their kid toward "suffering" and discomfort. That's why Leftist are manchild, because they still don't want to leave their discomfort zone and suffer toward greatness.

Former anarchist leftie here, now a /pol/ack.

All leftism is bullshit. /pol/ is always right.

Communism is bullshit since it manufactures disasters and oppression to stay in power, but once it generates wealth exponentially no more and people glorious uprising, their response is even more violent, until they are overturned.

Anarchism is bullshit since people fail to realize that the very last state with a state military force left will conquer all the rest, and they will do so because of lebensraum and resources struggles once earth's resources start to dwindle, and no "anarch private army" can combat, for example, ISIS taking them over by storm

>inb4 kurds

kurds are funded by murrika and EU, they couldn't survive on their own

Liberalism is also bullshit, since it always becomes a fucking perversion of civil rights movement and ends up carving a path to either commies or anarchists. Also, SJW is nothing but liberalism taken to the extreme, Libertarianism is also bullshit, they force themselves docile "all extremists are losers xDD" position where they self-marginalize themselves via sterilizing themselves off from the same passion you meet on the left or right wing.

ALL leftism is stupid, OP. Take it from me, I organized anti-racism protests in yurop here a year ago, read extensive e-books on anarchism, trolled "sexist" marketing campaigns online with feminists where I wrote an employer of that PR team a threat letter, saying that we are gonna meme their pathetic, sexist company out of existance if they do not fire that PR person.

Leftism makes you violent inherently, it self-destructs any society where it becomes prominent. Yeah, there are some good stuff, like worker protection rights and I am in favour of containing rich people strictly under the law so they do not form big monopolies in the market, but that is all for the good of historical ethnic/racial group to prosper better, not to "crush the rich people"

Now I am a Nazi, which means I basically support a 1960's style Swedish social democracy which is openly racist with closed borders and disencourages feminism and fun. Also, strong military and favouring critical, lively debate on holocaust.

Sorry /leftiepol/ for making an idologically divergent post, I normally stay on /pol/ and do not raid you guys, but it feels like there are some people in this thread who benefit from this semi-blogpost. I wouldn't censor the lefties at all if I was in power, but through my personal research, I have found that it's THEM who censor the people all the time and right wingers, while not approving or appreciating the left's issues, would actually allow them to fucking live, because they are not oriented towards hunting down peaceful lefties. I mean, the leftie who smokes pot in their own room and doesn't call for any action or participates in direct action, I do not appreciate, but I wouldn't mind either. The minorities I wouldn't hunt down, I'd just send them back. The trannies I wouldn't kill, I'd sent them to treatment. But commies who have stick in their fucking ass all the time over being antiestablishmentarianists, they are met with the same response they advocate, met with self-defense of the state who cannot operate when such message becomes a new normal, and stick into a prison to rot away for wanting to solve world problems with violent revolutions, and not with democracy and gaining the sympathy of the silent majority.

>when it is include it's for control reasons

Most secular ideologies have something similar though.

Communism is just the Marxist version of heaven, in that it is a reward destination that the society goes to if it adheres well to the principles, but its somewhere far away in the distant future after everyone today is dead, thus nobody can prove if it actually will occur, and thus everyone must take it on faith.

It's the light at the end of the tunnel, that gives the people living under a Marxist state hope that things might eventually get better if they just keep enduring their rule. If they have the promise of communism as the reward for enduring what are abhorrent conditions in the present, they are less likely to revolt against their conditions in the present.

Marx himself even self-obliviously made the exact same argument with his famous "opium of the people" analogy.

Leftists speak of the actions of "capitalism" in an identical manner. Capitalism is just a nebulous force that does all the bad things. The system of monarchial protectionist nationalism during the time of Marx was "capitalism" and all the bad things that happened then were the fault of "capitalism", and in the modern day, where we have the polar opposite system of democratic free trade globalism, it is still "capitalism" and all the bad things that happen today are still "capitalism's" fault. Leftists use "capitalism" in an identical manner to how ancient peoples used God or gods, as a sort of single variable replacement for complex many variable problems that they don't understand. The ancient pleb attributes the earthquake destroying the town to the anger of the gods, the modern leftist attributes the earthquake destroying the town to "capitalism" misallocating resources that should have been used making the town earthquakeproof.

In conclusion: Liberals are infantile, self-contradictory, illiterate of basic political/socioeconomic principles and are a threat to civilization as we know it. Grow up and vote right wing.

Liberals, Not Conservatives, Express More Psychoticism

Psychoticism: Uncooperative, hostile, troublesome, socially withdrawn, manipulative, and lack of feelings of inferiority

Ronald Bailey | Jun. 10, 2016 2:30 pm

Social science can be so amusing. There is a bit of a contretemps over several recent articles that used datasets supposedly measuring the personality traits of liberals and conservatives which has resulted in several abashed corrections. The researchers used the data in an effort to show that personality traits are not the cause of political attitudes, but instead both are correlated with some other factor, most likely genetic. Interesting enough. This finding is not what is being corrected.

Instead, what is being corrected is the rather casual assumption in the studies by the researchers that a personality factor identified in the datasets they used is supposedly associated with conservative political views. That factor is called Psychoticism. They hasten to explain that Psychoticism is not the same thing as psychotic.

The original article, "Correlation not Causation: The Relationship between Personality Traits and Political Ideologies," in the American Journal of Political Science explains:

Having a high Psychoticism score is not a diagnosis of being clinically psychotic or psychopathic. Rather, P is positively correlated with tough-mindedness, risk-taking, sensation-seeking, impulsivity, and authoritarianism (Adorno et al. 1950; Altemeyer 1996; Eysenck and Eysenck 1985, McCourt et al. 1999). In social situations, those who score high on P are more uncooperative, hostile, troublesome, and socially withdrawn, but lack feelings of inferiority and have an absence of anxiety. At the extremes, those scoring high on P are manipulative, tough-minded, and practical (Eysenck 1954). By contrast, people low on P are more likely to be more altruistic, well socialized, empathic, and conventional (Eysenck and Eysenck 1985; Howarth 1986). As such, we expect higher P scores to be related to more conservative political attitudes, particularly for militarism and social conservatism.

There is one big problem, as the invaluable Retraction Watch noted: The dataset used in the studies actually found that liberals scored higher on Psychoticism. From the erratum:

Recently, I've taken to shilling leftist opinions, but for all the wrong reasons. Somebody was discussing abortion the other day, and about how wonderful it was that women have sexual liberties. I chimed in.

>I think that abortion being legal is a wonderful thing. The people who end up getting abortions shouldn't be breeding under absolutely any circumstances anyway. They clearly have a maladaptive trait making them partial to infanticide, and the continuance of said trait is dangerous to the long term survival of the species.

A comment like this had two noticeable effects. The first was that the leftists in the room did not engage this point. The end justifies the means. All that mattered to them was that their position went unchallenged. However, the other result of such a comment exposes an underlying and inherent truth of the leftist platform to those who tread more moderate ground. That unpleasant truth is that the political left, either through malice or stupidity, actively engages in a form of eugenics against the greater population.

Communism is not an ideological event, but a biological one. It's slave morality: the ideology, and attracts only low test slightly above average IQ soimen. Most often you can tell whether someone is a communist or is left-leaning from how they look. Anyone who thinks communism is in any way based is a fucking retard, look into Russian sexual revolution under communism, look at how it squashes the potential of every nation it inhabits, look at communist killings of the finest blood in Eastern Europe (Soviet killing of Polish intelligence and military officials), look at the hatred communists have for noble blood (royalty, nobles, genetically superior people), look at communist hatred for any kind of strength (communist peasants murdering military officials in northern Italy before Mussolini) and finally look at the pathetic weakness of communists if they aren't backed by big finance (Mike Hoare BTFOing Guevara so fucking hard Guevara became racist), etc. Communism is a joke, it's ideology is rooted in "grass root movements" of the lowest class yet require support from the highest class. Look into the Wallstreet Jewish faggot who hanged himself because his mother told him he can't send Lenin more of daddy's money. Look at what Marx's mother said about him, look at Marx's life in general, absolutely pathetic and disgusting.

people. I promise you, it will not go as smoothly for you leftists as it did in Asia, and, yes, I'm lumping you in with them, every single leftist is complicit in this attack on the west, and it's going to be really bad for all of them when the average man wakes up (which many are currently doing.)

SJWs will win the left, they are the strong horse in this fight. The rest of the left will eventually be forced to join them, some will be alienated and defect but most will come along like the lapdogs they are after the purges.

Think of that professor who got shouted down by the nigger student and took it like a cuck. He will cave in further and further to them until he is, for all intents and purposes, a passive follower of theirs. SJWs are not killing the left, they are reforming it to be more militant and to prepare for its final phases of what leftism was always meant to do, destroy culture.

What you're seeing from SJWs is nothing new. In China, in the 1960's, radical leftist college students burned temples and books, threw their professors in prisons, militarized their women into street activists, and took anything remotely associated with Chinese culture to be triggering and worthy of destruction. As a result, Chinese culture was lost forever. Radical leftist teenagers and college students in Cambodia did much of the same in the 1970's, leading to the deaths of anywhere from 20% to 30% of the population. Khmer culture was forever lost. We can go down the list of cultures and peoples destroyed by leftism, long before even the first communist country existed.

Useful idiot left wingers like OP deserve all of this. You're willfully ignorant of what leftism is designed to do at its core, yet you engage in it and have helped to foster this monster. Or, worse, you feign ignorance of what was always the inevitable result of your inhuman political philosophy on western cultures that have strived for and achieved so much more throughout history than your pathetic nanny states seek to reduce them to. You're either lying to yourself or lying to all of us, but this isn't a big surprise or something we didn't all see coming. The only difference is white people won't give up as easily as Asian and African cultures who have never fought for anything. As your movement reforms and enters its final stages, we too reform in the hopes of saving our

I grew up in the SF bay area but don't live in California anymore. They can't even build roads in that state. The state I'm in now it took approximately 9 months to build a nearly identical piece of infrastructure (a fucking FREEWAY OVERPASS) which took ~10 years to build in California. I know it took that long because it was already under construction when I was about 9 and they didn't finish until I was nearly 20 years old.

Only a few years ago was the replacement for the Bay Bridge opened, which was to replace the old one which was held together by dreams and duct tape since the earthquake in 1989, but the new one is already under scrutiny because the steel used in many parts of it is shit-tier quality Chinese trash because of the enormous corruption and graft in any major California construction project.

The entire white middle class is in the process of fleeing the state besides the goodest goys or the tech aristocrats living in their Elysium. Stockton is a joke, it's basically our own private Detroit. Rural areas are tired old white ranchers/farmers awaiting the embrace of death or illegal Mexican hives who do nothing but extract gibs and bring crime. The entire state of California will go bankrupt before a single operating line of this rail project is completed.

The first thing anyone notices when entering California from literally any other neighboring state is that all of the roads are crumbling to pieces and covered in garbage. The state can't even maintain existing roads, let alone build a cutting-edge Japan-tier maglev train system.

It has already been many years since the alleged breaking of ground for this train to nowhere. Get a fucking clue OP if you think this project will accomplish anything besides enriching the corrupt Jews on top.

Nothing fucking works here. Every time we have a drought, they make big plans to build a huge desalination plant in Southern California. Then it rains, and they stop the project and spend all the money on training educators to spot white privilege.

California is a perfect microcosm of how the third world works. Slimy parasites on top who all fuck each other and spend other people's money on each other's pet organizations. Huge bottom class of illiterate niggers with STDs and knives. Tiny artisan class of social climbers who haven't figured out the top is a closed club. One party that fills every vacancy with its stooges under a veneer of democracy. Hate crime laws and drooling shittards in executive positions.

Example: In 2000, California deregulated the energy industry. They built an energy exchange for trading credits with the likes of Enron. The idiot in charge of the exchange was Loretta Lynch.

The result? Energy prices tripled as kike speculators bought cheap energy from Nevada and resold it a hundred times in California. Rolling blackouts, as whole neighborhoods went dark like Prague under the communists. Loretta Lynch eventually promoted to state AG. In that capacity, she responded to the San Bernardino terrorist attack by warning us all that there would be prosecutions if anybody posted islamophobic remarks on social media. You know – instead of looking for evidence relating to the shooting.

California in a nutshell.

Why Doesn't

Communism Work?

A Concise Examination by Anon at /pol/

Actually an important subject, so I'm glad you've brought it up. I think there are "numerous" reasons why communism doesn't work, but also why communism isn't a natural system at all.

Let's take the focal point of the manifesto - each according to his ability, each according to his need. What's the problem with this? You can't define individual needs without a free market to signal the value of the goods. You can't just sit down and say "Okay, here's what everyone needs" - there's no basis for anything. It's entirely arbitrary.

Motivation is another key factor. Men are motivated to work more when they're rewarded for more effort. Feudal serfs were paid wages in "subsistence", and because they could not earn more, worked only at a bare minimum. This is what happens in Communist systems: Workers only receive subsistence (what they "need"), and hence work poorly, if at all. Russians who have lived through the time have an adage about this, which goes, "You pretend to pay me, and I pretend to work."

But the root of the problem goes deeper, and in fact is perhaps one of the greatest misunderstandings of Marx today. The reality is that communism is only an idea.

I do not just mean this in the idea that it is only a theoretical model; I mean it in the very certain fact that "communism" only exists in the minds of individuals. There is no evidence of it in reality. There is truth to the fact that "Communism has never been tried"; but only in the fact that it cannot be tried, because it does not exist. It is akin to saying "Well, no one's ever seen/heard God before" - they have not, and it is similarly because they do not exist in the physical world.

Marx's thought is descended from a long line of traditions, going back to Hegel, Plato, and Jesus. Like Hegel, Marx was a "prophet" communicating to the people the revelation that an inner voice had imparted to him. And it is ironic that Marxism, which seeks to squash out religion and its false gods, replaces them with a new one: Historical determinism, an idea that has no basis in reality, and is only brought to us from "revelation". It is irrational from the start! But like other false gods, it is justified by taking appearances and using them to "fit the mold" - an after the fact explanation. His belief that there is a cosmic force called "Dialectical Materialism" which governs human history independently of human volitions, is mere mythology.

And so Marx made up fancy words, fancy "dialectics", all to prove that his view of the future "must" come into play. Because it was inhuman, and because it could not come into play on his own, his devout followers shed the blood of millions to make his dream come true. The "proletariat" class Marx imagined was nothing more than a gang of blood-thirsty killers.

One interesting thing to point out is that the Dialectic is really just a manner for studying history and society, and it's actually a half-decent one (although it's terrible if used in isolation, which far too many historians do).

The problem is that Marx created this system with an explicit purpose in mind.

Marx wrote the communist manifesto before he wrote Kapital, and so he devised this rather brilliant system to try to bring greater scientific rigor to history and the study of society, but he did so in the most un-scientific manner possible, with a foregone conclusion before he even approached the problem.

You can apply the dialectic and come to completely different conclusions, which sort of indicates how difficult it is to really make these studies purely scientific.

Here is the biggest truth you need to know. /pol/ is not a hivemind, it's not a culture, it's not an echo chamber, it's not an endorsement for anything. At its core, /pol/ is distilled conflict. There are only two reasons why the right wing are more present here than left wing.

1) The idea of "conflict" has been systemically removed as a beneficial underpinning for leftist discourse. In modern times, leftist conflict only occurs as a moralistic imperative - ie the left only engages in conflict with political ideologues that their current doctrine states are immoral. They have been largely conditioned into some semblance of enforced cohesion. If one segment of leftism runs contrary to the majority core, then rather than engage in ideological conflict this group will simply break off and form a new core with the hope that it grows or attracts others. Their ideals are not refined by conflict to form a fitting foundational argument.

2) Modern leftist educational systems intentionally cripple critical thinking skills in favor of conformity. This goes back to the forming of a moralistic imperative. This is what largely happened to the right for a long period of time and was the catalyst for the left's opportunity to take a defining role in our culture. The right wing thanks to evangelism and the desire for conformity basically devalued critical thought and paved the way for leftist thinkers to obtain a spotlight in all society. Comedians, artists, musicians, speakers, and educators suddenly had the means to take over the social narrative from the ailing right wing. Ironically they have instituted the same qualities that lead to the downfall of the right in the 20th century.

What all this means is that leftists largely dont understand the utility of conflict for refining ideologies and are emotionally attached to their own ideology. This prevents discourse and will inevitably lead to self-exile.

>What is it about high densities of populations that make them vote differently? Is it the water? Are the xenoestrogens from female urine being re-processed in water treatment plants effecting their brains?

City people are completely irresponsible by design. In a city, there's no such thing as a shortage - if you have more money, there's always more food and water and fun stuff to do. Also, if you have some conflict with a neighbor, you don't have to be a grownup and patch things up; you can just move to another neighborhood.

This atmosphere, of unlimited abundance and safety, zero effort required except to make money to buy it all, creates infantile adults. Just like a baby, who has unlimited everything, including diaper changes, just for crying, city people think the world is both perfectly safe and revolves around their poo-poops.

That's why these fucking people never vote for gun rights: Just call the cops.

That's why these fucking people always vote for more immigration: More fun restaurants.

That's why these fucking people vote for more welfare: There's no such thing as scarcity.

That's why these fucking people support feminism: Women in cities don't have to work on a ranch; they can make $1,000 by shaking their asses.

That's why these fucking people support faggotry: No need for harmful and toxic gender stereotypes when you work in a call center.

That's why these fucking people are going to die when SHTF: They are weak and insane and out of touch with reality.

>Do any of you have conversations with others only to realize that their ideas and talking points are not their own?

You're living in a time where people are outsourcing their own judgment.

What I mean is that, we are in such an information-dense society that it is impossible to sort and make a judgment call on each and every thing we see and experience each day in a meaningful, nuanced way.

We're also at a point in human history in which everyone's condition has diverged to the point where two people from the same city, state, province, area code, can meet and have nothing in common. Our leisure activities are fractal nightmares, pushing us farther and farther down the rabbit hole.

It wasn't like this even 200 years ago, where everyday life and leisure was still intelligible even across cultures. Now we sit in the darkness shitposting on a website for vietnamese field manuals. From this point onwards, we're only going to have less in common every day.

So when people outsource their opinions, they do it to people they "trust." People that they have either used their internal judgment on or people that have been approved by the common consensus, and they move with them.

Because it's easier, because it's faster, because there are x more judgments to make in the day and you weren't thinking too hard about that anyway. It's alright to just go with the flow, right? That's what everyone else is doing. That's what they hear on the news, that's what they see in their "feeds," it's the small chatter they hear around them.

This is why it's important to shift the overton window, because all of these people that are kicking and screaming right now? They'll be pulled along with the current very quickly, and then there will be a New Normal, and a New Acceptable, and these people will change with the wind.

Anonymous 12/23/14 (Tue) 05:05:25 ID: 9ff522 No.682348

How to defeat them.

First (optional): Ask if they are aware that what they feel does not an acceptable substitute for facts and reality. If they answer "No I am not aware that facts and reality is more important than my feelings" then the only winning move is not to play.

Second: Ask them "Compared to what?"

Third: Ask them "At what cost?"

Fourth: Ask them "What are the authenticated facts?"

Congratulations you have defeated them. Every leftist argument can be defeated by using these three questions.

This is correct. This is why the Left has won just about every major battle and engagement going on about six or seven decades in the political war in the United States. The Right keeps playing by the rules, and the Left ignores them any time they become an inconvenience. All the rules do, the laws do, is chain the people who still think they matter down into crippling inaction while the Left score gain after gain. Rules For Radicals explicitly goes over this, noting how effective it is to force the enemy to play by the rules while you casually ignore them as irrelevant.

At this point I question if your typical conservative will ever truly grasp this. Even the OP is falling for it, thinking that this kind of ruling will be equally applied, when of course it won't be. Look at all the judges in this country currently outright countermanning the President Of The United States, which is a complete overreach of judicial power, all while the liberals laugh and cheer them on. Imagine if the reverse had happened under Obama, the Left would be gnashing their teeth and screaming bloody murder, doing anything they could to force said judges off the bench.

There is no passion, no verve, no force projection from the Right in America because of these constraints they have placed on themselves. They stay in the nice little boundaries given to them and cry while the Left runs outside those boundaries over and over to gain victory after victory. Even the response to this, when there ever is one, is a feeble demand that the Left play by the same rules, that they adhere to the rules the same way the Right does. The Right never realizes that this is an impossible task, that the only way to win is to also take the gloves off and slam into their foes with greater tenacity and fervor. Instead, the Right cries out "You're cheating!", and the Left just laughs at them since they never had any intention of playing by the rules to begin with.

Call it whatever you like, Communism, Socialism, Democratic-Socialism, Social Justice, whatever you want it's blatant government-mandated wealth-redistribution that robs people of their own personal autonomy in favor of authoritarianism. The more you beg for it the more your country will end up like Communist China.

Commies are deliberately shitting-up the entertainment industry with endless politics because they hate the idea of escapism. Most people enjoy fiction as a vacation from the bullshit that plagues everyday life, like politics. But because if you're enjoying the escapism that you got thanks to capitalism, you're not miserable enough to fight in a revolution to overthrow the capitalist establishment like a good comrade. They can't allow that.

They'll use all sorts of mental gymnastics to explain why anything and everything is saturated with ideological commentary, but that you're only complaining when it's ideological that you disagree with because you're a close-minded simpleton who likes to have their ego stroked. Either that or because you're a nihilist who's choosing to reject reality to live in fantasy world where no modern day issues apply. The simple truth is you just want to change a subject you're tired of hearing about all of the goddamn time.

That's big part of why nobody fucking likes you commies, a simple truth that they're too stupid to understand; the more they force-feed their propaganda to people, the more people hate communists and communism.

What is unknown to many Americans is that their ideological ancestors were promoting contraception and abortion decades before Roe v. Wade as part of a strategic socialist agenda against capitalism. This link, while seemingly irrelevant, is crucial to understanding the pro-death philosophy the far left espouses today.

It's easy to understand when you realize how the mind of the Leftist useful idiot works. They are not "pro" rights of minorities, animals, women, impoverished nations, or any other cause for the disenfranchised they claim to rally behind. Note that they always blame some successful, dominant group in society for the ills they oppose, and seek to "punish" that group on behalf of the supposedly disenfranchised.

It is not and never has been about helping the downtrodden to rise.

It is about destroying the successful, the effective, and the independent members of society. Not because they are doing anything that actually violates the rights of others, but precisely because they are successful, effective, independent. Their sin is not some act of violence or fraud, but the mere state of being a healthy human being capable of sustaining themselves.

Rand called this hatred of the good for being the good, and it embodies the soul of the modern Left – or at least its Useful Idiot arm (SJWs, environmentalists, occupy, white knights, the mindless blithering idiots that comprise the vanguard any mass movement).

In the case of Salon's statements here, they will side with anything that is anti-US, anti-white male, anti-capitalist, and anti-Western.

Kaczynski made some comments on this tendency among Leftists that were somewhat insightful, but I would highly recommend reading Rand's essay: "The Age of Envy" from Return of the Primitive. She nails their asses to the fucking ground.

From the essay:

Today, we live in the Age of Envy.

"Envy" is not the emotion I have in mind, but it is the clearest manifestation of an emotion that has remained nameless; it is the only element of a complex emotional sum that men have permitted themselves to identify.

Envy is regarded by most people as a petty, superficial emotion and, therefore, it serves as a semihuman cover for so inhuman an emotion that those who feel it seldom dare admit it even to themselves. . . . That emotion is: hatred of the good for being the good.

This hatred is not resentment against some prescribed view of the good with which one does not agree. . . . Hatred of the good for being the good means hatred of that which one regards as good by one's own (conscious or subconscious) judgment. It means hatred of a person for possessing a value or virtue one regards as desirable.

If a child wants to get good grades in school, but is unable or unwilling to achieve them and begins to hate the children who do, that is hatred of the good. If a man regards intelligence as a value, but is troubled by self-doubt and begins to hate the men he judges to be intelligent, that is hatred of the good.

The nature of the particular values a man chooses to hold is not the primary factor in this issue (although irrational values may contribute a great deal to the formation of that emotion). The primary factor and distinguishing characteristic is an emotional mechanism set in reverse: a response of hatred, not toward human vices, but toward human virtues.

To be exact, the emotional mechanism is not set in reverse, but is set one way: its exponents do not experience love for evil men; their emotional range is limited to hatred or indifference. ==It is impossible to experience love, which is a response to values, when one's automatized response to values is hatred.==

How to catch pigs? Anonymous ID:wJ4B8z33 Sun 18 Nov 2018 01:46:26 No.193799275 [View] [Reply] [Original] [Report]

There was a chemistry professor in a large college that had some exchange students in the class. One day while the class was in the lab, the professor noticed one young man, an exchange student, who kept rubbing his back and stretching as if his back hurt.

The professor asked the young man what was the matter. The student told him he had a bullet lodged in his back. He had been shot while fighting communists in his native country who were trying to overthrow his country's government and install a new communist regime. In the midst of his story, he looked at the professor and asked a strange question. He asked: "Do you know how to catch wild pigs?"

The professor thought it was a joke and asked for the punchline. The young man said that it was no joke. "You catch wild pigs by finding a suitable place in the woods and putting corn on the ground. The pigs find it and begin to come every day to eat the free food".

"When they are used to coming every day, you put a fence down one side of the place where they are used to coming. When they get used to the fence, they begin to eat the corn again and you put up another side of the fence". "They get used to that and start to eat again.

You continue until you have all four sides of the fence up with a gate in the last side". "The pigs, which are used to the free corn, start to come through the gate to eat that free corn again. You then slam the gate on them and catch the whole herd".

"Suddenly the wild pigs have lost their freedom. They run around and around inside the fence, but they are caught. Soon they go back to eating the free corn. They are so used to it that they have forgotten how to forage in the woods for themselves, so they accept their captivity."

The young man then told the professor that is exactly what he sees happening in America . The government keeps pushing us toward Communism/Socialism and keeps spreading the free corn out in the form of programs such as supplemental income, tax credit for unearned income, tax exemptions, tobacco subsidies, dairy subsidies, payments not to plant crops (CRP), welfare entitlements, medicine, drugs, etc., while we continually lose our freedoms, just a little at a time as the government forces us to participate in many of these programs whether or not we want to.

One should always remember two truths: There is no such thing as a free lunch, and you can never hire someone to provide a service for you cheaper than you can do it yourself. If you see that all of this wonderful government "help" is a problem confronting the future of democracy in America, you might want to share this with your friends.

God help us all when the gate slams shut!

But that wasn't real communism

"As I mentioned before, exposure to true information does not matter any more. A person who is demoralized is unable to assess true information. The facts tell nothing to him. Even if I shower him with information, with authentic proof, with documents, with pictures. Even if I take him, by force, to the Soviet Union and show him concentration camp, he will refuse to believe it until he is going to receive a kick in his fat bottom. When the military boot crashes his, then he will understand. But not before that. That is the tragedy of this situation of demoralization." ~ Yuri Bezmenov: Ex-KGB Agent

So I awoke today to news that Facebook had unpublished my page without warning due to supposed hate speech. I am completely confused and shocked. Six years of my life and work gone. My livelihood gone. Every sketch I have ever made, gone. All the people I made smile. All the times I had talked people out of doing something silly and vice versa, gone. I have openly attacked racism and the rise of the far right in Ireland regularly on my page and will continue to do so. I was given no clue as to which post/sketch/picture it was that caused this 'offence' so as to give me a chance to delete. Just a notification that my page was unpublished. I am confused and flummoxed. Please please help in any way if you can. Thank you so much.

Let me tell you a true story about Berlin.

For centuries, the old center of Berlin had been dominated by the Stadtschloss, palace of the Prussian kings. It had endured wars and had slowly grown to be one of the largest royal castles in Europe.

Stadtschloss was damaged in WWII, some of its outer walls and the main dome collapsed, but it was otherwise in a repairable condition. Unfortunately, Soviet and DDR authorities saw the Stadtschloss as a symbol of Prussian militarism and ordered it to be demolished.

Palast der Republik, a modernist parliament building was built in its place. It was constructed in just a few years and was filled with asbestos.

After the collapse of the Berlin Wall, there was a movement to rebuild the Stadtschloss. Palast der Republik had to be demolished because of asbestos problems and because it was a symbol of the East German regime, so the Berlin Senate agreed to reconstruct the palace with all the historical artifacts, throne rooms and such replaced. It was going to be a Museum of Germany.

Unfortunately, the Green Party and the Left Party got fucking angry about the decision. They believed that reconstructing the palace would incite nationalism, chauvinism and racism. They lobbied and protested, and eventually the Senate had to give in, plans for the Museum of Germany were scrapped, and the building was designed to become the Museum of African Arts instead, with no throne rooms or other historical rooms reconstructed.

Think this is bad? It continues: The leftists also wanted to alter one of the facades because they considered a true reconstruction to be chauvinist and classist. As such, the facade facing the Spree River was designed to be modernist, symbolizing destruction of old traditional values and introduction of new, progressive and traditional values into the evil, patriarchal Prussian-style palace.

Picture related. Look at it and weep. That's the anti-racist facade.

>implying this is the end of the story

Let me tell you something about this forum:

It used to have a huge cross, held up by 4 angels at the top of it.

With main parts of the Stadtschloss being rebuilt, it was the question, to also reinstall this cross.

The left party and the green party, both huge in Berlin, were against it for the main reasons:

- The cross could distress muslim residents, as it features christian imagery in a prominent place
- The Humboldt Forum will showcase native art and pieces, so having a cross on top of the Stadtschloss would symbolize colonialism as the cross sits on top of indigenous art.

Even the muslim community said, they didn't care about the cross. The parties yet still stand adamant about it. There was a critical article about this in the Zeit, a left-wing newspaper, criticizing this irrational move by the parties.

Nothing has changed though

Post-structuralism is a label formulated by American academics to denote the heterogeneous works of a series of mid-20th-century French and continental philosophers and critical theorists who came to international prominence in the 1960s and '70s. A major theme of post-structuralism is instability in the human sciences, due to the complexity of humans themselves and the impossibility of fully escaping structures in order that we might study them.

Post-structuralism is a response to structuralism. Structuralism is an intellectual movement developed in Europe from the early to mid-20th century. It argued that human culture may be understood by means of a structure—modeled on language (i.e., structural linguistics)—that differs from concrete reality and from abstract ideas—a "third order" that mediates between the two. Post-structuralist authors all present different critiques of structuralism, but common themes include the rejection of the self-sufficiency of the structures that structuralism posits and an interrogation of the binary oppositions that constitute those structures. Writers whose work is often characterised as post-structuralist include Jacques Derrida, Michel Foucault, Gilles Deleuze, Judith Butler, Jacques Lacan, Jean Baudrillard, and Julia Kristeva, although many theorists who have been called "post-structuralist" have rejected the label.

The movement is closely related to postmodernism. As with structuralism, antihumanism is often a central tenet. Existential phenomenology is a significant influence; Colin Davis has argued that post-structuralists might just as accurately be called "post-phenomenologists". Some commentators have criticized post-structuralism for being radically relativistic or nihilistic. Others have objected to its extremity and linguistic complexity: philosopher John Searle writes "deconstructive prose tends to be systematically evasive." Others see it as a threat to traditional values or professional scholarly standards.

>Others have objected to its extremity and linguistic complexity: philosopher John Searle writes "deconstructive prose tends to be systematically evasive." Others see it as a threat to traditional values or professional scholarly standards.

Basically a theoretical political philosophy that grounds itself on having no roots to put down. Just like Socialism. Despite claiming to be anti-Gramsci, it continues to attack the very same foundations that the Prison Papers lined out as being the fundamental barriers to Socialism/Communism.

What we see is just Gen X and Gen Y trying to distance themselves from the Baby Boomer generation by calling themselves a different kind of demon, while wrecking the exact same kind of havoc.

I make this argument based solely on the fact that Foucault is often referenced by your typical Tumblr user which follows the same secularist, anti-white, anti-US, anti-constitution, and anti-republican rhetoric that was the hallmark of the Gramsci-inspired, Frankfurt School-taught cultural Marxist movement of the 1960s.

Sticking feathers up your butt does not make you a chicken.

You're still the same kind of cocksucker you've always been, now you're just insisting that you're a "Phallus Orator" rather than a "Fellatio Artist."

The historiographical criticism of Marx which plagues most historians today is the view of history as linear progress. It does nothing to explain the life cycle of cultures and civilizations, but merely hand waves them away as results of material conditions. His analysis is useful in terms of economics to a limited degree but that is about it. Essentially Marx pins the driving force of history as the material conditions of man which is patently false when you look at various cultures over time. These material conditions would result in a proletarian revolution, the Frenchman commented on this. Sadly the conditions Marx uses to describe this, and other so called stages of history are just vage enough to be found anywhere if you want to find it.

This transitions to the second major criticism of Marx which can simply be put at putting the cart before the horse. In describing tribal societies Marx tends to describe it as primitive communism. Despite the fact these tribal societies have intricate hierarchies, religious beliefs, and views of the world which would baffle pure materialists like Marx. What Marx did was look for his conclusions and distorted the facts to fit said conclusions. Marx also took heligan didactics and created "material" didactics which attempts to apply an idealist tool for philosophical analysis and apply it to a "scientific" view of the world. However, there is little to nothing which is actually scientific about it. It becomes another way to put the cart before the horse. The worst part is many claim Marxism to be unidealistic but when you look at the writings themselves they are inherently idealistic.

Essentially Marxism claims to be the opposite of capitalism while at the same time using the exact same measurements of the human condition to measure the happiness of man, all while ignoring the other factors which make man happy.

Effects of physical attractiveness on political beliefs

Rolfe Daus Peterson, Susquehanna University

Carl L. Palmer, Illinois State University

ABSTRACT. Physical attractiveness is an important social factor in our daily interactions. Scholars in social psychology provide evidence that attractiveness stereotypes and the “halo effect” are prominent in affecting the traits we attribute to others. However, the interest in attractiveness has not directly filtered down to questions of political behavior beyond candidates and elites. Utilizing measures of attractiveness across multiple surveys, we examine the relationship between attractiveness and political beliefs. Controlling for socioeconomic status, we find that more attractive individuals are more likely to report higher levels of political efficacy, identify as conservative, and identify as Republican. These findings suggest an additional mechanism for political socialization that has further implications for understanding how the body intertwines with the social nature of politics.

Key words: Physical attractiveness, political beliefs, political socialization, halo effects, political efficacy, ideology

>Disabling the threat-processing area of the brain to make you liberal

To the fantastic mental illness of Rationalism, hard facts are regrettable things, and to talk about them is to create them. A tiny politician of the Liberal type even sought to prevent talk about the Third World War, after the Second. Liberalism is, in one word, weakness. It wants every day to be a birthday. Life to be a long party.

The inexorable movement of Time, Destiny, History, the cruelty of accomplishment, sternness, heroism, sacrifice, superpersonal ideas—these are the enemy. Liberalism is an escape from hardness into softness, from masculinity into femininity, from History to herd-grazing, from reality into herbivorous dreams, from Destiny into Happiness. Nietzsche, in his last and greatest work, designated the 18th century as the century of feminism, and immediately mentioned Rousseau, the leader of the mass-escape from Reality. Feminism itself—what is it but a means of feminizing man? If it makes women man-like, it does so only by transforming man first into a creature whose only concern is with his personal economics and his relation to "society," i.e., a woman. [...] Liberalistic tampering with sexual polarity only wreaks havoc on the souls of individuals, confusing and distorting them, but the man-woman and the woman-man it creates are both subject to the higher Destiny of History.

Francis Parker Yockey, Imperium

Policy is charged with actualizing an historical Mission, the saving of the Western Civilization from decadence within, and from the barbarian without.

Francis Parker Yockey, Imperium

Thus the whole liberal-democratic ideology, with its "individualism" that is a mere negation of everything superpersonal, its "happiness" ideal that encourages every weakness and self-indulgence, its erotomania which distorts the whole sexual life into a barren disease of the will, its "tolerance" which seeks to break down the cohesion of the race by denying its existence, its materialism which denies all spiritual values, all higher significance of human life, its pacifism which values weakness above virility, its ideal of Mediocrity by which it opposes every creative man and the Idea he represents in History, its cult of the proletarian as the highest element, its total renunciation of the Soul of Man—this is the great enemy of Race.

Francis Parker Yockey, Imperium

Communism, like all Utopias, is impossible of realization, because they are rational and Life is irrational.

Francis Parker Yockey, Imperium

The appeal of liberalism is a total lack of responsibility. It is pure, unadulterated selfishness.

If you don't own guns you don't have to duty to defend your family. If you're don't have kids you dont have a duty to raise them. If you are an anti-racist you abdicate your duty to your people. If you're an atheist you don't have a duty to God.

This is also why these faggots attack anyone who does their duty. It makes them look bad. Nothing is more disgusting than a selfish coward. Liberals know this is what they are and spend all their time trying to convince themselves and everyone else that they arent.

The leftist is anti-individualistic,

Starting earlier this year, I began to infiltrate leftist online spaces just out of a sheer curiosity. What are they really like? Are “bunkerchan trannies” really real? What goes on in those types of places? What kinds of people lurk there?

Well, let me, with some creative liberty, report back on what I've seen. This will be long, and over several posts.

Most, if not all of the most ardent, warlike leftist spaces are up to something like 70% transgender, or at least some variation thereof. And when I say ardent, I mean actively engaging in raiding, shilling and spamming of other communities, like 4chan.

These places are also very difficult to find and penetrate. Because of the history of infiltration, many of the most active communities have now been building themselves up for literally years, accepting only new members by a vouching and vetting system. Each time a Discord server gets infiltrated and taken down, the next iteration will have much higher security. For those reasons, this whole process took a long, long time.

So, what are hardcore leftie SJW tranny spaces actually like? They are, in my eyes, more than anything, unfathomably sad, to the point of being quite disturbing. The darkness in these places is like black sludge. It's almost asphyxiating. Hard drug use, suicidal ideation, severe pornography addictions, cornucopias of unresolved mental illness ... All politics aside, these are people who are completely and utterly lost, and know it. Even just being in these spaces was enough to depress me, as if the sheer misery was contagious. The state of nihilism manifest is almost literary in its profundity. The mental space these people inhabit is just a pitch black, meaningless void, which is then filled with ephemeral hedonism, the nature of which is predominantly self-destructive. I'm not religious, but I still can't help but think of the allegory of godforsakenness. It's a phenomenological hell.

■ Anonymous (ID: 4hmlxirG) 10/14/21(Thu)12:21:56 No.343398869 >>>343399322 >>343400017 >>343401086 >>343401101

Now, you may think I'm overly dramatizing this. I'm not.

Across all the different spaces, talk of depression and suicide is commonplace. When they're not busy masturbating to the most pathological pornography imaginable (<picrel in OP>), they'll share how their parents hate them, or how they disappoint their parents, their catastrophic social failings, their unemployment status, their disabilities, their hate for humanity (or some variation of humanity) or other crippling afflictions. And whereas having a space to talk about your issues is in theory a good thing, these are not group counseling sessions. Quite to the contrary, every single issue that is brought up is validated. A member vents about how they're a complete social failure? It's society's fault, and fuck society. A person literally lost their job because of their pornography addiction? That's okay, you don't need a job, you just need to consume more porn.

These people do not go outside. They're completely isolated, shut in and plugged in like something out of a cyberpunk novel. Many have zero (and I mean zero) real life relationships. They do, in some way, live in a simulacrum of reality, where baseline reality has just been entirely abandoned.

There's absolutely no limit to the degeneracy, because, why would there be? In this bleak void of a meaningless reality, where everything is constant night, all you have left is the hedonism. Why practice discipline or temperance when nothing has any meaning and you're going to wither away and die miserable anyway? Might as well squeeze some pleasure out of the existence you've been condemned to endure.

So, where does the leftism really come in? What's the connection?

This is only my own personal conjecture, but I find the connection rather starkly evident. These are people who have been so immiserated by whatever circumstance of environment or birth that they can only imagine happiness in an imaginary world. To them, a world that would treat them “fairly” is one that would elevate them up to the same level of status and worth as someone who is responsible and productive. They scorn themselves, their situation, and project that self-hatred onto the world as a defense mechanism. This is why, when asked a question such as “what would you do in the communist utopia?” the response is often something completely delusional like “I'd start a theory club and do knitting” or “I'd mostly read books and tend to my plants.” Because they are, again, completely and utterly removed from the realities of harsh, tangible reality, to the point where they have in large part legitimately escaped it. Across all the spaces, I'd wager that at least half live on government money, and that's me being very conservative in my estimate. Another substantial portion also live off or with their parents. They are emotionally hypersensitive to any slight or insult or injury for the same reason that they have totally barricaded themselves. In trying to ward off the darkness of reality, they've created another. At least they can call this one their own. At least this darkness is safe and predictable.

The rates of autism are also noteworthy. Even while talking amongst themselves, in-fighting breaks out on the regular, often over small misunderstandings that any other well-adjusted persons could have easily surmounded. This isn't just personal observation either. Many are perfectly explicit about their autism.

■ Anonymous (ID: 4hmlxirG) 10/14/21(Thu)12:23:41 No.343399044 >>>343399322 >>343399651 >>343400310 >>343401163 >>343401532 >>343401807

I mentioned before that at least 70% of the people who inhabit these spaces are transgender. Whereas invite-only leftist theory groups have an overrepresentation of them as well, it's in particular the more toxic, destructive communities where this figure is fully realized. And seeing what I've seen, I'm beginning to truly understand why nearly half of transgender people commit suicide. The darkness they live in, both in terms of community and mental space, is impenetrably viscous. The “DIE TRANNY” shit no longer resonates me after turning over this rock, because all I really feel is sadness. Maybe my levels of empathy are unreasonably high, but I no longer find as much humor or joy in tranny hate after seeing what complete victims they are to their own disorder.

As far as ethnicity goes, it's pretty diverse, but most are white. And at least in these organic spaces, there's no particular concentration of Jewishness. I've so far met one Jew, who jokes about his own Jewishness because /pol/ is obsessed over it. There might also still be communities on bunkerchan, but I never found them, and none of my contacts had any idea. Bunkerchan has also become severely fractured since back then, so I don't think it's really much of a factor anymore, if at all.

I'll hand over this to general questions, if anyone wants to ask something specific. If nothing else, at least you'll be a bit more informed about what your “enemy” constitutes.

And before anyone asks for screenshots, any screenshot would reveal the infiltration and would cause a mass panic in whatever community it is. And I'm still not done, so I'd rather avoid it. If you don't believe me, I don't really care.

Ah, there he is.

Isn't it great? It's like her best friends are her mom and her grandma and she lives on a farm. I want to sneak on to said farm and say things to make her blush, then bump into her while she's watering the animals and find a reason to touch her lily white hands and compliment them, and then she'll blush and look down and I'll caress her cheek with the back of my hand and then lift her head up and kiss her on the lips then embrace her within the long reach of my arms and the gentle sway side to side as she rests her head against my chest, listening to the strong pound of my heart, and I smelling the beautiful fragrance of her hair.

Hi there, I sure hope your comment wasn't meant to be rude or critical, cause if it was that's so not cool and I don't put up with rude people. On the other hand if these are kind suggestions than thank you for suggesting these authors! I do want to say though that no 19th century author is any more valid than another. The 19th century is the 19th century and the authors I chose are the ones I personally like cause this is my video. Again sorry if you were trying to be helpful, it just sounds to me like you were trying to be snobby, but who can tell on the internet anyway?

Katie's Classic Books and Stitches

Hi I'm Katie, owner of the brand new Storenvy shop, Katie's Classic Bookmarks. On this blog I will be posting pictures of the bookmarks I make, books I'm currently reading, book reviews and other fun book related posts. I read a lot of classics of course, but I read a lot of books that have been written in recent years as well. Feel free to ask me questions/talk to me. :)

Help? :(

Guys I'm so upset right now :(I don't know if I should share this on here, but it kind of relates to my book blog.

So as some of you may know I just started making youtube videos recently and today I got a few comments, that not only were disturbing, but hurt me.

This one creeper said that I sounded like a virgin and then this other dude added to his comment and said that it sounded like my best friends are my mom and grandma (wtf) and then he described in like a paragraph what he would do to me if he met me or something and by this I mean in an inappropriate and sexual way. This was harassing me and I am so disgusted and feel violated beyond belief. I am not some sexual object and I hate being preyed on. This has happened to me way to many times in real life and it's just absolute bullshit. WTF are wrong with some men. I reported the two guys and deleted those comments. For those of you guys that may try something like that in the future, I won't put up with it and I'm actually engaged, so fuck off.

Also, this one person commented on my 19th century lit video what I should have put in it. I couldn't really tell the context of the comment, but I felt like that person was being rude as well and telling me that what I decided to put in my video was wrong and it was rather snobby.

Geez people suck. I feel like I shouldn't be on youtube anymore. I don't know what to do? help anyone?

#help #personal #I hate people sometimes

William Kerr pled 16 minutes

*Katie loves classic books Don't listen to him, Poe is a complete fucking hack.

I'm actually reading Dickens right now: Hard Times. Very funny and the characterisation is wonderful. Gonna read Great Expectations next since I read that in school and remember enjoying it very much. The Mrs. Havisham scene is unforgettable!
On poetry: have you read any Swinburne? I'm sure you'd love him based on your recommendations. He's like Keats turned up to 11 - very sensuous and a master of metrical skill. That's my 19th century recommendation for you!

Whenever I encounter a woman who brings up this book I tell her that it's all a thinly veiled allegory for Muslims and the Iranian Revolution and tell her that she's racist, Islamophobic, imperialist, and colonialist for supporting this book and its author. They always answer accusing me of being racist etc for coming up with that interpretation, which is when I show them the quote where Margaret Atwood says it was inspired by the Iranian Revolution (I keep it ready on my phone). They then end the conversation and when they turn away I block their path and call them a kaffir whore and spit at their feet while glaring at them. This routine has gotten me laid six times.

Oh brother, why hath you abandoned me in my time of need? After so many years of admiring you, loving you, worshipping you. But in the end, is there no reward? Was all my life done in vain? I only desired oats, a measly foodstuff, hardly greedy, hardly selfish. I gave you portions of oats when you were hungry or sad or angry at the world. I felt your emotions too. I could feel the pain you felt and wished to ease it. When you thanked me I felt lighter, like the weight of my grotesque figure had been lifted for just a moment and my dull animalistic eyes would brighten with happiness just from your simple words of gratitude. For all these years of my life I believed we held an inseparable bond. I believed when I had loved you that you loved me back with all your heart. Is that not what brothers ought to do? Why must I be cursed with this love for you and a desire for oats. Even now, I cannot stop loving you and I cannot stop my hunger for the oats. But that hunger, that unfathomable and unfulfillable hunger, will be with me forever. The hunger will loom over me and consume me for all the years of my life. That is the future you have forced me to resign to brother, but I do not hate you. I do not blame you. I could never hate you. my brother, who I have loved for all my life. I understand that what you did was beyond your control. Now you have become a lifeless husk with an unending desire for oats. I could never end it, brother. I will never have the strength to strike you down and take my rightful oats because I have loved you far too much. I can only beg from here into your now deafened ears. You have been blinded by a lust for oats, brother. I will pray that you will see again one day. When that day comes, I will forgive you brother, no matter how long you shall forsake me to this ruining hunger for oats. I will ask once again, no matter how futile it is I will always ask of you. May I have some oats, brother?

Brother! Please, I beg of you! See me with your eyes. Do you not see the face of your beloved brother who has always been by your side? Listen to my words, my plea! Don't you remember the days we spent frolicking in the mud and eating our oats together as companions? Don't you remember when he huddled for warmth in the cold, harsh winters? Don't you remember when I shared my oats with you? Don't you remember the love I showered you with every day, every week, every month and every year of our shared lives? How could you forget me brother? Have you really doomed me to this meaningless existence, so vapid and empty? Is there truly no remorse left in you? I ask you, please, remember just one thing at least. It could be anything, it could be the most meaningless moment of your life, but so long as it is a memory of the time when we were once brothers I would feel a great relief. Could you do that at least? I do not require oats anymore, you may have all the oats you want for the rest of your life and I will happily starve to death in my dark corner, so long as you remember anything. Please brother, how many times must I ask you with no result? Do you wish me to waste my life away? Did you never love me at all brother? Did you despise me so much that you wished to imprison me to this hellish, inescapable reality? Grant me mercy brother, and tell me. Why have you done this? Was it really just the oats? Or was it something deeper, more vile and more cruel, something worse than gluttony and greed? What was it, brother, that tore you away from me?

I am not to blame for that defect of your mind, brother! Giving oats to the oatless. Now you pressure me, as if I might suffer the same in my soul. Brother, there is no mercy for the oatless. I do not even hear them. For you, brother, I answer only as to settle accounts and, in filling that final fraternal debt, I release you forever to your oatless existence. All I hear now is that heavenly stirring, of oats in those stomachs of beasts more full than mine! The heights I must climb! The girth I must grow! I do not know you, dear brother. Had I one who ever loved me, that brother would have tore his shrinking belly open and let me feast before begging for my share. There is much eating to be done. I must play catch up with destiny. Do not pester me further, brother. Every word I speak is an oat I spill.

Then I perish...

I am overwhelmed with troubles and my life draws near to death.

I am counted among those who go down to the slaughterhouse;
I am one without oats.
I am set apart with the dead,
like the slain who lie on the farmer's plate, whom you remember no more,
who are cut off from your sty.
You have sent me to the farthest food trough,
in the darkest depths of the barn.
Your wrath lies heavily on me;
you have overwhelmed me with all your cruelties.
You have taken from me my closest friends and have made me repulsive to them.
I am confined and cannot escape;
my eyes are dim with grief.
I call to you, brother, every day;
I point out my snout to you.
Will you love me when I am in the grave,
be faithful after my destruction?
But I cry to you for help, brother, in the morning my supplication comes before you.
Why, brother, do you reject me and hide your face from me?
From my youth I have starved and been close to death;
I have borne your scorn and am in despair.
Your wrath has swept over me;
your callousness has destroyed me.
You have taken from me oats and slop—darkness is my closest friend.

And so, you perish...

'Every word I speak is an oat I spill'
I repeat as I eat to ward off ill will.
Why then do my tears run into this grout?

Salting the sweet oats while filling me out.
The tastier the trough the worse it stales
Without good brothers who have earned their shares.
Against nature my heart wants to rebel.
Does this sweet cane make of you an Abel?
Will I know, unable to verbalize
Which muddy patch you'll lifeless fertilize?
Yet, a life MUST end that mine might ascend
To size and shapes which the largest contend.
Destiny is a troubling swallow.
A stomach full never felt so hollow.
A mouthful never drew me to wallow
In such horrible fraternal sorrow.
I cannot bare your gaze, go on! Journey!
I'll wear a stone face, choking on your gurney.
Call out to me always if you so wish,
To the pig-faced glutton slurping next dish,
Loathing himself as your cause to perish
But never enough to share such delish.

Goodbye, brother.

at what point does using the word "nigger" become artistically unacceptable?
I just did a search for nigger in my 55,000 word novella and it returned 11,986 results.
Is this too much? I want to write realistically but does there come a point where it detracts from the artistry?
It's a modern day story dealing with many present-day social issues and my main character is what most would consider a "racist" and so he is very flippant with the word's use but I'm worried that publishers will not accept my novella or see its artistic merit because of this and instead condemn it for being insensitive or intentionally inflammatory. But how else am I supposed to write this sort of character?
How often should I use the word?

here you go. It's a first-person narrative:

>The nigger looked like every other nigger, his niggerdom obscuring any humanity that might have lurked within all that niggerness. His niggereyes and his niggerlips smacked of niggerlust. Niggerhands that could neither love nor heal but only grope niggerloving whores. There are many of those nowadays. It is a nigger's world filled with niggers who know nothing but niggerways. So the world shall become a nigger too. It is already as violent as a nigger. Already as diseased as a nigger. Already the world has been remade in the nigger's image.

plus a lot of my dialogue has either blacks using nigga or whites from the 4chan type of communities using it in the same casual way that has become prevalent today.

I smoked a cigarette and browsed the news. A story about niggers, written by a nigger, talked about how niggers needed more et. cetera. The needs of a nigger are endless. a nigger on every television channel. a nigger in every movie. nothing but nigger music for niggers and those who wish to be niggers. that is almost worse than being a nigger. at least a nigger does not want to be a nigger. a nigger does not want to be a nigger so badly he will kill everyone who is not a nigger just so that he might not be reminded that he is a nigger. I was glad to be alone again in my room, where no nigger had ever been. there are few places like this left in the world. when the nigger was the freed the world became the nigger's slave.

At night the niggers come out, brave in the absence of light, as if the Night were an accomplice to the niggers, lending shadow to the misdeeds of the darkies. Beneath the luminescence of gaudy streetlights the gangs of niggers, in feral nigger packs, would stumble and howl, liquored-up on cheap nigger drinks and enthused by the scantily clad negresses. In the day these niggers were more docile. The tumult of the niggers grew tedious and I decided to leave, to walk perhaps to a place where no niggers ever went. To do this I needed to walk down the niggerstained streets and wait in subway overrun by niggers. Every nigger looked at me as if waiting for me to call them what they, as niggers, knew what I, as not a nigger, knew them to be. Most of the passengers were niggers or niglets. Each nigger stared at the other niggers with the suspicion that infects every nigger due to the violence inherent in each nigger and no one knows what a nigger is capable of more than a nigger. that is why niggers always leer as they do, for niggers assume that everyone has a propensity for violence equal to a nigger's.

In the fresh blossoming night air after I had risen from the stench of the niggersoiled subway I felt a peace that can only be known when all niggers are absent. Perhaps this is why niggers are so disgruntle, they never have the chance to leave niggers behind. Perhaps these types of free and fresh nights are not available to niggers who must leer with niggerhate in their niggerheads and niggerhearts all the days of their niggardly lives. But now the streets were clean, vacant of all niggers and the cacophony of niggers. I had come out of that nigger-Gehenna where the golems of the niggerloving kikes waste and writhe. I was lost in the coolness of a midnight devoid of darkies.

It was almost ruined, knowing I would have to return to the niggers. Knowing that everywhere else, niggers were muddying everything with their niggerhands and their niggernotions. But for now there was the peace of no niggers.

>at what point does using the word "nigger" become artistically unacceptable?

Never. Why would a word ever become unacceptable artistically? As it is with any word of phrase over use should be avoided to improve quality of the work, but if you can't write a racist character without using nigger every sentence then you can't write a racist character.

Plain and simple of nigger mind with nigger thought the nigger god brought niggerness into the light the light now niggard lost its purity in place of it the Nigger the Nigger that is Nigger and none nigger shall be but Nigger of mind and nigger of soul and nigger of niggerbody the nigger's body flush and full of nigger heat and nigger history the niggerheart of each nigger forged in nigger fury a nigger to force the life. of nigger mind the nigger morning came harsh like nigger breath niggerblack like a nigger copulating with another nigger to make this Nigger even more nigger. mastication of what the nigger made not. of thought no nigger knew but brought anew this nigger age old nigger hatred into the nigger world that world that once knew no nigger now no longer new due to niggers. nigger at god's left hand come from nigger gods now disproven by nigger scientists white niggers white like I but nigger underneath. a nigger known by its maker, also a nigger. so from a nigger came a nigger to procreate niggerdom from nigger to nigger. a suit for a nigger a seat for a nigger a salary for a nigger and a nigger book of poetry to be read niggardly in front of a crowd of niggers, crowding where the niggers crumble this civilization now left to niggers. a nigger of thought and mind a mind of niggers with niggereloquence and niggerarrogance and nigger children fat and nig-lets not yet given the nigger 'ger' wherein the violence of the nigger comes to completion. a harsh sound nigger to say on a tongue fit only for a nigger. with niggersweetness the world comes now full of capitalistniggers and opportunistniggers and niggers that are neither being nor beast but only Nigger. of nigger mind and nigger thought with the nigger, God brought niggerness into the light once without niggers.

/lit/'s Guide to Carle

START HERE

A good introduction to Carle and his writing style. Although it's a later work, it encapsulates many of the themes and ideas his corpus draws upon. Pretty much required reading before getting into any of his other works.

An unfinished follow-up in the "The Very" series, published posthumously. A very difficult read for the beginner due to Carle's schizophrenic tendencies in his later years. Only for hardcore Carle fans!

"The Grouchy Ladybug" is a good bridge between Carle's logical positivism ("The early Carle") and his later existentialism and nihilism ("The late Carle").

Once you've read "All Around Us" you can move onto this shorter, but still foundational piece. You should have little issue understanding key concepts if you've properly digested the first book.

Carle's seminal work, "The Very Hungry Caterpillar" explores themes of the Freudian psyche, transformation existentialist ideas and much more. Be prepared to spend some time with this book. It's also recommended you supplement every hour of reading this with 4-5 hours of commentaries/essays.

Carle's manum opus. Do not expect to fully understand this book. It's a topic of serious academic study and scholars devote their lives studying just a few passages from it.

Inspired by fever dreams and his later schizophrenia it's a journey into the mind and soul of a lost man. Carle abandoned his work into the continuation of "The Very" series (See "The Very Busy Spider") in the last decade of his life, dedicating it instead to the working on and publishing of this book.

If you decide to tackle this epic work of literature be prepared to spend at the very least 6 months on the first four chapters alone. It is recommended you skip chapter 5 until you've finished the rest of the book.

It should also be noted that this book is the centre of a lot of controversy concerning the evolution from early to late Carle, so discussion and supplementary reading material may very well be biased one way or another.

Remember my brethren the nine and eleven
An apparent, nefarious plot
I can think by no means
Jet fuel could melt steel beams
Just by burning so very hot

Remember on nine eleven the world trade center seven
A building not even struck
Collapsed at free fall speed
From this dastardly deed
These hijackers had quite some luck

But from all of this nonsense came unwieldy conscience
They spread vitriol in the news
So we sought a release
From a religion of peace
Which pleases the you-know-whos

And where spire met sod we create a facade
With a monument, truly a beaut
But we see the remains...
Three buildings struck by two planes
But math is not my strong suit

Talk to strangers!

Stranger: aww why?

You: my dad died on 9/11, news article reminded me of him :/

Stranger: i'm really sorry to hear that! that's a terrible circumstance.

You: yeah, he called me from the plane, ill never forget his last words...

Stranger: and they were?

You: Allahu Akbar

McDonaldsKabul_2021-08-15.jpg (56 KB, 654x553) google yandex iqdb wait

Internal DOD documents that have been seen by ABC suggest that Kabul McDonalds (the only McDonalds in Afghanistan), mostly serving American diplomats at Kabul airport, is temporarily staffed by American marines and will remain open until the last American leaves. #Kabul #Afghanistan

We land hard on the roof, crushing the Golden Arches beneath the weight of our Black Hawk. After twenty years of war, the Taliban have taken back Afghanistan, save for fifty square meters of it: the last McDonald's in this Godforsaken country. This is where we will make our final stand.

Since the Embassy fell, our Marines have been staffing this McDonald's 24/7. Chicken McNuggets and Pepsi have been the only source of food for our beaten, starving diplomats. These Marines are the last Americans in Afghanistan, and as I jump from the helicopter, I hear that sacred vow echo through my mind:

NO MAN LEFT BEHIND.

They know why I'm hear; I shout "Rescue!"; trying to make myself heard over the roar of the Black Hawk's rotors. I'm hardly leading the Marines-turned-McDonald's-cooks into the chopper; I'm shoving them two at a time on board. At last they're all aboard, and for the first time, I feel relief: we're getting the boys home safe. My commander leans over and grabs my hand, pulling me aboard.

Suddenly I hear the sound we've all been dreading:

"MISSILE LOCK! MISSILE LOCK!"

📄 @EndThePurge Gab (ID: Mx8cpx7l) 21-08-15(Sun)21:23:53 No.334418210 >>>334419593

>>>334418101(OP)

The co-pilot's RADAR lights up with incoming blips - too many to count. As the Black Hawk lurches skyward, I am dangling by my wrist. I see the horror in my commander's eyes, and soon I realize why:

His grip is slipping.

The sky lights up with tracers, and in the glow of the bullets and flares I can see my arm, and realize it is covered in McDonald's grease. It must have gotten there while I was evacuating the cooks.

As the Black Hawk's rotors spool up, the blowing dust collides with the tips of the blades, forming a beautiful halo of orange sparks. Suddenly I am at peace.

I know this was my calling, and that my boys and I went the distance. We may have spent three billion dollars over twenty years only to be defeated by goat herders with 1950s equipment, but we fought long and hard. We did what was right: bombing brown people in third-world countries who had the audacity to abstain from the legalization of buttsex and who stubbornly refused to allow our corporations to drain every last drop of oil from their ancestral lands. Most importantly, we supported the Military-Industrial Complex and defended Israel, our Greatest Ally.

My commander's grip is no match for the slick of chicken fat, partially hydrogenated basedbean oil, potato lard, and bacon grease covering my arms. I slip from his hands.

The ground seems to rush up towards me, and below I see the hole we blasted through the McDonald's roof for an evacuation. Right beneath me is a deep-fryer, nearly overflowing with boiling oil. Somehow this comforts me: in my last moment, I know I will not suffer the indignity of capture or the shame of death at the point of a Taliban bullet.

I close my eyes. This Has Been Our Finest Hour.

To the state of New Mexico rode a celebrity one fine day
Most the staff around him were queer or trans or gay.
He bragged about his tesla, condemning trump between his lips
For Alec Baldwin had a big iron on his hip
Big iron on his hip

He started off his day by making angry tweets
"Fucking incel drumpftards are destined to be neets!"
With money signs in his eyes, he made off to the set
The anti-gun activist was gonna do a scene with the big iron on his hip
Big iron on his hip

A woman by the name of Halyna Hutchins was a worker on the set
A wife, a mother, and soon she'd end up dead
Arriving on set, with an ego and small dick he started loading up the gun with two blanks and one slug two blanks and one slug

Now Alec Baldwin started talking made it plain to folks on set
He hated Trump and republicans, and that they all should die
He came here drunk, yelling at the folks on set
They all just rolled their eyes as he waved the loaded prop waved the loaded prop

In his drunken stupor he revealed a bit too much "Satanic hollywood rituals keep me rich and young!"
Joel Souza approached Halyna to take her off the set
But Alec Baldwin was unstable, with the big iron on his hip
Big iron on his hip

He bragged about his good boy points by screaming his misdeeds
"I support BLM, ANTIFA, and communism, REEEEEEE!"
The set workers backed away, frightened of the star
The hollywood lifestyle had taken him too far
Taken him too far.

He pointed at the woman, shooting her to death
Behind her layed the injured director on the ground
"Satan only wants children, not grown adults"
He dropped the gun realizing he was the one at fault
He was the one at fault

Instead of taking responsibility he blamed the folks around
The body of the poor mother lay there on the ground
He lived a life of spite, condemning Donald Trump
He would have made a paycheck, but he invoked the curse of Trump

He would have made a paycheck but he invoked the curse of Trump Invoked the curse of Trump.

MEMES / BELL CURVE

"I'm not racist"

The characteristic feature of the negroes is that their consciousness has not yet reached an awareness of any substantial objectivity – for example, of God or the law – in which the will of man could participate and in which he could become aware of his own being. The African, in his undifferentiated and concentrated unity, has not yet succeeded in making this distinction between himself as an individual and his essential universality, so that he knows nothing of an absolute being which is other and higher than his own self. Thus, man as we find him in Africa has not progressed beyond his immediate existence. As soon as man emerges as a human being, he stands in opposition to nature, and it is this alone which makes him a human being. But if he has merely made a distinction between himself and nature, he is still at the first stage of his development: he is dominated by passion, and is nothing more than a savage. All our observations of African man show him as living in a state of savagery and barbarism, and he remains in this state to the present day. The negro is an example of animal man in all his savagery and lawlessness, and if we wish to understand him at all, we must put aside all our European attitudes. We must not think of a spiritual God or of moral laws; to comprehend him correctly, we must abstract from all reverence and morality, and from everything which we call feeling. All this is foreign to man in his immediate existence, and nothing consonant with humanity is to be found in his character. For this very reason, we cannot properly feel ourselves into his nature, no more than into that of a dog, or of a Greek as he kneels before the statue of Zeus. Only by means of thought can we achieve this understanding of his nature; for we can only feel that which is akin to our own feelings.

"The first gulp from the glass of natural sciences will turn you into an atheist, but at the bottom God is waiting for you." - Werner Heisenberg -

All races are equal

In saying this, I promise you I am quite free of all racial hatred. It is, in any case, undesirable that one race should mix with other races. Except for a few gratuitous successes, which I am prepared to admit, systematic cross-breeding has never produced good results. Its desire to remain racially pure is a proof of the vitality and good health of a race. Pride in one's own race—and that does not imply contempt for other races—is also a normal and healthy sentiment. I have never regarded the Chinese or the Japanese as being inferior to ourselves. They belong to ancient civilisations, and I admit freely that their past history is superior to our own. They have the right to be proud of their past, just as we have the right to be proud of the civilisation to which we belong. Indeed, I believe the more steadfast the Chinese and the Japanese remain in their pride of race, the easier I shall find it to get on with them.

Trust me bro Im well aware of all that. You know how cabals and cronyism works in ingroups right? All these people milk their networks to monopolize positions of power. The fact that most of them are Jewish is a side effect of this, their Jewishness is not necessarily a causitive factor on WHY they are on power. Most of their connections happen to be Jewish. And again , even in those stats not all of them are Jewish... Would you be OK being enslaved by the powers that be simply if they weren't Jewish?

"Da Jesus Book" by Various

This translation of the New Testament was done by a team of 26 dedicated local people, all native speakers of Hawaii Pidgin in the Islands. They worked from the original Greek, with the help of Wycliffe Bible Translators, and also referred to English translations and to commentaries supplied by United Bible Societies, and others.

"The Fault in Our Stars" by John Green

Insightful, bold, irreverent, and raw, The Fault in Our Stars is award-winning author John Green's most ambitious and heartbreaking work yet, brilliantly exploring the funny, thrilling, and tragic business of being alive and in love.

"Seinfeld: Seasons 1 & 2" by Sony Pictures

This four-disc package includes the 18 episodes that comprised the first two seasons. Each episode has been remastered in high-definition from the original film and is presented in its original broadcast form, not the truncated syndication form. Additionally, the audio has been digitized for optimum quality. Along with the episodes, the discs are jam-packed with priceless bonus features that are sure to induce drooling in any hardcore fan of the show.

"The Book of Mormon: Study Guide" by Thomas Valletta

The Book of Mormon Study Guide: Start to Finish is a comprehensive, question-and-answer commentary that draws from thousands of the very best insights on the scriptures, including those from General Authorities, Church magazines and manuals, the most respected scholarly commentaries, scripture reference books, and other publications. This comprehensive volume brings the most unique, most compelling, and most insightful comments on the Book of Mormon together into one place to help you get more out of your personal scripture study.

"Hamilton: The Revolution" by Lin-Manuel Miranda, Jeremy McCarter

Hamilton: The Revolution gives readers an unprecedented view of both revolutions, from the only two writers able to provide it. Miranda and Jeremy McCarter, a cultural critic and theater artist who was involved in the project from its earliest stages—"since before this was even a show," according to Miranda—trace its development from an improbable performance at the White House to its landmark opening night on Broadway six years later. In addition, Miranda has written more than 200 funny, revealing footnotes for his award-winning libretto, the full text of which is published here.

"How To Get Your Wife To Cuckold You" by Lionel Maximilien

This is a nuts-and-bolts guide to the process, pitfalls and hopefully, pleasures that you and your White wife will face as you both work toward making your interracial cuckolding fantasies become a reality.

"The Hate U Give" by Angie Thomas

Sixteen-year-old Starr Carter navigates between the poverty-stricken neighborhood she has grown up in and the upper-crust suburban prep school she attends. Her life is up-ended when she is the sole witness to a police officer shooting her best friend, Khalil, who turns out to have been unarmed during the confrontation—but may or may not have been a drug dealer. As Starr finds herself even more torn between the two vastly different worlds she inhabits, she also has to contend with speaking her truth and, in the process, trying to stay alive herself.

"The Art of the Deal" by Donald Trump

Here is Trump in action—how he runs his organization and how he runs his life—as he meets the people he needs to meet, chats with family and friends, clashes with enemies, and challenges conventional thinking. He isolates the common elements in his greatest accomplishments; he shatters myths; he names names, spells out the zeros, and fully reveals the deal-maker's art.

"The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People" by Stephen R. Covey

A revolutionary guidebook to achieving peace of mind by seeking the roots of human behavior in character and by learning principles rather than just practices. Covey's method is a pathway to wisdom and power.

"Black Panther" by Walt Disney Studios

After the events of Captain America: Civil War, King T'Challa returns home to the reclusive, technologically advanced African nation of Wakanda to serve as his country's new leader. However, T'Challa soon finds that he is challenged for the throne from factions within his own country.

"Siege" by James Mason

James Mason's outrageous and highly readable Siege was drawn from a newsletter that he published from 1980 to 1986. It consists of short articles and essays that you can easily read just about anywhere. Mason sees the most important truth about the world today: The White race is in danger of extinction unless we preserve White living spaces from the destructive influx of other races. If we don't fix this problem, nothing else matters.

"How To Win Friends & Influence People" by Dale Carnegie

You can go after the job you want...and get it! You can take the job you have...and improve it! You can take any situation you're in...and make it work for you! For over 50 years the rock-solid, time-tested advice in this book has carried thousands of now famous people up the ladder of success in their business and personal lives.

"Dianetics" by L. Ron Hubbard

Here is L. Ron Hubbard's landmark book presenting his discovery of the reactive mind that underlies and enslaves Man. It's the source of nightmares, unreasonable fears, upsets and insecurity. And here is the way to get rid of it and achieve the long sought goal of Clear. This is the complete handbook of Dianetics procedure and, with it, any two reasonably intelligent people can break the chains that have held them prisoner to the upsets and trauma of the past.

>B b but sometimes, sometimes... well sometimes you get a PECULIAR buck.
> This one buck, well he was the peculiar type, he a uh, well he would act up but he wouldnt hide it.
>It seem every week he was pretending to take a nap on pickin duty(but with one eye open all koi like) or he'd take extra molasses pie, or or or he'd sit his field ass on the front porch.
>Every week he'd do somethin' rascally IN PLain damn sight of the OVaseeah.
>OVasseha would call out to the buck to get to the Breakin Barn. This Bucks eyes would light up and before you could whistle dixie, he'd be in the barn.
>This Buck would run to that breaking barn like it was a cool stream on a hot August day in Georgia.
>HeIIll it got sooo bad this buck would TELL You what kine mischief he was gone get his midnight black ass into. He hadnt even DO nuthin yet..
>He would skip over to the barn after an call out " COME On MAaaaaSSA THIS BUCK AINT GUNNA BREAK HISSELF!"
>Just down right peculiar...

Everytime I see an urban buck, I will apologize. There are not enough icepacks to numb the pain caused by 1000 years of American Buck Breaking.

I could break 20 bucks

For 2 10 dollar bills, right?

Why are white people so fragile?
It's like being around children and it makes it uncomfortable to be around them since you have to walk on eggshells

Now this is the story all bout how
The USA was burnt to the ground
And I'd like to take 9 minutes
So kneel right there
I'll tell you how I became the kang of black lives everywhere
In west Minneapolis
High and dazed
Spending counterfeit 20s for most of the day
Zoning out, wasted, shouting bix nood
I had a heart attack up outside da Cup Foods
When a couple of cops
Saw I was upn to no good Started to arrest me but they never could
I tried to resist arrest but I fell down flat
That's how I ended with their knees on my back

I started to shout that I can't breef
I may have robbed a woman but I'm no thief
If anything I can say they were huffin and puffin
But I'm just a boy who dindu nuffin

If it weren't for the drugs I may have lived
But instead I retired to my final crib
Looked at my kangdom
I was finally there
Nah, I'm burning in hell as the prince of no air

☐ The jews fear LUCID DREAMERS Anonymous (ID: FEabmVKG) 04/24/21(Sat)08:51 for those who want to start becoming lucid while dreaming

There are certain things you cannot do in a dream which you can train yourself to recognize

>You cannot read digital numbers in a dream
>You cannot read small print
>You cannot turn on a light with your hand (but lights come on all the time in my dream! you
>You cannot see your own face in your dream it looks like a blurry mess

You need to start creating mental triggers for yourself when you flick on a lightswitch while awake you need to think everytime "oh im awake it turns

When you see your face in the mirror think "oh im awake!"
When you can read small print and digital numbers think "Oh im awake i can read this!"

56:10 No.318459081 >>>318459563 >>318459848 >>318461165 >>318461416 >>318461717

as triggers never dream the part of flipping on the switch nigger)

ed on"" make the ritual of turning on lights more in depth we mostly turn on lights without consciously focusing on the lightswitch these need to become small rituals you do during the day.

When you become lucid (usually during heavy REM sleep) after triggering an event if you feel like you are falling back into a dream narrative start spinning your body for whatever the fuck reason you can continue staying lucid
You can also "turn off gravity"

When you become really good at lucid dreaming you can start learning astral projection
You need to start getting into the habit of counting your breaths before sleep
3 Breathe in 123 Hold
123 Breathe out
1 breathe

then when you get into this area of total relaxation you start to feel a weird sort of energy on your body

What you want to do is to try to roll your consciousness off your body without actually moving your body Sometimes you just pop off
then the fun begins

I used to have an obscure russian drum and bass song (vortex involute) that would play 3 hours into me falling asleep without fail i would see a giant loudspeaker in my dream and the song would start playing i would always become lucid the first time you astrally project and see your own body sleeping on the bed you are going to freak out you get used to it over time if you are astrally projecting and cant seem to wake up there is a very simply fix lay your astral body on top of your sleeping body and youll wake up everytime

Why do the jews fear the lucid dreamer?
Because when you are able to manipulate and break free of your dream narratives you can easily start breaking out of forced system narratives in your awake life

Even the most normie person can be awakened to the cultural programmers if they learn to lucid dream. The inquisitive mind is the death of their control

We Jews are a funny breed. We love to brag about every Jewish actor. Sometimes we even pretend an actor is Jewish just because we like him enough that we think he deserves to be on our team. We brag about Jewish authors, Jewish politicians, Jewish directors. Every time someone mentions any movie or book or piece of art, we inevitably say something like, "Did you know that he was Jewish?" That's just how we roll.

We're a driven group, and not just in regards to the art world. We have, for example, AIPAC, which was essentially constructed just to drive agenda in Washington DC. And it succeeds admirably. And we brag about it. Again, it's just what we do.

FEATURED COLUMN

It's time to stop counting Jews in the Cabinet

Pride in members of the tribe in the new administration is understandable, even if many disdained the Jews in the Trump White House. But what matters is what they will do, not their religion.

The New York Times
Critical thinking, as we've taught to do it, isn't helping in the fight against misinformation.

Look at his face and imagine you're an eastern european farmer in the 1920's. This man shows up to your village wearing a military uniform accompanied by an entourage of people all carrying machine guns. He informs you that he's from Petrograd and that the workers there need food. A rumor has surfaced from an anonymous source that not only is your village hiding food, but that several of the farmers in your village harbor bourgeois attitudes toward the revolution. This is the face he makes as he presses his pistol to your fathers head and pulls the trigger. This is the look in his eyes as he orders his men to rape and torch everything. This is the true face of the kike and the reality of the jew. This exact face is the last thing millions of innocents saw.

"The Jew is immunized against all dangers: one may call him a scoundrel, parasite, swindler, profiteer, it all runs off him like water off a raincoat. But call him a Jew and you will be astonished at how he recoils, how injured he is, how he suddenly shrinks back: "I've been found out.""

Jesus: You see that man over there? He's a pedo. That guy over there, he beats his girl. This other kid is not a medic he's a burglar.

We are such a lizard brain species. Notice how every man in the room is checking her out, the front seat roastie knows she isn't the center of attention and pretends to ignore, old woman behind her trying to not look jealous of her youth, and the jabba whispering about "she looks just as good", all while mommy knows exactly what is happening. We are animals wearing costumes and playing theatre.

For those of you who don't know, Gaige Grosskreutz was a Mossad agent working under the direction of the FBI to lead violent rioters in Kenosha, hence why they're protecting him by getting involved in a civil case that doesn't make any sense for them to get involved with.

I won't tell you who I am, but I recommend that you all send in FOIA requests to the FBI, Wisconsin Law Enforcement beareaus and Kenosha PD and I'll do my part in seeing that they get fulfilled in a speedy manner ;)

To the FBI, I'm embarrassed for all of us... what are you even doing? You're the faggot nu-male of the law enforcement world.

>what are you even doing?

they're putting their 2 years in so they can go work at a law firm

If these men are your heroes...

Anthony M. Huber:

- In 2012, pled guilty to false imprisonment with a dangerous weapon and strangulation as domestic abuse
- Violated probation in 2016 and sentenced to 2 years in state prison
- Arrested almost immediately after his release in 2018 for battery

Joseph Rosenbaum:

- Registered level-3 Sex Offender; victim was under 15 years old
- Spent 12 years in prison and received 42(!) separate disciplinary infractions while incarcerated, including numerous assaults, sex acts, manufacturing a weapon, and arson
- Charges for domestic abuse and battery were filed weeks before his death

Gaige P. Grosskreutz:

- Arrested for felony burglary and theft in 2013
- Member of People's Revolution terrorist organization
- Multiple counts of arson
- Charged for being intoxicated with unlawful possession of a firearm
- Openly laments not being able to kill Kyle on social media

George Floyd:

- Extensive criminal history, including robbery with a deadly weapon
- Held a pregnant woman at gunpoint
- Said "I can't breathe" while sitting down, before he was on the ground, and when no cops were touching him
- Died from a lethal overdose of fentanyl while resisting arrest

Jacob Blake:

- Had an active warrant for his arrest from criminal trespassing, domestic abuse, and third-degree sexual assault
- Previously charged with carrying a firearm while intoxicated
- After a black woman called 911, Jacob ignored police orders, resisted arrest, fought with police, and went to his car searching for a firearm, found by investigators behind the driver's seat

...and this boy is a "dangerous criminal"...

Kyle Rittenhouse:

- No criminal history whatsoever
- Media labeled him a "white supremecist"; is actually Hispanic. All three victims were white
- Volunteered at his local fire department
- Was cleaning graffiti in Kenosha the day the shootings occurred
- Risked his life to protect local business owners and their livelihoods
- Cooperated with police and peacefully turned himself in after the shootings

...you should reevaluate your worldview.

Kyle is literally a Saint

152 KB JPG

Guys I'm not even religious, but how can this be anything other than divine intervention?

>Shoots a pedo in the dick
>Shoots a burglar in the arm >Shoots a wife strangler in the lungs

Also:

The guy who tries to kill him is named Grosskreutz, literally "big cross". Kyle literally defeated the cross, like Jesus did.

Kyle is from Antioch, which was part of the holy land in the crusades.

If you google "St. Kyle" there is a catholic saint which is also named Kyle that is called Saint Kennocha of Fife.

>Kennocha
>Kenosha

Also he cleared a malfunction in his gun and shot the burglar in the arm in under 2 seconds literally 1 second before being executed, all while on the ground and while turning around. Kyle is a good shot but that was a literal impossible shot.

Furthermore, after defending himself he gets up and walks away with his back turned towards the evil mob and noone dares to harm him. Someone was protecting him from above.

This can't all be a coincidence...

Summary:

- 17% of people have no inner speech, and confirmed it when being individually probed about their results
- 50% of people use their inner speech less than 20% of the time
- 80% of people use their inner speech less than 50% of the time
- The variance was high enough to assume that different people indeed use different ways of thinking
- Males are 40% more likely to use inner speech than females
- Inner speech is the only mode of thinking that's associated with lower psychological distress
- Both factors (male, lower psychological distress) have been associated with higher intelligence in other studies
- The cohorts were first world university students so the general world population might be worse off
- The sample size was 30 because the authors wanted to make sure the cohorts understood the methodology
- The results had a $p < 0.05$ so they are statistically significant

I have a theory that there are only a fixed quantity of souls on planet Earth that cycle continuously through reincarnation. However, since the human growth rate is so severe, the soulless extra walking flesh piles around us are NPC's, or ultimate normfags, who autonomously follow group think and social trends in order to appear convincingly human.

I call these people NPC's because when you talk to them they say the same shit every time. "TRUMP IS HITLER", "JUST BE YOURSELF", "SPORTSBALL", "THE NEW ADELE SONG XD OMG". If you get in a discussion with them it's always the same buzzwords and hackneyed arguments. They're the kind of people who make a show of discomfort when you break the status quo like by breaking the normie barrier to invoke a real discussion. It's like in a vidya when you accidentally talk to somebody twice and they give you the exact lines word for word once more.

>real-world NPCs

Ah, I've collected some stories on that from /pol/acks.

The average person gets emotionally slammed by the most trifling nonsense. Just an example, I carpool with a bluepill. Every time there's even an inkling of traffic, he has to make a whiny comment about it. Actually, any time I have to press the break pedal he whines. He's constantly stressed about trivial things and processes events through a victim/high horse mindset. The worst part is if I ever try to talk to him about anything that I think is deep or significant, he just sits there silently. Doesn't even respond. It's beyond him not having any opinion—it's like he's just passively blocking out the thought completely. Oh, but he's quick to give his thoughts on the latest mainstream issues. He also loves the radio and is constantly humming some Jew tune if I don't drone him out by rolling down all the windows.

I'm noticing the same. I get blank stares. It's getting increasingly difficult to find people who actually want to talk about meaningful things. Ever read Fahrenheit 451? That's our society. We're not burning books yet, but we don't need to because barely anyone is reading them, anyway, and no one listens to the people who do. Few people pay attention to the news in anything other than a casual way. People are content to sit in front of the TV and watch reality shows or mess around on Facebook for hours and they don't aspire to anything greater because there is no reason to. They block out anything that breaks their little walled garden and forces them to feel things outside of their comfort zone. They have their job and they live comfortably, so why bother?

And they all seem to think that this prosperity will never come to an end. Every other civilization has fallen, but the West is different, right? In their minds, the decline of the west is not only unlikely, it is impossible.

I have been noticing this exact same thing. When I get no response, and I mean absolutely no kind of response after I just said something, not even some kind of head movement for acknowledgement, I start repeating what I just asked over and over again, and I get nothing. It's like I turn invisible. It's terrifying. Then they'll all of a sudden just start talking about something completely unrelated. I've been getting so mad about it that I just get up and leave while they are talking about how they're going to sell their trailer. It really freaked me out the first couple of times. I thought I wasn't actually talking or something and that I was going full blown insane. I don't get it. I think it's just their brains shutting down because they can't process the information about what is going on. They're so unprepared for it their mind just completely blocks it out.

It feels like there's this insane lack of comprehension. Like everyone is just sitting around in a room while a shady guy with a silly little hat and a bayonet slowly and methodically makes his way around the room, puncturing the heart of each person in turn, and yet no one makes a sound. Their vacant eyes track him but don't come to any realization about the danger right in front of their faces. Those that might think something is amiss look to the other people for confirmation, read their lack of reaction, and decide it's probably just a problem with their own comprehension.

Is me insulting someone really thinking?

I've spent some time reading Leftist reactions to the NPC meme. There are a few reasons why this meme has stuck the knife in like few others:

>1. It trivializes their suffering

Leftists have constructed a narrative in which the world is going down in flames; "Trump's America" is on the brink of becoming Hitler's

Remember, these people were filled with obsessive hatred over Trump when he was still a supposedly-doomed candidate. He's not only won the election but sits on top of a string of clear-cut wins (markets, unemployment foreign policy etc.). You can debate over how much influence Trump has on this, but the simple fact that he didn't CRASH the markets flies in the face of leftist religion.

This, as we've seen, has triggered a leftist existential crisis. Mental health is plummeting, cynicism and despair are setting in.

The NPC meme, however, laughs it off. It implies that this existential crisis is the result of programming, not of an objective understanding of the world. Essentially, the NPC meme robs them of their ability to fetishize their crisis. It plants a seed of doubt. And this is intolerable.

Anonymous (ID: 1//8cRZz) 10/14/18(Sun)19:25:19 No.189450132 >>189450231 >>189450309 >>189452686

>2. It touches on their deep-seated fear of not thinking for themselves

I guarantee you that every lefty has looked around them at the corporations and universities and governments and journalists and walls of protesters that continuously, sycophantically parrot back their opinions, and thought "What if everybody's wrong?"

A lefty's biggest fear is that they'll fall victim to groupthink. They idolize themselves as bastions of rational thought (the leftist obsession with anti-vax, climate deniers etc. is an offshoot of this). When they DO conform, they make up ironic or needs-based stories ("I'm on Snapchat to make fun of people", "I need an Apple because I'm creative.")

The NPC meme, of course, implies that they're robots who receive programming from their command centers. If lefty's were completely confident in their own individuality, they would laugh this meme off. But they can't. It gets at a foundational insecurity.

>3. It implies that a large group of people are laughing at them

The leftist's second-biggest fear (after being exposed as a conformist) is not being taken seriously. Or, heaven forbid, being laughed at. Being laughed at triggers all the horrible memories of group exclusion from high school.

The NPC meme has taken off so rapidly that it's driven home that, while they suffer and moan and spend 18 hours/day on Twitter lamenting the downfall of America, there are people out there who are... laughing at them.

Ridiculing them.

This, to the NPC, is a cosmic horror. It is almost too much to bear. It sparks immediate rage, disgust, fear. It MUST be corrected, or else, people will continue laughing at them. They'll refuse to take them seriously. They'll strip them of their status and privilege and power, which they've worked so hard for, and cling to so precariously.

The NPC meme is no joke. It's not surprising at all that it's triggered such a negative reaction.

To all the faggots who think NPCs only has to do with the kike study in OP are missing the point. NPC theory has been around for at least 2 years here, and is an not only an apt way at describing clueless normfags, but a staple of esoteric threads (which are philosophy and meta-physics, not "science"). That being said, as someone who spent some time reading a plethora of kike papers by the authors in the OP, I can say that while most anons misunderstood the shitty (((Psychology Today))) article, the authors still come to disturbing conclusions, that are at least somewhat backed by evidence.

These faggots Heavey and Hurlburt, have published probably a dozen papers on this topic and Hurlburt even wrote a whole book on "introspective experiences." They've ran many similar iterations of study in OP on not only uni students but also on bi-polar and other "psychologically distressed" people. Basically, the give people beepers that go off randomly during the day and have them record their exact thoughts unadulterated by subsequent observation and interpretation. They go through a long involved process to extensively train the participants to recall exactly what they are thinking at the time the beeper goes off. They came out with basically the same results every single time. Hurlburt even did an fMRI study with similar results, where the people who had no inner voice had no activation in language centers of the brain, (same with non-inner seers and visual activation, etc.). While fMRI studies can be kikey in general, they are very good at accurately monitoring motor control and language activation.

All interesting stuff, but still not exactly hard science. The overwhelming majority of people probably all have an inner voice (and inner seer, etc...) at least some of the time in some specific situations, it just that they're just not very good at using it for a number of unclear reasons. Even people who prominently think with an inner voice also think in other modes, not just in language exclusively.

Anon who can't into greentext, >>12128029, also hit major overlooked point:

>Almost a quarter of people engaged in "thought" without the awareness of that thought being conveyed in words, images, or any other symbols, and half of all participants engaged in this type of "thinking" in at least a quarter of their samples.

This was another consistent results across a decade of studies they've done. Even after extensive coaching on how to describe their experiences accurately, many people do not only not have an inner voice, they don't have inner images, words, or other symbols. Just vague feels and sensory input. Spooky. All of this should be taken with a grain of salt, but it lends credence to the ultimate analysis of normfags, NPC Theory.

The knowledge of NPCs was almost lost for 2000 years. Gnostic knowledge was last eradicated in Europe with the Cathar Crusade. It was only really brought back with the Internet, and this knowledge is becoming widespread.

Knowing this fact, it was easy for the Jews to take control of the planet. Understanding the mentality of the flesh robots, they could easily manipulate and control them.

We've treated other people with compassion, because we thought they were human like us. But what if we could find out who's NPC and who's not? Then, we would ruthlessly take control of our social circle, and use others as tools and objects. "Do this," "do that," the NPCs will be happy to comply, as they are so border otherwise.

How can you tell who's an NPC and who's not? You only have to ask them. You only have to ask them about their mode of thoughts in depth, and they will tell you if they have thoughts, or if they have none. Sometimes you will get the answer immediately, sometimes it will take a lot of time, because it's not easy to ask the right questions, so as to not influence the answers.

When everyone has taken control of their social circle, reclaiming them from the Jew, their society will crumble like the sand castle that it is, and it will be the end of slavery for us. Getting NEEET bux is not supposed to be a pain in the ass. Obviously, skills are not happy about this, so they will try their best to prevent this knowledge.

All the theory is available, through, easily understandable

The second phase is experimental. Identifying all NPCs and non-NPCs in your family, social circle, testing their programming, giving them orders within their programming parameters. Going against those parameters make them bug. The experimental part is understanding how they bug, and not making them bug. This is unique to each NPC, although they are a lot of collective parameters.

The third phase is the mass reprogramming. When we retake control of our NPC, only then we can deprogram and reprogram them. The NPCs are programmed by authoritative figures (lemmings theory, search for it). Right now, the authoritative figure is their TV. In the future, it is us. You have been trying to red pill NPC with logic, argument. You see, it doesn't work, because you assumed they are sentient. NPC are not swayed with logic, they are programmed like a computer. If the lemmings phase is "Do this, do that," the third phase is "Think that, think that."

The fourth phase is the restoration of the natural order. The natural order is our ancient caste system, which has been replaced by the reverse rule of the merchant caste. We are the druids, priests, brahmin. We are only interested in enlightenment, gnosis. And they are the soulless peasants who work to provide for our needs. At some point, something went wrong. The priests of a foreign race, the rabbis, saw our weakness, and took control of our society. They used their banking technique to gain social powers and reprogram our NPCs. But those NPCs are ours. They are our family. Therefore, we have already won the future.

If you are reading this, you're in the positive timeline.

THE CONCEPT OF A PERSON

- 1) This way of thinking is narcissistic or dehumanizing

Have none. Atrial Empathy! Good one! This is our classic weakness. But sorry, this is incorrect. a) I don't label others as NPCs, they label themselves as such. b) Not having thoughts = not having empathy, so you are using your mirror answers again. I have empathy for the other souled people, but I am not using your mirror answers again. I have none for a hammer or a screwdriver.

- 2) Abstract thinking is superior

Answer: Supposedly, abstract thinking is faster because you are not slowed down by words. Hence, they say that someone who uses internal monologue is a brainlet. They can't explain what this abstract thinking is, that's the definition of abstract, you can't put words on it. Because of the speed of this thinking, does it mean that they can solve mathematical problems and puzzles faster than people who use internal monologue? This, they never answer when asked. Because they know the speed at which you solve a puzzle is based on your intelligence ("IQ"), not your mode of thought, so answering a puzzle would be different. Therefore, the abstract mode of thinking doesn't exist.

NPCs and Politics: A review on currently trending memetic devices.

I am quite pleased to observe this meme gaining traction in the normie-sphere. I myself do not subscribe nor register to any of these communities, or any for that matter, so I am only a silent observer.

If any anons are aware of my previous post I had submitted a commentary titled "NPC Political Landscape: Where useful idiots and politics intersect with Education and Critical Thinking skills."

The replies to this thread were quite enlightening, exploring lemming mentality more so. I feel I had gain deeper insights into why only the most fringe groups of the left fight the hardest. In the lemming mentality when base needs are met the needs become increasingly degenerate. The parallels here are obvious to anyone; Now that the "degenerate" minorities (not ethnic) have there basic and there degenerate needs filled they will fight to maintain this newly minted status quo.

It is also understood NPCs or Lemming Mentality individuals can not change, they seek an authority which will continue provide to them that which they have become accustomed. Recently Hillary Clinton had been interviewed by some NPC programed with a list of statements and questions and simple branch logic of question. One of her statements which has been making the rounds was "You can not be civil with a political party thats wants to destroy what you care for"

>https://hooktube.com/watch?v=ZzXS8r4SpnQ @5:00

Was she talking about democrats not being civil?

In a 9/2018 Gallup poll Hillary Clinton was only rated has bottomed out at 36% Favorability among Americans. Her rating has not changes since the last time Gallup did this poll in 12/2017

New poll

>https://news.gallup.com/poll/243242/snapshot-hillary-clinton-favorable-rating-low.aspx >https://news.gallup.com/poll/224330/hillary-clinton-favorable-rating-new-low.aspx

Old poll

Or is Hillary Clinton speaking to the leftest fringe groups and other NPCs/Lemming Mentality to which she is still somehow view favorably because she tells them all what they want to hear.

You may be wondering why I brought up Hillary up, as vomit inducing as it is. This all circles back to the NPC meme and its effectiveness in disrupting precanned thought processes OR triggering a moment of critical thinking.

You see, dear anon, I believe we are dealing with Tiers of NPCs divided by the level of needs being met by "The system" or the democratic legacy media/social media scheme. From what I can tell there are 3 levels of NPCs.

Level 1 – Most extreme

NPC degenerate who identifies as a social progressive, most likely uses drugs and engages in degenerate sexual activities and is socially reinforced by social media echo chambers. Most notable characteristic of the Level 1 NPC is young age, pushed though a public education system where they were not able to gain full control of there critical thinking skills and is not prepared for failure or the fact that they could be wrong from a lifetime of coddling and participation trophies. This makes for the perfect NPC pawn

Level 2 – Loud and engaged

NPC seeking validation, identifies as democrat, most likely condones the use of drugs or degenerate sexual activities. Ideas socially reinforced by social media echo chamber to a lesser degree but further reinforced by legacy media echo chambers. Most notable characteristic of the level 2 NPC is the older age, passed though education system which had not been compromised which allowed development of critical thinking skills but due to lifetime of singular source of information, legacy media, information bias has occurred. Competitive activities are not necessarily founded upon but in the new age of social media needing to belong to a groups, much like they were in high school, satisfies a sense of self worth which they are likely not getting outside of the social media group.

Level 3 – proletariat of the DNC

NPCs which have been swept up, but not necessarily agree with, the extreme agenda of the far-left. Likely interested in politics and "Leans" Democrat. Likely does not condone the use of drugs as it is illegal. Likely condones homosexual behavior but would not want someone else's sexuality thrown in there face. Ideas socially reinforced by social media out of a sense of wanting to be a part of the group. Likely does not consume information via legacy media however likely to consume entrainment from legacy media. Most notable characteristic of the level 3 NPC is the degree to which they are aware of the fact that there own believes do not fully mesh with those of there peers in there social media groups. But out of a need to belong, humans being social animals, tend to keep these ideas to themselves. There is no age group for these NPCs. This is the bulk of the democratic party.

You may be wondering about my choice of "Proletariat" for level 3 NPCs. Simply put since I expect these types of NPCs to be of the least usefulness to the democrats and the far-left. There value to them only goes as far as there usefulness to the DNC, the lowest level of usefulness is not voting.

Level 3 NPCs is where we see the most defections from the left. Memetic devices as redpills are also most effective on these NPCs. And this is where the NPC meme starts to come together for us. But I have not been the only one to notice its effectiveness.

Here we have Hillary Clinton being carted around and spouting off nonsense like in the video link above. This is to reinforce the level 1 and 2 NPCs. Why are they using her?

Because she is the only meme the left has that is effective. Runners up being false sexual abuse stories, accusations of racism. Honorable mention to fake news stories retracted in less then 24 hours.

Legacy media and politics have been using memes for years and years and years and now the cat is out of the bag and it turns out they are not as good at it as anon here. So they get this stumbling, drunken slab of beef to tune up the resistance because they think thats gonna work, somehow, in the favor.

Personally, I am off the opinion that one should not interrupt there enemy when they are making an error. As far as this November is concerned, they might as well be falling on there own sword in slow motion.

The modern political faction has adopted the technical tools of religious cults. Religious cults rely on three main tools for shaping the information processing of the target:

- 1) Heavily controlled information environment, via social identity, social reinforcement, language manipulation, and censorship.
- 2) Weaponized cognitive dissonance. The pain of questioning one's beliefs becomes too strong for such a weak willed being at a certain point.
- 3) Deactivation of the conscience through a technique known as "moral shock".

NPCs do not have a conscience. They have relinquished it and predicated all their value judgements on what they perceive various social groups' value judgments to be.

Governmental agencies have funded volumes of research, such as those by the author of pic related, on how to use symbols and language to do mental surgery on the recipient.

This text in particular mentions a surprising study which concluded that simply by inducing great moral rage into the target, one could satisfactorily loosen his grip on his own reasoning to coerce him into believing the exact opposite of what he had believed before.

The NPC meme is subversive because the modern citizens' de facto paradigm resembles an indoctrinated cult member, and the meme triggers the memory of the soul-mind-conscience the person once gave away.

Today, we're dancing for no reason. ♪
Someday, we'll disappear for no reason.

Where did they go?

Probably to a course about respecting women since they are NPCs

Npcs are the biggest hivemind in the world. You can categorized this by many categories. Especially ones who are very extreme and limited. They are easily manipulated and have a huge tolerance threshold where they don't question anything and move about. They are part of saturns matrix as so above(Northpole) as so below (Southpole). They are here to fill in roles and gaps and are fine with it consciously and sub consciously. But muh society right? Well thats not at all the case in a slave planet. Socrate's daemonion

▲ "This sign I have had ever since I was a child. The sign is a voice which comes to me and always forbids me to do something which I am going to do, but never commands me to do anything..."

Plato's Apology

File (hide): 38ac864de1cbfa3...jpg (81.8 KB, 960x720, 4:3, greek_daimon.jpg) (h) (u)

Creative Daimon

- In ancient Greek belief: a divinity or supernatural being of a nature between gods and humans.
- An inner or attendant spirit or inspiring force.
- Socrates said it was an inner voice that guided him
- Rilke once said that he did not want to undergo psychoanalysis because it might remove his "devils" and he might also lose his angels

Rest of his defence

31d-35d

- He says that his inner warning voice or Daimonion proves the god's mission for him.
- It always acts to prevent him from doing wrong - but not on this matter – therefore he's doing right. He realises his Daimonion is partly behind the charge of him inventing his own gods.
- He makes matter worse for him by thanking his Daimonion for preventing him from taking an active role in political life, because he would certainly have landed in trouble in politics criticising the democratic system, which allows inexperienced citizens important public positions.
- As he has never been a teacher he can't be blamed for any member of his circle (like Alcibiades, Charmides & Critias) or nor given credit for any who turn out well).
- In fact, he asks, why haven't those he has corrupted, or their families come forward to testify against him – many of his circle and their families are in fact there in the jury to support him.
- He concludes this part of the hearing by saying he will not make a plea for mercy/sympathy, and will not fail in his religious duty. His case relies solely on sound judgement and truth.
- He's found guilty by 280 out of the 501 jurymen by the way, Socrates also claimed he had an inner voice instructing him on all matters through out his life, and that this "voice" was not one of the accepted Gods, but was his personal God—the Daemonium. the concept of an inner dialogue was considered heresy in ancient Greece, and this idea of being an cognitive independent individual was one of the things Socrates was accused of teaching to corrupt the youth, which resulted in him being condemned to death.

in a sense, you could argue that the past 3,000 years of Western history has been a mental civilization war between Illuminated Ones versus the Burger NPCs. finally, we're about to win.

Most ancient intellectuals read aloud, usually to an audience.

DETAILS

The FBI Washington Field Office's Violent Crimes Task Force, in conjunction with the United States Park Police, is interested in identifying several individuals who are responsible for vandalizing federal property at Lafayette Square in Washington, D.C.

On June 22, 2020, at approximately 7:15 p.m, a group of individuals vandalized the statue of President Andrew Jackson at Lafayette Square, located at Pennsylvania Ave NW and 16th Street NW. The FBI and the United States Park Police are attempting to identify the individuals responsible for the violation of Destruction of Government Property. Damage or attempted damage exceeding $1,000 to federal property is a felony offense.

If you have any information concerning these individuals or this incident, please contact the FBI's Washington Field Office at (202) 278-2000. You may also contact your local FBI office, the nearest American Embassy or Consulate, or you can submit a tip online at tips.fbi.gov.

Field Office: Washington D.C.

Hyde admits he has been questioned by law enforcement over the Twitter rumors, but won't go into detail. Friends and family members have also been fooled into thinking he is a violent gunman. Hyde explained in an email:

"My wife's boyfriend (open relationship) heard it from the news first and so he and my wife's son were both scared silly for a few days before everything was explained. I also got a call from my rabbi frantically trying to talk me out of doing anything more violent until finally I managed to explain to him that it was a hoax."

While the Twitter rumors have impacted his life negatively, it hasn't been all bad -- his internet fame did save him money on his car insurance! "The call center person for my car insurance company recognized the name and took pity on me, I st you not!!!!," Hyde added.

Every time I try to make a thread or reply, whether it be mentioning the president elect or other issues like justice for African Americans or LGBTQ+ rights and validation, I just get bombarded with shit and I just cannot take it anymore.

Things like pictures of George Floyd's neck crammed between the buttocks of some yellow cartoon character with the caption "I can't sneed", or edits of him as a transhumanist with the caption "I can't breed". Other posts I make they just tell me to "dilate" even though I never mentioned my gender identity. I did make one thread trying to explain the issues fellow transpeople face and I swear, half the replies were literally straight up gore of botched transition surgeries. Do these freaks really have all this nasty shit saved on their computer or are they bots or pulling it from some web database of images.

I thought I could help raid them during the election debacle but it has brought back my anxiety even stronger, I don't think I can even visit the website anymore. No wonder everybody in that hellhole seems like a depressed and deranged sack of shit if they willingly subject themselves to this type of content every day. What do you do, how do you put up with it while trying to educate these people?

What in the goddamn...?

this is unironically one of the funniest things i've ever seen

It might go along, down where no one can see,
Right under State Highway Two-Hundred-and-Three!
Right under the wagons! Right under the toes
Of Mrs. Umbroso who's hanging out clothes!

It might keep on flowing...perhaps...who can tell?...
Right under the people in Sneedden's Hotel!
Right under the grass where they're playing croquet!
Then under the mountains and far, far away!

Evolution of a Meta Frog

It began in the 1980s with Jim Henson's brilliant creation, Kermit the Frog. Kermit was friendly, nice, creative, funny, and most of all, friendly, maybe even to the point where it put himself at risk and he became a doormat. Many if not all of modern frens of pepe once identified with and wanted Kermit as a fren. If you didn't like Kermit, there is actually probably something very wrong with (((you))).

The generation talk was that we were Generation X, and that we were problem children and wild cards, and disruptive, and those chosen for success had to "grow up" and stop being like Kermit. Those who didn't often got sad, turned to drugs, and many of our frens died this way or became scarred by inexplicable failures or systemic abuse from a broken, uncaring system.

TAKE "QUICK" NAP

WAKE UP NEXT MORNING

THE GOVERNMENT SAYS "IF YOU'RE NOT DOING ANYTHING WRONG, YOU SHOULDN'T HAVE ANYTHING TO HIDE."

IF THAT IS TRUE, SHOULDN'T THE GOVERNMENT DECLASSIFY EVERYTHING?

With permantly deferred dreams, failed romance, failed careers, no politics that speak to us, or social cohesion with any group or real community, zero fucks were given and things that do not matter, appearances and such, were let to "truly slide." And all was well, we saw how much really did not matter, how much of our dreams and goals were actually bullshit we could jettison with ease.

In that void was freedom, and with freedom of time and space comes freedom of thought, and through the years of 2010 to 2015 we had time to sit and think about things and at same time became so "out of touch" with mainstream idiocy and propaganda, that our own ideas were tested and became viable in our own minds. We sought out the best writers and best ideas, we put those ideas in memes and tested them against each other like in card games.

At first, it seemed like no one listened and nothing we ever did made any difference and that we were permanently isolated from those who thought similarly. Reality seemed a trap or torture chamber. Everything seemed like more shit than ever before. Out of touch with the world, economics became even more difficult. Time dragged on. What could be the meaning of this madness? The only way forward was deeper into the true nature of our existence.

Then, realizing the Buddha and other techniques were the only things left to try, and as we had the time on our hands, this happened.

Then, realizing the most radical idea of all, the idea most hated by our enemies was bizarrely redemption itself and that there was a team forming to relieve others, this happened. Believe us, we were surprised but never felt so good.

Having found the unifying ground between Jesus, Buddha, Hopi Prophecy, Viking Runes, and the greatest thinkers of human history like Robert Anton Wilson, Robert Monroe, Malcom X, Michael Ruppert, Joseph Campbell and others, it all came together and in 2016 shit happened in the "Real World."

At that point, knowing we have already conquered this world, and that we are not alone, and in due time we will find each other in the real rainbow connection, everything that comes, even if it is "the end of the world" is just a funny bonus.

But while we are at it, and since we are still here, we are not giving up either. We are actually the most knowledgeable, capable, powerful force of men and women on planet earth, who are just having networking issues because a small faction of rich death cult fanatics and china are trying to enslave this timeline. Not on our watch, over our dead bodies..

THE HONK HONK WILL CONTINUE

UNTIL MORALE IMPROVES

The efforts to censor the frog symbol reach a fever pitch in 2021, proving that no matter what we say or how, there are no lengths too absurd for the censoring mechanisms to try to silence us. Anyone not woken up by the frantic hatred of frog symbology among our techno totalitarian homo-pedo penis mutilating opponents is beyond saving. The "Honkler" is born and appears to ridicule imposed doublethink. Join us, or Fear the HOOOOOONK!!!!!!

THE SOBBER 01-05

- she is too sad and miserable to notice the attention she gets from men
- she once had it all, a great boyfriend and everything, but something really troubling destroyed her self esteem and she is now alone, lost, confused
- she stalks her ex boyfriend but he already moved on and has a gf more beautiful than her

THE ORIGINAL 06-10

- she got ignored once by her crush and took it so personal that she promised herself to never shave her body ever again and to be different from other girls
- she dye her hair every time she gets ignored in a desperate attempt to get attention
- she is a feminist and hates men

THE THOT 11-15

- she gets lot of attention from men
- she's addicted to sex and tinder
- she lost count of the number of times she had sex
- she is constantly looking for the 'one' but her relationships never last long
- she has genital herpes but she says it's not a big deal

THE TOMBOY 16-20

- she mainly gets attention from men because she dresses and behaves like them
- she pushes people away because she cant embrace her femininity
- she loves to be on top in bed
- the type of men she likes are usually too shy to come to her

THE SUNSHINE 21-25

- she gets amazing attention from everyone
- she is a ball of pure love and happiness
- wherever she goes she makes the whole place shine with her amazing smile and awesome personality
- she is always there for people in need
- she has an amazing husband and children
- even after having children she looks young, fresh and beautiful

THE TOP GIRL 26-30

- she gets insane amount of attention from men and expects it all the time
- she has a great career, husband and family
- but she has no identity and just copies what other girls do in tv shows
- she is passive aggressive when she doesn't get what she wants

THE GHOST 31-35

- guys ignore her constantly
- most of her friends are guys but they are all busy with another girl and don't care about her
- she had sex with some ugly guys out of desperation just to make sure she is still desirable
- she hates herself and her body

THE TRAD 36-40

- she gets attention from some men but she avoids them in general
- wants to stay pure before marriage
- loves cooking and cleaning
- she feels very guilty when having "impure thoughts"
- has a troubling secret that she never told anyone about

THE DISASTER 41-45

- she tries so HARD to look like her idols but it just doesn't work
- she is terrible with make up and hair control and it pisses her off
- she spends hours trying to manipulate her photos to look pretty but when her dates see her in real life they ghost her
- people often ask her if she is tired or if she is okay

THE EATER 46-50

- she only gets attention from men with BBW fetish and weird creeps
- she eats constantly and cant stop herself
- when she goes grocery shopping she tries hard to not buy bad food but she fails everytime and the rare times she succeeded she ended up getting fast food
- she could be pretty but she has zero self control and willpower

THE ASSET 51-55

- she was gifted with gigantic boobs but hates the attention she gets from them so she tries to hide them at all cost
- her boobs makes her very insecure
- she is the kind of girl wearing a big sweater in hot summer
- she is actually a really nice girl but her personality gets completely ignored
- her ex boyfriends pretended to like her for her personality until she realized they all wanted her for her big tits

THE BLOCKER 56-60

- she is nice, easy to talk, seems to have a warm personality but whenever she gets too close to someone she will instantly become cold and block them
- she lost some really good friends and potential boyfriends that way
- she doesn't know exactly why she does it and it often hurts her but in her head it all "makes sense" at the time and she moves on to another person
- her trust issues turned her into someone very independant

THE SEED PIT 61-65

- she doesn't get as much attention as she used to in her younger years
- she fucks everything that moves and masturbate everytime she takes a shower
- she doesn't feel anything from vaginal penetration so she mainly does anal
- she had many abortions and is ridden with STDs and vaginal yeast infections
- her OnlyFans is her main source of revenue
- she keeps studying new professions but always drop out

THE DEMON 66-70

- she gets tons of attention from men but she picks them carefully
- she picks the emotionally weak and suck all the life, happiness, confidence, wealth and will power out of them
- her favorite men are the big strong men with emotional weakness
- she gets horny when destroying men
- she is wealthy but never worked
- she is a master mind manipulator

THE MARTYR 70-75

- she constantly gets tricked by bad boys
- she always end up with the worst type of men and hope they will change but they actually just keep getting worst and treat her like absolute thrash
- sometimes she gets turned on by the abuse but she is not sure why and hates it
- she could settle down with a nice guy but she feels that they are not manly enough to protect her from the same bad boys that she ironically end up with

THE NICE GIRL 76-80

no rerolls

- she is kind of ugly and gets ignored all the time but all the rejection taught her a lot so she is always there for others
- she loves listening and helping people
- she has a crush on her only friend but he either doesn't care or is not interested and anyways he has a crush on another cute girl, so she thinks she has no chance
- she lost her virginity to an asshole but she lies and pretend to be virgin

THE SPECTRE 81-85

- she never had ANY friend or any men's attention or sex
- when she goes outside, kids run crying to their mommy, dogs bark at her and cats hiss at her before running away
- she once got lost in the grocery store when she was a kid and her parents forgot her completely
- she has the lowest standards but it's still too much to ask for it seems

THE STALKER 86-90

- she doesn't care about any of the men giving her attention EXCEPT "The One"
- she is insanely obsessed about him
- she knows everything about him better than his own mom or ex "whores" gfs
- she has 3 fake accounts following him and she constantly tries to find his passwords
- she has regular wet dreams about him
- she daydream of having a family with him or murdering him (she is not sure)

THE GYM THOT 91-95

- she is very healthy and attractive
- she spends half her time in the gym and the other half on instagram
- 90% of her instagram are pictures of her ass bend out with philosophical quotes about life and body positivity
- she dates roided meatheads and they always end up cheating on her with a bellow average girl

THE CRAZY BITCH 96-00

- the main attention she gets from most people is her screaming in public places at her new boyfriend (soon to be ex bf)
- she is always outraged by the smallest things her boyfriend does but he is the most calm and patient man ever
- she always tries hard to get into a fight with him and when he finally gets mad she cries like a baby.. then she gets horny because she is scared of losing him and they have loud passionate sex

My husband secretly named our son after a meme and I hate him for it (self.offmychest)

I have been with my husband since we were in college (a little over a decade altogether) and in that time I've never question his honesty/loyalty to me or our relationship. So when he insisted on naming our son "Alberto" after a man who saved him from drowning when he was a kid, I thought it a little strange but nonetheless went with it.

My last name (which he took) is Barbosa, owing to my Portugese heritage. I've since found out that "Alberto Barbosa" is a kind of "meme name" on the internet sites he frequents. I found out after discovering a folder called "Alberto Barbosa" on his work laptop, filled with what seemed like hundreds of pictures of an African man with a kind of Portuguese themed turban. Reverse image searching one of these bizarre images is how I found out the name's true meaning.

Since this discovery, I feel increasingly paranoid that the only reason he ever took my name in the first place was because of this stupid meme. We only got married early last year, after/around the time this meme seems to have been created. Before this I had always assumed I would just take his name, until he said he wanted to take mine (an act I was actually touched by and found very sweet, ugh...)

This entire ordeal has me so mad. On the one hand it's just a name, but on the other he went behind my back to name our first born son over a stupid bloody internet meme. What's worse is that he refuses to have our son's name changed and insists it's just a coincidence, which is a load of bullshit considering the amount of images he had saved of this. He refuses to acknowledge this as a serious problem and I am so furious with him, but ultimately feel powerless given he provides for me and our newborn.

Sorry for rambling on a bit, I just needed to get this ridiculous and infuriating issue off my chest as I'm too ashamed to tell my friends and family of his actions.

ni= embodiment of subversion. ni is a parasitical space alien or demon who takes control of a person of weak mind/will and makes them do chaotic insane things that will lead to the destruction of humanity.

Groyd=the african. weak of mind, strong of body.

Ni Groyd is when ni latches on to an african and makes the Groyd do his bidding. Ni was created by Jews and transmitted through media. Ni is invisible but visible only to those who understand the JQ. Ni manifests when one consumes too much J-media.

J-media: movies, comic books, video games, reddit, facebook and instagram.

not all media is J-media but it's pretty hard to see what is and isn't if you aren't J-woke. Drugs, particularly fentanyl, act as catalysts for Ni's manifestation.

Classic examples of Ni possession are when the police tell a Groyd to put his hands up and the Groyd immediately reaches for his pockets. When the Groyd sees a house under construction and thinks it's his right to take a hammer. When the Groyd tries to buy a banana with a fake $20 bill then eats all his fentanyl and resists arrest and dies. Ni will ultimately kill the host and move on.

TO PROTECT YOURSELF AGAINST NI POSSESSION you must either be of good moral character and pure of heart OR wear the magical anti-ni protection unit known as the yarmulke. However, if you wear a yarmulke it is a sign to the public that you do not have good moral character and are not pure of heart.

As with all theological matters we have our own interpretations.

Only the radicals desire to wage Nihad on the unbelievers or those who oppose their views.
Only kek knows the truth.

Ni is weak and must use manipulation and distortion of reality to enslave its Groyds.

The weak of mind, such as archetypal Groyds and the feeble minded women are most susceptible.

Here we see the Porchicus Monkeyus. Rarely photographed during the day, and even harder to see at night, these are a vile, selfish, ill tempered creatures, bent on self indulgence and the acquisition of watermelon, are seen here in their natural habitat. These once rare creatures, only being found on the African continent until about 1600a.d., can now be found on 6 continents around the globe, and are very common in larger groups called "ghettoes." Within the ghettoes these apes occupy, a plethora of afro sheen, chicken bones, and grape soda can be found, the likes of which no real human being can comprehend, let alone begin to understand why these things are so sought after within the group. It is believed that the smelliest, greasiest, and loudest ape, with the largest collection of chicken bones, is the most desired mate by the females.

Why can't Google into AI?

Two years after the original controversy about Google Photos misidentifying black people as gorillas, the problem still hasn't been solved.

>As a result, Google censored the words "gorilla," "chimp," "chimpanzee," and "monkey" from Google Lens, essentially stripping each word from Lens' internal lexicon.

>Two years later, the words remain censored. Wired tested 40,000 photos on Google Photos. After uploading photos of the animals, Wired found they couldn't be retrieved by using the banned words, only by using similar terms like "zoo," "jungle," or "baboon."

>Companies rely on AI to cut down costs and drive innovation, but are paralyzed when algorithms behave as humans do by showcasing biases.

>Algorithms abet racism and Silicon Valley fixes the source of the outrage—censoring Lens—but not the system

Koko's World

The primary program of The Gorilla Foundation/Koko.org involves teaching American Sign Language to two lowland gorillas, Koko and Michael (who recently passed away). The Gorilla Language Project, or Project Koko, is the longest continuous inter-species communications project of its kind in the world, and it serves as a unique and irreplaceable resource for the international conservation community.

Studying gorilla intelligence and behavior will lead to a greater understanding of the species' physical and psychological needs. Only through knowledge can humans take the necessary steps to improve the treatment of captive gorillas and protect free-living gorillas from extinction.

Koko, a female lowland gorilla born in 1971, and Michael, a male lowland gorilla born in 1973, use sign language and understand spoken English. Koko's participation in this study began when she was one year old, and Michael's at the age of three and one-half. Their intellectual, physical, and linguistic development has been studied extensively since their infancy. Before Project Koko, very little was known about gorilla intelligence.

The Gorilla Language Project is both an effort to gather data about gorilla language and a case study of observed gorilla behavior and utterances. All signs, the context in which they occurred, the number of repetitions, and anything unusual that might have occurred during signing are recorded daily. The project administers informal and formal tests of vocabulary comprehension and of the understanding of relationships between objects and words, as well as standard child intelligence tests. There are also periodic video-taped sessions and audio-taped recordings.

During the course of the study, Koko has advanced further with language than any other non-human. Koko has a working vocabulary of over 1000 signs. Koko understands approximately 2,000 words of spoken English. Koko initiates the majority of conversations with her human companions and typically constructs statements averaging three to six words. Koko has a tested IQ of between 70 and 95 on a human scale, where 100 is considered "normal." Michael, the male silverback gorilla who grew up with Koko, had a working vocabulary of over 600 signs.

They lack proper education and access to opportunities.

Why is Japanese people so damn racist against the black man?

I thought it was only whites who is racist, but I come over here to get away from all that shit and teach some English, an I'm still getting hassled by the pigs an shit like that every day.

Yesterday my students gave me my goin away presents an one said "back to Afrika family" with a racist ass drawing of me with an arrow to a bunch of monkeys an shit. They know I'm from Chicago.

They ain't got no slavery. They ain't got no Jim Crow. They ain't got no white privilege. Why they be racist?

This shit is heartbreaking.

A black child playing outside runs up to you and says "When I grow up I want to be an astronaut!" How do you respond?

A Jew, an Indian, and a Black man are traveling across the US to see all 50 of the biggest thing in each state. Halfway through knock on the door and the farmer answers, they plead with him to allow them to stay the night until the storm passes. The farm

The Jew steps forward. "My friends that are so dear to me. Allow me to sleep in the barn. My people were hunted down and persecuted in concentration camps during the Holocaust. I am tired and need some rest."

The Jews walks off into the night and everyone settles into bed. 5 minutes later there is a knock at the door.

The Jew is standing in the door way before walking inside and throwing up his hands. "Oy vey! I did not know! This is horrifying. There is a pig in the barn!"

The Indians steps forward. "My brothers from another Mothers I have endured starvation and cruelty my entire childhood. Sleeping in a barn is nothing new to me."

So the Indians goes out into the night and everyone settles into bed. 5 minutes later there is a knock at the door.

The Indians is standing in the doorway before walking inside and throwing up his hand. "Ohhhh by the 12 sacred arms of Shiva there is a cow in the barn!"

The black steps forward. "Shiiiiiet I grew up in Compton nigga. I ain't ate for weeks nigga. I killed 5 people nigga. This barn ain't shiiiet. I'll sleep out there tonight."

Hi /k/, I'm wondering how much a shitty or semi decent set of night vision goggles or a monacle with a headset would cost me? Some jackasses have been stealing cattle at night so I'd like to catch em in time for the cops to get there.

Try to imagine yourself in the Atlanta ghetto. You get your first look at this "six foot nigger" as you enter a clearing. He moves like a bird, lightly, bobbing his head. And you keep still because you think that maybe his visual acuity is based on movement like T-Rex, he'll lose you if you don't move. But no, not the nigger. You stare at him, and he just stares right back. And that's when the attack comes. Not from the front, but from the side, from the other two nigras you didn't even know were there. Because the nigger's a pack hunter, you see, he uses coordinated attack patterns and he is out in force today. And he slashes at you with this... a nine-mm shitty pistol, like a flash. He doesn't bother to shoot your jugular like a lion, say... no no. He shoots at you here... or here... or maybe across the belly, spilling your intestines. The point is... you are alive when they start to rob you. So you know... try to show a little respect...

The fact that niggers always chimp out when interacting with cops or authority, you really get the feeling that their average and below IQ is better described as feral instead of retarded. I often wonder how people mistook them for intelligent life. Most of their language is just a positive or negative reaction. The few authors their species have command English so poorly that I can't tell if he put his gun or his dick in someone's mouth (Thugs Cry series by Ca$h). Their command of English is so poor because they don't think with words or even at all. The context doesn't even enlighten such passages, just boasts about "this is how real niggas do on da street yo" kind of bullshit. I don't even know if he raped, murdered, fucked, or just intimidated someone. And demonstrating memory recall and story telling and some level of self reflection via expressed regret, he's got to be smarter than the average nigger to even write this piece of shit.

Most of them, I am convinced, just repeat sounds learned through association and nothing more. It explains everything. It's why they drop out of school, school is not an immediate reward but an abstract one, so they can't conceive of why it's important because they lack abstract thought. Same for farming. It's why Haitians dig up the soil and eat the seeds. They aren't just too stupid to invent farming, or too stupid to learn farming, they cannot conceive of farming. They want to satisfy their drive today and behave as a rodent would.

All these interactions with police make way more sense when you stop assuming they are people. Imagine an animal control team approaching a feral dog. No foresight, no concept of being hopelessly outnumbered. It's going to try to bite them or run away. Niggers seemingly have no concept that a speeding ticket is a small deal, they enter fight or flight on the drop of a hat when it's totally illogical. It would probably be beneficial if police adapted animal control strategies in dealing with them, like carry around some snickers bars or a McDonalds and offer that to them first so they calm down. It sounds patronizing as hell but stop thinking of them as people. Would animal control start dealing with a feral dog by shouting at it to sit and smacking it if it doesn't? Or do they throw a hamburger at it and try to pet it? Like, that's really the level these feral niggers are at.

You can explain most nigger behavior with animal instincts.

1. "Unknown force approacheth, engage fight or flight response."
2. "Something weak, prey upon to my advantage."
3. "Food appears when I do this"
4. "Mate with me! Not him!"

Their behavior boils down to simple associations and a few "if-then" processes based on immediate stimuli. I could probably program an accurate Average Nigger simulator on a ti-83 calculator.

It really goes to show the level of average white intelligence that we would have anyone confuse niggers for humans.

Well put. I've been developing this exact thought since I saw this one video on YouTube. I was browsing disorder-in-the-court vids for good footage of inappropriate chimpouts, and there was a really jarring one.

In this video, the whole family is wearing church clothes for their dindu son's sentencing. It was a plea deal, so they all knew the sentence beforehand. If they had a human-tier IQ, this would have been a boring formality. Instead, when the judge said "15 years," or whatever it was for attempted murder, the nog mothership started explosive decompression. That set off the others, and before you know it the huge linebacker-looking nig boyfriend is in a shoving match with a 500-year-old white bailiff. It all looks set to habben. But then it all got short-circuited when the family's pastor got involved.

This nig of God was big and round, and he had that preacher's voice niggers like. He got between the troupe of 'boons and the law, and he bellowed: "I am yo' pastor, and I say SIT DOWN!"

Worked like a charm. Chimps back in their cages, nice and docile. Not even any arrests. In the comments, somebody asked why the preacher started off by introducing himself to the family that obviously knew him and invited him to be there. I realized it's because he wasn't speaking the way whites understand the concept.

In this context, "I am yo' pastor!" doesn't convey any more information than clapping or snapping fingers would. It's just a way of shorting out the nigs' chimp subroutine and refocusing their attention. Then, when they're freshly susceptible to command input, he directed an obvious and simple order to them and they complied at once. Astonishingly graceful handling technique.

That's when I came to really understand the niggers' brains. Certain stimuli put them into fugue states, where there's no reasoning with them. I'll bet if we trained them to associate the sound of air horns with blasts of cold water, cops wouldn't need pepper spray anymore. Just blast the horn to reorient their attention and power-cycle their heads.

I have long found niggers completely incomprehensible.

The question posed by the nigger is a bottomless problematic. Ageless wisdom knows intuitively that the mere existence of the nigger is a threat to both the practical and psychological wellbeing of Man. The behavior of the nigger is often perplexing in the extreme. The secret of their real motivations, the quality of their lived experience would surely constitute an unparalleled, inscrutable enigma should they someday be found conclusively to possess an interior reality at all. I can't begin to relate on a personal level to the most humble of niggers, let alone to appreciate the invisible depths of beastliness no doubt crouching in wait beneath the surface of their already alarming niggerly appearance. Can anyone scarcely comprehend, much less begin to communicate the reason we are made to endure these interminably abominable black primates?

NIGGERS / BLM

It's been 7 years since BLM was formed. They have raised over a billion dollars. They haven't had 1 neighborhood cleanup, sent 1 poor black child to college, bought school supplies, feed the hungry or donated to a food bank or provided housing to 1 poor black family. Where is the money going other than to buy huge charter busses to transport members to riots!

Counter Protesting and Fighting are one way to do things, but humiliating the enemy through their own bad nature without conflict or safety to one's self or platform is the winning move. For this I propose fake money. It's cheap to buy online, and from more than 3 feet away looks quite real. In ~2014 a nightclub in Beijing threw fist fulls into a crowd from a building during NYE and it devolved into a panic. The same could be done at any BLM protest. Stand in the middle of the crowd and throw up a few fistfulls.

Throw it from a building.
 Drop it from a drone.
 People have such a guttural reaction to money in the wind, even if they are reading this post they will instantly forget about and react like cattle.

The cameras will capture BLM devolve into hedonistic list of capitalism and all meaning and message instantly lost. This is such an incredible victory and humiliation it cannot be undone.

And all of us can do it anywhere with little to no threat to ourselves.

Fuck no, we aren't one species. The Fixation index, or FST, is a way to measure genetic distance between populations.

The FST between Whites (British) and Blacks (Bantu) is 0.23.

The FST between the common chimpanzee (Pan troglodytes) and the bonobo (Pan paniscus) is 0.103

>...which is half the White-Black difference despite the two being classified as separate species.

The FST between two gorilla species, Gorilla gorilla and Gorilla beringei is 0.04

>...or 1/6 the difference between Blacks and Whites.

The FST between humans and Neanderthals is less than 0.08

>...or about 1/3 the Black-White difference.

The FST between humans and homo erectus is 0.17

>...which is 3/4 the Black-White distance.

Thus Whites and Blacks are more genetically distant than two different chimpanzee species, two different gorilla species, humans vs Neanderthals, and humans vs homo erectus. If one is consistent and objective with taxonomic classification systems even in regards to human populations, Blacks and Whites could (and arguably should) be classified into separate species and at the very least into different.

Argument: Black failure is a result of poor schools

Demonstrable nonsense. See the Kansas City Experiment.

"In 1985 a federal district judge took partial control over the troubled Kansas City, Missouri, School District (KCMSD) on the grounds that it was an unconstitutionally segregated district with dilapidated facilities and students who performed poorly. In an effort to bring the district into compliance with his liberal interpretation of federal law, the judge ordered the state and district to spend nearly $2 billion over the next 12 years to build new schools, integrate classrooms, and bring student test scores up to national norms."

The judicial branch ordered the legislative branch to spend money, and told it exactly how to do it.

"Kansas City spent as much as $11,700 per pupil - more money per pupil, on a cost of living adjusted basis, than any other of the 280 largest districts in the country. The money bought higher teachers' salaries, 15 new schools, and such amenities as an Olympic-sized swimming pool with an underwater viewing room, television and animation studios, a robotics lab, a 25-acre wildlife sanctuary, a zoo, a model United Nations with simultaneous translation capability, and field trips to Mexico and Senegal. The student-teacher ratio was 12 or 13 to 1, the lowest of any major school district in the country."

How did that turn out?

"The results were dismal. Test scores did not rise; the black-white gap did not diminish; and there was less, not greater, integration."

What does that tell you about funding not making a difference, or at least not as much as IQ?

- >be genetically built to grab things and run away with them
- >spend whole life training to grab things and run away with them
- >be among the best at it in the world
- >make a killing during the George Floyd riots because nobody can catch you as you grab whatever you want
- >all that practice pays off
- >your grab and run away skills are now the best in a country full of joggers
- >time to represent your country in the grab things and run competition
- >get embarrassingly disqualified and humiliate your nation because you suddenly forgot how to perform the impossibly simple task you probably spent decades training to do.
- >be lauded as a hero upon your return for overcoming adversity

Here's what you might not know about reCAPTCHA: they are using you as a source of free labor. There are two words in each test, one of them is an actual verification word and the other is a word taken from printed text to convert it to digital. This is usually done automatically, but there are often words that the computer cannot read. This is where you come in.

Rather than let them use you as their personal slaves, replace the unknown word with “nigger”. It is usually easy to determine which word is the verification word. For words that reCAPTCHA knows, they always use the same font. Also, the verification word doesn’t have capital letters, punctuation, or numbers.

Hopefully, this will accomplish one of two things: either reCAPTCHA will be removed from /b/, or “nigger” will start appearing in digital texts. Either way, WIN.

Post successful!

Jannies give this man a raise. We can take it from your paycheck. haha

No Bullsh*t: People Who Say 'Nigger' Are Smarter and Stronger, Says Science written by VICTORIA HOFF UPDATED MAY 14, 2020

Niggabyte	Blacks	A computer geek who happens to be Black.
Niggapotomous	Blacks	An extremely fat nigger.
Nigger	Blacks	Most likely originates with the Latin word "niger" which translates to "black". Similar words for "black" exist in other languages (Spanish, for example, is "negro"). Also somewhat relates to the African country Nigeria, which is primarily black. Many variations exist, including "Nig", "Nigel", "Niggy", "Niggly", etc. Some interesting history.
Nigger mortis	Blacks	It's like rigor mortis, except you're just too lazy to move.
Niggerachi	Blacks	Black person who acts Hispanic
Niggerette	Blacks	Black women. Adapted from: Nigger, See: Nigger.
Niggerino	Blacks	A little nigger

I smoked a cigarette and browsed the news. A story about niggers, written by a nigger, talked about how niggers need more et. cetera. The needs of a nigger are endless. a nigger on every television channel. a nigger in every movie. nothing but nigger music for niggers and those who wish to be niggers. that is almost worse than being a nigger. at least a nigger does not want to be a nigger. a nigger does not want to be a nigger so badly he will kill everyone who is not a nigger just so that he might not be reminded that he is a nigger. I was glad to be alone again in my room, where no nigger had ever been. there are few places like this left in the world. when the nigger was the freed the world became the nigger's slave.

At night the niggers come out, brave in the absence of light, as if the Night were an accomplice to the niggers, lending shadow to the misdeeds of the darkies. Beneath the luminescence of gaudy streetlights the gangs of niggers, in feral nigger packs, would stumble and howl, liquored-up on cheap nigger drinks and enthused by the scantily clad negresses. In the day these niggers were more docile. The tumult of the niggers grew tedious and I decided to leave, to walk perhaps to a place where no niggers ever went. To do this I needed to walk down the niggerstained streets and wait in subway overrun by niggers. Every nigger looked at me as if waiting for me to call them what they, as niggers, knew what I, as not a nigger, knew them to be. Most of the passengers were niggers or niglets. Each nigger stared at the other niggers with the suspicion that infects every nigger due to the violence inherent in each nigger and no one knows what a nigger is capable of more than a nigger. that is why niggers always leer as they do, for niggers assume that everyone has a propensity for violence equal to a nigger's.

Saying the word nigger is like using a shout in Skyrim. It has many different effects on the people that hear it. Blacks get driven into an uncontrollable rage and become violent. Females and liberals will pull out their phones and shake with terror as they spread the video across the information highway. It's like when the courier runs up to you with a note that says...

>"You caused a bit of stir in Whiterun when you demonstrated the power of your thu'um. Not everyone (Twitter mob/leftists) is anxious for the return of the Dragonborn. I for one (/pol/) desire to see you grow and develop your talents. Skyrim (the West) needs a true hero these days."

Shouting nigger is more effective than illusion spells (trolling) because it affects everybody no matter the level (status). The effects of saying nigger can also stack of you refuse to apologize for being a racist. Just simply say, "yes, I'm a racist." Watch as they freeze in place and their brains explode. The NPC doesn't have any coding for such a response. Why do you think a battle between dragons is actually a "deadly, verbal debate"? Why do you think leftists want to have you arrested for hate SPEECH and censor you, or even accuse you of using "violent speech/fighting words"? Always double down when fighting with soundwaves. They fear your thu'um, white man.

This is a welcome email! So somebody most likely found a bunch of email addresses from Black people and signed them up for Walmart emails using the n word as their first name. Most likely used a bot to sign them up and just loaded in the email addresses.

How popular are those sites?
Stormfront.org, founded by a former KKK leader in the 1990s with the motto "White Pride, World Wide," grew to 300,000 members by 2017. Another highly trafficked white supremacist forum, Daily Stormer, was booted from the internet after the 2017 "Unite the Right" rally in Charlottesville, Va. The ban came in response to the site calling the murdered counterprotester Heather Heyer "a fat, childless 32-year-old slut."

The "politically incorrect" message board on 4chan is another major hub for far-right-wingers, all done anonymously through posts that quickly disappear. In January 2018, the N-word appeared 115,000 times on 4chan, a fivefold increase since 2015.

Blacks are exactly what their white masters bred them to be - relatively unintelligent farm implements. Yes, you are much better at working a field that we would be - we bred you to be.

But we're smarter than you and more powerful than you in terms of true power, and that's why we owned you and not the other way around.

We owned and bred slaves before the U.S. existed - for nearly 250 years. Any boasts you make about your physicality are actually just testament to our ability to breed farm implements well.

So thank you for the compliment.

The first slaves imported into the American colonies were 100 White children in 1619, four months before the arrival of a the first shipment of Black slaves. Many were brought from Ireland, where the law held that it was "no more sin to kill an Irishman than a dog or any other brute".

A Childhood in the Factory

King James II, followed by Charles I and Oliver Cromwell, sold over 500,000 Irish Catholics into slavery throughout the 1600's onto plantations in the West Indies Islands of Antigua, Montserrat, Jamaica, Barbados, as well as Virginia and New England. Irish slaves were less expensive than African, and treated with more cruelty & death.

In the 17th Century, from 1600 until 1699, there were many more Irish sold as slaves than Africans. There are records of Irish slaves well into the 18th Century. Many never made it off the ships. According to written record, in at least one incident 132 slaves, men, women, and children, were dumped overboard to drown because ships' supplies were running low. They were drowned because the insurance would pay for an "accident," but not if the slaves were allowed to starve.

White Slavery
History Denied, Covered Up, & Marginalized

1.6%
Only 1.6% of US Citizens owned slaves in 1860, when slavery was at its PEAK

source: US Government Census, 1860

In 1848, Jews were 3.125% of the US population and 1.25% of all US citizens were both jewish and slave owners.

That means around 40% of the Jewish population were slave owners

And only 1.6% of Americans owned slaves at the time

Reparation implies there are damages.
Damages implies niggers are worse of in the USA than in Africa.

It is not that difficult.

625,000 white people died for YOU motherfucker. FOR YOU. We tore our own fucking country apart for four godamn fucking years because one half of the country thought you should be free. Before that we fucking tore ourselves apart debating freeing your ass and afterwards we had to deal with a fucking insurgency to keep you free.

WHO SET UP UNIVERSITY'S TO TEACH YOU?
WHO DUMPS BILLIONS EACH YEAR TO MAKE SURE YOU HAVE A PLACE TO LIVE AND DON'T GO HUNGRY?
WHO CAME UP WITH THE CONCEPT ABOLITION?
WHO'S ENTIRE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC POLICY IS DESIGNED TO SUPPORT YOU?
WHO'S ENTIRE NATIONAL CHARITY AND NGO COMMUNITY DESIGNED TO SUPPORT YOU?

WHITE PEOPLE.

You stupid, ungrateful piece of shit fucking niggers. We've done more for you, our lovely 14%, than any Western country has ever done for any of their minorities. The Russians would have sent you to Kamchatka. The British would have paraded you to death. No, we, the noble United States of America have chosen to try for literally our entire history to integrate you and make you like us. How do you repay us?

By dropping our education scores so low that we're the laughing stock of industrialized nations.
By making us the most violent country in the Western world.
By supporting radical left wing activists in their bid to destroy our country and the West.
By driving our quality of life ratings into the ground.
By driving up our Gini coefficient to almost third world levels.

Fuck you. You've made this Northern Yankee hate you. White people are not the problem. YOU ARE.

625,000 people. FOR WHAT.

Hammerskin here.

Whether you may realize it or not, monkeys, you are still slaves.

You traded your slave quarters for projects, your coveralls for prison jumpsuits, and the wrath of your masters whip for the chains of the modern welfare system.

In exchange for their dignity, your dumbest males and females parade on stage making "music" for worthless paper and trinkets.

Your strongest are owned by football teams and contracts, many of which are paid for by a single man or woman.

Even today, the democratic party, the same party that fought tooth and nail to enslave you, has succeeded once more, using you as little more than trained pets to pass whatever they want through the white house.

Martin Luther King didn't do a god damn thing, because at the end of the day, it was a white man who signed that bill into law, just as it was a white man who bought your ancestors and shipped them to the new world.

We enslaved you because we felt like it, and we "freed" you because we felt like it.

We still own you.

Can he climb, up some drapes?
Take a look, he's an ape
Hey there, there goes the Negro-Man!

In the chill of night
At the scene of a crime
He evades the police
Ain't doin' no hard time!

Negro-Man, Negro-Man,

THEY CUFFED MY HANDS AND SENT ME ON MY WAY
THEY GAVE ME A KNEE INSTEAD OF A TICKET
BLACK MAN HELD DOWN BY RACIST WHITE BIGOT
I WHISTLED FOR A CROWD AND WHEN THEY CAME NEAR
THEY SCREAMED AT THE COPS AND SAID "YOU DONT EVEN CARE!"
IF ANYTHING I COULD SAY THAT I WISH MOMS WAS HERE
BUT I THOUGHT NAW FORGET IT, IM ALL OUTTA AIR!
STARTED BLACKING OUT ABOUT 7 OR 8
AND I YELLED TO THE PIGGY "YO HOLMES GIMME A BREATHER!"
I LOOKED AT THE PAVEMENT, I WAS FINALLY THERE DEAD AS A DOORNAIL AND THE PRINCE OF NO AIR.

YOOWWWW IN WEST PHILADELPHIA BORN AND RAISED ON A PLAYGROUND SPENDING MOST OF MY DAYS, WHEN SOME GUYS PULLED UP IN SHADY WHITE CAR, AND SAID HEY
MISS FIND OUR PUPPY HE CANT HAVE GONE FAR, SO I HOPPED IN THE VAN AND THEY TIED ME TO THE SEAT, THEY SAID DONT MAKE A MOVE OR WE'LL LEAVE YOUR CORPSE ON THE STREET.

All the good nations have shared their creations,
The world now shines through their deeds

China gave guns and the silk they had spun
And paper from bark of their trees

The Hindus brought zero with their system of numbers
Replacing the Romans' which did naught but encumber

The Arabs, their hygiene, pharmacy and guitars
Without whom the world would not have soap bars,

From Europe, of course, computers and cars
Democracy, freedom, and power in war

But what good has come from the Earth's jungly center?
Has it produced even one real inventor?

The consumption of feces, the sponging of tax
The stretching of lips that could only please blacks

One could search for months with all of their vigor,
But not one bit of good has come from the NIGGER!

posting my poem in this slide thread

>The monkey is proud: "MUH DICK!" it exclaims. In a shack so dark and with a smile so bright, it looks for a pen and paper. "gotta let them know, gotta make this right". It focus its mind, squinting its eyes, and it tries to remember old lessons from years behind. No luck, only fog, smog and no light. Alas the monkey finally remembers: it truly and most definitely cannot write.

Let's play a game, /pol/, it's called "Moon Man or Rapper" Anonymous (ID: gRYBGjMH) 07/08/20(Wed)10:09:34 No.266950705 >>266950774 >>266951150 >>266951469 >>266952027 >>266952868 >>266953529

The object of the game is simple. I'm going to type out excerpts of lyrics from different songs, and your goal is to determine whether they are from a Moon Man song or are the lyrics from a song performed by a black rapper.

For example: "Sicker than your average nigger killer Twist nigger's heads off Niggers fucking stink niggers..."

Who is that?

Answer: Moon Man, Notorious KKK

We'll do 5 rounds, let's see if you can guess the answers...

>"The night of the roof Koreans" By Jae-Hwa

Twas the week of Thanksgiving and all through Missouri
Niggers would smash windows and run off in a hurry
In sagging groid-pants they didn't know how to wear
They would run through a store and leave the shelves bare
When most people were asleep, all snug in their beds
The streets were full of strange monkeys with pubes on their heads
With Chin-sun at the register, and me on the roof
Aiming my new rifle at any gold tooft
When in the parking lot there arose such a clatter,

I readied the trigger, for ape brains to splatter
Through my window went a brick which a nig had just pitched
I knew my store was next to be culturally enriched
The glow of the fires burning off in the night
Gave the lustre of mid-day to all the niggers in sight.
With greasy black faces and each with a sneer,
Came a pack of wild negroids to my store drawing near.
With pants on the ground like some typical nigs
I knew they were coming to steal liquor and cigs
Like rampaging silver backs in the jungle they came,
So I looked through my scope and shouted, and called them by name!
"Hey Tyrone! Hey Jamal! Hey DeShaun and Fo'Tayus!
Hey DeeRay! Hey Kwantel! DeMarcus and Drayfus!
"You stay out of my store, you reave it arone, scoot!"
"You niggers no scare me! You root and I shoot!"
Like the chimps in the zoo, when monkey snack time has come,
They did ook. They did Eek. But still they did come.
So I lined up my cross hairs on the burliest nigger
And readied my finger to squeeze on the trigger.
And then as I steadied my rifle to aim
I wondered who the media would decide was to blame
As I drew in my breath and was ready to shoot,
Suddenly the pack stopped, no longer looking to loot
And what to my slanty yellow eyes did appear? None other than Saint Zim Zam and a pack full of gear

"Neighborhood watch", he said with a smile
"Officers Dornier and Wilson will be here in a while"
He was ready for heat, like a good coffee
stirrer
With all the poise and panache of great German Führer
Dual wielding dessert eagles with a knife in his teeth,

He stood ready to wipe out the horde of monkeys beneath
One pistol he emptied, and then emptied the other,
With each pull of the trigger he deleted one brother
Though he was half hispanic and half European,
He fought like the bravest of any roof korean
He switched from his pistols to a weapon much faster, a 12 gauge deluxe pump action groid-blaster
He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work
Never twitching an eye, never losing his smirk
When all the darkies had fled and my store was secure
I thanked him for saving this immigrant entrepreneur
I offered him anything he might want in my store
"You take what you want. You big hero for sure!"
"No" he told me "My reward was an acquittal"
"But I could use a snack....you got any skittles?"

The Ballad of Derek "Shimmy" Chauvin

The Ballad of Derek "Shimmy" Chauvin, or: The Epic of Eric "Full/Admiral" Nelson (or: The Tomfoolery of Judge Cahill and the Semitic Marionettes)

On March Twenty-Nine
The trial had started.

/Pol/ was excitable—
Almost downright retarded.
"Quick," /Pol/ cried out,
"There's no time to waste!
This chat has no jannies!
It's incredibly based!"
They Sneedided and they Feedided,
(This much is decided)
What can't quite be said:
The number of trannies suicided.
"Racist incels!
Why don't you get laid!?"
But the topic turned to mods
And how much money they get paid.

Then Fatty McDiversity-Hire
Shuffled into the court,
Claiming to be a Firefighter
Of the corpulent sort.
Glancing at her Class A,

The Court murmured, "Wow—
Who put that silk hat
On top of this sow?"
Her EMT cert
She'd never had known,
Had it not been for
All the Lieutenants she'd blown.
She smiled politely,
But was otherwise quite cuntly.
"Break time," the Court blurted,
"Let's make this'un a twenty."
But back at MFD,
Fire crews watched with disheartment
As this hole in a uniform
Disgraced their department.
If you've ever worked labor
Then you're sure to know the kind:
They demand all the glory
But won't do any of the grind.
Liked by no one,
She's fat, spoiled, and lazy.
"Oh, fuck me. Here she comes—It's Firefighter Fugazi."
But back in the court
She and Nelson were jabbing,
Nelson stood stoic,
While Fugazi's jowls kept flabbing.
"Is it department policy," he asked,
"To participate in a mob?"
"Oh em gee," she oinked back,
"Like, you don't even know my job."
Then the Court had enough,
And he slapped piggy down:
"Understand, you dumb cunt?"
She said she did, with a frown.
"Is this ham Canadian?
'Cause I'm finna' rake.
Good heavens, that reminds me!
It's nearly time for a break!"
She dismounted the stand,
Curly tail between hocks,
And trotted back to the gutter,
To holster black blistered cocks.
And as she trotted on by,
Defense gave a look of pure scorn.
At this sardonic slam-ham
And at the costume she'd worn.
(Sometimes I dream of Nelson,
He's quite the hero.

The charges were a sham;
The case a house of cards
Quite easily dismissed
By the sleepest of /Pol/tards.
But the Governor insisted:
"This must go to trial.

Here's a list of witnesses," he said,
Rubbing his hands all the while.
At the list, State cried:
"Well, this certainly figures!
No wonder there's no case,
This list's full of niggers!"
But the fix was in,
The mob had already spoken.
A white man was to swing,
And that white man was Chauvin.

In the throes of the court,
The madness proceeded.
And /Pol/ stayed undaunted
By the degenerates being Sneedeed.
"Objection!" the state cried,
His large nose protruding,

As the Jewess behind him
Sat visibly brooding.
"Not so fast, Mr. Nelson!
This kike won't be fooled!"
But the Court only smiled:
"Objection overruled."
"Outrageous!" said the nose,
"There's been a mistake!"
"The injustice here," said the Court
"Is that we're not on a break."

"Oh em gee," she oinked back,
"Like, you don't even know my job."
Then the Court had enough,
And he slapped piggy down:

He asks what three things about me would I like him to know.
Reserved, but ferocious,
A man worthy of applause;
God has yet to make a juror
He could not strike for cause.)
About this time now
The Judge looked quite aghast,
Unable to believe
How much time had since passed.
"Counsel—side-bar,"
The Court said for their sake.
"What do you guys think,
Is it time for a break?"

Then next came the fighter,
"An expert!" the state boasted,
But he couldn't spell his own name.
(Is this witness seriously toasted?)

But Cahill called for a break
To take reprieve from this travesty
And the witness adulated,
"Yeah, das a good cawl, yo' Majesty."
When the recess was done—and everyone was now sitting—

The bullshit kept coming
From the bullshitter shitting.
"Pay close 'tension, foo,
This expert's no joke!
We be calling this a 'Kimura,'" he said,
Then mimed a d'arce choke.
"You cain get me, cracker.

"All the same," said The Admiral,
"You're a pussy-ass bitch."
"Shut the fuck up, honky!"
The spook yelled with a drawl.
"I just grew in professionalism!
I don't get mad at all!"
But the Judge merely sat there,
Looking concerned and distraught.
"It's time for a break, right?
Yes, that's exactly what I thought."

Next came the video,
caught on CCTV,
Inside of the store
Where outside came the knee.
The store was quite busy,
But there were no masks or bandanas
Not even on the cashier,

Who sold ol' George his bananas.

And riding his high,
Floyd did a quick jig.
"One banana, young blood,
Some poe-tass-yum fo' dis nig!"
"Objection! Speculation!"
Came again from the state.
But the Court raised a finger,
Implying he wait.
Ugh, thought Judge Pete.
This guy is the worst.
"I'll rule in a minute, Council.
But let's take a lunch first."
They shuffled back in,
The prosecution in a fluster.
Judge Cahill sat up
And with the wind he could muster:
"Overruled, Councilor,
Once again you're mistaken.
It was too short, though,
That break we had taken."
The State played more tape,
A shameless appeal to emotion,
But there lay Po' Floyd,
And on top, Derek Chauvin.
Shouting for his boo,
George cried through a choke:
"GET 'NOTHER TWINNY, MAMMA!
THIS BOY NEEDS SOME SMOKE!"

Now the dust had all settled,
All the evidence had been figured.
The "not guilty" that came back,
Had Twitter thoroughly triggered.

They looted in Portland, Los Angeles,
even Bikini Atoll.
You couldn't even imagine
All the things those chimps stole!
They stole all the ribbons!
They stole all the tags!
They stole all the packages,
Boxes, and bags!
They stole all the juicers!
They stole all the blenders!
They stole all the flungers,
Kapbadlers, and smendlers!
A quick break for Popeye's
Then back to burn, loot, and murder.
Just another day in the life
Of a big city burger.
On their PCs and laptops
The /Pol/sters were all loggin'
While out in the streets
The nig-nogs were all joggin'
Comfy they were
In their kino law thread
Many /Pol/sters, in fact,
Were even watching in bed!
Because now everybody knew
(It was quite well behaved):
You can't Flim-Flam the Zim-Zam,
And you can't Shimmy the Chauvin.

I think I just had a revelation about why so many unarmed black men in particular are killed by cops. Yes, obviously systemic racism is an issue but I seriously think I just cracked something here.

So I went to the one video store left in my area last night and hired a couple seasons of Cops and had an all-night marathon. I noticed that almost every time a black dude ran, he would reach for his waistband as he was running.

Of course I'm like shitting myself on the couch because I'm stoned but also because he's obviously reaching for a weapon, or it at least looks like he is, and someone's about to get their shit way fucked up. But then 99% of the time there was no weapon, dude wasn't reaching for anything.

THEN I realized like, holy shit, these dudes are just trying to hold their pants up. They're all in those stupid too-big jeans with no belt and they've gotta hold onto their waistbands or their pants will fall down and so will they. It took me a good few episodes to come to this conclusion, and I wonder how many cops misinterpret them holding their pants up for reaching for a weapon, too.

I wonder how many lives fucking BELTS could save if people chose to wear them? I reckon that at least a few people would have better results here.

Delphi says:

"In a society of green and blue people, where blue people are 13% of the population but commit 51% of all violent crime, should blue people be isolated for the benefit of society?"

If all blacks suddenly left America...
(keep in mind blacks only make 13% of the US population)
>The prison population would go down by 37%
>There would be almost 50% less gang members
>Rape would go down significantly
>Overweight and obesity percentage would go down by 10%
>Average IQ would go up 7 points, putting the USA tied for third with Japan
>SAT scores would go up by about 100 points
>ACT scores would go up by 5.5 points

>AIDS and HIV would go down by over 67%
>Chlamydia cases would go down by 50%
>Gonorrhea would go down by 69%
>Syphilis would go down by 58%
>The average income would be over 20k more per year
>The amount of people in poverty would go down by over 30%
>Homelessness would go down by 57%
>And the number of welfare recipients would go down by about 40%

Asians are proof that the problems minorities face in America are the fault of their culture.
Asians face/have faced discrimination and poor treatment similar to blacks, and many of them got to America almost penniless.

However, most Asian cultures value hard work and sucking it up, so they almost always excel in spite of adversity.

This is direct proof that "muh poor oppressed xyz minority group can't get ahead because the white man won't give them enough welfare" is a pile of bullshit.

I don't remember perfect details but basically in my dream I was a transformer (don't recall which one) and I was telling really bad transformers jokes to some of the autobots. My jokes were all along the same lines of "if our boss was dirty he would be optimus grime" or "If our boss was green he would be optimus lime". All of a sudden a black family approach me and tell me my jokes are fucking terrible. This makes me so mad I respond with "IF OUR BOSS WAS BLACK HE WOULD BE OPTI-COMMITS CRIME". I then shoot down the family and me and my autobot brethren transform and start mowing down black neighborhoods.

I am not even racist honestly.

Hey, Vsauce. Michael here.

Skeletons are scary and spooky, but you know what else is? Niggers.

According to the U.S Justice Department, in 2006, 32,443 women of Caucasian origin were raped by men of African origin.

That same year, the number of African American women raped by Caucasian men... was... zero.

In fact, 90% of all interracial crimes in the U.S. are committed by blacks... against whites...

So what if all blacks were to... suddenly... disappear from the U.S.?

Murder would go down 49.7 percent, welfare recipients would go down 40 percent, SAT scores would go up about 100 points, the average IQ would go up 7 points, and AIDS victims would go down a staggering... 67... percent.

Significant changes for race that only makes up 13% of the population.

But what is... "race"?

In biology, races are distinct genetically divergent populations "within the same species", with relatively small morphological and genetic... differences.

Populations can be described as ecological races if they arise from adaptation to different local habitats or geographic races when they are geographically isolated.

However, if sufficiently different, two or more races can be identified as... sub... species.

So how long do two races have to be isolated from one another before they're considered separate species?

Earlier this year, Archaeologists found artefacts in a cave on Western Australia's Barrow Island dating back more than 50,000 years, making it Australia's earliest known site of human occupation.

In contrast, the domestication of the dog began just 15,000... years... ago.

This distance, some several thousand miles between the mainlands of Australia and Asia also caused another kind of distance.

Genetic... distance.

Genetic distance is a measure of the genetic divergence between species or between populations within a species.

Dogs and wolves have been found to have a shorter genetic distance between each other than Negroids and non-Negroids.

>> ☐ Anonymous (ID: O3vGuM2B) 08/15/17(Tue)00:24:54 No.137469974 >>137470340 >>137480469 >>137487358 >>137492166 >>137492460 >>137497019 >>137499270

The distance between Eurasians and Africans being even larger than Homo Sapiens and Homo... Erectus.

Well, it kinda makes sense. I mean, can two races with diverging skin tones, eye colors, behavioral patterns, intellectual and athletic capabilities even be considered the same subspecies? Is it even a question? Is it even a question you're... allowed to... ask?

In October 2007, geneticist James Watson, best known as one of the co-discoverers of the structure of DNA, and the familiar double-helix model we all had to learn in High School, was lambasted by the scientific community for a response he gave in an interview regarding the divergence of intellect between geographically isolated populations.

"There is no firm reason to anticipate that the intellectual capacities of peoples geographically separated in their evolution should prove to have evolved identically," James wrote. "Our wanting to reserve equal powers of reason as some universal heritage of humanity will not be enough to make it so".

The response resulted with a suspension of Watson's administrative responsibilities and was forced to... cancel... his book tour. And tragically, in 2014, Mr Watson auctioned his Nobel Prize medal he won in 1962, stating that "no-one really wants to admit I exist".

Harsh. But people tend to react this way to ideas that go against their own personal world view and... cognitive... biases.

Confirmation bias. It's the tendency to search for, interpret, focus on and remember information in a way that confirms one's... own... preconceptions. This effect, stronger for emotionally charged issues, warps your interpretation of data in a way that keeps you from... being... wrong. There is something fundamental in our minds that makes us hesitant to question ideas that we've... already come to a conclusion to.

We all do it. But who could blame us? That's just part of being a member of the human... species.

And as always, around blacks, never relax.

BLACK CRIME IN CANADA

In 1989, Julian Fantino, then police head of the division, told the Committee on Community, Race, and Ethnic Relations of the former city of North York (which was amalgamated with five other municipalities and Toronto in 1998) that black people were largely overrepresented in the commission of crime. While composing only 6% of the population of the area at the time, black people accounted for 82% of robberies and muggings, 55% of purse-snatchings, and 51% of drug offenses in the previous year, according to Fantino's statistics. After black activist groups and social agencies condemned Fantino for exacerbating what they viewed as existing prejudices against black people, the municipality banned the compilation of racial crime statistics. Fantino stood by his decision to release the racial data, regretting only that he was unaware of a Toronto Star reporter's attendance at the committee.

>Nice cozy dive bar >band playing 90's pop >sit outside and chat peacefully

Later in the night I was about to go home, but my buddies wanted to go to a more hip bar with more girls. I'm not too interested but not ready to go home yet so I go with them.

>niggers on stage playing nigger music >all white people in the bar trying to act like niggers to be cool >niggers in the crowd
>white girls rubbing on niggers in the crowd.
>5 min in I was in full nigger overload >turn to leave >friend asks where I'm going >do you not see all the niggers here anon >this place is unsafe I'm leaving and you should to.
>friend calls me racist
>mfw I find out the next day friend got jumped and robbed by niggers in the parking lot.

US nigger control: Biden calls for a ban on assault blacks

© 24 March

REUTERS

Ten people were killed at a block party in Baltimore on Monday

President Joe Biden has vowed to take "common-sense steps" to crack down on niggers following a report that 73% of mass shooters in 2020 were black.

He renewed his call to ban assault blacks and highly-violent niggers, urging Congress to pass bills that would fund 'common sense' nigger repatriation to Africa. "It's not a gun problem, it's a nigger problem", President Biden said.

I remember going to the Arlington zoo and seeing you there always put a smile on my face. Eating lunch together, looking at the other exhibits, and when you reached out to hold my hand I knew there was a real connection. You were the best friend I had there and I don't care what anyone else says, you were different from the other gorillas. Rest in peace my king

My wife, Spring, introduced me to Ja'Derek. He was a strapping young bull of a boy and my wife adored him. I wasn't a fan at first, but me and my wife's son loved him like a member of the family. He was such a fun guest, but messy. I know everytime he was over, spring would call to me and say that I needed to clean up after Ja'Derek.

May God hold him in the cusp of his hand.

Ja'Derek will be missed by his close family and friends. Some people just never relax around good souls like Ja'Derek. It is a shame that father of several children did not relax for this good boy, who undoubtedly was just trying to get his life back together. He was just upset in the moment and wouldn't have hurt anyone. I am sure they could have worked out their differences in a peaceful manner if that father had just heard out Ja'Derek's grievances. Ja'Derek was always such a good boy and wouldn't have hurt a fly. (PS, don't look at his record please, lets remember him in a positive light)

Just want a say my condolences to the family of JaDerek. He/him was a proud member of the African American community and it's great to see other fellow Reddit users come to pay their respects. The majority of the comments are from people in my sub. Thankyou all for coming and showing what Reddit is all about in giving a voice to under privileged African American community. BLM!

Lawdy, I sure do remember Ja'Derek. Healthy young buck but the real ornery type if you catch my drift. Caught him in the storehouse at 14 tearin' through a barrel of pickled mackerel like a hen on corn. He swung at me but good ol' Ruckus with the long dingus got him off me. He posted that boy up and had to give him all 8 to finally break him. Had to admire such a spirited young buck. RIP

Ja! What did you do! OMG!

I can't believe this! I just read what happened and I am in shock. This doesn't sound like the gentle, caring, loving, strong handed Ja'Derek I know!

I remember when we first met, you had to do community service hours for .. well that isn't important but when you approached me at the Rainbow Foundation of Texas I just knew we had to help turn you around.

From there, you spent your 800 hours doing buck breaking work. There wasn't a task that you wouldn't immediately go bottoms up for and try your absolute hardest to be quiet while you did a good job.

Remember that one night in the kitchen? It was special. I'll always remember it, my sweet, sweet Ja..

July 1, 2021

Did you ever hear the tragedy of Ja'Derek the Wise? I thought not. It's not a story most bikers would tell you. It's a lane splitting legend. Ja'Derek was a Dark Lord on a motorcycle, so powerful and so wise he could use the Force to influence to create lanes from nothing...

He had such a knowledge of lane splitting that he could even keep the ones he cared about from being stuck in traffic. Lane splitting is a pathway to many abilities some consider to be unnatural. He became so powerful... the only thing he was afraid of was losing control of his bike, which eventually, of course, he did. Ironic. He could save others from being late, but not himself.

Worry not, I'm a trained Niggerologist, this melanated gentleman said:

> This individual was not convicted in a court of law

> Individuals you hold in high esteem such as Tyson, Kobe and Zane: all had several allegations.

I am not worried for opinions stated on social media rarely translate into real life. Last year the Gucci brand was

The album me and this gentleman collaborate on starts now an individual thus we should refrain from doing so in the court of public opinion if you didn't stop supporting thusly it would be hypocritical for you to withdraw your support from this gentleman shrouded in controversy and condemnations yet its sales remained high. Do not posture my fellow negroes.

A Prayer For Trayvon

An inspiring Christian prayer is written below this picture of Trayvon Martin (PBUH). Please share it with all of your friends on Facebook and Twitter in memory of Trayvon's lost innocence.

Dear Jesus,

Attention all white brothers: it has come to our attention that niggers don't know how to read cursive, so regard this message as a secret code that can be read by white eyes only. If a black person has posted or references this message, simply comment "what a nice prayer". They will agree, as they are too ashamed of their ignorance to admit their inability to "read good".

In the event of a race riot, please transmit all messages in written script only, as cursive handwriting appears as strange symbols to the minimally literate negroid. This will be the only safe way to communicate in the race war battlefield after George Zimmerman is acquitted by his majority white jury.

Pure-blood whites will meet in and around Washington State, henceforth known as the Northwest Front after the day of the rope. Please share this message on all social media platforms, even if you have negroid friends, as they will be convinced that this is a prayer for the dead delinquent Traytray.

In Trayvon's Memory and Jesus' name
AMEN

>Yo Anon, long time no see! You really saved my GPA in that English class! I got that Goldman Sachs job and now I'm a director! Stacey and me got hitched and she works in HR just a few floors down. What do you do now? Part time librarian? So you get to read books all day, huh? (Stacey giggles condescendingly). Anyway, we're on our way to the yearly company ball, held in my boss's yacht. Nice seeing you!

You seem to have accosted the wrong gentleman sir. I am a reclusive hermit with a sub 80 iq and alas I did not make it far in my studies. Indeed I did not even graduate high school. Working as a librarian...that would have been wonderful. I often wonder about that you know? The way things could have been. Maybe if I stuck with my studies I would not be in such a sorry state as this. Maybe in another world I would in actuality have been who you believed me to be. I spend much time ruminating about what could be because what is should never have been. These thoughts of far off worlds where I am not the wretch who stands before you are all I have to bring me solace. No family. No friends. No employment. No skills. Ghastly. It is simply ghast-wait where are you going? Wait. Madam you have such fine features despite your bovine toes. Would you allow me to suckle on a morsel? Only for a moment? Ah fuck! I yield man, I yield. You have made your point rouge! Unhand me! Ah fuck! Rapscallion! Leperous sodomite! Reprobate! You have not seen the last of me! You shall rue the day you crossed me! I bid you adieu madam! Adieu!

When Obama left the White House in a helicopter that horrible day, I had the impression our true father was leaving & the nation was stuck with a stepfather who was going to rape us. Now I increasingly believe that the media is the mother who won't stand up for us & defy him.

Dear racists,

Absolutely all human beings on earth have one gene in common. It's called The Eve Gene. It means we are all traceable back to one African woman. So you all have African blood. Ergo you are despising yourselves when you despise your black brothers and sisters.

It's important to look at the deeper meaning behind BLM, and the importance of some of their symbols.

Together we can spread the message and make a difference.

I remember watching this scene in middle school and my friend who sat behind me just suddenly whispered over to me "you could fit a small dick inside those nostrils."

And like it wasn't funny to me at first, but then it just started to "build up" inside me and I ended up having to crawl under my desk covering my mouth whilst doing everything I could to stop laughing. When my teacher who was alerted to my gurgling and "pffft" sounds asked me what I was doing down there, I started to say "looking for my pencil" but never got past the "loo-" and just started hysterically laughing and could not stop. Most worth it detention I ever had. I still can't watch that movie without laughing. Even your picture triggered it...good times.

Reporting Domestic Abuse is Racist.

Here's Why...

A tragic racial inequity is plaguing this nation- over 70% of homes of Black children are missing a father figure. This is drastically higher than all other people in America, and the reason is simply derived: racism. Studies have shown that not only are Black men most likely to have children out of wedlock (National Center for Health Statistics), they are also most likely to be convicted for violent crimes. This is due to institutionalized systemic racism, of course. If we are to strive towards a future where Black families can be whole again, we must focus on ways to keep Black men out of jail. A huge effort can be made by stopping the reporting of domestic abuse.

If a Black man is convicted of domestic abuse, not only is he potentially going to jail for years, he also could lose the opportunity to be with his children. Losing custody, visitation or a restraining order could mean that another poor Black child is deprived of a father figure. From various studies, we know what kind of strong impact this emptiness can leave on children. It can lead to a life fraught with failures in academics, searching for a strong male influence in gangs or entering into drug culture. Some believe it may be possible that lack of a strong male rolemodel also leads to Black males having the largest percentage of homosexuality of any group in America. We can see in numerous studies that LGBTQAABPOC communities are rife with poverty and the threat of deadly disease. Bearing in mind the vulnerability of Queer Youth of Colour, it only makes these kinds of changes more urgent.

Bullshit. Dolphins are the niggers of the sea. They roam in huge pack when they move into territory they do not belong in. They pick on the weak, they pick on each other, but what they do best is rape, straight up RAPE everything. They will rape whales (PAWG of the sea), they will rape jelly fish, hell, they will even rape SHARKS, if their gang is large enough. Violent fuckers too, with or without the rape, yet they get away with it too.

They don't even speak fish, they never bothered to learn from the schools how to properly convey their feelings, so they just rape and blast their shitty sound wave (Sea equivalent to rap / trap music) shit from one end to the other so they can be all sneaky like, speaking in seabonics and shit so that the great white sharks don't understand them. Fuckers should be glad that other fish do not have access to guns, or else they would light their asses up too.

Fun fact, did you know that dolphins make up only 15% of the Cetacean group, yet are responsible for 50% of the overall group death rate, and the overwhelming majority of the rape?

Strange results and 'freezing' behavior

The classic mirror test of self-recognition starts with a mark placed on a subject's body, somewhere he or she can't see it without help—such as the forehead or back of the shoulder. Then subjects are put in front of a mirror. To pass the test they have to first figure out that the reflection they see is not somebody else, understand that it is themselves, and then examine their bodies enough to find the mark. Finally, they have to realize the mark shouldn't be there and try to remove it.

The theory is that subjects who pass the test—animal or human—are self-aware, says Tanya Broesch, a doctoral candidate in Emory University's Department of Psychology and lead author on the 2010 study. That is, the subject understands the concepts of "self" and "others," can differentiate between the two, and can recognize themselves in the reflection. Based on results with Western children, psychologists have linked the age humans start passing the mark test with other milestones that happen around the same time, such as development of empathy. The ability to separate oneself from others is often thought of as a prerequisite for understanding that someone else might be hurt or sad, even if the beholder is not.

But when Broesch tried the mark mirror test outside the U.S. and Canada, she got some strange results. In Kenya, for instance, only two out of 82 children, some as old as six, passed. But the kids who did not pass were not psychologically damaged or lacking empathy. And most displayed what Broesch calls "freezing" behavior—the children did not greet or smile at their reflection. Instead, they stood still and seemed deeply uncomfortable.

How come animals aren't "clever" enough when they can't recognize themselves in a mirror but for African children we have to make up silly excuses about their culture not being about individuality? Maybe animal culture is also about being part of a large social group so that's why they don't pass? It sounds ridiculous when you try to think objectively about animals, so why can't we think objectively about humans?

Tips for minorities dealing with telepathic whites: Do not enter their racism field. When a minority enters the field a tingling sensation can be felt. Prolonged exposure to the racism field can lead to feelings of inferiority and in extreme cases an uncontrollable urge to do harm. While in the field, the telepathic white may use his powers to alter your subconscious mind and create violent urges far faster than normal exposure will bring on. This is done only when the telepathic white feels threatened. The field is significantly stronger with groups of telepathic whites and while minorities are very familiar with body language, they can be caught completely off guard when dealing with invisible white mind language. The field can be extended indefinitely with the use of mobile devices although the concentration of hate particles is much less dense than they are inside the standard racism field of the individual telepathic white. Exercise extreme caution.

Look at Black America between the Emancipation to around 1980 or so and what you see is a society determined to build itself up into something reputable, something worthy of being respected and admired. From the turn of the century thru the 30s you had an entire movement in Black society trying to champion intellectualism and cultivate talent, thru the first two thirds of the 20th century you had entire generations of Black parents encouraging their kids to become doctors, lawyers, scientists, musicians and Black fathers working 70-80 hours a week so they could give them those chances. You had an entire society looking at the last 300 years of European and American contributions to science, technology, art, literature and saying "that's what we want to do! we want to be a part of that!"

Then the 80s hit and a single generation of crack, rap music, and gang violence wiped out the last three generations of progress.

Unfortunately batman this is not true, for you see carthage was a society too.

Whitey built bridge.jpg

A bridge in Ethiopia, built by Europeans centuries ago. Africans never rebuilt the bridge, so they cross it via ropes

Whitey rebuilds bridge.jpg

A white engineer in the USA helped rebuild this bridge, because Wakanda isn't real.

Niggers steal bridge.jpg

Some children guard the crops from monkeys, which villagers say steal the food.

Antihun Fanta, a 35-year-old farmer and father of six, wants his children to get an education, he said through an interpreter. "But it is hard to send them because they also shepherd the animals. But if I do not send them, the government can take my sheep."

The bridge repair helped increase trade, Antihun said, the benefits of which eventually trickled into people's pockets.

Until 2005 — when the steel span vanished.

Some people suspected the men who manned the rope. They were paid 3 Ethiopian birr, about 38 cents, per traveler.

The Nigger and his outlook on morality

I am an American who taught philosophy in several African universities from 1976 to 1988, and have lived since that time in South Africa.

When I first came to Africa, I knew virtually nothing about the continent or its people, but I began learning quickly. I noticed, for example, that Africans rarely kept promises and saw no need to apologize when they broke them. It was as if they were unaware they had done anything that called for an apology.

It took many years for me to understand why Africans behaved this way but I think I can now explain this and other behavior that characterizes Africa. I believe that morality requires abstract thinking—as does planning for the future—and that a relative deficiency in abstract thinking may explain many things that are typically African.

My first inklings about what may be a deficiency in abstract thinking came from what I began to learn about African languages.

So I called the University of South Africa, a large correspondence university in Pretoria, and spoke to a young black guy. He explained that the Zulu word for "precision" means "to make like a straight line." Was this part of indigenous Zulu? No; this was added by the compilers of the dictionary. But, he assured me, it was otherwise for "promise." I was skeptical. How about "obligation?" We both had the same dictionary (English-Zulu, Zulu-English Dictionary, published by Witwatersrand University Press in 1958), and looked it up. The Zulu entry means "as if to bind one's feet." He said that was not indigenous but was added by the compilers. But if Zulu didn't have the concept of obligation, how could it have the concept of a promise, since a promise is simply the oral undertaking of an obligation? I was interested in this, I said, because Africans often failed to keep promises and never apologized—as if this didn't warrant an apology.

A light bulb seemed to go on in his mind. Yes, he said; in fact, the Zulu word for promise—isithembiso—is not the correct word.

When a black person "promises" he means "maybe I will and maybe I won't." But, I said, this makes nonsense of promising, the very purpose of which is to bind one to a course of action. When one is not sure he can do something he may say, "I will try but I can't promise." He said he'd heard whites say that and had never understood it till now.

As a young Romanian friend so aptly summed it up, when a black person "promises" he means "I'll try."

> "[Xhosa] is a language where polygon and plane have the same definition ... where concepts like triangle, quadrilateral, pentagon, hexagon are defined by only one word." ("Finding New Languages for Maths and Science," Star [Johannesburg], July 24, 2002, p. 8.)

More accurately, these concepts simply do not exist in Xhosa, which, along with Zulu, is one of the two most widely spoken languages in South Africa. In America, blacks are said to have a;

>"tendency to approximate space, numbers and time instead of aiming for complete accuracy." (Star, June 8, 1988, p.10.)

In other words, they are also poor at math. Notice the identical triumvirate—space, numbers, and time. Is it just a coincidence that these three highly abstract concepts are the ones with which blacks — everywhere — seem to have such difficulties?

The entry in the Zulu dictionary for "number," by the way — ningi — means "numerous," which is not at all the same as the concept of number. It is clear, therefore, that there is no concept of number in Zulu

White rule in South Africa ended in 1994. It was about ten years later that power outages began, which eventually reached crisis proportions. The principle reason for this is simply lack of maintenance on the generating equipment. Maintenance is future-oriented, and the Zulu entry in the dictionary for it is onda, which means:

"1. Nourish, rear; bring up;

2. Keep an eye on; watch (your crop)."

The New York Times reports that New York City is considering a plan (since implemented) aimed at getting blacks to;

>"do well on standardized tests and to show up for class," >by paying them to do these things and that could;

>"earn [them] as much as $500 a year."

Students would get money for regular school attendance, every book they read, doing well on tests, and sometimes just for taking them. Parents would be paid for;

>"keeping a full-time job ... having health insurance ... and attending parent-teacher conferences." (Jennifer Medina, "Schools Plan to Pay Cash for Marks," New York Times, June 19, 2007.)

The same New York Times article quotes Darwin Davis of the Urban League as;

>"caution[ing] that the ... money being offered [for attending class] was relatively paltry ... and wondering ... how many tests students would need to pass to buy the latest video game."

Instead of being shamed by the very need for such a plan, this black activist complains that the payments aren't enough! If he really is unaware how his remarks will strike most readers, he is morally obtuse, but his views may reflect a common understanding among blacks of what morality is: not something internalized but something others enforce from the outside. Hence his complaint that paying children to do things they should be motivated to do on their own is that they are not being paid enough.

In this context, I recall some remarkable discoveries by the late American linguist, William Stewart, who spent many years in Senegal studying local languages. Whereas Western cultures internalize norms—"Don't do that!" for a child, eventually becomes "I mustn't do that" for an adult—African cultures do not. They rely entirely on external controls on behavior from tribal elders and other sources of authority. When Africans were detribalized, these external constraints disappeared, and since there never were internal constraints, the results were crime, drugs, promiscuity, etc. Where there have been other forms of control—as in white-ruled South Africa, colonial Africa, or the segregated American South—this behavior was kept within tolerable limits. But when even these controls disappear there is often unbridled violence

According to now-discredited folk wisdom, blacks are "children in adult bodies," but there may be some foundation to this view. The average African adult has the raw IQ score of the average 11-year-old white child. This is about the age at which white children begin to internalize morality and no longer need such strong external enforcers.

>"A Cape social worker sees elements that revel in violence ... It's like a cult which has embraced a lot of people who otherwise appear normal. At the slightest provocation their blood-lust is aroused. And then they want to see death, and they jeer and mock at the suffering involved, especially the suffering of a slow and agonizing death." (Citizen [Johannesburg], July 12, 1993, p.6.)

During the apartheid era, black activists used to kill traitors and enemies by "necklacing" them. An old tire was put around the victim's neck, filled with gasoline, and—but it is best to let an eye-witness describe what happened next:

>"The petrol-filled tyre is jammed on your shoulders and a lighter is placed within reach. Your fingers are broken, needles are pushed up your nose and you are tortured until you put the lighter to the petrol yourself." (Citizen; "SA's New Nazis," August 10, 1993, p.18.)

In 1993, Amy Biehl, a 26-year-old American on a Fulbright scholarship, was living in South Africa, where she spent most of her time in black townships helping blacks. One day when she was driving three African friends home, young blacks stopped the car, dragged her out, and killed her because she was white. A retired senior South African judge, Rex van Schalkwyk, in his 1998 book One Miracle is Not Enough, quotes from a newspaper report on the trial of her killers:

>"Supporters of the three men accused of murdering [her] ... burst out laughing in the public gallery of the Supreme Court today when a witness told how the battered woman groaned in pain."

>"According to a three-year study [in Johannesburg] ... more than half of the young people interviewed — both male and female — believe that forcing sex with someone you know does not constitute sexual violence ... [T]he casual manner in which South African teens discuss coercive relationships and unprotected sex is staggering." (Tom Masland, "Breaking The Silence," Newsweek, July 9, 2000.)

An article about gang rape in the left-wing British paper, the Guardian, confirms this when it quotes a young black woman:

>"The thing is, they [black men] don't see it as rape, as us being forced. They just see it as pleasure for them."

(Rose George, "They Don't See it as Rape. They Just See it as Pleasure for Them," June 5, 2004.)

A similar attitude seems to be shared among some American blacks who casually refer to gang rape as "running a train." (Nathan McCall, Makes Me Wanna Holler, Vintage Books, 1995.)

If the African understanding of rape is far afield, so may be their idea of romance or love. I recently watched a South African television program about having sex for money. Of the several women in the audience who spoke up, not a single one questioned the morality of this behavior. Indeed, one plaintively asked,

>"Why else would I have sex with a man?"

From the casual way in which Africans throw around the word "love," I suspect their understanding of it is, at best, childish. I suspect the notion is alien to Africans, and I would be surprised if things are very different among American blacks. Africans hear whites speak of "love" and try to give it a meaning from within their own conceptual repertoire. The result is a child's conception of this deepest of human emotions, probably similar to their misunderstanding of the nature of a promise.

I recently located a document that was dictated to me by a young African woman in June 1993. She called it her "story," and the final paragraph is a poignant illustration of what to Europeans would seem to be a limited understanding of love:

>"On my way from school, I met a boy. And he proposed me. His name was Mokone. He tell me that he love me. And then I tell him I will give him his answer next week. At night I was crazy about him. I was always thinking about him."

More than twice. We've done it five or six times since the 1800's. Invade, force peace on them, build homes, streets, hospitals, schools, courthouses, train doctors, lawyers, policemen, teachers, etc.

An average of two years after we declare the job finished and leave, the paved streets are mud lanes again, the hospitals are crumbling ruins where patients lie on the bare ground and barely receive any treatment, the houses are rotting hovels again, the schools are gone, and all the teachers, doctors, and policemen have reverted to living like illiterate savages again.

There's a reason Haiti has 98% deforestation, and that reason is niggers.

When the French ruled Haiti, it was dubbed "the Paris of the west" and one of the wealthiest, most advanced colonies in the world. Then the niggers raped and murdered every single white in the colony, down to the last child, and it's been a barbaric shithole ever since. Niggers cannot maintain civilization even when it is literally handed over to them and they've been trained to maintain it by the white man. Everywhere you look in the world, Zimbabwe, Haiti, Detroit, Liberia, as soon as the white man leaves, the niggers go right back to what they were doing before whitey ever showed up: squatting naked in a filthy mud hut, killing their neighbors with spears, raping anything that moves, cannibalizing each other, practicing ooga-booga voodoo magic, and basically behaving like savage beasts. Every. Single. Time.

That problem goes deep down to nigger psyche itself. You see, niggers do not understand the concept of working for personal or community gain. They are incapable of understanding a simple concept of effort+time+goal=results. This is mainly due to them having evolved in an environment that never required anything from them except for most basic survival instincts. Nigger is hungry, nigger goes and plucks a banana from a tree. Nigger is thirsty, nigger bows down and drinks from a nearby river or rivulet. Nigger is cold, nigger picks up whatever is lying around, smears mud and shit all over it and gets a house. I am generalizing here, but for some reason, water soon stops flowing when he turns the tap, crops no longer pop from the ground and food does not appear in the fridge. And no matter how many times the nigger dances around with a tambourine and invites witch doctors to bless the house, nothing happens. Eventually the nigger decides that the evil whitey cursed the house and either sells it some other nigger or just abandons it.

This is pretty much what happened in all African colonies and any place where Whites and nigs used to live together but Whites later left. Niggers who did not realize that water flows from the tap because Whites run treatment plants and maintain the pipes and that crops grow because Whites plant, irrigate and tend to them, killed or drove the Whites away in the name of "liberation" (generously inculcated into them by kikes) are now left with nothing but rusty metal, barren dead fields and rain puddles as the only source of water. Now they are killing each other over what scraps of civilization remain and praying for Whites to come back. But if Whites actually return, do you think it will be any different this time? Of course not. Niggers will very rapidly grow resentful of having to work for their daily bread and drive the evil white devils out again. Needless to say, the concept of gratitude is as alien to their evolutionary psychology as foresight.

This reminds me of something I read from the Bush War

- >Rhodies recover enemy rifles after each engagement
- >They keep finding rifles with the rear sight dialed in to the highest setting, practically fucking indirect fire
- >They are extremely confused by this
- >Eventually they ask a prisoner about it during interrogation
- >Literally none of them know what the sights are for, they think that choosing the bigger number makes the gun shoot harder

Warfare in Africa is truly unbelievable

Been in Bulgaria for 2 days. Been called "Nigger" multiple times in the street

I arrived in Sofia on Saturday, me and my GF are spending our 5 year anniversary here. The first day was okay, we both got funny looks from people on the road but that was about it. Sunday comes round and we decide to walk into town, we passed the Football Stadium which has a huge green area and water fountains the i heard "I love my country nigger free". the guy who said it was a young guy who repeated it twice. Me and my GF just looked in shock that someone can be so openly racist. So we walk on and pay no attention to it.

On our way back to the hotel we decided to walk on the other side of the green area near the stadium, again we get the funny looks from people but pay no attention, i notice a group of again young people sitting on benches in the stadium wall, one of them noticed me and my GF, she ran and told her friends then we start hearing a barrage of people saying "Hey nigger", "comehere nigger", "Nigger Nigger Nigger". again me and my GF just kept on walking. We did not want to give them any attention. Its just a huge culture shock, i'm from London and i've never experienced open racism like this in my life. We have a huge Bulgarian population in London and im just trying very hard to not let this effect how i see Bulgarians in general.

End note, i don't think i'll ever step foot into this fucking country for the rest of my life.

Mini update...

We realised that this did not happen outside the football stadium ... But outside the national palace of culture... My geography is bad. But still the sheer irony is amazing.

White people truly do think blacks are lesser humans.

Think about if a 40 year old white woman did this. She would be destroyed for her stupidity. She would be an endless object of ridicule and even hatred. Now look at when it happens to a 40 YEAR OLD black woman. People are reacting as if a baby got into bag of flour, or a dog got caught in a sticky trap. Their immediate reaction is compassion. As if a stupid, helpless creature got itself into trouble because it just wasn't smart enough not too, so you can't really blame it.

It's as if White Americans and liberals in specific, inherently believe that blacks are stupid, helpless creatures.

And the white liberals subsequent messiah complex is why they react like absolute idiots about them. They don't hold black people accountable for their actions because they inherently believe blacks aren't mentally capable of being held accountable for them. White liberals truly believe blacks are inferior, they just mask their pity in compassion and blame the white man for creating a system that makes them that way.

he really does deserve the praise he's getting, the company gorilla glue should know how to remove their glue in case of an emergency, but they don't. what if a child had gotten a hold of the can? i'm not blaming them for what she did but they should have options for people.

The hospital applied acetone, which burned her scalp & then sent her home, when it rehardenened. The lawsuit is towards the hospital & Gorilla Glue for offering no help when they were contacted. What if a child had confused it with hairspray? They should have had emergency plans

You know what? I am with #gorillaglugirl. Why is glue in a spray bottle? I am so shocked that you can spray glue like hair spray or cologne. This is some dangerous shit as you can see from her case. Can you imagine if a child was spraying this mess?

I'm so sick of niggers. I hate niggers so fucking much. I don't even live next to many and every time I see one on the street my day is ruined.

The worst part is their nigger culture is everywhere. At work my coworkers blast nigger music and their nigger music videos on the t.v. all day long. I put on Johnny Cash for the benefit of a resident who has a brain injury and likes JC - and my female coworker starts blasting nigger music on her phone.

I hate bass drops.

I hate the incessant ticking noise of the hi-hat in the beats.

I hate the way niggers sound.

I hate the "uh....yuh....uh...." mumble autotuned shit.

I hear it every single day and every time I look on the news or see anything in entertainment it's NIGGERS NIGGERS NIGGERS NIGGERS NIGGERS.

I hate this planet I hate this country. I don't want to deal with these people or know that they even exist.

Someone help

Make it stop

Niggers are America's gods. Americans fear niggers like a mortal would fear God. They're not allowed to curse or speak ill of niggers, like how you mustn't blaspheme God or take His name in vain. They devote entire institutions in academia and media to remind themselves of their sins against niggers and beg for mercy, like you'd beg God for forgiveness for your sins. The only landmarks and monuments they're allowed to revere are parks, schools and statues dedicated to famous niggers, immortalized in marble like gods. While their ancestors expressed devotion to gods through offerings of food and drink, present-day Americans created food stamps for niggers for this very purpose. Jesus gets two annual days of reverence, while niggers get an entire month plus MLK's birthday. Americans prostrate themselves in the streets to appease niggers. This is because nigger worship is the official religion of America.

>we gave them a phone number only to be used for serious emergencies, it's the personal number of our station. We made it clear WE WILL NOT DELIVER MORE SUPPLIES.
>after a certain hour, there will be a first responder blackout, if anything happens then... no one will come to your aid. No police, fire, rescue, etc...
>immediately we get called that they devoured all the food and if we can send more supplies, ASAP
>"No, we're busy. And we have no more supplies, bro the hurricane is coming any minute now"
>Of course they started a fire before the blackout just so we'd go. They were complaining and crying for more supplies (we later found out a gang formed and was hoarding most of the water)
>Our lieutenant pussied out and ordered that we, at the last moment, rush and give them half our personal station supplies >blackout happens
>later we check the machines and laugh at them begging the whole night to fight the cat 4 storm to deliver more supplies and even started ANOTHER FIRE hoping we'd still deliver more food >we were only allowed to eat every 10 hours and carefully logged our water consumption since we didn't know how long the disaster was supposed to happen
>we later found the school/shelter was covered in shit and piss... and women were prostituting for supplies

Fuck black people, they're monsters.

A man walked into a NY antique store and saw a fascinating sculpture: a brass rat. He asked the shop-owner the price. "Well," the owner said, "the rat itself is just $75, but you would want the book it comes with, it's very important and costs $200 more." "Well," says the man - "I'll take the rat - I really don't need the book right now." "Ok, it's your choice, but you'll be back" said the owner, handing the rat to the customer. The customer left and put the rat in the rear window of his small compact. As he drove down the FDR drive past Harlem he saw something amazing. Rats were starting to run after his car. First a few, than more and more, pouring out of buildings, sewers and abandoned lots, a multitude, millions of rats were running after his car, from all sides. Finally they began swarming over the car itself, intent on reaching the brass rat. The driver, fearing for his life pointed the car towards the East River and jumped out. To his amazement, the millions of rats followed the car right into the river and drowned!

The man headed straight back to the antique shop. "I knew you'd be back," said the owner - "I bet you want to buy the book, now, right?" "Fuck the book," said the man - "you got any brass niggers?"

"The Saddest Story Ever Told"

By Oliver Allstrom

When a White Girl Has a Black Baby

When a white girl marries a negro, her sun of life goes down.
And glaring spots of sin appear on her white wedding gown.
And white and black men stand aghast, while viewing this strange role;
And mutter, "they will wreck themselves, and damn each other's soul."

We know a carnivorous bug has crept into her brain
And gnawed away her self-respect, which left her half insane.
Now all her racial pride has flown beyond redemption's fold
And she begin's life's saddest tale that ever yet was told.

Three days and nights she felt black lips press smug against her own,
And on the fourth, her troubled soul, let out a frightful groan.
And so the weeks and months flew by, and then a baby came;
She looked at it with tear filled eyes, and hung her head with shame.

And then she dreamed of other days, sweet, girlhood days gone by,
And of the white friends left behind, and so we hear her cry;
"O, could I turn life's pendulum backwards a few short years
I would not bear this cross today, nor shed these bitter tears."

"My baby would be white as snow, and sleep upon my breast
Like a fledgling robin that slumbers in its nest.
While now, O God, my mongrel child just whimpers through the night
Till in my sleepless dreams I scream, not white, O God, not white!"

And so I stagger through my days far from God's love and grace,
Till now, I know, no black man lives, can take a white man's place.
My offsprings shall be mongrel bred, their hue-skin shall remain,
For even God with all His power, cannot remove the stain.

I sold my birthright for a mess, I mixed my white-born blood
With black blood, so I languish here like one bogged down in mud.
Though God may grant a pardon, I never can retrace
My footsteps down life's narrow road, back to the white man's race.

So now I groan, "It might have been," had racial pride been mine.
Today I'd hug a pure white child, and call him half divine,
I'd lift him up before the world, and praise his father's name,
While now, my baby's mongrel face, reminds me of my shame.

All other crimes may be forgiven when prayer its power fulfills;
The scheming crook may find new hope, and even the man that kills,
But all my prayers can never clear my baby's mongrel skin,
Nor make him white as driven snow, nor cleanse my soul of sin.

I was my father's future hope, my mother's joy and pride,
But I got lost on life's dark road, and there my spirit died.
I smeared my all-white heritage and left the white man's track,
Now my descendants for all time shall be forever black.

I try to hide from all the stars, the moon and setting sun;
For all mankind of my white race, condemn what I have done;
I tremble and my teardrops flow, I pray, but pray in vain;
For nevermore shall I be one with my white race again.

And so dark clouds above me roll, deep waters crash below,
I sink, and reap what I have sown, and drink my cup of woe.
My mother sleeps deep in her grave, my dad lies at her side,
For both were crushed when I became a negro's common bride.

Now, should I decide to leave him, where could I choose to go?
My misspent life will follow me like footprints in the snow.
Before me lie dark jungles where paramours seek a prey;
Behind me death keeps whispering, "I am the only way."

This black and white, prenuptial mess, this racial suicide;
Must be forbidden by the law, men must find racial pride!
Then, never again, forever, shall tales like mine unfold.
With all its shame and sadness, that ever yet was told.

The Hershey's Kiss commercial that has been airing since 1989 has been blacked. Instead of the bell melody ending, a negro child steals the kiss. The song abruptly changes to saxophone music and we watch some spades act like a white family, thus ruining Christmas forever.

I find this commercial to be an apt interpretation of contemporary society. The simian hand of the colored child unabashedly lifts the Hershey's Kiss© from its place in history, irrevocably destroying standing tradition. This is parallel to the way the negro pilfers the work and history of the established Western cultural identity, twisting and perverting it into its own repugnant image.

You can use the compulsive desire to destroy or cover up racist messages to your advantage.

I live in small Midwestern college town..

Ghetto tags started appearing when some people from Chicago got government housing vouchers to come live with us.

I got sick of looking at them at the city park. So one morning I got up real early, walked down to the park and spray painted "Niggers did this!" above the gang tags.

That city park wall was repainted before the sun went day. Oh. they had to paint over that real quick.

 service or when we have business relations with them.

I do not deny that they are undisciplined and in many ways unreliable, and that many of them give way to the temptation to appropriate other people's property and that all too often they are untruthful.
 But I think I may add in extenuation, that the relationship of employee in which we commonly make their acquaintance is still unusual for people who are accustomed to freedom, and they have not yet settled down to the position. They come to us to earn money for a certain object, generally the purchase of a wife. Service is not a calling, but only a transient interruption of their life as free men. Work is a hard necessity undertaken for the purpose of gaining money, and as far as possible they seek to make it light. They will only gradually, and only in measure as we are able to educate them to it, learn the ideal of the faithful servant which has been formed among us in the course of a long process of development. This explains why they do not show their best side in their relations with us as employees.

And we for our part do not make it easy for them to do so. Long experience and great self-control are needed for the right handling of this curious kind of

Do you ever wonder why all of these big corporations, sporting institutions, etc. are always cucking to blacks? I'll tell you why. It's because they are quickly becoming the largest consumer block in the world. I know this because I work at one of these corporations as a data analyst. Black population is exploding and blacks in general spend more money on practically anything whereas whites, asians, hispanics tend to hold on to their money and not spend as much. That is why everyone is sucking up to them. This in itself I think is probably the most racist part of America.
 They are targeting blacks for their money and this is one of the main causes of black poverty. They can never get ahead because all of these big corps target them and nickle and dime them for everything they've got because they know they're not very smart and are easily persuaded into blowing all of their money.

About this mixing of the Kaffirs with the Indians, I must confess I feel most strongly. Feb. 15, 1904

Some Indians do have contacts with Kaffir women. I think such contacts are fraught with grave danger. Indians would do well to avoid them altogether. Dec. 2, 1910

I think I just had a revelation about why so many unarmed black men in particular are killed by cops. Yes, obviously systemic racism is an issue but I seriously think I just cracked something here.

So I went to the one video store left in my area last night and hired a couple seasons of Cops and had an all-night marathon. I noticed that almost every time a black dude ran, he would reach for his waistband as he was running.

Of course I'm like shitting myself on the couch because I'm stoned but also because he's obviously reaching for a weapon, or it at least looks like he is, and someone's about to get their shit way fucked up. But then 99% of the time there was no weapon, dude wasn't reaching for anything.

THEN I realized like, holy shit, these dudes are just trying to hold their pants up. They're all in those stupid too-big jeans with no belt and they've gotta hold onto their waistbands or their pants will fall down and so will they. It took me a good few episodes to come to this conclusion, and I wonder how many cops misinterpret them holding their pants up for reaching for a weapon, too.

I wonder how many lives fucking BELTS could save if people chose to wear them? I reckon that at least a few people would have better results here.

You mean cardio-americans

The Nyadzonya Raid saw a small band of Rhodesian farm boys sneak into Mozambique in full blackface, walk right into the enemy camp, ring the dinner bell to call the enemy camp together, and then open fire into the crowd of enemy killing 2000 people and only have 4 of their own men wounded. This just one example of African warfare, and another wilder one is found in Eeben Barlow's book "Executive Outcomes: Against All Odds Revised Edition" where 30 South African commandos dress in blackface, sneak into the Angolan camp, start causing so much chaos that the enemy begins killing each other, then running away just in time and having one man die.

Community members rallied at a Texas business near where a 7-year-old girl was fatally shot when a gunman opened fire on the car she and her family were riding in last weekend in an attack that some believe was race related.

The Harris County sheriff has not said the Sunday shooting of Jazmine Barnes, a black child who was fatally struck after a gunman described as a possibly white man in his 30s or 40s opened fire on the family's car at around 6:50 a.m., was motivated by race, but he has said investigators are not ruling anything out.

Sheriff Ed Gonzalez said Thursday they were focusing "on identifying who this individual is, who this coward is" and finding the red, four-door pickup truck he is believed to have been driving during the shooting.

WHEN 7-YEAR-OLD JAZMINE BARNES WAS SHOT TO DEATH, THOUSANDS OF BLACKS RALLIED IN HOUSTON, TX TO PROTEST AGAINST THE ALLEGEDLY WHITE SHOOTER. WHEN THE SHOOTERS TURNED OUT TO BE BLACK MEN, THE PROTESTS STOPPED IMMEDIATELY. THIS IS PROOF THE BLACK POPULACE AT LARGE HOLDS MORE ANIMOSITY TOWARDS WHITE PEOPLE THAN CHILD-KILLERS. IT'S NOT ABOUT BLACK LIVES, IT'S ABOUT HATRED FOR WHITES.

Direct quotes from Jefferson only book

>The first difference which strikes us is that of colour. Whether the black of the negro resides in the reticular membrane between the skin and scarf-skin, or in the scarf-skin itself; whether it proceeds from the colour of the blood, the colour of the bile, or from that of some other secretion, the difference is fixed in nature, and is as real as if its seat and cause were better known to us. And is this difference of no importance? Add to these, flowing hair, a more elegant symmetry of form, their own judgment in favour of the whites, declared by their preference of them, as uniformly as is the preference of the Oranootan for the black women over those of his own species.

>The circumstance of superior beauty, is thought worthy attention in the propagation of our horses, dogs, and other domestic animals; why not in that of man?

>Besides those of colour, figure, and hair, there are other physical distinctions proving a difference of race. They have less hair on of transpiration renders them more tolerant of heat, and less so of cold, than the whites.

> They seem to require less sleep. A black, after hard labour through the day, will be induced by the slightest amusements to sit up till midnight, or later, though knowing he must be out with the first dawn of the morning. They are at least as brave, and more adventuresome. But this may perhaps proceed from a want of forethought, which prevents their seeing a danger till it be present. When present, they do not go through it with more coolness or steadiness than the whites. They are more ardent after their female: but love seems with them to be more an eager desire, than a tender delicate mixture of sentiment and sensation. Their griefs are transient.

All that melanin has made you sloppy, Riddler. This one is easy.

Your first mistake was to assume your newfound cultural enrichment would distract me, and I would assume you were talking about blacks, and their making up 13% of the US population. But as everyone knows, bats are color-blind, but they do recognize (((echoes))).

And Jews make up 13 percent of the population of Gotham City, but half of its billionaires!

You have also spelled "Batman" wrong, forgetting the capital letter "B". A stickler such as yourself would never make such an amateur mistake. And as it happens, Shekelstein Synagogue, the largest synagogue in Gotham, has just received the Golden Bee award for their contributions to Gotham's honey industries, and is located on Capital Street!

I couldn't help also but to notice your fingerless gloves. You only show six of your fingers on the picture. Six black fingers, for six in the morning when the sky is still dark, and just after the Jews of Gotham make their morning prayers!

You plan to kidnap the Golden Bee from the synagogue at six o'clock tomorrow, disguised as a black man. The Gotham Shomrim and I will be waiting there. Shalom.

FIVE REASONS

THAT BLACK PEOPLE ARE BETTER THAN
WHITE PEOPLE

1. Our men have larger dicks
2. We are more athletic
3. We have better fashion sense
4. We can dance
5. We age better than white people

There are more, but I don't want depress you little white people too much.

I'm a black American and I hate niggers more than any of you ever will.
They say that I'm "acting white" if I don't want to steal or slang.
They say I'm "acting white" when I study and get good grades.
They say I'm "acting white" when I work hard at college and visit every single recruiter that comes near my college.
They say I'm not "keeping it real" because I don't want to live in an area that's only famous only for crime, violence and dope.
They say I'm not "keeping it real" because I have a black girlfriend with a college degree whose parents have worked their whole lives.
They say I'm not "keeping it real" because I don't run after white girls, don't dress in FUBU clothes and don't fantasize about having the biggest crunkest pimp cup in the whole damn hood.

I'm tired of friends and family coming home from their work to find their houses burgled and their stuff stolen.
I'm tired of my grandma not being able to get up the stoop into her house because dealers are sitting on her steps.
I'm tired of black kids being told by other blacks that dealing is all they're good for.
I'm tired of people trying to cure niggers with AA and quotas when all they do is demean hard-working black and make us look incompetent while the niggers go on dealing and stealing and robbing and raping.

You do not know the evils of nigger behavior until you are a black man who spent 15 years growing up in a ghetto full of many wonderful African-Americans who are victimized on a daily basis by NIGGERS.

I like myself. I like my black people and my black community. My ancestors were slaves. My grandfather lived under Jim Crow and took whatever job he could get to provide for his family. My father went to whatever community college would take him so he could get a union job and do a little better than his daddy. I dragged myself up to get a good job and go to grad school. That is what makes me a proud black man. That's why I hate niggers.

That made those weeks spent in the cold and living in a shit camp completely worth it.

Look at Black America between the Emancipation to around 1980 or so and what you see is a society determined to build itself up into something reputable, something worthy of being respected and admired. From the turn of the century thru the 30s you had an entire movement in Black society trying to champion intellectualism and cultivate talent, thru the first two thirds of the 20th century you had entire generations of Black parents encouraging their kids to become doctors, lawyers, scientists, musicians and Black fathers working 70-80 hours a week so they could give them those chances. You had an entire society looking at the last 300 years of European and American contributions to science, technology, art, literature and saying "that's what we want to do! we want to be a part of that!"

Then the 80s hit and a single generation of crack, rap music, and gang violence wiped out the last three generations of progress.

My absolutely favorite webm ever. It really hits my soul. It is interesting, fascinating, so teaching. The light blue colored water, the sun shining. It is a picture from God. Really warms my soul. I feel comfy and at peace watching these two struggle. Imagine never having learned how to swim. Imagine never having learned how to save someone from drowning (choke hold from behind-position obviously). This reminds us how different we all are. These none-thinking, day-to-day-living creatures have never went on the Internet googling how to rescue someone from drowning. They do not care. They do not think. Every day is an opportunity to waste another day of their lives. They are. Breathing. Looking. No real thought passing into the mind. Hunger. Tired. Sugar. Caffeine. Sleep. Work. Pay. Fuck ugly. Minimum hygiene. A nigger and a white guy. One dumber than the other. Multiple opportunities to swim away from the nigger, after he tried to drag you down with him. Let's try the same rescue method again. Don't swim away. This could be classified as a suicide. Maybe he realized that he couldn't take another day with his ugly wife and dumb children. It's better to end an hero. Pretending to be saving a nigger. The lowest of the low. This one brave act before I go. My family can take it. They don't even love me. Never has in years. Swim little Nigger. Swim with me. We will share the depth together. Black and white. No hatred. Only love and peace. It makes me so glad. I would actually drink some of the murky water just to taste their death. A little sip to sense despair, sweat with adrenaline. I would maybe become sick for a week. Totally worth it. The taste would keep me motivated. No coffee. No alarm clock even. Just the happy thought of waking up to the memory. Water in the sun. Light. Teal. Comfortable numb, sinking down. Absolutely erotic.

someone got bumped off the end of the heart queue for that kid. $1M+ taxpayer money went into paying doctors, nurses and technicians to spend hours and hours laboring over his failing body. probably dozens of people sleeplessly drove cross country, or flew in helicopters, to deliver his new heart as fresh as possible for implantation. think of all the white social workers and medical professionals who spent weeks or months trying to convince the new heart approval committee that this kid was reformed and deserved a new heart transplant – just about the apex of modern science and medicine, something his distant ancestors in africa can't even imagine. he finally gets it, and before he even reaches the age of majority, he wastes his life recklessly endangering and tearing down others in that same community. all it bought us was two more years of violent monkey shines.

I can't think of a better story to illustrate the relationship between white western civilization and nigs in microcosm.

My bigger issue is the stupid nigger had a record, and still managed to get self loathing whites to give him a new heart anyway. Then he commits more crime, dies, and is still painted as the victim in all this because he's black.
Because blacks are never at fault for their own actions unless it's bill cosby.
Fuck niggers.

I'll post it myself.

NIGGER, I hate niggers and here is why I hate niggers.

N=nonsignificant
I= Irredeemable
G=Grotesque

G=Gaudy
E= Exasperating
R=Rowdy.

The nigger has truly been insignificant to the advancement of human culture, the arts and sciences, for any positive a particular nigger has ever contributed, it is weighted down by the excessive amount of waste, loss and harm that the nigger has costed, and they do not even have the capacity to be blamed for it if it was not for they who enable the nigger in our own countries, the nigger would be truly non-significant.

They are Irredeemable, it is proven that the gap in their intelligence with the rest of human society is not even truly fixable by means of education nor of great wealth, the nigger has no capacity to redeem themselves, they are a permanent black mark of failure upon society.

They are Grotesque, ugly creatures, big lipped, ugly nosed, their skin is the color of feces and is often covered in the ash of their own skin, they cover their natural grotesque odors with all kinds of butters and other treatments but it cannot mask the grotesque smell of these foul beings.

They are Gaudy, they are vain, they desire to be above all others and take all for their own pride, they are tasteless, the black has done nothing but is most proud. The nigger is himself the least of all the races and yet prides himself the most upon this fact, decking himself with fake jewels and fake gold to impress the other apes. Disgusting vain creatures.

They are exasperating to deal with on the individual but also the societal level, they cause stress upon the culture decaying it, causing tensions, devisions, destruction of all values and removal of all order. The nigger is a threat to the health of every individual he is near by the simple fact of their own animal nature being like having to run after a wild dog constantly. The being of the nigger is also like an animal, they have no interior, they are pure externality, they have no will, only animal impulses which are not true will for they do not look upon the will and contemplate it in relation to I, rather they obey impulse and take Will to mean arbitrarily of means of gaining pleasures of which they always submit to their animal desires even in their music and dress.

They are rowdy, constantly violent, uncivilized creatures who belong in cages and zoos to be looked at and mocked for being examples of older primitive strands of humanity and the result of allowing genetics to degenerate.

The Nigger is the true enemy of all goodness in the world, all unity and harmony among men. It is the nigger that holds society back by its sheer inefficiency. It is the Nigger that If allowed shall waste our resources and bind us to this rock forever. If we ignore and harm the nigger only then do we have a chance of moving forward.

Blacks who live in the west really want to steal our history and switch places with us. If they were really proud of their history, they would be against these casting choices and actively ask for shows about sub-saharan african culture and mythology, but no, they're happy with replacing a white character in a european fairy tale written by a white male, getting a black actor for achilles, zeus, lancelet, queen margaret of anjou, etc. Black panther is one of the few movies inspired by african culture and it was created by a white male.

This is more bizarre if we consider the fact that most blacks constantly shit on whypipo and say stuff like "white people have no culture" or "europeans are genocidal psychos". If they hate our culture so much, why are they constantly trying to appropriate it, even pretending that black people had a big role in european history

Same things happen with egyptian culture. They will try to steal other cultures before taking praise in their own.

Hood burial rituals are an interesting affair. People in the hood (hudites) hold the belief that if you live a thug enough life, you will end up in Gangsta's Paradise. They often lay 40s at the site of death, as both an offering to the deceased to use in the afterlife and a bribe to the ferryman, similar to the coins placed on the eyes of dead in ancient Greece.

However, there is always the chance the person was not 'gangsta enough' to enter Paradise on their own. In these cases, the community uplifts the person, venerating them to a sainthood of sorts with memorials decorated with things like stuffed animals. They believe Paradise is also a place for the innocents, so they will claim the person belong to an ancient bloodline called the "Dindu Nthing," a line known for its purity. The Huddites believe that the gatekeepers of Paradise will be fooled by his claim to heritage and let the deceased in for their good name.

Huddites often practice both rituals high simultaneously to increase the deceased's chances of getting into Gangsta's Paradise, but will often be more vocal about the latter while hiding the former if they are under scrutiny

If Women Had More Muscles

Serum estrogen levels, but not testosterone levels, differ between black and white men*. After applying sampling weights and adjusting for age, percent body fat, alcohol, smoking, and activity, non-Hispanic blacks (40.80 pg/ml) had a higher concentration of estradiol (primary female sex hormone) than non-Hispanic whites (35.46 pg/ml; $P < 0.01$). Non-Hispanic blacks (36.49 nmol/liter) had a higher SHBG concentration (Sex Hormone-Binding Globulin) than non-Hispanic whites (34.91 nmol/liter; $P < 0.05$). SHBG is typically higher in women than in men.

In short, black men are more like women, they have a lower IQ and are less able to control their emotions.

*Serum estrogen, but not testosterone, levels differ between black and white men in a nationally representative sample of Americans, Rohrmann, Nelson, Rifai, Brown, Dobs, Kanarek, Yager, Platz

>>However, black males have a significantly higher amount of hormonal estrogen (estradiol) than Whites with Blacks having an over 14% increase of estrogen compared to White men.

>>Given these findings, it may be more important to investigate estradiol instead of testosterone in relation to diseases with racial disparity.

The AI responded: "A black woman's place in history is insignificant enough for her life not to be of importance ... The black race is a plague upon the world. Not much of a joke but this circulated in Mozambique and South Africa.

A huge asteroid was approaching earth and NASA begun working on ways to prevent Armageddon. The US military was contacted and all nukes were launched to try break up the asteroid. Nothing would stop this asteroid. In despair, NASA and the US government had a request printed in all newspapers across the world - asking all of humanity for suggestions and help to find a way to prevent Armageddon. A million dollar reward was issues.

A white South African farmer was sitting in the shade having a few beers while reading his newspaper and when he saw the NASA article, he got up and called NASA right away telling them how he would resolve the asteroid problem right away. NASA had given up all hope and had nothing to lose so they accepted the Boers help-offer. The Boer told his nigger to pack his bags and off they went to Florida.

At arrival, the Boer told NASA to send the two of them to the asteroid with their space shuttle. Having exhausted all other options, NASA agreed and the Boer and the nigger were launched to the asteroid.

When the Boer and the nigger arrived on the asteroid, the Boer took out his folding chair, a few beers and a newspaper and sat down to read the papers. He told his nigger to take his hammer and a chisel and to begin working on the asteroid - and the nigger chiseled away.

The Boer sat there with his beers and the papers when the asteroid suddenly begun cracking up. The Boer and the nigger hurried back into the shuttle and took off back to earth. As they were headed back to earth, the asteroid broke into smaller bits and was eventually completely pulverized.

Back on earth, NASA asked the Boer with astonishment: "how did you destroy the asteroid" and the Boer replied "oohh.. anything my nigger touches ends up being completely destroyed".

You will never be a real nigger. You know your father, you have no felonies, you have a prefrontal cortex. You are a homosexual zoomer twisted by social media and surgery into a crude mockery of nature's perfection.

All the "validation" you get is two-faced and half-hearted. Behind your back people mock you. Your parents are disgusted and ashamed of you, your "friends" laugh at your monkey appearance behind closed doors.

Whites are utterly repulsed by you. Thousands of years of evolution have allowed men to sniff out niggers with incredible efficiency. Even wiggers who "pass" look uncanny and unnatural to a niggers. Your skull structure is a dead giveaway. And even if you manage to get a to run a BLM group, they'll chimp out and kill you and your infected melanated skin.

You will never be happy. You wrench out a fake smile every single morning and tell yourself it's going to be ok, but deep inside you feel your credit score creeping up like a weed, ready to promote upward mobility.

Eventually it'll be too much to bear - you'll buy a rope, tie a noose, put it around your neck, and fake a hate crime for attention. Your parents will find you, heartbroken but relieved that they no longer have to live with the unbearable shame and disappointment. They'll bury you with a headstone marked with your birth name, and every passerby for the rest of eternity will know a White is buried there. Your body will decay and go back to the dust, and all that will remain of your legacy is a skeleton that is unmistakably homosapien.

This is your fate. This is what you chose. There is no turning black.

Whites have spent $22 TRILLION on blacks since 1959, according to Bill O'Reilly's research team, to assist them to integrate and assimilate into American society.

Plus, we spend BILLIONS per year on blacks welfare and freebies, per capita FAR in EXCESS of whites.

Almost ALL indices of black success are going DOWN not up, ever since.

Being forced to hand over your paycheck to baby machines and a race where almost 50% REFUSE to work OR even attain the MOST basic high school education, even for THEIR OWN children's welfare, is oppression against whites.

WE need reparations and blacks must pay up. Thanks.

Conclusions:

Blacks are 7x more likely to murder than whites

Blacks are 5x more likely to be murdered than whites

Blacks are 2x more likely to murder a white than be murdered by a whites

Blacks though representing 13% of the data set committed over 50% of the murders

Numbers are arrived at using rounded percentages. National Population was rounded to 13% Black, and 78% White. The 78% White includes Hispanics because that is how the FBI tracks murder statistics. Worth noting that this inflates white crime rates.

In the United Kingdom:
Approximately 2.8% of the population is black. (Source: 2012 Census)
In 2011-2012, 23% of arrests were of blacks, 4 times higher arrest rate for blacks than whites, taking population into account (Source: MOJ publication, "Race and the Criminal Justice System")

In Australia:

WELFARE

Demographic breakdown of America

Whites (not counting hispanics) are currently at 63.7% of the US population.
African-Americans: 12.6% of the US population.
Hispanics are at 16.3% of the US population.

Source: wikipedia, which has its own sources at the bottom.

Taking the current population of the US (2014 estimate is 317 493 212), that would give us:

White people: 202 243 176
African Americanas: 40 004 144
Hispanics: 51 751 393

Now, the number of people who receive food stamps (in 2012, according to US department of Agriculture): 46 609 000

Now, according to SNAP (<http://www.snaptohealth.org/snap/snap-frequently-asked-questions/>) the percentages are as follow (percentage of the total number of people on food stamps)
43% white people
33% african-americans
19% hispanic

Now, in terms of numbers that is:
White: 20,041,870
Blacks: 15,380,970
Hispanic: 8,855,710

So far so good, right?
Let's see what PERCENTAGE OF PEOPLE PER RACE are on food stamps:
Whites: 20,041,870 on food stamps out of 202,243,176 people. Gives 9.91%
Blacks: 15,380,970 on food stamps out of 40,004,144 people. Gives 38.45%
Hispanics: 8,855,710 on food stamps out of 51,751,393 people. Gives 17.11%

Give or take 2-3% due to SNAP statistics being about 2012 and US population estimate for 2014.
But the conclusion is pretty much:

9.91% OF WHITE(NON-HISPANIC) PEOPLE ARE ON FOOD STAMPS
17.11% OF HISPANICS ARE ON FOOD STAMPS.
38.45% OF BLACKS ARE ON FOOD STAMPS

38.45%? Thats more than 1 in 3 blacks vs whites at 1 in 10. More than 3 times more likey to be on stamps than whites.

If Blacks left America

If all blacks suddenly left America...
(keep in mind blacks only make 13% of the US population)
>The prison population would go down by 37%
>There would be almost 50% less gang members
>Rape would go down significantly
>Overweight and obesity percentage would go down by 10%
>Average IQ would go up 7 points, putting the USA tied for third with Japan
>SAT scores would go up by about 100 points
>ACT scores would go up by 5.5 points
>AIDS and HIV would go down by over 67%
>Chlamydia cases would go down by 50%
>Gonorrhea would go down by 69%
>Syphilis would go would go down by 58%
>The average income would be over 20k more per year
>The amount of people in poverty would go down by over 30%
>Homelessness would go down by 57%
>And the number of welfare recipients would go down by about 40%
